D. E. Kimball Esqr

Dear Sir,

Your letter of the 22nd inst - addressed to our firm, is at hand, We were very much surprised to hear of the situation of Felix Riley, We are well acquainted with the young man, having known him since his birth till a few years since when his parents moved from here to the State of Conn. His parents were honest, industrious, and law abiding people, in rather poor circumstances, not having the means to give their family very good advantages, they however managed to bring their large family up in decent manner, as to Felix Riley we knew him very well and never heard or knew of anything against his character before this, His father was given to drinking by at times, the only fault he had, he is now dead, and it may be Felix has inherited the same appetite, But neither were criminal at all while living here which was all their lives till some 4 or 5 years ago, since which time we have not heard from them - Felix was a bright, good natured, and popular young man, as long as he lived here, he was known to all our people, and we think they would all give him the same character, could I be of any further service in relieving his condition we would be glad to do so.

Yours &c

D. E. Kimball, Esqr,

City Prison, Basin New York. Dear Sir,

I write you on the 24th inst. in behalf of Felix Riley, in answer to your letter of the 22nd inst. since then I have seen some of our influential citizens, and have obtained letters from them showing their opinion of his reputation as long as they knew him here. Th. W. Williams was President Judge of our district for 22 yrs. residing here all the time and is now the nominee of the Republicans for Supreme Judge, M. G. Elliott has been and is now the leading lawyer here for 25 yrs. was Congressman at large for Pa. 1853 & 1854 - A. S. Brewster has been Justice of the Peace and magistrate here ~~for 10 yrs. in the town of Wellsboro~~. I got these letters from these persons for the reason they were so intimately connected with the courts here, that if Felix Riley had ever been a law breaker in any sense they would have known something about it. I could get a large expression of our people the ~~same~~ <sup>same</sup> way if necessary, and I personally corroborate all that these parties say.

Yours &

D. E. Keenall Secty &

Dear Sir (Your letter to Henry Sherwood & Son relating to Felix Riley has just been shown me -

Felix was raised here - His father was an honest shrewmaker but sadly addicted to drink - Felix was a bright boy & in no sense belonged to or had a tendency toward the Criminal Class except as dissipation may be said to tend towards crime - On the contrary he was sent to school & his surroundings were good, until out on the world without money & with a drunkards thirst -

I am sure no good could come to him & none to Society from sending him to a State prison but something may be hoped for from the influences that would surround him in a reformatory - But for the one bad habit he has the elements of a useful man in him & that habit may be overcome under proper influences

Very truly yours

Henry W. Williams

Dr. E. Kimball.

Dear Sir,

Messrs. Henry Sherwood & Son to day handed me your letter of Sept. 22nd 1857, in regard to Delio's Release now in the City Prison in New York, charged with burglary, requesting me to write you a few lines stating my knowledge of him.

I have known Delio ever since he was born, seeing him almost every day, until the last five or six years. I never have heard of his committing or being charged with any crime or misdemeanor during all that time. He always had a good character and I was very much surprised to learn that he had been charged with so grave an offence.

I have been an acting Magistrate for the Borough of W. Mahon for the last twenty five years.

Respectfully Yours

Mr Kimball I have been shown your letter in regard to Felix Kelly formerly of this place I desire to enter a word in his behalf. I knew him for many years and so far as I know his only fault was his drinking habit. I do not think he would commit any offense against the law except while under the influence of liquor.
