COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS OF THE PEACE OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,

against

Jacob Nelson

THE GRAND JURY OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, by this indictment, accuse

of the crime of keeping a room for the purpose of recording and registering bets and wagers, and of selling pools, committed as follows:

The said

late of the Third Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the eleventh day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, and not upon any grounds or race track, owned, leased, or conducted by any association incorporated under the laws of this State, for the purpose of improving the breed of horses, where racing was then lawfully had, with force and arms, did unlawfully and feloniously keep a certain room in a certain building there situate, for the purpose of therein recording and registering bets and wagers, and of selling pools, upon the result of trials and contests of speed and power of endurance of beasts, to wit, horses; against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

Second Count, And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

of the crime of knowingly permitting a room to be used and occupied for the purpose of recording and registering bets and wagers, and of selling pools, committed as follows:

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, and not upon any grounds or race track owned, leased, or conducted by any association incorporated under the laws of this State for the purpose of improving the breed of horses, where racing was then lawfully had, being then and there the ~~occupant~~ of certain room in a certain building there situate, with force and arms, unlawfully and feloniously did knowingly permit the said room to be used and occupied for the purpose of therein recording and registering bets and wagers, and of selling pools, upon the result of trials and contests of speed, and power of endurance of beasts, to wit, horses; against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

Third Count, And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said Jacob Nelson of the crime of keeping, exhibiting and employing devices and apparatus for the purpose of recording and registering bets and wagers, and of selling pools, committed as follows:

The said Jacob Nelson

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, and not upon any grounds or race track owned, leased or conducted by any association incorporated under the laws of this State, for the purpose of improving the breed of horses, where racing was then lawfully had, being the ~~occupant~~ of a certain room in a certain building there situate, with force and arms, did unlawfully and feloniously therein keep, exhibit and employ, divers devices and apparatus (a more particular description whereof is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown) for the purpose of recording and registering bets and wagers, and of selling pools, upon the result of trials and contests of speed and power of endurance of beasts, to wit, horses; against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

Fourth Count, And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said Jacob Nelson of the crime of becoming the custodian and depository, for hire and reward, of money staked, wagered and pledged upon the result of trials and contests of speed and power of endurance of horses, committed as follows :

The said

Joseph Nelson

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, and not upon any grounds or race track owned, leased, or conducted by any association incorporated under the laws of this State, for the purpose of improving the breed of horses, where racing was then lawfully had, being then and there the owner of a certain room in a certain building there situate, with force and arms, did unlawfully and feloniously therein then and there become the custodian and depository, for hire and reward, of certain money, to wit: the sum of Five dollars in lawful money of the United States of America, which said money was then and there by one Joseph Nelson

Nelson staked, wagered and pledged upon the result of a certain trial and contest of speed and power of endurance of and between a certain horse called Sea Bright and divers other horses (a more particular description whereof, and of each of them, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown) thereafter to be had, holden and run on the day and in the year aforesaid, at a certain place and race track situate at Shuttenburg in the County of Franklin in the State of New Jersey and commonly called the Shuttenburg Race Track, and which said trial and contest was had, holden and run on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the place and race track aforesaid (a more particular description of which said trial and contest, and of the circumstances and manner of, upon, and in which the said money was so staked, wagered and pledged as aforesaid, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

Fifth Count, And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said of the crime of recording and registering a bet and wager, committed as follows :

The said

Joseph Nelson

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, and not upon any grounds or race track owned, leased, or conducted by any association incorporated under the laws of this State, for the purpose of improving the breed of horses, where racing was then lawfully had, with force and arms, did unlawfully and feloniously record and register, and cause to be recorded and registered, a certain bet and wager, then and there made by and between one and divers other persons to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, upon the result of a certain trial and contest of speed and power of endurance of and between a certain horse called S. C. C. Bright and divers other horses (a more particular description whereof, and of each of them, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown) thereafter to be had, holden and run on the day and in the year aforesaid, at a certain place and race track situated at Sullivan [unclear] in the County of H. [unclear] in the State of New York, and commonly called the [unclear] Race Track, and which said trial and contest was had, holden and run on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the place and race track aforesaid (a more particular description of which said trial and contest, and of the said bet and wager so as aforesaid then and there made upon the same, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

Sixth Count, And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

James Nelson

of the CRIME OF POOL SELLING, committed as follows:

The said

James Nelson

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, and not upon any grounds or race track owned, leased or conducted by any association incorporated under the laws of this State, for the purpose of improving the breed of horses, where racing was lawfully had, with force and arms, did feloniously engage in pool selling, and did then and there feloniously sell, and cause to be sold, to one James A. [unclear] and to divers other persons, to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, a certain pool upon the result of a certain trial and contest of speed and power of endurance of and between a certain horse called S. C. C. Bright and divers other horses (a more particular description whereof, and of each of them, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown) thereafter to be had, holden and run on the day and in the year aforesaid.

said, at a certain place and race track situated at in the County of Hudson in the State of New Jersey and commonly called the Buttlerberg Race Track, and which said trial and contest was had, holden and run on the day and in the year aforesaid at the place and race track aforesaid (a more particular description of which said trial and contest, and of the pool upon the same so as aforesaid then and there sold, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

Seventh Count, And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said Jacob Nelson

of the crime of recording and registering bets and wagers, committed as follows :

The said

Jacob Nelson

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit : on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, and not upon any grounds or race track owned, leased, or conducted by any association incorporated under the laws of this State, for the purpose of improving the breed of horses, where racing was then lawfully had, with force and arms, did unlawfully and feloniously record and register, and cause to be recorded and registered, divers bets and wagers, then and there made by and between divers persons to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, upon the result of divers certain trials and contests of speed and power of endurance of and between divers horses (a more particular description whereof, and of each of them, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown) thereafter to be had, holden and run on the day and in the year of New York, } ss:

of No. 142 West Houston - Street, aged 39 years, occupation Painter being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 14 day of March 1893 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the night time, the following property, viz:

a pocketbook. containing good and lawful money of the United States of the amount of eighty five dollars ($85 ⁰⁰/₁₀₀)

the property of deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by William Nickerson (now here) from the following facts to wit: that about the hour of one o'clock A.M. of said date, while deponent was standing on the corner of Sullivan and Houston Streets the defendant came up to him, and took hold of, and pulled opened, the vest then and there worn on deponent's person, and feloniously took said pocketbook, containing the aforesaid sum of money, from the pocket on the inside of said vest, and that said defendant then ran away, and that deponent is informed by Officer James T. Thompson of the 15 Precinct Police that he saw the defendant running away, and that he found the sum of eighty-five dollars, in his possession and on his person, and that he found a pocketbook lying on the sidewalk, a short distance from where he arrested the defendant. Dependent further says that he has seen said sum of money found in the possession of the defendant and recognizes the same as his property, and that he has seen the said pocketbook found by said Officer on said sidewalk - and also recognizes the same as his - and as the afore-said pocketbook containing the aforesaid sum of money which was stolen from his person by the defendant - Dependent therefore asks that the defendant may be held to answer.

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,

against

David J. Noah

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this Indictment accuse David J. Noah — of the crime of Forgery in the first degree, committed as follows:

The said David J. Noah, — late of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid, on the thirteenth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ~~eighty~~ ninety - two, at the City and County aforesaid, being then and there an officer authorized to take the acknowledgment of the instrument hereinafter set forth, (the same being an instrument which by law might be recorded) he did: being then and there a Commissioner of Deeds, in and for the said City and County of New York, duly appointed, qualified and acting as such, do hereby did willingly certify and declare that the execution of a certain instrument in the words and figures following that is to say:

was acknowledged by one Amelia E. Hayes, one of the parties thereto, before him the said David F. Noah, an under Commissioner of Deeds as aforesaid on the said thirteenth day of December in the year aforesaid, by then and there knowingly, willfully and falsely making, signing and placing upon the back of the said instrument a certain certificate in the words and figures following, to wit:

"State of New York City and County of New York } ss.

On this thirteenth day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety two before me personally came Amelia E. Hayes to me known and known to me to be the individual described in and who executed the foregoing instrument, and she thereupon acknowledged to me that she executed the same.

David F. Noah, County of Deeds

City and County of N. Y. "

Whereas in truth and in fact on the said thirteenth day of December in the year aforesaid before him did not personally come the said Amelia E. Hayes to him known and known to him to be the individual described in and who executed the said instrument and the said Amelia E. Hayes did not thereupon acknowledge to him the said David J. Noah that he executed the same, all of which he the said David J. Noah then and there well knew; against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.
