vs } Larceny from person John Hennessy }

City & County of New York ss

John Hennessy being duly sworn deposes and says that he resided at No. 227 South Fifth Avenue in the City of New York up to the time of his arrest. That he was arrested on or about the 10th day of December 1881 upon a charge of Larceny from the Person. That on the 17th day of December 1881 he was with the consent of Asst District Attorney Beecher, the complainant having withdrawn the charge discharged from custody.
That about two weeks thereafter he was rearrested on said charge and committed to the Tombs where he has been confined ever since. That the circumstances as to the Larceny are as follows: That deponent met the complainant on Courtlandt Street near Bway, who stopped deponent & inquired of him if he had a match, deponent gave him a match, and he struck the same, and found a piece of money he had lost, The complainant then asked deponent 0495 where he was going, and defendant told him to the Herald building. The complainant said he was going that way, and accompanied defendant as he was going to Fulton Ferry. On reaching Fulton & Beray he asked defendant to have a drink, which defendant accepted. The complainant and defendant had several drinks together, at this time we were both under the influence of liquor. Before leaving the saloon which was at Fulton & Beray (Spencers wine room) the complainant put his hand in his pocket & took out his money and asked me to count it throwing same upon the counter, I did not count it but put it together & gave it all back to him, we then had another drink and he again threw his money on the counter and asked me again to count it, I did so, and being under the influence of liquor kept the same. We then left the saloon, and when we got on the street he searched his pockets and missed the money and asked me for it. After a little wrangling he let me go and I started to run away, and in doing so was arrested. After being arrested and on my road to the police house, I put all the complainants money back into his over coat pocket.

Deponent further says that he is a butcher by trade, and has a wife and child dependent upon his support, said child very about five years of age, and had it not been for him being intoxicated he would not have committed the act charged against him.

Deponent in conclusion would therefore respectfully say that in view of the foregoing circumstances, his wife and child very dependent upon him, that the Honorable Court will deal as kindly with deponent as is consistent with the ends of justice.

John Hennefy

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. I believe him to have been a man of fair character, with a wife and children. He had been drinking to - gether and am not satisfied that he had any deliberate intention to take my money.
