Form 112.

Police Court - First District.

Thomas Somerset of No. 434 Hicks Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 19th day of December 18*79* at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away from the possession of deponent, a demijohn containing the following property, viz: four and three quarter Gallons of Scotch Whisky of the value of Twenty Six Dollars, the property of James W. Pendugast and in the care and charge of deponent

was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Richard Kelly now present for the reason that the property in question was in the rear part of a wagon that deponent was driving along West Broadway - that deponent saw the prisoners reach over the tail board of said wagon take the aforesaid property and run away. That deponent pursued him and as he approached said Kelly deponent saw him throw away and break the demijohn which contained said Whisky. Somerset Ryan

Canton Hamel

of the value of Fifty Dollars, the property of a company known as and doing business under the name of Brooks and Company and in care and charge of this deponent as a common carrier

was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Thomas Kelly (nowhere) for the reason that deponent missed the aforesaid property from his wagon which was being drawn along Mulberry Street in said city. Subsequently deponent was informed by Officer William Adams that he said Officer found the aforesaid property in the possession of said defendant and deponent fully identified said property as the property which was taken stolen and carried away from deponent's possession.

Wherefore deponent charges said defendant with taking stealing and carrying away the aforesaid property
