PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

Timothy Connelley

West 12th St

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. This trouble grew out of my arresting a friend out on a complaint of a citizen for assault, without a warrant. I did not see the assault committed but followed him into a liquor store and arrested him. He claimed I should have a warrant, and resisted and struck me. I respectfully ask leave to withdraw as under the above circumstances I acquit defendant of any intentional design to injure me.

The People ^{vs.} Salvatore Curaro { Court of General Sessions, Part I
Before Judge Gildersleeve. July 7, 1886.
Indictment for assault in the first degree.

Mazia Curaro, sworn and examined through the interpreter, testified as follows. My maiden name is Maria Gratzia and my other name is Curaro. I am the wife of the defendant, but I do not want to know him. I do not know the number or the name of the street where I live. I saw the defendant on the 26th of June. Did you have some trouble with him then? Yes sir. How did you get that cut on your lip? He did it with a razor. I left him for eight days before, then he met me in the street and commenced to quarrel with me and then cut me. Did you do anything to him before he cut you? No sir, I had nothing in my hands and I did not do anything to him. I do not know the name of the street where he cut me, but it was on the sidewalk. Did he say anything at the time he cut you? He did not give me any warning, he cut me and did not say anything.
Cross Examined. Did you not refuse to make a complaint at the Police Court? I did not know what happened there, I could not understand what was going on there. I am in the House of Detention now. Was it not because you would not sign a paper that you were sent to the House of Detention? I do not know. Did you not sworn in the Oyer and Terminer that he never had a falling out with you and never intended to cut you? I did not understand very well, then. I said that I did not know if he did it intentionally, he was doing something with his razor and I did not know if he did it accidentally or intentionally; he touched me and had his hands around me like a man who drank a couple of glasses more.

Joseph J. Dunninger sworn. I saw the trouble between the defendant and his wife, it happened about 75 feet east of 113th St. and First Ave. around three or four o'clock in the afternoon. I was coming from Brooklyn that afternoon and we got off at the Elevated Station in 111th St. and walked down First Ave. up to 113th St. and there we were met by the defendant and a few friends of his; he accosted his wife and said, "Come on home." She says, "No, I want go with you." So he took her one side. I remained on the corner. I did not think it was my business to interfere with them; he was talking with her, I do not know what they said, and all of a sudden I saw her fall on the ground and he ran with a razor in his hand. I ran after him and kept at a distance from him in fear of my own life until I came to 113th St. and Second Ave. and a gentleman gave him the foot, tripped him up and he fell to the ground.

and the razor dropped out of his hand and the car conductor picked up the razor and I went and took the razor off the conductor and gave it to the officer. The defendant ran from 113th St. and First Ave. to 113th St. and Second Ave.

Cross Examined. I suppose it was the blow from the razor that knocked her down. I went with her to Brooklyn on particular business in order to get out a warrant for him for some affair that happened before; she said he cut her before, I only know what she told me. Did you hear her state on the stand here that they were fooling and that she could not swear that he intended to cut her? No sir. I saw him put his hand like that (showing) they did not go around the corner; they stepped one side. I saw him make a dive for her and then she fell to the ground.

Salvatore Curaro, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I am the husband of the complainant. I am married to her seventeen days before I was arrested. How many days have you been in prison? Twenty three days. What is your business? I am a barber. You remember the day that you cut your wife? I do not. You remember that you did cut your wife? I do not remember, it was by accident, I do not recollect. Were you near your store at the time? Yes sir near the store. How many days had your wife been away from you? Eight days. What were you doing with the razor in your hand? I was cutting off the hard skin of my hand. She came up. How did you come to cut her in the lip? I had the razor in my hand and I told her, I just made a motion with my hand that she shall come home; she said, "no," and she hit against the razor. I was just cutting off the hard skin of my hand. Did your wife fall down? No sir, it was not in consequence of that, it was a slight cut. Where did you go to after that? I was arrested and taken to the station house. How far away from where you cut her were you when you were arrested? Half a block away. Where were you going? I was going to the doctor to have the cut dressed. I have been twelve years in this country and never was arrested before. I never cut my wife before, no dispute, and this was just by accident. You did not intend to cut her? No sir, she ran her face against the razor. Cross Examined. I was not running away, I was on my way to call a doctor when I was arrested. I had the razor in my hand whilst I was running. I saw she was bleeding and I thought it was best to go for a doctor. There was a great crowd around me. I don't know what became of the razor.

POOR QUALITY
ORIGINAL

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of assault in the second degree.
