The People
vs.
Frank S. Hanna

Court of General Sessions, Part I.
Before Recorder Smyth.

May 20, 1887.

Indictment for assault in the second degree.

John Talbot sworn and examined.

I saw the Defendant on the 30th of April on a Boulevard and Broadway Street car near 82nd Street about seven o'clock, we were passengers on the car, it took a little time for me to get my money to pay my fare, the Defendant said to me, "you have got no money and you want to ride free", I says to him, "mind your own business and pay your own fare". I put my hand in my pocket again, I was looking for pennies, I had $2.25 or $2.27 and paid my fare; he says, "you are nothing but an old beat"; I said, "if you were a decent man you would not mind me"; he struck me but did not hurt me, I struck him back, there was a woman and a child on the car and the car stopped to let them off; the driver said to me, "he is not a good kind of a man to insult you, he deserved what he got, what you gave him with your tongue." The Defendant got off when the woman and child did, I was standing up in the car when Frank Hanna came in again, the driver pulled the door and the Defendant hit me in the rightside of the head and I fell against the window, my hat was broke, I wanted to save my eyes, I put up my hand to save getting a black eye and he gave me a stab under the right arm, I halloood to the driver to stop, that I was stabbed; he drove faster than I thought he did before, I told him I would bleed to death before I got off the car. The Defendant ran off the car as soon as he struck me with the knife, there was nobody on the car at the present time. I got off at 93rd Street and halloped murder, I thought I might meet a policeman on Tenth Avenue but did not. The three shirts I had on me were cut, I went to the 99th Street Hospital, I was there from Saturday evening until Thursday evening, the Doctor told me to go home and lie in bed, I saw the policeman after I got to the Hospital when he brought the Defendant there on Sunday morning and I identified him. It was a small stab that I got, it cut me in the arm.

Cross Examined. This was about seven o'clock in the evening, I was going home to 99th Street where I live; the driver rang the bell for me to pay and I was trying to get my bange at that time. Menon the 10th Avenue helped me to the Hospital. I drank four glasses of lager that day but was not drunk, I was working that day as a mason's laborer for Tom Gannon, I had never seen the Defendant before to my knowledge.

Philip Fitzpatrick sworn. I am a police officer and in consequence of information received my attention was called to the Defendant, he was on the corner talking to some men telling them about a fight he had in the car the night before. I asked him some questions and the took him to the Hospital where the complainant recognized him as the man who had cut him.

Frank S. Hanna sworn and examined in his own behalf, testified: I live 93rd Street and the Boulevard and am a brick layer, I got on this horse car on Saturday night about 66th Street and as I was going up to put my fare in the box the driver told me to ask the man (the complainant) for his fare, I turned around and asked the man for his fare and he said, "what in the hell have you got to do with it?" I said I had nothing, I simply done as requested by the car driver. The complainant says, "you take a lot on your shoulders, I have got the notion to punch you in the jaw, go and sit down, you are drunk." He assaulted me and I jumped for him at the time and ran him in the corner and as I did so he run his arm clean through the window and that is the only way he was cut, he was never cut with a knife by me, I did not have a y knife, I was never convicted of any crime in my life.

Milton Harvey sworn. I live in Manhattanville and was the driver on this car, I remember Talbot perfectly well but did not recognize the Defendant until I saw him in the Harlem Police Court but then recognized him as the man who was on the car. Talbot when he got in the car was as full as a tick and when he deposited the money in the box he fell into a stupor, I afterward requested him to tell Talbot to put his fare in the box, the complainant got into a terrible fury when the man asked him to put his fare in the box and if the Defendant had ever hit him I am afraid he would not be here to be tried, he came near stumbling on a lady and child that were in the car and the Defendant pushed him to the front of the car and in doing so he stumbled and went through a pane of glass, that is where he got stabbed I suppose; he did not shout murder, he was bleeding and I stopped the car and let him go.

Robert L. McGrew sworn. I am a physician at the 99th Street Hospital and remember having the ²⁴in-plainat in charge, he had a wound under the arm from a quarter to half an inch wide and about three quarters of an inh in depth, it was both incised and penetrating and could have been made by a sharp instrument, a knife or a piece of glass. I think the wound might have been inflicted by the glass if the arm were to pass through the glass and be withdrawn but it would not be natural to suppose that it could be inflicted by a man getting a blow in the head and falling sideways against that glass.

Charge: Burglary
in the Second De-

Before: Hon. Rufus B. Cowing and a Jury.

New York, June 2nd 1887.

JAMES L. RICHMOND, the complainant, being duly sworn, testified:-

 ,I am a sailor connected with the United States Navy. On the 19th of May this year, I was a passenger on the Steamer City of Richmond, lying at one of the piers in this city. I was in a bunk and had with me my watch valued at $38, and about $4. in money . There were two other people in the room with me . The first I saw of this prisoner, Harder, was when he came around in the morning to make up the beds; he was employed on the boat.
I had some conversation with him about the hour for rising and laid down to sleep again ; I put my watch in my pocket; I laid there about ten minutes; the ship was at its dock in this city. After I laid down I felt this defendant running his hand up the leg of my pants; I thought he was only trying to make me comfortable. When I got up I missed my watch and this defendant was not around any wheree.

When I saw the prisoner I asked him to give me my watch and have no further trouble about it. He denied having it and mumbled something .

EUGENE HARDER, the prisoner, testified:-

I live at Hartford Conn. I was a waiter on board the Steamer City of Richmond, and I also took care of the after cabin. It is the rule not to let people sleep on the boat after a certain hour. I did not see this man Richmond in his bunk and when they asked me if there was any one down stairs I answered no. I then saw this man in the bunk and told him he would have to get out of the bed so that I could do my work. Sometime after that they cabled me and asked me if I took this mans watch and I said no . Two officers came and arrested me . I knew nothing about the mans watch . I did not take it .

The People
 Edward Harrison } Court of General Sessions. Part 4.
 Before Recorder Smyth. May 19/87.
 Indictment for burglary in the second degree.
 Dolores Pritchard sworn and examined testified. I reside 35 East Twenty third St. and keep a boarding house, a four story brown stone building; on the 8th of May I had silver ware jewelry and other personal property there belonging to me; the house was locked that night by myself at eleven o'clock and I went to bed. I was awakened about six o'clock when I went to bed there was a broken pane of glass in the door leading from the front way into the hallway of the premises. I have three houses adjoining, the house that was broken into is No 23; there is an iron gate under the stoop and a door leading into the basement and glass in it; that pane was broken when we took the house on the 5th of May; the gate was not fastened, the door was fastened with a bolt and spring lock, the gate was opened, we ordered a lock to be put on in the morning; the door could be opened by putting the hand through the pane of glass. The house was full of people that night.
 Cross Examined. When I got to Jefferson Market the prisoner was discharged. I was advised by the Captain to have him rearrested. The officer came to my house at six in the morning and wanted to know if I would appear against him. I told the servant I would not, but when I went down stairs I was advised by one of the gentlemen boarders to go to Court and make a complaint against the prisoner. I went to the station house and from there to the Court and then the officer came and told me he rearrested the prisoner; he was held for trial.

③ ~~Phillip Herlich Jr.~~ ^{testifies as follows} sworn; I am an officer of the 19th precinct; the premises 33 East Twenty third st. are on my post. On the night of the 8th of May I tried the doors 33, 35 and 37 East Twenty third st. at one o'clock and found them fast, but when I went around my post between 3 1/2 and 4 o'clock I found the door No 33 wide open, and just as I was going into the basement I heard the prisoner come out of the front way up stairs. I stepped back quick and met him halfway down on the stoop and held him and brought him back and woke up the folks on the parlor floor and asked them if they knew him? They did not and I thought then that his intentions were burglars. I had two Officers search the house and nobody was found there who did not belong there! The complainant first sent word that she would not appear, but she subsequently appeared. I Cross examined ~~the~~ asked the prisoner what he was doing in that building? He said he made a mistake in the house, that he mistook the house for a house in Tenth St. I told him it was a very strange mistake to mistake 23^d St. for 10th St. I am positive he said Tenth St. he told me he lived at 7 Watt St. and when I got there they said he did not live there. I found the prisoner on the corner of Watt and Varick Sts. with a gang of other men. The prisoner was very willing to come back with me.

~~The~~ Edward Harrison, ^{the defendant} sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I live at 7 Watt St. first floor. Mrs. Smith keeps the place, a white woman. I have only been in the city since the 4th of April; The officer found me one door from where I lived when he rearrested me. The morning before that I was found coming out of 33 Twenty Third St. going down the stoop. I did not break open the house; the door was wide open. I was looking for No 25 Twenty Fifth St. My friend told me it was near the corner. I went down there, I did not know the basement door was unlocked. My friend said there was a watchman there all night. I started to ring the bell and I found the door wide open. I saw carpenters tools and a carpet piled up. I saw I had made a mistake. I thought I would stumble down on these things if I went back to the basement. I went down on the front stoop and the officer arrested me. I worked for P. M. Engel, a drygoods merchant in Leonard St. I worked for Mr. Young, a baker 159 Sixth ave. in Nov. On this night in question I was over seeing a friend of mine in Greenpoint and I got back late and instead of going to 7 Watt St. I thought I would go to the house ^{where} this friend of mine is a bell boy on the flat 25 East 25th St. His name is Josh. I forget his last name. I have never been arrested before. Josh is a colored man. George Williams is the name of the man I went to see in Greenpoint. ~~At~~ The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of burglary in the second degree with a recommendation to mercy provided after examination good character is proven.

 James Hennessy

City & County of New York:

James Hennessy being duly sworn deposes and says:

I am 40 years of age: I reside at No 203 E. 37 Street: I was arrested on Saturday evening the 7th day of May 1887 and am now confined in the toms in default of bail under a charge of perjury:

The circumstances connected with my arrest were as follows.

On Sunday morning the 1st day of May my only child who is 13 years of age left home and my wife and I heard nothing of him during the day, we were both greatly excited as our boy was the last of our children, we having lost 7 children.
 All during Sunday & Monday we searched & hunted everywhere for our child and late on Monday afternoon we received a postal card saying that he was confined at the 37th Street Police Station.

I was greatly excited & on Tuesday morning I started to the Police Station and on the way drank two or three glasses of beer which effected me, as I was injured in the head several years ago, ^{during the late war} and any liquor effects me. On account of the liquor and by reason of the excitement I was laboring under I was not in my right mind, and when I reached the Police Station, I was told that my son was held under $300 bail under a charge of stealing a bottle of milk from an army way. I offered to go on his bail bond and Justice White accepted me as a bondsmen and without realizing what I did, ^{as I have since learned} I swore that I owned a house on E 17th Street which is said to be worth $18,000 and further swore as I am informed that I was worth several thousand dollars in money. I had no intention to commit perjury, but I was greatly excited and was overcome with the desire to have my boy released & taken home to his Mother, who was nearly out of her mind with grief as she supposed he was lost.

I intended that my boy should appear for trial and not forfeit his bail,

His trial was set down for Friday the 6th of May but I understood that his trial was to be adjourned till Monday the 9th and on Friday I had an appointment with Senator Cullen who had kindly offered to try and get me employment and by reason of my thinking the trial was adjourned & my desire to see Senator Cullen I did not appear at the Tomb where my son's trial took place but he was present and as I understand, was released by ^{the} Justice - and after the trial and on the next day I was arrested for perjury.

This is the first time that I was ever arrested. I have always born a good reputation. I enlisted in the late war in June 1863 and in September 1864. I was wounded at the battle of Jonesboro, the bone of my right arm being shattered and having to be removed from the Elbow to the Shoulder. I was honorably discharged from the Army in June 1865 and was given a pension by the government which has been paid some since.

I have been able to do light work and have been employed most of the time in the last few years.

I am industrious and am the sole support of my wife and boy and they are dependent upon me, although my boy has been at work and was out of employment at the time of his arrest as he had left his last place of employment on account of the work being too hard for him as his employers considered.

I am willing to plead guilty should an indictment be found against me and trust to the mercy of the Court to suspend sentence as this is my first offence, and the crime was not willful and was not done to evade any law but I was led to do the act while laboring under excitement & being under the influence of liquor & was actuated by love for my boy.

Hon John R. Fellows

Dist. Ct.

Dear Sir,

In the matter of the Pardon of James Hennessy sentenced for 2 years & 6 months in State Prison on June 1. 1887 on pleading guilty to a indictment for Perjury.
We enclose herewith a duplicate of the petition filed with the Governor we also filed with the Governor a Petition similar to this signed by Members of the Grand Jury in N.Y. including John W. Jacobus &c.
Judge Cowing this morning and he authorized me to say to you as well as to the Governor that upon the facts of the case being recalled to his mind he considers it a case deserving of Executive Clemency & so stated at time of sentence.
In regard to the papers filed in your office concerning Hennessy with Henry abandoned his family I investigated that charge & found that it was based on a statement made by his wife, when she was arrested 31 NASSAU STREET.

NEW YORK, 188

that her husband had left his family that was a fact as he went to London & obtained employment there but remitted money to his wife regularly.

I am, from careful investigation, inclined to believe that Hennessey's wife does not bear a good character & that his boy from lack of proper care from his mother got into bad company and needs the authority of his father if that case requires him -

My interest in this case is purely one of charity believing that it is a deserving case for favorable executive action.

I might add that Hennessey was charged with having been arrested before. I ascertained in regard to that charge that in 1886, His wife went to a saloon where he was and

The People of the State of New York, against James Hemmery

The People of the City and County of New York, by this indictment accuse James Hemmery of the crime of Perjury, committed as follows:

Wherefore, to wit: on the Twenty-eighth day of April, 1887, at the City and County of New York, one James Hemmery was lawfully apprehended and brought before Andrew White, Esquire, one of the Police Justices of the City of New York, on a charge of having on the Twenty-eighth day of April, 1887, committed in said City the crime of Perjury, wherein the said Andrew White, Esquire, Police Justice as aforesaid, did then and there to wit, on the said Twenty-eighth day of April, 1887, at the City and County of New York, in due form of law proceed to examine into the said charge, and did then and there examine the same in due form of law; and it appearing from the said examination, that a crime had been committed, and that there was sufficient cause to believe the said John H. Hennessey guilty thereof, the said Andrew White Esquire, Police Justice as aforesaid, did then and there duly order that the said John H. Hennessey be held to answer the said charge, and be admitted to bail in the sum of three hundred dollars, and be committed to the Warden and Keeper of the City Prison of the City of New York, until he give such bail.

And afterwards, to wit: on the said twenty ~~first~~ ninth day of April, 1887, at the City and County aforesaid, the said James Hennessey, late of the City and County aforesaid, personally came and appeared before the said Andrew White Esquire, Police Justice as aforesaid, (and as such Police Justice then and there legally authorized and duly qualified to take bail in the said case), and then and there offered himself to be and become the bail and surety for the said John H. Hennessey, and did then and there produce and exhibit to the said Andrew White Esquire, Police Justice as aforesaid, a certain written undertaking signed by him the said James Hennessey and also by the said John H. Hennessey, wherein and whereby they the said

 John H. Hemmery and James Hemmery did undertake, jointly and severally that the said John H. Hemmery should appear and answer the said charge, in whatever Court it might be presented; and should do so unless he should amend to the order and process of the Court, and be convicted, should appear for judgment, and render himself in execution thereof, or if he failed to perform either of these conditions that he would pay to the People of the State of New York, the sum of Two Hundred Dollars; and the said James Hemmery did then and there produce and exhibit to the said Andrew J. White Esquire, Police Justice as aforesaid, a certain affidavit in writing, duly signed by him, and then and there confirming certain allegations and statements of and concerning the sufficiency and responsibility of him the said James Hemmery as and purely upon the said undertaking

And the said James Hemmery then and there in due form of law sworn and did take this corporal oath, to and before the said Andrew J. White Esquire, Police Justice as aforesaid, touching and concerning the truth of the matters contained in this said affidavit in writing. (The said Andrew J. White Esquire, Police Justice as aforesaid, having then and there full and complete power and authority to administer the said oath to the said James Hemmery in that behalf it being then and there necessary and material that the said Andrew J. White Esquire, Police Justice as aforesaid, should know the true circumstances and property of the said James Hemmery, in order that he might determine whether he would, and should take, accept and approve the said James Hemmery as such surety upon the said undertaking.

And the said James Hemmery, being so sworn as aforesaid, did say the said Andrew J. White Esquire, Police Justice as aforesaid, upon this oath aforesaid, touching and concerning his circumstances and property and his sufficiency and responsibility as such surety upon the said undertaking, in and by this said affidavit in writing, before him, containing truthfully and correctly did I duly swear, depose and say (except other things) in substance and to the effect following that is to say:

That the said James Hemmery was then and there residing in the said County and State of New York, and more than worth six hundred dollars, exclusive of property exempt from execution, and over and above the amount of all his debts and liabilities, and that his property then consisted of the four long brick house and lot situate at number 336 East 14th Street, in the said City of New York, valued at eighteen thousand dollars, and then free and clear of all debts and encumbrances whatsoever.

Whereas in truth and in fact the said James Hemmery was not then a freeholder within the said County and State, and was not then worth six hundred dollars, exclusive of property exempt from execution, and over and above the amount of all his debts and liabilities, and this property did not then consist of the said four long brick house and lot situate at number 336 East 14th Street in the said City of New York, as the said James Hemmery then and there well knew.

And so the Grand Jury do hereby do say, that the said James Hemmery, in manner and form aforesaid, feloniously, unlawfully, and corruptly, did commit, intend and conspire, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.
