Dear Sir:

I have your note of yesterday with the 25 excursion tickets enclosed. In returning the tickets herewith permit me to say that the request mentioned was never made by me and is a forgery.
It seems strange to me that such a forged letter should impose upon you after it has been repeatedly declared in the World's Columns that its Editor never seeks favours of the kind and the forger has been denounced.

I am making efforts to have the man arrested and an end put to the swindling annoyance. If he calls upon you again you will confer a favor upon me by handing him over to the police. They also that you will remember that I allow no one connected with the World to solicit free-passes under any circumstances and should anyone hereafter request tickets in my name or in that of The World you will oblige me by refusing them absolutely. Kindly acknowledge the receipt of tickets returned.

The People
Thomas Duffy (Before Recorder Smyth, July 16-1884.
Indictment for burglary in the third degree.

Charles Hoest sworn. I live at 1696 Third Avenue and keep a grocery store and have apartments back of it. I know this boy Duffy. I might have seen him before this affair, but did not know him any other way. On the 1st of July I was woke up a little after one o'clock by the barking of my dog and I went into the store. I found the defendant hiding behind some boxes lying flat on the floor. The dog was not fastened. I shut up the store that night and the doors were locked in front. When I got up the door was locked but the fan light was open. It had been shut and fastened the night before by a catch. Two nights before there was a stone thrown big enough to put the hand through the fan light, and that is how he opened it by putting his hand through the broken pane of glass. What did the defendant say? He said he was put up by two bigger boys who put him in and wanted him to open the door for them; he did not have his shoes on, but otherwise he was dressed. I told him to get up, he tried to get up on the show case. I got hold of him from behind and sent for a policeman, he tried to get up on the show window after he got up. One of the clerks came for a policeman and took him down to the station house. I had groceries and cigars in the store and they were worth about two thousand dollars. There was nothing disturbed.

I was present when the defendant was arraigned in the police station. I think he said he was put up by some boys that helped him through, that he should open the door for them. He told the same story to the Police Justice. Cross Examined. I should judge the light from the outside of that door to the pan light was from ten to twelve feet; there was no steps or ladder outside. I did not find when I was aroused by the noise the boy lying down just inside the door.
When you spoke to him did he not tell you that as he was going along the avenue two men met him and said that was their place and they lost their key and if he would allow them to put him up and go in over that door and open the door for them that they would pay him fifty cents? No sir.
The defendant did not have anything in his possession, for the dog frightened him right off I suppose.

Thomas Henry Swann. I am an officer of the 23 precinct and arrested the defendant on the night of the 1st of July in the store of the complainant. The defendant said to me that he was hoisted in the doorway by two other boys about 20 minutes before that when I was turning back on the end of my post I saw Thomas Duffy and two other boys on the corner of Ninety Fifth St. They were drinking beer out of a pitcher; when they saw me coming up they went down 95th St. into a vacant lot. Duffy had his shoes in his hand. That was about one o'clock. I knew one of the other boys by sight. What ward is this place in? The twelfth Ward.

Thomas Duffy, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I remember the night I was arrested. I was up in the house. I heard an alarm of fire and I walked about half a block and I met the two men - they were not boys - I did not know them; they were drinking beer there. They said, would I oblige them by opening the door, that they lived in the place and they would pay me for it, that they lost a key. I said, I could not get up to open it; they pushed me up, and as soon as they pushed me up I fell right in on the floor and then I laid there till the man came. He caught hold of me and asked me what I was doing there. I told him the men outside asked me to open the door for them, that they wanted to come in, they lived there and lost a key. I did not take or attempt to take anything that night in the store. Cross Examined. I live in 96th St. and Third ave. My mother is in Court. I could not see where the fire was. I met the men in front of the store. The officer did not see me on the avenue before that, for I was not there. He did not see me with my shoes in my hand, for they were brought to me next morning. I was lying on the sofa, it was too hot to go to bed. One of the men had a light moustache and a white derby hat and the other had a smooth face and a black hat. I saw the Hoest go in and out of that store, and I saw him in the store when I was buying something. The men said they were clerks there. I work in a beer brewing factory. Mary Fagan swore that the boy always lived at home and never stole anything. Charles A Harrington and Rose McCann testified that the defendants character was good. Officer Henry recalled. I know the defendant by sight for three months; he is to be seen day and night with the roughest boys on the Avenue. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty with a recommendation to mercy.
