April 9/88

 vs.
 James J. Clark.

Mary F. Magin, 209 West 43rd Street.
 Prior to May 9th, 1887, I had mortgaged certain property (chattels) of mine to Eugene Post or to the Star Storage Company. The mortgage interest on the mortgage was not paid and on May 9th, 1887, the defendant, who was a manager of the Company, came to my residence 29 West 42nd Street with a truck and some men and they took from my rooms the furniture covered by the mortgage and in addition thereto the articles mentioned in the complaint and many more articles not there mentioned. The defendant superintended the removal and directed the men as to what articles they should take. He told them "to empty the house". I called the defendant's attention to the fact that he was taking away certain articles not covered by the mortgage and I asked him for "God's sake" to leave me a mattress. His reply was to direct his men to empty the house. Under this direction and while defendant was personally present all the mattresses in the house were taken away. All the articles mentioned in the complaint were taken while the defendant was present and by his direction. All these articles were my property and not covered by the mortgage. Subsequently I had conversations with Mr. Clark, the defendant, in reference to taking these articles that were not covered by the mortgage. He said that they had been unable to find a number of articles covered by the mortgage and that when I returned these I should have the articles seized that were not on the mortgage. I have never received back any of the articles seized by the defendant except those recovered under the search warrant herein and these are but a small portion of the things taken. I have received no compensation for the things taken.

of No. 209 West 114 Street, aged 38 years, that on the day of 188 at the City of New York, in the County of New York,

I am the defendant in the above entitled action. I have been informed that this affidavit is to be used upon a motion herein. On May 9th, 1887, I was summoned by a messenger to ~~20 103 West~~ come to the house the complainant was then living in. It was a house in West 42nd Street between 3rd and 6th Aves. I went there and found several trucks at the door and a city Marshall, Collins I think by name, who was foreclosing a chattel mortgage on the complainant's furniture. The mortgage I understood was one which had been given to C. J. Post. Some time previous Mr. Post had requested me to endeavor to collect the amount due on the mortgage. I had seen the complainant about the matter and had been unable to collect the amount and had so reported to him. Post and he had taken the matter out of my hands and turned it over to a lawyer to foreclose. At this time, May 9th, 1887, the whole matter had been out of my hands for about two months and I had nothing to do with it. I told the complainant at this time wanted me to stop the foreclosure. I told her I had nothing at all to do with it and had no control over the men taking the things away. I gave no orders to the men removing the things of any kind whatsoever and in fact had nothing at all to do with the matter. The complainant did not request me for "God's sake" to leave her a widow; and I did not tell any of the men to "empty the house". I had no subsequent conversations with the complainant in which she said that some of the things mentioned in the mortgage could not be found but that if she would return these things we would give her the things we had seized that did not ~~belong~~ come under the mort-gage. At no time did I ever have anything to do directly or indirectly with the things covered by the mortgage except as I have herein set forth.

 I have never been arrested or in any trouble with the police before I was arrested on this charge.

Patrick Coen

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. and are as follows:

The defendant did not intend to assault me and I was mistaken by him for one of a gang of roughs that had assaulted and robbed him. The defendant was formerly a neighbor of mine and our families are intimately acquainted, he has six young children and a wife dependent upon him for support.

I know as a veteran of the late war and a quiet peaceable citizen and do not wish to prosecute him.

Report.

I have examined the complainant in the above entitled action and also the defendant and the officer making the arrest. The defendant was intoxicated on the night of the assault and had been assaulted by some boys whom he was pursuing. The complainant Barrett was standing on the corner waiting for his express wagon and the defendant, in his pursuit of the boys coming up, mistook him for one of ~~these~~ them and ~~struck~~ ^{stabbed} him with a pocket knife on the left temple inflicting a quite severe wound. The complainant is very desirous of withdrawing his complaint having recovered entirely from the effects of the wound. The defendant has a wife and six children, the eldest ^{child} being a little over ten years of age. The wife and children are entirely dependent for support on the defendant. Defendant has resided for 30 years in this city and has, he states, never been arrested before. He is by occupation a laborer. He also states that he was seven years in the United States army and three years in the navy and served through the late civil war in the army and was wounded at Antietam and now draws a pension from the ~~federal~~ Federal Government. The facts herein are substantially set forth above and I respectfully recommend in view of these facts that ~~to~~ a plea of assault in the second degree be accepted and that judgment thereon be suspended and the defendant be ~~dismissed~~ discharged on his own recognizance.

Court of General Sessions. Put Before Judge Gildersleeve May 10, 1888

Indictment for assault in the first degree.

Thomas Gorman sworn. I live 1443

Second Avenue and am an ice dealer. I know the defendant; on the second of March I saw him in the liquor store corner of 76th St. and Second Avenue between 8 and 9 o'clock in the morning. I went in as usual to get a drink. A man by the name of Kenny and I were talking; we had some words, Coleman was behind the bar; we had some words about telling the boss to come down to the store. I slapped Mr. Kenny in the face and I accused Coleman of being the cause of the trouble between me and Mr. Kenny; Mr. Kenny and I walked over to the bar and had a drink; while we were talking at the bar Coleman was waiting on customers; he came down and stood five or ten minutes in front of us and pulled out a pistol and shot Kenny first through the shoulder and I afterwards through the jaw; the first shot me here (pointing to the cheek) and the ball went through my mouth and came out under the jaw. I was taken to the hospital in an ambulance and remained there five weeks. I went into the store alone and Kenny came in while I was there. The defendant was the bar keeper and he was in there. Then I had words with Kenny I had none with the defendant. Kenny was shot too; he was a customer. Coleman was behind the bar when I slapped Kenny. I made up my quarrel with Kenny, and asked him to come and take a drink. It was about ten minutes after that Coleman fired at Kenny; he was standing inside of the bar right opposite both of us. Kenny went away, I don't know where he is. I was close to Kenny at the time and the defendant was about two and a half or three feet from us. I did not see him take out the revolver and aim it. Kenny had no difficulty with Coleman. Then I accused the defendant of being the cause of the trouble between me and Kenny he did not say a word. I had no trouble with him before that.

Cross Examined. I never had any trouble with this man, I have known him sixteen months. I was not much under the influence of liquor when this happened. I had two drinks with Coleman before Kenny came in. Coleman was drunk when I went in and when the shots were fired. I am sure that when Coleman was looking for something in the drawer Kenny did not say, "let me look at that Jimmy." Coleman was not holding the revolver in front when the shots went off. I don't know how he held it. Kenny was revolver in front when the shots went off. I don't know how he held it. Kerry was the first one shot. I will swear that Coleman did not stagger when the shot went off. I stepped over and looked at him and I got it in the jaw; Coleman made no threat at me that morning; there was not an angry word spoken between us. Kerry was a friend of his and had no quarrel with him. After the shot was fired Coleman put on his coat and walked out through the side door and left me alone in the store. I don't know any reason why the defendant shot. We have always been good friends together; I got him back in his position after he was discharged twice.

Samuel Lewis sworn. I live in 98th St. and keep a restaurant. I have known the defendant a month and know Gorman about a year. I remember the 2nd of March, they were in Hofar's saloon 76th St. and Second Avenue. I judge between eight and nine o'clock I saw a shot fired by Coleman in the saloon. I was in about two minutes when the shot was fired. I asked Coleman for a drink and got it and then I sat down and read a newspaper. I saw him draw a pistol and shoot the other man who was shot first and then shoot Gorman after.

I was ~~at~~ the end of the bar. I did not see where the defendant took the pistol from, but I saw it in his hand; he pulled it from under his apron and shot. He raised up his hand and shot one and then the other. I heard him make no threats when he shot; he then put on his coat and went up the avenue. I saw him go out. Cross Examined: Coleman was under the influence of liquor. I don't know that he sent Kenny after the boss to take charge of the store. I was speaking to a man named Murphy at the time the shooting was done. I don't know that Coleman staggered when the shot went off. I always knew they were good friends before that.

Thomas Murphy sworn. I am a plasterer and live at 230 East Seventy Sixth st. I know the complainant and defendant. I remember seeing them on the second day of March in a saloon on the north east corner of Seventy Sixth st. and Second Avenue about 9 1/2 in the morning. I heard a shot which Coleman fired. I saw him fire the shots at Kenny and Forman. I saw the pistol in the defendant's hand; the defendant was behind the bar. Kenny and Forman dropped. I did not see Coleman leave the store. I left before he did; the whole thing occupied two minutes.

They were close together when the shots were

They were close together when the shots were fired. I was standing right by them.

Peter Langle sworn. I live at 340 East 76th and am a Bricklayer. I know the complainant and the defendant; on the 2nd of March I saw them in this saloon. I heard a shot but did not see who fired it as I had my back towards the bar. I heard two shots fired. I turned around and saw Gorman kneeling under the bar and Owen Kenny; they were both shot. Coleman was standing at the bar talking with Kenny before the shots were fired; after that Gorman rose up and said, "Jimmy, what are you after doing? Do you want to kill me?" Coleman put on his coat and went out.

Thomas Denohue sworn. I am an officer of the 25th precinct and arrested the defendant on the second of March about 9.30 in his home 81st St. near Third Avenue. I was waiting there for him to come in. I told him what I arrested him for. He said he was guilty and he did not know why he did it. I got the pistol; it was not his but it belonged to the proprietor of the store; he got it back; it was a self cocker 32 calibre Smith and Wesson. At the time I arrested the defendant he seemed to be all right. He said he did the shooting.

The Case for the Defence.

Thomas Fox sworn. I live at 383 Fifth ave. and keep a hardware and furnishing goods store. I know Coleman about four years. I never saw him quarrelsome and never knew that he injured a child. I never heard of his being arrested. I never heard his character discussed by those who knew him.

Thomas Blancey sworn. I live at 416 West Forty Sixth st., am a car driver, and have lived in this city 37 years. I am uncle of the defendant; he has lived in this city five years, he came from Ireland and is a married man. I never heard of his being in trouble before.

Mary C. Coleman sworn. I am the wife of the defendant and have been married sixteen months and have a child. I have known my husband five years, and he is good and kind. I never had an angry word yet. I remember the morning he came home, he was under the influence of liquor.

James Coleman sworn. I am going on 27 years old and have been in this country five years; it will be three years next fall since I went to work for Mr. Hofan in Seventy Sixth st.; I was never arrested before. I am married 17 months. I left Mr. Hofan's employ for a while and
