was about twenty minutes of six; that was the last time I saw him in the store. He was near the entrance to the cellar, which is just back of the stairs which lead up to the second story. There are windows in the rear of the store, but no door. There are two doors in the front, one leads to the store proper and the other leads to the stairway going upstairs. The defendant was employed in our store. I knew the defendant because he had been employed at odd times by truckmen to carry goods out of our store. About three minutes before this occasion the defendant came in and asked me for some money, and I gave him twenty-five cents to get a night's lodging. It was twenty minutes to six on the night in question that he was in the store. He was standing by the bins in which are contained leather, near the stairway that leads to the cellar. I didn't see him leave the store on that evening, nor did I see him after this first occasion. I was standing at the front entrance of the door when I saw him. John J. Miner closed our store on that night at about five minutes of six. I was in the front of the store at the time. I waited outside until all the employes had come out and I had no time saw the defendant come from the premises. I saw Mr. Miner roll down the shutters -- four iron doors -- and I waited until he had locked the door. I had a safe in the office in the back part of the store. On the night in question it contained $220 of my own individual money. This money was in the drawer in the safe.

I am not certain whether on that evening I locked the safe or not. On the following morning I saw the safe; it was open. I saw that the box had been rifled and that ^{the} contents of the box had disappeared. We have a safe in the cellar in which all our books of account are locked. On the following morning when I went to the store I went down and examined this safe and found that it had been opened. There was nothing missing from that safe that I know of. I sent word to the Police Station and an officer came and made an investigation of the premises. On the same day he arrested this defendant and took him to the Police Station. At the Police Court the Judge asked him if he would like to have a lawyer and he said he had no money to pay a lawyer.

CROSS-EXAMINATION:

- Q How long have you known this defendant ? A About five or six years.
- Q He frequently went into your place on business ? A Yes, sir.
- Q He was the driver of a truck ? A He was employed by different drivers.
- Q Did you ever notice anything particularly about his appearance during all this time ? A No, sir.
- Q Do you know other persons who know him ? A Yes, sir.
- Q Previous to this occurrence, or you knew of him, his general character was good for honesty ? A As far as I know.

- Q In what way were these bins arranged ? A They were arranged alongside of the stairway that led upstairs to the second story. In the rear of those bins there was a stairway which led down to the cellar.
- Q Who was with you when you closed up the place ? A Mr. Miner.
- Q What time do the employes leave there ? A Half past five.
- Q Can you tell us of your own knowledge that every one of the employes passed out of that door ? A I can. They went out at half past five, the employes from upstairs and these on the ground floor went out at the same time I did -- at about five minutes of six.
- Q When you last saw the drawer in the safe in which that money was, was it closed ? A I noticed that it was closed. I could not be certain whether the safe which contained this drawer was closed or not on the night in question.
- Q Do you usually lock all these drawers at night ? A yes, sir.
- Q When you came in the morning you found that $220 had been taken away ? A Yes, sir; that was the amount that had disappeared.
- Q How long before you left the store on that night was it that you saw this drawer in the safe ? A I don't know the particular time. Some time during the day.

Q Was that safe near the desk at which you stand ? A Yes, sir; within a few feet of it. I am quite certain that the safe was open at some time during the time, and I am not sure whether I locked it or not.

J O H N J. M I N E R, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a porter in the employ of John Campbell & Company at No. 164 William Street. It is my duty to lock up the premises every evening. I locked those premises on the 26th. of September 1890. I waited, as I usually do, until all the employes on the ground floor had left the premises. I then rolled down the shutters, locked the door and put the key in my pocket. I saw the defendant in our store a short time before we closed up. I had no further conversation with him than that he asked me for a chew of tobacco, and I told him I had none. I didn't notice where he went to, except he went towards the back of the store. I didn't notice his clothing or his shoes at that time. I am not able to say whether they were new or old. I am positive that I closed up the store at about six o'clock on that night and locked it. On the morning of the 26th. the defendant came in and asked my permission to go downstairs in our cellar. I allowed him to go, and I saw him come up and leave the premises. We have a vault in our cellar. I heard no conversation that took place at the time of the defendant's arrest. When I got to the store on the following morning I saw that the door of the vault had been pressed open. I also saw that the door of the safe was open and that a box containing money had been removed from the safe. The safe was in the store and the vault was down in the cellar. It was my business to carry the books from the store to the vault every evening. I did so on this evening, and I simply closed the door of the vault. I saw the defendant on the morning after this occurrence. He had on a new neck-tie, a new hat and some new clothes. I didn't notice the kind of a shirt he had on.

CROSS-EXAMINATION:

- Q Do you know that the defendant receives $4 a month pension ? A yes, sir.
- Q How long have you known him ? A Somewhere around ten or eleven years.
- Q Did you ever know him to be in any trouble before this ? A No, sir; I do not.
- Q Has he worked around those premises ? A Yes, sir; for different people.
- Q Where did you see him when you saw him first ? A I saw him in the front of the store and then I saw him walk back towards the rear of the store.
- Q How many men in the office besides Mr. John Campbell ? A There are two men.
- Q And there is a safe in that office ? A Yes, sir; the safe is very close to the desk which Mr. Campbell occupies Q Do you remember who left the store with you on that night?

A All the men went out of the store together and stood at the front door until I locked it, and then they separated and all went their own way.

W I L L I A M G A R N E R, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at No. 426 Pacific Street, Brooklyn. I am a salesman employed by John Campbell & Company, No. 164 William Street. On the 26th. day of September I was in their employ. On that day I saw this defendant in those premises at about half past four o'clock. His clothing was pretty old. At that time I told him that I had a pair of trousers, and that he could have the trousers if he would call around on Monday. I told him I had not seen him for some time and I asked him where he had been. He told me he had been working over in Brooklyn. I couldn't tell you where he went in the store after I had this conversation with him. I didn't see him after that until he was arrested. I remember receiving notice on the night of the 26th. at about a quarter of two that our store had been broken into. I immediately came over here to the store. I found an officer in charge. I went inside. I saw that the lock on the door had been broken open. I went downstairs and examined the vault and found that it had been broken open. I found the safe-door in the office open and a box which contained money was lying open on the desk. I found a ten dollar gold piece in the box. There was no other money left in it. This is the box in which Mr. Campbell kept his own private money. On the occasion when I talked with the defendant I asked him where he was going, and he told me he was going to look for work.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

Q When you saw the defendant, did you say anything to him about a pair of pantaloons you were going to give him?

A Yes, sir.

Q When you saw him on the morning after the burglary, did you say anything of that kind to him? A No, sir.

Q What time is this store opened? A At seven o'clock in the morning. I came over immediately upon being informed as to the burglary. The officer drew my attention to the different things which were broken, and I took particular notice of them.

✓ LOUIS W. SLOANE, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at No. 481 Waverly Avenue, Brooklyn. I am a teller in the East River Savings Bank at No. 3 Chambers Street. In September last I was one of the tellers. I saw the defendant in our bank on Monday, the 29th. of September. He was in there some time between ten and three o'clock. The other teller handed me the ticket-- what we call a deposit ticket -- containing an item of $100, and the name of William Fagan. I called the name of William Fagan for him to write his signature in what we term our signature book. The defendant came up to the signature book and attempted to write his name. He was so intoxicated that he was unable to write his name legibly, and so I told him we couldn't open his account. I turned to the other teller and asked him for Mr. Fagan's money and he handed me a package of bills which I took and handed back to Mr. Fagan. There was $100 in money in the package. If I am not mistaken it was in the middle of the day.

CROSS-EXAMINATION:

Q How long have you been engaged as a teller of the Bank ?

A About eleven years.

Q What was the first intimation you had from anybody about this occurrence ? A The officer walked into the bank and asked me if we had ever had an account there with William Fagan. I then looked the matter up and found the facts as I have stated them.

Q On what day was it that the officer came ? A On the 29th of September.

Q You have a number of depositors in your bank ? A Yes, sir.

W I L L I A M H A H N, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at No. 399 Pulaski Street, Brooklyn. I am employed by Campbell & Co. at No. 164 William Street as a clerk. I saw the defendant in our premises on the 26th of September at half past five o'clock in the evening. He helped me to put a few little things together and then I lost sight of him. I had no conversation with him. I am positive he was in our store on that evening. It is my business to turn out the gas every night. I didn't see the defendant leave the place.

E D W A R D J. L Y N C H, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at No. 238 East 109th. Street in this city. I am employed by John Campbell & Company. I was employed there on the 26th. of September last. It is my duty to take the cash box from the store and place it down in the vault. I did this on the 26th. of September. I saw the defendant in our premises on that evening. I didn't see him leave the store.

J O H N L Y N C H, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live in 54th. Street near Third Avenue. I have charge of the top floor of Campbell & Company's place at No. 164 William Street. On the 26th. of September I testify that all the persons employed on that floor left the building at half past five o'clock.

D A V I D M c G I N N I S, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live in Jersey City Heights. I am employed at No. 99 Park Row. I am a bar-tender at that place. I saw this defendant in my saloon on the 28th. of September.
He came in and shook a roll of bills in my face and told me to go to hell. He went out and I didn't see him after that. I am positive in my identification of the man.
He was in my premises at about eleven o'clock in the morning.

J O H N T. C L A R K I N, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a Police officer attached to the Fourth Precinct. I know the premises No. 164 William Street.
Those premises are on my post. I was on duty there on the 26th. of September 1890. At twelve o'clock I tried the door and found it open. The door had been locked when I tried it about an hour previous to that time. I shouted into the store three or four times and got no answer. I secured the services of another officer, went in and examined the safe and found it was broken. The vault in the cellar I also found open. I saw no person around the building. I examined the premises at about seven o'clock in the evening and found that they were locked.

J O H N C A N A V A N, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a Police officer attached to the Fourth Precinct. I arrested the defendant on the 2nd. of October at No. 105 Park Row. I asked him to go with me and he said "All right". We went through William Street and he says: "Where are you going?" I said: "I am taking you down to Campbell's -- No. 164". He says: "What for?" I said: "You were in there last Friday evening, and they suspected you of being in there and stealing some money out of the place." He said he didn't. I took him in the store and he was identified by several gentlemen in there. I went afterwards to 99 Park Row and also to the East River Bank, and secured the attendance of the witness from the Bank.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS, Part III.

The People
vs.
Abraham Stumpf.

Before Hon. Rufus B. Cowing, Judge.

New York, ^{Dec. 1st} ~~November 28th~~, 1890.

R A P H A E L F R E E D M A N, called as a witness, testifies: I am a manufacturer of coats, and carry on business at 96 Canal Street, and was so doing in August of this year, on the top floor, five stories high. On the night of the 30th of August I left the office about half past nine, leaving there my watchman, Myers; I don't know his first name. There was a door leading into the hall, and that door was closed when I went out. He locks himself in. There was no window leading into the hall. There was a scuttle, and that was secured; we always locked it. I left there that night eighteen cloth coats, and saw them before I left. They were worth $12.50 a piece, or something like $15.00; I do not sell them. The market value of the coats was $18 to $20. We do not sell coats there we make them up for clothiers. I got my price for the making. The next morning I went to the factory about quarter past seven. I found Myers running around and he says the coats were missing. I then went to the station house and made a complaint, and an officer was assigned to it. About a week after I saw the officer again about four o'clock in the afternoon, and we went to 95 Delancey Street in the evening. I saw Mrs. Zeltner there and Rebecca Zeltner. There was the officer and two or three of my men I took along. Lemberg was under arrest at that time and was with us. The officer knocked at the door and they told him to come in. About six of us went in. It was dark in the house; we went in the door leading from the street on the left hand side. We went into the room on the first floor. Mr. Stumpf was lying there, supposed to be asleep. The officer asked, Has any man brought in here a trunk, and the lady said, "A man has moved in this afternoon, and here is the trunk, and here is the man." The officer broke open the box, and he said "Can you identify that these was your coats?" There was eighteen coats in it, and nothing else.

CROSS EXAMINED :

I have been engaged in this business at 96 Canal Street three years and seven months. These were goods that were given me by a firm to work upon. The watchman Myers has been with me for four years. Myer was there that evening the 29th of August when I left at 9:30. Previous to the 29th of August I had another robbery in my place, and Myer was then in my employ. He slept there. When I came there the morning after the 29th of August the man was almost crazy. He told me that the scuttle was broken in and he found the coats missing. The coats were on the top floor and he was asleep on the top floor. There are two stairs, one leading to Elizabeth street and the other to Canal street. I immediately reported the robbery to the police, and officer Reap went with me to find the goods, and Femberg was with me at the time. We went first to a soda-water man. I don't know his name; they called him the Soda water man. Then Femberg says "If you let me free I will show you where the goods is," and then I and officer Reap and three more men went with Femberg to Delancey Street, no, it was to the soda water man, and the soda water man went with us to where the goods were. I do not know whether he went ahead or behind. I think he was in front. First off they took us to No. 3 Elm Street, and then to 95 Delancey Street. I did not know this soda water man. When I discovered where the trunk was I says to him, "I am 24 more coats short; if you know anything more about it, try and get the other coats". He says, "Be patient. Tomorrow morning I think I will try and get you the coats. I never paid the soda water man any money. Stumpf was in bed when we got to 95 Delancey Street. The officer told Stumpf to get up from the bed, and woke him up? Stumpf did not say anything at all. The officer asked the man where he got the goods and to whom they belonged, and he made no answer. He did not point to the soda waterman and say "That is the man that told me to bring the gse coats here in a trunk." I had no talk with Stumpf. I don't know whether he can talk English or not. Stumpf was undressed.

G O R G E S K Y M Y E R , called as a witness:

I was the watchman of Raphael Freedman on the 30th of August this year , at 96 Canal Street, this City. I remember the night of the 30th of August, the night of this burglary. I am still in Freedman's employ. I was left that night in charge of the top floor, and I slept there that night. It is an undivided loft. I know where these goods were that were stolen, when I went to sleep. They were may be as far as from here to the wall from where I slept. I went to sleep at ten o'clock, and had not been out of the place from the time Mr. Freedman left until I went to sleep. I locked the door, locked everything. The scuttle was fastened, and the windows. I woke up about five or six o'clock in the morning. I found the scuttle pried open. It was turned over, open altogether. Everything was broke; it was all torn open. The hooks by which it was fastened were broke; some were crooked, bent, others torn out. The goods were prepared to be finished the night before. They were as far from the scuttle as from here to the pen. They were near to the scuttle but far from me; they were between me and the scuttle. I was about ten steps from the scuttle. There was a big ladder going up to that scuttle. I slept sound that night.

R E B E C C A Z E L T N E R, called as a witness:

I live at 95 Delancey Street. Am single. We live on the ground floor in the rear, occupy two rooms. I live with my mother. The defendant came to my house the 5th of September, Friday morning, came in the morning I was present when he arrived. He said he wanted a room and my mother asked him where he lives and he said in Henry Street; I don't recollect where he said he was a locksmith and worked in 19th street. She rented him the room. He brought his trunk an hour afterwards, brought it himself. The police officer came at ten o'clock that night. I was not in the room when the officer came. The trunk was open when I came in. I saw coats.

C R O S S E X A M I N A T I O N :

I have two rooms at 95 Delancey Street. My mother and myself occupied one and we let the other. When Strumpf talked with my mother it was in the German Hebrew language. I understand it thoroughly. I remember the entire conversation, which I have given. I am positive he said he resided in Henry Street and had employment in 19th street. He pulled the trunk in by a rope; am certain of that. It was a pretty large trunk. There was no one assisting him. I remember officer Reap. The room was pretty crowded; I was so excited I don't remember exactly who was there. The soda water man was in the room. I don't know that he said anything. I am employed by Mackey, Duncan & Co, importers of delicatessen goods, have been there one year, am still there. I do not know the soda water man at the corner of Hester and Luddow Street, which would be three or four blocks from where we live.

M I C H A E L J. R E A P, (Police Officer):

I am an officer of the municipal police, ward man Eleventh Precinct, and this factory of Mr. Freedman's is in the Tenth Ward. I first saw the complainant the morning after the burglary, and had some conversation with him in reference to this occurrence, and went and examined the premises. I found the scuttle on the roof broken open. The two hinges that held it down were both broken. I found on the roof a wooden bar that was used for opening the scuttle, about 3 feet long, and there were marks of violence from the bar on the scuttle. I took the bar and fitted it into the scuttle. It had been pried open. I then went around five or six days and made inquiries. Weinberg was arrested, and Weinberg was taken to the stationhouse, and me and Mr. Freedman that evening went to the station house and got Weinberg, took him out of a cell into a back room and he finally confessed that if Mr. Freedman would let him go, he would show him where the coats were, and Mr. Freedman promised to let him go if he would show where the coats were, and about half past ten I took him out of the station house, he was going to fetch us where the coats were. We went to 95 Danacey Street and in a room on the first floor we found a trunk. When we entered we found Mrs. Zeltner, the mother of the last witness. The defendant was lying on a sofa, pretending to be asleep; he had his pants on, but not his coat or vest. When we entered Weinberg said, "That is the box" I opened the box and asked Mr. Freedman if that was his property, and he said it was,; there were eighteen coats similar to this and nothing else. Stumpf up to that time pretended to be asleep. I asked the lady who owned the trunk, and she said, "That is the man lying there," he fetched it in a couple of hours ago." I shook him a little, and he woke up, excited. I told him to put on his clothes and took him and the trunk to the station-house At No. 3 Allen Street that night he gave his name as Abraham Rosenberger, and the next morning in Essex Market as Abraham Stumpf. When Feinberg showed me the box, he got weak and kinder fell over on the sofa, and then this man, I understood he could not talk English, I got some of the people to ask him where he got this stuff and he would not answer any question at all.

C R O S S - E X A M I N A T I O N :

When Feinberg and the soda water man had some conversation it was conducted in their own language which I could not understand. The soda water man accompanied the whole of us to No. 3 Allen street. I had the prisoner with me and the soda-water man was right behind with Mr. Freedman and his foreman. After that the whole crowd of us went to 95 Delancey Street, the soda water man and the prisoner and the people I have mentioned. We went right in on the first floor. Stumpf was lying on a cot or sofa; it was not a bed, it was a cot. The lady's mother opened the door from the inside. Strumpf, when awakened, said nothing, nor did he point. He did not point to the soda water man. I arrested Stumpf and also Feinberg, but not the soda water man, because I did not think I was justified in arresting him; have never arrested the soda water man, there was no charge against him. I do not know his name and made no enquiries concerning him. His place is a short distance from Mrs. Zeltner's ; I should think about a quarter or half a block away. Stumpf gave the name of Rosenberger in the station-house. Somebody--I don't know who--spoke to him in the Hebrew language, at the station house and he gave the name of Abraham Rosenberger, and the next morning Stumpf.

Re-Direct:

There was no charge upon which I could base a judgment as to his guilt or innocence in connection with the crime.

RE-CROSS:

I made no investigation of the soda water man. I asked those people where they got the property and they never mentioned the soda water man at all.

R E B E C C A Z E L T N E R, recalled.

The defendant gave the name of Feinberg when he engaged the room from my mother I am sure of this. He said first Abraham and when he said his last name he said Feinberg

DIRECTOR N G E .

A B R A H A M S T U M P F, the defendant. (interpreted)

I am 20 years old, was born in Kovna, Russia. Have parents in the old country, in Russia. Have n sisters or brothers here. My business is bottler of soda water. All the time I have been in this country I have worked for one man; he lives in 18 Oliver Street. I have been in the country about a year This man's name is Louis Samuelson for whom I worked. About three days before I was arrested I went t the man who keeps a soda-water stand on the corner of Ludlow and Dolancey Street; his name is Heim, a countryman of mine, and I asked him if he knew where I could get a room. Well he said, "In this locality I am not so much acquainted, but on the corner of Dolancey and Ludlow they may give you a room. Friday morning I stopped work, I had time then and I went to hire a room. Then I went up to Heim and I told him I have time till 12 o'clock, and if you want to go with me you can to show me now where I can get a room. He says Why don't you remain in Allen Street. I said I don't like the room, it is the top floor and the elevator train is too much noise. Then he showed me where the girl's mother keeps the boarders and said one boarder moved out of that place and you can move in there, there is room, and then he said to me how did you get the information that I have a room to hire; then you shall not say that I sent you there, say that you know it from the soda-water man that moved away, the boarder that moved away was also a soda-water man. I went inside. The daughter was in one room, she was asleep in one room and the mother was in the other room and I met the mother. We agreed on the price of the room and I told her I had money with me. Here's what I give you, earnest money, and I have a box in 3 Allen Street; there is my trunk and I will go there and get my trunk. When I went out Heim told me, the soda-water man, he called me and said "Where are you going now?" I said "I am going to the boss and I will ask the boss for $2.00 more and then I will bring my own trunk here." Then the soda-water man said "You know what you don't go to your boss to ask for $2.00, I will give you $2.00 until after Saturday when you get your wages and you take in my trunk for 3 days only in your place." Then I said "Why don't you keep in your own place the trunk?" He said "I am looking for another place, a separate bedroom, and when I find a separate bedroom I will take the trunk away and if I don't find a separate bedroom I may move in the same place with you," -- then he went with me to about 137 or 135 Orchard Street, I don't recollect the number; he went up to the top floor and went into the house and then he went in a bedroom and he pulled out a box. In the room there was sitting an old man holding on his arm a baby. Then he put a bag on top of the box and fastened it with a rope and we both got hold of the box and we carried it away. When we came near his stand near the house where I got the room there were several persons there waiting for soda-water. Well, he said you take the trunk inside of the house yourself because I have no time, there are too many customers that want soda-water. Then I said I can't bring it up the stoop, it is too heavy. Well, then he said I will help you into the hall; so he helped the trunk into the hall and from there I carried it into the room. I dragged it into the room and left it there. Then I went back to my work and worked there till evening. When I stopped work I went back to my former lodging place and said I told you I would move and now I have found another place. I will not stay any more here. I changed my coat in my old quarters where I lived and I begged her to leave my box there for a few days. I told her I can't take it away only in two days, then I will take it away. Then I went to the place where I hired my new quarters, then I brought in a pint of beer and I and the landlady was drinking some beer and I went outside and I stood near Heim's soda-water stand. Then the girl, the landlady's daughter, was just going to the dancing school and I called her and said if she wants to take a glass of soda-water. She refused when I invited her and Heim said why don't you give me a chance to get in a few cents, this man wants to treat you to soda-water and I recommended you the lodger, I sent him to your house. She said Well, I won't drink any soda-water because I had beer, this man brought beer already in the house and I can't drink soda-water. Then I went back into the room and I went to bed. I worked very hard that day and I fell fast asleep. Then I heard a noise in the room and that noise woke me up. Then I saw several people standing there and Feinberg was fainting. He was sitting on my bed fainting and they were throwing water on Feinberg's head and I saw Heim, the soda-water man, also there in the room and I said to Heim, I got up from the bed and I say what is the matter here; then he said it is a very complicated affair, I couldn't tell you now, there is a question about coats, I can't explain it to you now, don't be afraid, it is nothing. Then I saw that they were asking the landlady and she pointed at me with her hand and I didn't know what they were talking about me; then I went to the detective and said to the detective this is Heim's box; then the detective pushed me away and said get out. Then I went away and didn't say any more. He said get out, sheeny, and then he pushed me away and Heim came to me and said dress yourself; then I dressed myself and was taken to Eldridge Street station and put into prison and since that time I have been in prison. When they brought me to the station house I was questioned but I could not understand what they were asking me. I was never arrested before. I knew Heim from home, he only lives seventeen werst from my place, about 2 miles. At the station house they were talking and I couldn't understand until he said name and I understood. I said Abraham. When I hired the room Mrs. Zeltner asked my name and I said Abraham. She said have you got another name and I was about to state the other name when the daughter called mamma and she left and ran into the room where her daughter was. That is the only name I ever gave. I told her I was working in Oliver Street, I didn't say in 19th Street.

CROSS-EXAMINATION.

My name is Abraham Stumpf. When I spoke to the police officer it was in my own language. He pushed me away and said get out, sheeny. I understood sheeny. I have been in this country one year. I lived at 3 Allen St. before I went to 95 Delancey and lived there one month. I am a bottler of soda-water; am 20 years old; was born in Russia; the whole time I have been in this country I worked at soda-water in one place. I don't work Saturdays. The Saturday before I was arrested I was in 3 Allen Street; I don't recollect the time I went to sleep. I slept with the boss on the roof because it was too warm in the room, the boss of the lodging place, Simon Laffer. I was in the same cell in the Tombs with Feinberg and was in the pen when he was tried. I never saw Feinberg before I was brought to the station in Eldridge Street and we were put in the Tombs together. We were there together till he was taken away. Heim told me to leave his box for two or three days and I couldn't bring mine because it was a very small room and the landlady wouldn't permit me to fill up the place with trunks. Heim didn't pay me anything for keeping the trunk; I did it as a favor. Friday there was no orders so I came very early to the factory and worked and so I was ready to go and look for a room. I am paid for the whole week $8.00; if there is no work he pays me for the whole week. In the Eldridge station when they asked my name I said Abraham Stumpf; when they asked me quickly what is my name I said Abraham. When I am asked what I call myself I say Abraham, that is what they call me generally. I never said anything about Rosenberger; I did not say to Mrs. Zeltner that my name was Feinberg. I did not tell Mrs. Zeltner that I was a locksmith and that I was living in Henry St., I said Allen Street. I gave her a dollar. I had maybe about 10 or 15 cents left. In the evening I had money; I got $2.00 from Heim. I haven't spoken to Heim since I was arrested.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS, PART I.

BEFORE JUDGE FITZGERALD.

Thursday, November 8, 1890.

Jointly indicted with Abraham Strumpf for burglary in the third degree, grand larceny in the second degree and receiving stolen goods.

RAPHAEL FREEDMAN sworn and examined.

I live at 191 Henry Street and am a manufacturer of coats at 96 Canal Street in this city; my premises are on the top floor and they are approachable from the roof through the scuttle, there is a ladder leading from that scuttle down to my floor; my premises are on the corner of Canal and Eldridge Streets. I closed up my premises on the night of the 30th of August and fastened the scuttle, I have a man sleeping in the place and I locked him in; his name is Meyer, he is in Court, he is a watchman; he was the only man that was left in the place; I returned to my place on Saturday morning at nine o'clock and found twenty-five coats missing; it was the first burglary that was done; the value of the coats was about three hundred dollars, they belonged to Browning, King & CO. and were in my custody, I never saw these coats after the morning of the 31st of August except one coat which I identified in the Police Court, Officers Reap and Harris were there; the coat now shown me is the one I identified as part of the first burglary. The prisoner was not in the Police Court then; I think the son of Mr. Aranske, Isaac, was there; the officer asked him where he got the coat and he told him from his father, we went to Mr. Blume's house and we found his father.

Counsel: I am willing to admit right here that the coat was taken from young Aranske and that he got it from the father and that the father bought it from Feinberg. We found Mrs. Blume moved the very same day after the second burglary and we did not find her but afterwards we found Mrs. Blume in 4th Street and the defendant Feinberg also. Mr. Aranske, the old gentleman, said to Feinberg, "you sold me that coat"; the defendant spit in his face and told him he did not know him and had never seen that coat before. Then Officer Reap and some other officers took Mrs. Blume and Feinberg to the station house. I think it was the next afternoon about one o'clock I went down to the cell. I had a talk with Mr. Feinberg, I told him I would not be hard on him if he would tell me where my coats were; I pledged him my word. ~~the Mrs. Feinberg told me if I should~~ ~~give him my oath before a Rabbi that I should not do any~~ ~~thing against him then he will show me where the coats is.~~ I told yes, I would do so; then I went and got a man whom I made believe was a Rabbi and Mr. Feinberg confessed; he says he done the burglary, that he had been in my place on the 30th of August and took twenty-five coats; the coat I identified here was one of the coats. We found the coats at 95 Delancy Street, I think it was the house of Mrs. Zeltner, there was a man named Strumpf there; an officer came with me to Delancy Street; the coats were lying in a trunk tied up ready to ship somewhere; I identified eighteen of my coats, that was the last burglary that was done. Feinberg said to me all the time, "don't be hard on me, don't take me back to prison and I will show you where the rest of the coats are." I get the cloth and the trimmings from Browning, King & CO. and I had them in my care and custody at the time of the burglary for the purpose of making them up.

CROSS EXAMINED.

I am responsible to pay for these coats. I did not tell Judge Hogan that there were three burglaries in my place. The coat I identify was stolen on the 23rd of August and the other coats were stolen on the 30th, eighteen coats. I did not see Mr. Feinberg in Mrs. Blume's house. I did not have any talk with Feinberg the night he was arrested but I did the following day in the station house; I spoke to him in the Jewish language. I did not tell him that an officer had a knife or a pistol and to be careful of what he said, I told him I would let him go if he would tell me where the coats were. The man whom I represented to him to be a Rabbi is in Court, his name is Castle Raphael; I brought him in there and I gave my hand to the Rabbi if Mr. Feinberg is going to give all my coats back then I would not do anything against him, I won't do anything against him, he will be free; this Rabbi is a well educated man. Feinberg did not tell me that he got the coat from a man who kept a soda water stand, he did not tell me that he would show me where the place was that he got the coat if I would let him out. The officer took him out of the cell and we went first to No. 3 Allen Street, the Defendant took us first to that soda water man, I don't know his name, we went after dark between six and seven o'clock, I had no talk with the soda-water man, I looked at him very sharp;

the soda-water man went with us to No. 3 Allen Street, I did not hear the conversation he had with the officer.

We found none of the coats at No. 3 Allen Street; then the soda-water man said, "let us go to No. 95 Delancy St. and we went there and got the coats; the soda-water man was not put under arrest; we got eighteen coats from the second robbery that were not finished at 95 Delancy St.

I did not see the soda-water man again until I saw him in the Court. Mr. Feinberg confessed that he done the first burglary. The Defendant did not tell me that he would show me the man and the place where he got that one coat. The counsel for the defendant told me to bring the officer and to go into the Tombs and bring the Defendant over to the Court and make a complaint against the received of stolen goods, the Counsel told me that this man Feinberg would testify that he bought that coat and that he had two other witnesses to prove it; the Counsel told me a good many things, he told me he would get my coats back if he could.

The Counsel did not tell me that he believed the Defendant was innocent. The coat now shown me is one of the coats I found in the trunk but the coat I saw in the station house was part of the proceeds of the burglary of the 23rd.

MICHAEL J. REAP sworn and examined.

I am an officer of the 11th precinct and arrested Feingerg on September 4th at 117 East 4th Street, I had some conversation with him in broken English, I spoke to him through an interpreter in the station house. I also arrested

Mrs. Blume, they were held next morning, I took them before Justice Hogan; Mr. Freedman and myself had several conversations with Feinberg and Mrs. Blume. I asked Feinberg where he got the stuff. He said there was a party inside in Mr. Freidman's place that told him about it and that he went and done it --- told him how he got in once through the window and once on the scuttle. He told me he got in through the scuttle on the top of the roof. I had recovered the property before I had this conversation with him; he spoke to me in broken English, I also talked with him in his own language through the interpreter which led me to go with 95 Delancy Street with him, I went to 95 Delancy Street and found a trunk and eighteen coats in it, Mr. Freedman was with me, he identified the coats as his property, I found the trunk in the possession of a man named Strumpf; the coat now shown me with a tag on it is one of the coats. We took the trunk to the Station House and the coats and brought Feinberg back with us, we took him to Court the next morning and the matter was explained in Court and they were held. I went to him two or three times and he would not recognize me at all, he shook his head and would have nothing to say. Then he had Counsel.

I examined the premises 96 Canal Street after this burglary was reported to the police. I looked at the scuttle and the catches on it were pried off, there is a ladder going up to the scuttle.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Feinberg spit in Aransky's face in 117 East 4th St. when Aransky went there with me and said that that was the man that sold him the coat; the conversation between Aransky and Feinberg was in a foreign language. When Mr. Freedman came to the station house in the evening he had a long conversation with him, they talked in the Jewish language and Mr. Freedman would tell me what he was saying, I had a conversation with Feinberg on September 5, the night he came out with me to show me where those goods were; he was a prisoner in the station house and had been remanded to my custody, I had a conversation with him after the goods were recovered, I had hold of Feinberg by the coat and Mr. Freedman was right behind. I asked Feinberg who done this and he told me that there was a person inside that told him all about it, that he was up at 21 Eldridge Street with Mrs. Blume and he told him how to get in on the roof of this place. He told me that in broken English. To the best of my recollection I think it was after I got the goods that he told me this but I aint certain. He fetched me up to Eldridge Street near Houston first and then he said he was wrong, then he turned back and he fetched me down to Ludlow and Hester Streets and then he said he was wrong, then he fetched me up to the corner of Ludlow and Delancy Streets to the a man who had a soda water stand. He called him one side and they talked in their own language, I stood alongside of him and had hold of him; they talked in the Jewish language, there was no English spoken at all; the soda-water man came along with us, he went along to No. 3 Allen Street with us, the soda-water man did not tell us he would bring us to No. 3 Allen Street; we went with Mr. Freedman to No. 3 Allen Street top floor where there was a lot of greenhorn boarders; I asked the soda-water man where this box was, he asked Weinberg where the box was; I thought the soda-water man had some knowledge about the missing goods. I did not go by direction of the soda-water man to 95 Delancy Street, the soda-water man gave me no directions, I had hold of Weinberg and he took me to the house, I went half a dozen places, I did not know where they were taking me, they were leading me on, I did not know whether I was right or wrong, I found eighteen coats in the trunk and the soda-water man was with me; I did not think for a moment that I ought to arrest him or get his name, he is here to-day, I had no conversation with him about this case. I did not see the soda-water man after I got these eighteen coats until I saw him in Court here; I told Judge Hogan that the soda-water man was along with us and showed me the place where the coats were. I did not tell the Judge that the soda-water man was one of the men that went with me to 95 Delancy Street to get the goods because it was not necessary.

0031

LEWIS HARRIS sworn and examined.

I am an officer of the 11th precinct police, I arrested Isaac Aransky on the 4th of September in the liquor saloon in Forseith Street for having one of the stolen coats in his possession; the coat now shown me is the one, I took him and the coat to the Station House. I had no conversation with him further, Officer Reap arrested Wolf Arnosky.

WOLF ARNOSKY sworn and examined.

I live 24 Orchard Street, I have seen coat No. I now shown me before, I work for Mrs. Blume carrying out coal; I bought the coat from this man the defendant and paid him three dollars for it.

CASTLE RAPHAEL sworn and examined.

I saw the prisoner Feinberg on the 6th of September last in the Court, I suppose it was the Eldridge St. station house. I am a teacher of the Hebrew language and they call me a Rabbi. I was introduced to Feinberg as a man with whom he might talk confidentially. Feinberg said "I will tell you the truth, Rabbi." "I have been three years in America; for two years I worked in Bacter Street; since a year I have been conducting myself badly, I am stealing, I had a hand in the stealing of Mr. Freedman's things but I was not alone, other people were with me." Then he said, "now I am requesting Mr. Freedman to swear before you, Rabbi, that he will let me go and then I will give him back all the coats that were stolen." Then Mr. Freedman gave me his hand and promised that he will do the best he can for the young man and he also (the Defendant) gave me his hand that he will tell me the truth about this affair. Then Feinberg said, "let me go free and I will bring the goods." Then Mr. Freedman said, "I can't let you go because you might be injured by the others if you go alone, I will go with you and take another man with me, we will go together." Then they left; then before going away the Defendant said to me again, "Rabbi, I remind you that I have to be let free." I did not ask him how many times he had been in Mr. Freedman's place and he did not tell me.

CROSS EXAMINED.

I am teaching Mr. Freedman's children and he talked to me in his room 191 Henry Street. On the way to the station house he did not say what he wanted me for, he only said, "come with me to the station house, and I went there; he introduced me to Feinberg. Mr. Freedman said to Feinberg "you can just rely on him as on a chief Rabbi. When the prisoner addressed me as a Rabbi I said, "my son, I am not a Rabbi"; Mr. Freedman heard the talk between me and the Defendant. The Defendant said to Mr. Freedman, "I will take you to the place where the goods are and you will get all the goods." I did not hear him say that he would introduce him to the man and show him the man that had the goods. What I heard was, "I will bring you to the place and give you the goods."

REBECCA ZELTNER sworn and examined.

Our address before we moved was 95 Delancy Street/ we are living now at 202 Rivington Street; on the night of the 6th of September last at 95 Delancy Street I saw the prisoner come in company of an officer; I did not open the door, when I came home the officers were in the room I came into the room and asked what happened and the officer told me that the man Strumpf who came to our house had stolen goods there; he just had come in the morning; the officer asked me how it happened that the trunk came to my house and I just told him the story. I told the officers that Strumpf came to our house in the morning about half past seven o'clock and said he heard we wanted a young man to lodge with us. So Mama says yes, she would be willing to take in a young man and she asked him where he lived; he told her he lived in Henry Street; she asked him what his occupation was and he said he was a locksmith working uptown. Mama said, how is it that you are leaving your former place? He said he was leaving it on account of wanting to be nearer to go uptown. Mama asked him when did he want to move in and he said, "right now, I will bring my trunk in an hour and you can see who I am." She said, "all right, you can bring your trunk." So he brought his trunk in an hour, it was wrapped around with a bag tied up. He brought it in and set it down and he paid my mother. He said, "now I must hurry up to work", and he walked right out. I was not present in the room when the officer opened the trunk, I was out with a friend of mine, I came in, I saw the trunk was open and the coats were in it. I did not hear any conversation between Feinberg and Strumpf.

THE CASE FOR THE DEFENCE?

CELIA GOLDSTEIN sworn and examined.

I live at 54 Orchard Street and am married, I am from the same city that Feinberg came from, I knew him all the time home and I have been here two years. Do you remember any night in September or August being at a soda water stand at the corner of Ludlow and Hester Streets and seeing Feinberg there? Yes, I was there with another lady Gussie, she is here. I saw that several persons were standing there, I think it was August 25, I talked with Feinberg and we walked along and passed a place on the corner of Hester and Ludlow; there were several persons standing there and one of them was holding a coat. Feinberg tried the coat on to see if it fit him; the other man asked eight dollars for the coat, Feinberg offered five dollars and they agreed upon that and he paid the five dollars; Feinberg went hisway and we went ours; I did not see him afterward. I do not recollect that the man now pointed out to me (the soda-water man) was the man who sold him the coat, I only saw the man once.

CROSS EXAMINED.

I fix it as the 25th day of August because on the same day I sent a letter home, I do not recollect what day of the week the 25th was, I sent a letter to Russia, it might have been Monday but I do not recollect. I met Feinberg on the corner of Orchard and Hester Streets, I never saw the soda-water man before, I don't know where he keeps his stand.

GUSSIE GREENBERG sworn and examined.

I know Mrs. Goldstein, I remember being with her in August at a soda-water stand on the corner of Ludlow and Hester Streets, it was in the morning about ten or eleven o'clock, I saw that a man came to this boy (the defendant) and the other man asked Feinberg if he wants to buy a coat, Feinberg said to Mrs. Goldstein, "if it fits me I will buy it." Then she said "if you can buy it cheap buy it." The Defendant said to Mrs. Goldstein, "he is asking eight dollars for the coat"; then the Defendant said, "I cannot give you more than four dollars." He went awy a couple of paces and the man with the coat called him back and said, "if you give me five dollars you can have the coat." He answered, "I will not give you more than four dollars"; Mrs. Goldstein urged him and said, "if it fits you, give him five dollars." I saw him pay five dollars and he took the coat. Look at that man and see if that is the same man (the soda-water man)? I think this is the man but I am not sure.

JOE BERGER sworn .

I live at No. 3 Bayard Street and am a carpenter; I know Feinberg about six months, I was at the stand corner of Ludlow and Hester Street about the 24th or 25th of August, I saw one man had a coat and the other man was dealing; I did not recognize him exactly, I did not have much time to look at it, I had a glass of soda and paid for it and went my way; I think Feinberg looked at it but I did not see him pay any money.

CROSS EXAMINED.

I saw the soda-water man here to-day, I think he is the man but I am not positive; it was another man gave me the soda-water at the time he was selling this man the coat, the man was six or ten steps from the soda-water stand, there was quite a little corwd there, I think a couple of ladies were there, I could not tell whether there was six ladies in the party, I was very busy . I did not speak to these two lady witnesses about the case, I spoke to them in the hallway here and went out with them when the court-room was cleared.

WOLF ARNOSKY recalled by Counsel.

I was in a cell in the station house at the same time that Feinberg was in another cell. Freedman came in the night time but I did not hear any talk between him and the Defendant.

ABRAHAM MARKUS sworn and examined.

I live at 103 East 4th Street and know Mr. Freedman, I saw him on the sidewalk yesterday, I heard some conversation about Feinberg with Mr. Blume and with another man; I heard a conversation with Jacob Blume and Myman Block and Sarah Blume was there at the same time. Freedman said, "I am sorry I am disgusted in that case, I am losing my time."

JENNIE FEINBERG sworn and examined.

I am the wife of Harris Feinberg, I heard talk of Mr. Freedman about this case last Thursday in Part III. down stairs. We were sitting on the benches in the rear of the Court and I was sitting on a bench that was higher than the one where the soda-water man was sitting. Mr. Freedman went to the soda-water man and said to him, "you must not say that you gave me money", and then he said, "that is all right but you must not tell that I promised to recover for you the other goods."

HARRIS FEINBERG sworn and examined.

I work in a saloon but my regular business is a scourer and dyer of clothing. I did not on the 30th of August or at any other time steal any coats belonging to

Mr. Freedman, I was never arrested for any offence before; I am in this country three years; I had a coat belonging to Mr. Freedman on the 5th or 6th of September, I bought it on the corner of Hester and Ludlow Streets from a man; that is the man (pointing to the soda-water man). I was on my way that day to Division Street where my sister lives and I went through Hester Street; then I met on the corner of Orchard Street a woman with another lady who is a countrywoman of mine, I talked with them and went to the corner of Ludlow and Hester; then I saw a man was holding a coat there and several persons standing around him; I made a suggestion to Mrs. Goldstein if that coat fitted me I would buy it, I went up to the man and asked him to let me try on the coat; Mrs. Goldstein said, "the coat fits you"; then I asked him how much he wanted for the coat and he said eight dollars. I offered him four dollars and said it was not worth more than that, I went away a short distance and then he called me again and said I could have it for five dollars. I said I would not give more than four dollars and then Mrs. Goldstein urged me and said, "if it fits you well, you pay him five dollars"; then I paid him five dollars and had a glass of soda-water; the soda-water man said to me, "if you know any of your acquaintances who needs a coat, I have another coat like this, bring him to me." I was arrested ten days after that in 4th Street in my home about one or two o'clock in the night time. I did not spit in the face of any of the Aernoskys that night. Freedman asked me where I got the coat, I said, "I will show you where I bought it" and then

I went with him and showed him the place where I bought it. I did not tell Freedman that if he would let me out I would tell him where all the coats were and that I would get them for him; I could not tell him that because I did not know anything about it. I did not tell the Rabbi that I was a bad man, that I was a thief and that I was willing to get the coats back for Mr. Freedman, I did not tell Mr. Freedman that if he brought a Rabbi and would take his oath before the Rabbi and would let me go that I would get him his coats. I did not speak English to Officer Reap and did not tell him that I went in through the scuttle of the house to rob Mr. Freedman's place twice, I went with Freedman and the officer to show them where the place was that I bought the coat, I went to the corner of Hester and Ludlow Streets and we did not find the man of whom I bought the coat. At the time I bought it the man told me, "I have another coat and if anyone of your acquaintances wants a coat, come to me and if you do not find me here, I have another stand on the corner of Delancy and Ludlow and you will find me there"; then we went to the corner of Delancy and Ludlow and found him there; I told Mr. Freedman that that was the man who sold me the coat. At the first place Freedman and the soda-water man talked together in English but I could not understand and then the man took them to another place in Allen Street. I did not tell the officer to go to Allen Street but the soda-water man did; the policeman took me along and they took me to 95 Delancy St. after that, the soda-water man was leading; I saw a trunk full of coats at Delancy Street, I did not bring the trunk there or help to bring it, I do not know Abraham Strumpf, the man who is indicted with me.

CROSS EXAMINED.

I have been employed during the last two years by Mr. Burnbaum, 131 Allen Street; I think he is in Court, I have got one wife, I was living with her at the time I was arrested, I was not living with Sarah Blume just previous to my arrest. On the first of September I left my boss, I owed Mrs. Blume ten dollars, my sister just came from Europe and she lives with Mrs. Blume for three weeks, I had no money to pay her for my sister's board, she came and asked me for money, I told her I had no money and if she wished to she could take this coat and pawn it for me; she should take three dollars for it; it was on a Sunday and she came back and said the pawn shop was closed and she went to the coal man and asked that some coal be brought up to her, she asked me to sell the coat to him; that was on the first of September, I never lived with Sarah Blume around the corner from Mr. Freedman's place, my wife said she lived with her; my wife lived with Mrs. Blume for six months and at that time I lived with the boss for whom I worked, Mr. Burnbaum, he gave me fifteen dollars a month and board. The reason why I could not pay this woman Blume was that I had a sick mother in Europe and I used to send some money to her. I remember being arrested in Williamsburgh, Long Island; a man got into a store and I was there too, he had some cigars or something and the charge was that a pair of pants were stolen out of the store, it was a clothing store and I went in alone to buy a pair of pants, the owner thought that I came in with the man and he had me arrested but when he found out that I was not the right party I was discharged. Will you tell the Jury why you did not make to Mr. Freedman the explanation you have made here about that coat without having a Rabbi brought in to you? I never asked for a Rabbi.

HERMAN BLOCH sworn and examined.

I live at 135 Eldridge Street and am a peddler; I saw Harris Feinberg once as I passed the corner of Hester and Ludlow Streets accidentally when he bought that coat; I was drinking a glass of soda water and I seen him there, I know the soda-water man very well, he keeps two places.

About five or six days after I met a dark complexioned girl and she told me that her husband or her intended bought the coat and he was arrested for it, I was subpoenaed about four or five weeks ago, I saw Feinberg in Court last week, I think he paid the man five dollars for the coat; I am sure that he gave him two two dollar bills but the rest of the money I could not tell exactly what it was; I did not pay great attention to it. While I was standing at the soda-water stand I heard the man say if he had more customers he could procure more coats. Last Thursday during the recess I heard Mr. Freedman say to Mr. Blume that they had been bothering him so long, would it not be better for the soda-water man to give him his coats and to stop all this trouble.

CROSS EXAMINED .

The day that I saw this coat sold was either the 24th or 25th of August, I remember it because I sell goods to different customers and I always put down the dates, it was the 24th or 25th, I could not give a description of the coat because I did not take particular notice, it was a short, dark coat; the coat now shown me is not the one but this other one that is shown me is something similar to it.

ALECK ELLMAN sworn.

I live at 29 Ludlow Street and am a glazier; I am married, I never lived in Munroe Street, I know the soda-water man from the Old Country, he sent me a present when I got married, I don't know anything about a trunk which the soda-water man had in August or September, I have three rooms in my house, I remember a conversation I had with the soda-water man about hiring a room. He asked me for a separate bed-room if I could find one for him, I told him that I was working all day long and did not know anything about any bed-room; then he asked me if I could not put a trunk into one of my rooms for a few days, that was about the 3rd or 4th of September, I told him I have got a few boarders and I have no spare room; a few days after I heard that Strumpf was arrested. I saw the soda-water man after that and asked him what sort of an affair that was about this trunk, was that the same one he wanted to put in my room. Did you want to put me into trouble the same as you did him -- meaning Strumpf. I told him then maybe it is possible that I can help him through; he says he feels very sorry for him but he has got to save himself.

FANNY ELLMAN sworn.

I am the wife of the last witness, I know the man who keeps the soda-water fountain about two years, he had no talk with me about hiring a room.

JACOB SHELLMAN sworn.

I live at 45 Delancy Street and am a tailor. I know Feinberg from the old country, he is an honest man, I know he always worked, he worked for Mr. Burnbaum about two years.

GUSSIE GREENBERG recalled by Counsel.

It was between ten and eleven o'clock in the morning that Feinberg bought this coat from the soda-water man; the money that he gave was two two dollar bills and a one dollar bill; I was near enough to see that.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty of receiving stolen goods with a recommendation to mercy.
