vs.

Court of General Sessions. Part I Callahan (Before Judge Martine. Oct. 6. 1891 Indictment for assault.

Lee Cheung sworn and examined; testified. I live now at 28 Mott street; on the 10th of August I saw the prisoner at 6 Doyer st. I was living there at that time. I went on the top of the roof, it was a warm day. I sat down to cool myself. Callahan came and tried to go in my pockets, he tried to put his hand in my pocket and I halloed "murder." Callahan took hold of me and threw me from the roof of No 9 Pell street to the roof of No 6 Doyer st. The distance was from ten to thirteen feet. I was hurt from that fall I could not get up. My left foot and ankle was hurt. The doctor came around and carried me away. I think my ankle is broken because I cannot walk. I went to the hospital down in Chamber St. I was kept there all night and I was taken home by my friends and I had a man to take care of me. I did nothing to the prisoner before he threw me off the roof.

Cross Examined. I did not go over on to No. 9 Pell St. and did not go down stairs from the top room. Nobody put me out of a room in 9 Pell St. and I did not run up on the top of the roof. I went in no room.

I always have to use a stick in walking the Dep. sworn and examined, testified I live at No. 6 Doyer St. I saw the trouble between the complainant and the defendant on the 10th of August. I was on the roof of No. 9 Bell St.; it was a little after nine o'clock in the evening. I was sitting there with another man, named Lung Lung. When I heard the cry of murder I followed Callahan down to his room, and I called a police officer.
 I saw Callahan take hold of Lee Chury and throw him on the roof.

Cross Examined. I went out on the roof of No. 9 Bell St.
 to cool myself. I and the other Chinamen did not go into Callahan's room, he did not put his out and afterward we did not go upon the roof. There is a kind of a ladder up from Callahan's door to the roof - it is only a few steps. I was very close to him when I followed him down. Lung Lung was with me. I saw Callahan run back in his room and he shut the door on me in my face. The other witness stood and watched Callahan's door while I went down for a policeman.
 I found the officer in Bell street. I was not gone long. I went into Callahan's room with the officer and he was arrested.

Patrick O'Connor sworn. I am an officer of the 6th precinct and arrested the defendant on the complaint of the Sep and two other Chinamen who called me up to the room on the 10th of August about 9.20 p.m. I was almost in front of the door 9 Bell st. when I met them. I went with the Chinamen into the rear building up stairs; two or three Chinamen were standing in front of the door on the top floor. I went to Callahan's room and the door was closed. I knocked and Callahan opened the door. The Chinamen pointed and said Callahan was the man that done it. I asked him if he had thrown the Chinaman off the roof. He said he did not know anything about it, and that he had not left his room. I saw the Chinaman who was injured on the roof of No 6 Dwyer st; the roof upon which he claimed he was thrown. After I took the defendant to the station house I went back, and the other Chinamen were bringing the injured man off the roof. They told me of his injuries, but I did not look at them. The defendant told me on the way to the station house that the Chinamen came into his room and he put them out and they ran up to the roof, that he closed his door and did not know anything more about it.

Cross Examined. I know Callahan five years and never heard anything wrong about him; his character was always good.

Larry Lunn testified that he was on the roof and followed Callahan down to his room.

Edward Hine testified that his place of business was 13 and 15 Dyer St., knew the defendant twenty years and always considered his character was good. Michael Quinn, who keeps a lodging house at 40 Mott St., testified that he knew the defendant six years and that his character for peace and quietness was good.

Martin Abbott testified that he was in the defendant's room on the night of the 10th of August. Two Chinamen came in about 9 o'clock; they came from the roof and Callahan asked them what they wanted. They spoke in "Chinese" among themselves and Callahan shoved them out of the door and closed it. Afterward an officer came and the Chinamen pointed Callahan out. The defendant did not go on the roof. I was in his room with him all the time.

John Callahan testified that he was in his room on the night of the 10th of August, that two Chinamen came in, he ordered them out and when they did not go he put them out. I did not go on the roof and did not leave my room till the policeman came.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of assault and battery.

a box of cigars which he had in the room. We informed the police that our house had been burglarized.

Cross-examination:

We have six rooms on our floor. The door of my apartments opens into the hall. There is a door from the hall leading into the street. There are shutters on our windows. They were not fastened. I don't know whether I closed the shutters or whether my husband did.

BERNARD JONAS, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a cigar-maker and live at No. 617 East 15th. St. I lived there on the 24th. of August last. The individual last on the witness stand was my wife. On the early morning of the 25th. of August when I woke up I found several articles of jewelry and a box of cigars which were in my premises on the night before were missing. All the doors and windows of our apartments were carefully closed before we went to bed on the night previous. The value of my watch and chain was over $30. I had $10 in bills in the pocket of my trousers. The box of cigars was worth $2 or two dollars and a half. I hung my trousers on a chair near the door. They were missing when I woke up in the morning. I paid $9 for the chain and have had it five years. The watch cost me $22.

The prisoner withdrew his plea of not guilty and pleaded guilty to burglary in the second degree.

Examination Before Judge Hogan
May 27 1891

For the Defendant Mr. Stines

Theodore Palmer the complaining witness being examined by the court deposes
and says:

Q Where did you meet this woman
Fleeny Ross

A I met her at 248 Macdonough street by a gate where the steps come up the basement - about 6 O'clock

Q What occurred?

A She said "Don't you want to come down?" "Don't you want to have a good time?" I said
"I am a little afraid to go down there " she said "You need not be afraid - nobody will hurt you " I said "How much will you charge?" she said "Half a dollar " I said "All right she said "We will have a good time " and I went down stairs. and went in a back room. She unbuttoned my pants ready to get right into bed with her after I gave her half a dollar.

Q Did you get into bed with her?
 A Yes. I only took off my coat and vest - I did not take off my pants. There was no one in the room at the time until I was robbed.

Q When did you first see this woman?

A The first day I went to 21st MacDougal street. she was in the basement - There was three or four women there at the time.

2 - Where was this woman?

A - She was in the hall towards the front room

2 - Did you pay any money there when you went in?

A - To the first woman half a dollar.

2 - Do you know who gave kept the place at that time?

A - This woman

2 - How do you know?

A - One of the officers said she was the madam. - That is all I know. - I was never there but once in my life.

2 - Do you know which officer said that?

A - I do not know the officer there were three or four officers there. I had one witness who was afraid to come she said she was afraid of all feelings among the colored people

A About 7 o'clock the same evening. There was nobody there then. I did not go there any more after this second time.

Q Did you have any conversation with her?

A No Sir. He did not know I was watching her at all.

Q Are you positive that this is

The woman that you say was in that basement when you went in and to whom this Feeny Ross handed your money?

A Only two - This woman and Mrs. Mary

2 Or you say you could identify this woman in the dark hall?

A It was not so dark but what I could see - it was a hall that ran right through

2 Will you swear now that this woman stole any money whatever from you?

A She took the money.

Q Where the quarter.

A She did not take the money out of my pocket but she received it from the other woman. But in the way I tell you - The other woman was the one that took it from my pocket.

A No sir - in a little roll

A No Sir. I did not feel her hand but I missed it right away.

A Right away when I got away from her, buttoning up my pants. I missed it right away - I was excited.

A Not at that time. The other woman called Mary

Q You accused her of taking your money?

A Yes. I told her she had my money - she called for Mary

1 She went right out in the hall and after going out in the hall she came back to me to search her.

2 Did you see the money pass?

1 I could not see the money. I saw her hand.

2 Is it not all imagination on your part that this woman had anything to do with it?
