Court of General Session

The People vs
John Logan }
vs

City & County of New York Co.

John Logan being duly sworn says, I am the defendant herein am 56 years of age and have resided at No. 175 First Avenue and its vicinity for the past thirty eight years. The past 18 years of which I have conducted a grocery at said address.

I was a private in the 69th Regiment of this City during the war in which I did active service and was honorably discharged at its conclusion.

I became a member of the General James Shields Post in the month of July 1879 and was elected its Quartermaster and Treasurer during the same year and remained such up to the month of January of the present year, a period of nine years.

during all of which time I performed my duties in conducting the financial transactions of said Post honestly and conscientiously, and received and disbursed a large sum of money aggregating thousands of dollars for it, as will fully appear by my books of account now in possession of the Commander of said Post, in my handwriting which is in all respects true and correct.

That during the time aforesaid I was conducting a lucrative business and was enabled to lay aside a comfortable sum of money, and also purchased real estate, and that the funds of said Post were depauperated by me with my private funds and mingled therewith.

That for the past several years I have suffered great misfortunes and reverses, my wife became sick and unable to attend to her household duties, and finally became a helpless invalid suffering with a cancerous disease so that I was compelled to devote most all my time in her care and expended a large sum of money in procuring skilled physicians to treat her. when she died leaving me with no income, my business ruined by my neglect, with six children to support none of whom had ever worked.

About this time I became sick and unable to conduct my business and for about two years thereafter was almost totally blind and that in consequence of said affliction my left eye is now sightless while the other is greatly impaired.

It was during this period that my own funds became exhausted, I was compelled to obtain medical treatment at the City Dispensary corner 3<sup>d</sup> Avenue and 23 Street, all to no avail. my health became completely shattered and I became disabled from doing any work to maintain myself or family.

I sought a purchaser for my property situate at Corona Long Island, which had cost me in 1872 $1200, and which had increased in value, and while negotiating for the sale of said property I was tempted to and did take to my own use some of the funds of said Post, feeling assured that I could be enabled to replace the same, this continued until all the money was gone & my store taken from me and I could secure no purchaser for said property at a fair and equitable consideration, my physical disabilities increased I was unable to help myself any further. And in the month of January last I informed the Post of all that had transpired and of my own volition offered to execute a deed of the property then held by me, by way of restitution which was accepted by said Post, and which deed of assent immediately executed and delivered to said Post which is now in possession thereof, and which property is fairly and reasonably worth much more than the amount of said defalcation over and above the incumbrance thereon.

And deponent further says, that every dollar of said fund, was used and expended in securing medical treatment for himself and to supply the actual necessities of life for his children and himself and that he never intended to deprive or defraud the said Post of its property or funds, but hoped to be enabled to meet his obligation thereto when required out of the proceeds of the sale of said property. That deponent is possessed of no vice whatever, and has never been arrested or convicted of the commission of any crime whatever, but has always conducted himself as a good and lawabiding citizen, with the exception committed as herein narrated.

Deponent further says that the checks hereto annexed aggre-gating $2237.<sup>00</sup> were the consideration for six lots three of which were conveyed to said Post as hereinbefore set forth, which were purchased in the year 1872.
