of No. 306 West 40th Street, being duly sworn, deposes and saith, that on the 21st day of August 1880 in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, and from her person,

Frances Patterson

24th day of August 1880 Ward of the City of New York, the following property viz.:

A Pocket Book containing good and lawful money consisting of National Bank bills one bill being of the value of two dollars and three being of the value of one dollar each and one Silver dollar, all being of the value of six dollars the property of deponent and her husband James Patterson and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by James ~~McL...~~ (now here) from the fact that while deponent was on the dock at the foot of 33rd Street East River she caught and detected the said James in the act of taking stealing and carrying away said property from the Pocket of her dress then worn by her as a part of her bodily clothing, deponent caught a hold of his said James arm while he was in the act of taking the Pocket Book out of her Pocket. He said James at the same time dropped the Pocket Book down on the ground along side of which he was standing. Deponent asks that he may be held to answer.
