Joseph J. Mulligan

Indictment for obtaining a signature to a written instrument by false pretences.

Court of General Sessions Part I
Before Recorder Smyth. May 8, 1891.

Eni Steinhof, sworn and examined through the Interpreter, testified: Where do you live? No. 47 Avenue B. Where did you live on the 5th of January of this year? No. 46 Stuyvesant street. What were you employed at? Servant girl. What is the name of the family? Feltheim. Do you know the defendant Joseph J. Mulligan? Yes. When did you first meet him and where? When he came in the room, he hired a furnished room in the house with another man, 46 Stuyvesant street. On the 5th of January where were you? I was at Mr. Feltheim's. Were you confined to your bed? No, I was not. Did you see the defendant Mulligan there that day? Yes sir. Did you have a conversation with him? Yes sir. I was hanging up the wash by the window. He came in the room and sat down writing, but I did not know what he was writing. When I got through hanging up the wash, he said, "Eni, let me see how you write your name." I told him I could not write it in English. He said, "Let me see how you write it in German." I told him I could not. He says, "yes, you can." I wrote it down, but only in Hungarian letters. Then I went out because I was afraid the boss' son wanted to lick me. I went out of the room; the boss' son was on the top floor. The boss' son wanted to catch me, and I locked myself in Mulligan's room; then I went out into the kitchen. Have you ever seen that before? (paper shown) ~~that~~ did you see it before you saw it at the bank? I seen it where I wrote my name. That is your name there. You put it there? Yes, that is my writing. Was the writing above your name on there at the time you signed it? The writing was there, only the blue ink and the red stamp was not on it. Can you read English? No sir. When you put your name to that paper what did ~~you~~ do with the paper? I left it in Mulligan's room and went down to the kitchen. Did you hand it to Mulligan? No. ^{By the Court} Where did you leave it, on the table or on the floor or where? I think it was on the table.

By the Foreman: What room was she in when she signed it? In Mulligan's room. Was she hanging up the wash in Mulligan's room? Yes sir.

By Mr. Townsend: Look at that, have you ever seen that before (Dry Dock Savings Bank Book)? Sure, it is my book, she says.

Mr. Townsend: I offer this paper in evidence and the Dry Dock Saving Institution book.

Marked People's Exhibit Nos. 1 and 2.

Then did you next go to the Savings Bank after the 5th of January? I do not remember exactly. I don't know sure when I went there, may be two or three weeks after. You keep your money in the Dry Dock Savings bank did you? Yes sir. You went there after the 5th of January to get some money did you? I deposited money there. I did not draw any out after that. Did not you go down to draw some money out? After he was arrested I went with my sister to get a hundred dollars. You went to the Dry Dock Savings Bank about two weeks after the 5th of January didn't you? I do not remember. Look at that book, when you discovered the pages were they torn out of the book? When I went to the bank to draw the hundred dollars I noticed the leaves torn out. When did you go to the bank to draw the hundred dollars? It was on the Friday before I had him arrested, but I do not know the day of the month. When you went to the Bank you discovered that you did not have the hundred dollars there is that it? Yes sir, that is the time. Look at the paper again, did you tell Mulligan that he could write that on the paper? No. Did he do it with any permission or authority from you? No sir. Did you give Mulligan the bank book? No, I did not. Did you see him take the bank book? No. Where was your bank book? My bank book was in my room in a hat box. Where did she keep the hat box? It is only a paper box, it was not locked up. Where was her room, was it near Mulligan's? My room was in the basement near the kitchen. There was Mulligan's room? Mulligan's room was on the third floor. How did Mulligan know that she had a bank book? She said. I lost four dollars and two dollars the same day. Ask her if Mulligan ever saw that bank book & his to her knowledge? I do not know whether he seen it or not, not with me. Did she ever tell him that she had a bank book or any money in this bank? I do not remember. When I went to the bank one day, it was a very windy day and deposited some money and I lost my bank book, and a little girl came running after me and brought it and gave me the book, and I was so frightened when I got home I do not remember now when I got home whether I told him or not, whether she told Mulligan or not she was so frightened she don't remember that she told Mulligan whether she had a bank book or not or lost the bank book.

Cross Examined: You recollect being in the Police Court about the 24th of March? I was not in the Court until I knew that I had lost my money.

Is that your name (showing police Court examination)? Yes sir, that is my name. Before you signed your name this was read to you, was it? I think so. Your memory was as good as the 14th of March as it is today? I was very much frightened then, I did not know any more what I said there. In the Police Court she was frightened? Yes. Were you frightened on the 14th of April up stairs before Judge Fitzgerald? Sure I was very much frightened. When you say "frightened" don't you mean to say you were nervous, is not that all? That is what I mean. I was agitated. Before you went to the Police Court you had made your statement to the Police Headquarters, had not you? Yes, in Mulberry street. Did you speak with officer Evanhoe? Yes. You told him all about your case didn't you and the loss of your money? Yes sir. And where you went to the Police Court officer Evanhoe was with you, was not he in Jefferson Market, and he was there when you swore to this paper and Mulligan was there? Yes sir. Since the 14th of April when you were up stairs have you been speaking with anybody about this case? I do not know. Didn't you speak with the detective about the case? I seen him yesterday. You recollect Mulligan being discharged up stairs? I do not know. You recollect talking to Assistant

District Attorney Lindsay after she was in Judge Fitzgerald's Court? I do not know who Mr. Lindsay is; he is a young man. Was the detective with Mr. Evanshoe? I don't know whether he was with him or not. How long had Mulligan been living in the house you were servant in? I do not remember exactly; he came in before Christmas. Was there anybody rooming with him? Another man by the name of Leipziger. Was Leipziger rooming with Mulligan up to the time Mulligan left the house that the complainant was employed in? I am not quite sure, but I think the both went away together. Is it not a fact that Mulligan was living at 46 Fitzgerald Place until a week before he was arrested? One or two weeks, I am not sure. Living in the place where you were employed? He was living there ^{quite a} while after the 5th of January. Do you know when Leipziger left? No. I do not exactly, it was on a Thursday, but I do not know on what day of the month. He left before Mulligan did he not? I do not know. I do not remember. Who else lived in the house besides Mulligan and Leipziger about the 5th of January? Mr. Blumenthal, Mr. Bent, Mr. Weber, Mr. Wabeger, Mr. Wahn and Mr. Professor and the family. What did the family consist ofhow many people? A lady, her husband and two sons. How many rooms are there in the house? Nine rooms. These rooms are all rented as furnished rooms and all occupied, except the room where the boss is. They were all open. I had to clean them and I had the keys to all the rooms. Each of the boarders had a different key. I think Mulligan's room was open. I had lost some money before while I was living in Mr. Feldheim's and I accused the boss' son of taking it. When you said that you were afraid the boss' son would lick you that was what you had reference to, was it not? Yes sir, that is what is meant. He was in the house at the time you signed this paper, up stairs? Yes sir, he was up stairs on the top floor. How old is the boss' son? He is 29 years. How long have you been working in the house? Six months. You clean all the rooms in the house, don't you? Yes sir. You have been in Mulligan's room before where he has been there? Yes, he was here often when I cleaned his rooms. He has been in the room with you? Sunday's very often when I made the beds. You were talking to him and he would talk to you? I do not remember very well, but I suppose he did. How many times have you signed your name before in that house? I do not know, I cannot remember whether I ever did a not. Did you not sign your name three or four times for Mr. Leipziger on a piece of paper? I do not remember. I will not swear

I did not because I do not know. I write my name the same in German or English as I do in Hungarian. Had you ever signed your name for the boss' son? I could not swear because I do not know whether I ever signed it for him or not. Do you know the writing of any person in the house? No.
I do not know Mulligan's handwriting. I can not read English. The defendant did not tell me what the writing was when I signed it.
He said he wanted to know how I could write in English. The writing was on the paper when I signed my name. I saved the paper which was in his room. Before he handed me the paper to sign I saw Mulligan sitting at the table writing. Do you recollect swearing in the Police Court that the paper you signed your name on was blank? I do not remember what I swore to; maybe they did not understand me.
Where did you keep your bank book? In my hat box and the hat box was in a small bureau behind the door in my room. Did you ever see Mulligan in your room? Yes, he was in there once when he gave me two dollars to pay for his room; he was there maybe five or ten minutes. I do not remember that he was ever in my room more than once; the door was open. When did you see your bankbook there before January the 5th? I do not know that I seen the bankbook, but I seen the cover of this bank book in a hat box when I went to it on Sunday. I saw it there right along, but I do not know whether the book was in it. When did you miss your money? The time I went to the bank to draw a hundred dollars. That was some time in March. Did you not tell the boss' son you had money in the bank? I guess so, I aint sure. My boss knew I had a bank book, but I dont know whether the boss' son knew it or not. When Mr. Mulligan asked you to sign your name to a piece of paper, did he ask you to write it like you do in English? He told me I should show him how I could write in English. I think that is all he said. I told him I could not write in English. Then he said, "let me see how you write in German." I told him I could not write in German. He said, "yes, you can;" then I copied it in Hungarian. I wrote the Hungarian the same as I do in English. Did you Have any writing of Mulligan's amongst ^{the} papers that he left there? There was some papers there, but I threw them away. When Mulligan was in your room and you went out into the kitchen did he follow you immediately or stay in the room a minute or two before he followed you into the kitchen? I think he came right out, but I am not sure. I went to Mulligan's room on the 5th of January to hang out the wash; the ^{pulling} leading to the back yard are on his window.

When I was there Mulligan came in.

William J. Clark, sworn and examined. I am the assistant paying teller of the Dry Dock Savings Institution. I have seen the draft now shown me on the 5th of January at my window in the bank; a stranger presented it to me, a man; he presented the pass book now shown me. I charged the draft on the pass book and also put the number of the pass book on the draft and the amount. I enquired of the gentleman who presented the pass book what his name was and he said it was John Schwartz. I requested him to endorse the draft, and he did so, writing the name of John Schwartz. I then enquired where he lived, and he said, No. 46 Thayer Street. I wrote that myself. That is my writing on the back. That is as far as I had anything to do with it. I passed it down to the paying teller, and he paid the draft. The entry in the book now shown me is not in my handwriting. It says, "January 5, th sixty dollars." I made an entry in the book; the second page is torn out; when the book was handed to me the other leaf was in it; the second and third pages were in it, but they are not there now; the original entry is gone. I could not identify the man who presented the book if I should see him. We have three or four hundred every day, and I do not pretend to identify anybody. I compared the signature on the draft with the signature on our book and they agreed; the signature of the depositor on the draft was genuine.

Albert Wampler, sworn and examined, testified I am a book keeper in the Dry Dock Savings bank and was so in March. The book now shown me I saw in the bank some time in March. I know the complainant Eric Steinbof who has been a witness here. I saw her at the bank in March; she had that book; she is the owner of it. "January 5, th sixty dollars" is in my handwriting. I made it about the 23^d of March; it was presented to me for interest at that time by the complainant. I looked at the ledger and looked at the book and found that the charge of sixty dollars had not been entered on this book.

Frank M. Eranhoe, sworn and examined, testified: You are connected with the Central office in this city? Yes sir. Did you arrest the defendant Mulligan? I did. Where and where? At No. 5 Broadway. I don't know what date it was, the day following the complaint about the 23^d of March. Did you have any conversation with him? I did. What was it, tell the jury? I went up at 5 Broadway and enquired if there was a man named Mulligan there, and the boy told me, 'yes.' I found Mulligan. Did you have any talk with him? Yes. I said I was from Inspector Byrnes' office, and that I came down from there to enquire about a matter that he had with that girl Steinhoff, that lived in the same room with him, I thought that the matter could be fixed up, and if it was not fixed up the chances were there would be some trouble about it. Then he said he was very sorry that he did that, and that he would pay her back now that he was holding a position, and he thought he would be able to pay it back. In going up on the car I told him that I would take him up there to straighten the matter up with the girl. I asked him did he have any trouble in getting this money? He said that he did not, that it was very easily got. That is about all the conversation I had with him. I took him over to Headquarters, and got the girl to come over and make a complaint against him. Did he say anything about where he got the money? No. Did he say anything about the bank? He said he went to the bank and got the money. He said he did not have any trouble in getting the money at the bank. I asked him did he have any trouble at the Bank in getting the money? He said, no, that he got it very easily.

Cross Examined. I was a witness before the ~~Grand~~ Jury and also in the Police Court. I talked with the girl since the case was tried before Judge Fitzgerald. Tell us exactly what you said to the defendant and what he said to you at the time you visited No 5 Broadway?

When he came out I asked him if his name was Mulligan. I showed him my shield and told him I was from Inspector Byrne's office. I told him I came down there for the purpose of straightening that matter up with that servant girl, and that I thought the matter could be fixed up, and if he wanted to fix it before there would be any trouble about it, he could come up with me and fix it up. Then he said that he was very sorry that he had taken the girl's money and had intended to pay her back and would pay her back now that he had a permanent position. So I took him up for the purpose of straightening the matter up. On going up in the car I asked him, did he have any trouble in getting the money at the bank? and he said, no, that he got it very easy. This is substantially the same conversation that I testified to on the trial before Judge Fitzgerald, it may not be word for word. I do not exactly remember anything else. Did you use the word "settle?" Something to that effect. Was it not then that the defendant said to you, "sooner than be arrested he would sooner settle it because he had no steady employment?" I do not remember, he said he was sorry he had taken the girl's money and would pay her back. Was it not in answer to your question, but by you to him, that you would either straighten or settle the matter that he said he would settle it than go to the trouble of being arrested? I do not remember that. My best recollection is that he told me he wanted to settle the matter, or I would take him up there to settle it. He started to talk about the case, and I knew he was Joseph Mulligan. When you asked for Joseph Mulligan some one was pointed out by me. Yes. I did not know he was the right Joseph. I had a fair description of him that tallied somewhat with the defendant. I was sure he was the man when he said he was willing to come up and pay the girl, that he was sorry for having done what he did. ^(the defendant) He signed the paper now shown me in the Police Court.

William T. Clark recalled by Mr. Townsend. I have been nearly seventeen years connected with the bank and have been accustomed during that time to examine signatures. To the best of my knowledge and belief the signature John Shwartz was signed at my window on the draft, and to the best of my opinion the signature in the complaint was made by the same person.

Joseph J. Mulligan, sworn and examined in his own defense testified. I am twenty three years old. I have never been arrested before. I have not resided all the time in the city of New York. I am a printer and have been employed on several local newspapers. I know the complainant, Miss Steinhoff. I lived at 46 Stuyvesant Place about January 5th. I resided there until a week before I was arrested. Where did you move to then? St. Mark's Place. At the time you were arrested where were you working and for whom? No. 5 Broadway for the Financier Co. Publishing a financial paper. I was one of the agents. I was setting type the day I was arrested; at times I work inside. How many people had rooms at No. 46 Stuyvesant Place about January 5th? Seven or eight I should judge. My door was not locked. I don't know about the other doors. On January 5th it was locked. I left in the morning about a quarter to eight o'clock and I came back again I should judge at nine o'clock. Did you have a conversation with Eric Steinoff on that day? Yes. Was there anybody else in the room with you? No sir. What did you say to her, if anything? When I came to the door it was locked and I was surprised at her knocking. She opened the door. I asked what was the matter? She said she was afraid of the boss' son, she was afraid he might strike her. I went inside; she went on hanging her clothes after locking the door again. I sat down and wrote two or three business letters. I got up and had a very severe headache that would not allow me to go to work that day and I laid down on the bed. When she was through hanging out the wash, she came over and sat on a chair and put some question about how I was feeling and asked me to have a cup of coffee. I told her I did not care about any. She went over and commenced talking about Mr. ~~Fitz~~heim's son. I got up and went to the table to write another letter. I asked her if she could write as well as I could? She said, no, she could not write English. She picked up a pen and said, "the only way I can write is Hungarian. I believe she said that. I am not positive about that part. She wrote her name on a paper; there was nothing on the paper when she signed her name to it. I went out of the room and left her in it. That is as much as I know about the occurrence on that day. Did you go to her to have her sign her name to a piece of paper for the purpose of having it presented at the bank? No sir. I will hand you this piece of paper (the draft) did you have her sign that paper in the condition that it is in, with the exception of the blue pencil marks and the endorsement? No sir. Whose handwriting is this the body of it? That I do not know. Is it yours? No sir. Do you know anything at all about that piece of paper? I do not Know anything positive about that. There was several times she signed her name. I could not swear to that. At the time she signed the paper in your room it did not have the writing on it that it has there now? No sir. Had the paper on which she wrote her name in your presence and at your request any writing on it at the time she wrote her name? Not that I know of. I did not take any particular notice of what she was writing on. I don't know whether it had writing on or not. She wrote her name about a dozen times. I did not endorse the paper John Schwartz. Officer Evanshoe came to where I was working. He asked me if I was Joseph Mulligan? I said, I was. I asked him what I could do for him? He asked me if I knew a servant girl up at the house? I said I did. He said she made a complaint to the Inspector and he was detailed on the case and he came down to see me. I asked him what the case was? He says, "You have got some money of hers. I told him she must be mistaken. I asked him what he wanted me to do. He said, I want you to go up and see the Inspector. I told him, "all right." I went in and washed my hands. I went out on the street and around Battery Park. He asked me how I was fixed. I told him I did not have a dollar. I had a few cents in my pocket. It is bad, he says, if you had some money this case might be fixed up. "I told him I had no money. He asked me if I had any way of getting it. I told him I did not think so at present. He walked out. He says, "I am sorry, I might use my influence and have this girl settle." I asked what this case was, and he described to me what I was supposed to be charged with. He said, I took the girl's bank book and went to the bank and got the money out of the Bank. I told him he must have the wrong man, he said, No. It was Joseph Mulligan that was charged with it. Going up in the Elevated I asked him if I could not go up and see the girl and see if she was not mistaken. We got out at Houston street and stood on the corner of Bowery. I asked him if he was not going up. He said, No. I will have to take you to the Police Headquarters. We went over there. I did not say to the officer that I did not have trouble in getting the money from the bank. I don't know anything at all about obtaining that money from the bank.

Cross examined by Mr. Townsend. Had you ever seen Eric Steinhoff write her name in Hungarian? I would not know Hungarian if I seen it. Do you know that the letters in Hungarian are the same as in English? No sir, I have not any knowledge whatever of that. You recollect distinctly that it was January the 5th 1890. That this girl was in your room, and that you were writing letters do you? No sir. I do not remember the date exactly, it may have been that time. Don't you recollect the 5th of January? No sir. Was it in the winter time? Yes, it was in the winter time; it was sometime after the holidays I should judge. You recollect that you left the room that morning and returned and found the room door locked? Yes. You recollect the conversation between you and the girl with reference to the boss son? Yes. You recollect sitting down at the table and writing letters? Yes. You recollect that this transaction took place with reference to the signature? Yes. You asked her whether she could write her signature in English? I asked her if she could write in English? She said she could. She says, I do not know. I may have misunderstood what she said. She went over to the table and wrote. I did not give her the paper on which she wrote. There was a lot of paper on the table, the paper was near by where I had been writing. Do you recollect ever being in her room? I do not remember any particular time. Do you recollect paying her money, two dollars? I may have went up stairs to pay her, but I do not recollect being in her room. Do you recollect where her room was in the building? At the foot of the stairs. There may have been two connecting rooms. I could not tell you. Do you recollect being in the Police Court before Justice Ford? Yes. Do you recollect stating that you were twenty four years of age? I do. Look at that, is that your signature? you signed that? Yes. Do you know where the Dry Dock Savings bank is? Yes, I think I do. Where is it? Somewhere on Third Avenue I should judge. I don't know the exact corner. Have you ever kept an account there? No sir, I have not. Have you ever been there? No sir, I never have. Who were the persons to whom you wrote business letters? One was a gentleman in Buffalo. Mr. Hammond cashier of a bank, the People's bank of Buffalo. What business were you writing to him about? I wrote to him in regard to an advertisement. Did you mail that letter? I did. I don't know when I mailed it. I may have done so that day or waited until the next morning. Another letter which I wrote was to a female friend of mine; Miss Simmons. To the best of my knowledge I mailed it. I wrote two letters that day. The paper now shown me resembles the kind of paper I used. Did you leave any of that paper ~~any~~ behind you when you left the house? Not that I know of; there may have been some of it ~~some~~ left in the drawer of the bureau. Did you know that the complainant had money in the Dry Dock Savings Bank? No sir I never did. Did you tear from the book of the Dry Dock Savings Bank two or three pages? No sir. Do you know anything at all about her having a bank book? No sir. I never did. Have you any paper in your pocket with your hand-writing on? No sir, I have not.

At the request of the Court the defendant wrote a few lines on a sheet of paper. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty. The defendant was sentenced to the Elmira Reformatory.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS OF THE PEACE,

Of the City and County of New York.

The People of the State of New York,)

--against--)

JOSEPH J. MULLIGAN.)

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this Indictment A c c u s e JOSEPH J. MULLIGAN of the Crime of obtaining the signature of a person to a written instrument by means of false pretences; committed as follows:

T h e said Joseph J. Mulligan, late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the fifth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, at the Ward,
City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud one FNI STEINHOF, who was then and there unable to read the English language, or to write the English language, except her own name, and who then had on deposit to her credit in a certain banking institution there known as the Dry Dock Savings Institution, a large sum of money, to wit: more than the sum of sixty dollars, as he, the said Joseph J. Mulligan, then and there well knew, did then and there feloniously, unlawfully, knowingly, and designedly, falsely pretend and represent to the said Eni Steinhof, that he, the said Joseph J. Mulligan, then desired to see whether she, the said Eni Steinhof, could write her name, and that a certain piece of paper which he then produced and delivered to her, then contained nothing which, by the placing of her signature thereon, could in any way operate to the injury of her rights or property, or affect her in any way, that by writing her name upon the same she, the said Eni Steinhof, could not be in any way injured, and no instrument would be thereby created, and that his object in delivering the said piece of paper to her was solely to have her write her name in order to gratify his curiosity, and satisfy him as to whether she could write her name.

A n d the said Eni Steinhof then and there believing the said false pretences and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Joseph J. Mulligan, and being deceived thereby, was induced, by reason of the false pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, to sign, and did then and there sign and deliver to the, said Joseph J. Mulligan, a certain written instrument in the words and figures following, to wit:

"New York Jan 5 1890.

"Paying Teller

3

"Please pay to the bearer sixty dollars, (60)
"and charge to my account, as I am sick and cannot
"get out of my bed to go myself.

"I want the money to pay my doctor and my
"board.

"Eni Steinhof."

and the said Joseph J. Mulligan did then and there feloniously and designedly receive and obtain the said signature of the said Eni Steinhof to the said written instrument, by color and by aid, and by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, and with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud the said Eni Steinhof thereby.

A N D W H E R E A S, in truth and in fact, the said Joseph J. Mulligan did not then desire to see whether she, the said Eni Steinhof, could write her name; and the said piece of paper which he then produced and delivered to her, did then contain something which by the placing of her signature thereon could operate to the injury of her rights and property and affect her, and the said piece of paper was then and there the written instrument hereinabove set forth with the exception of and without the signature of her, the said Eni Steinhof; and by writing her name upon the same she, the said Eni Steinhof, could be injured and the said written instrument could be, and was, thereby created; and the object of the said Joseph J. Mulligan in delivering the said piece of paper to her was not solely, or even in part, to have her write her name in order to gratify his curiosity or to satisfy him as to whether she could write her name, but his object was to thereby deceitfully and fraudulently procure her signature to the said written instrument, so that he might cause the same to be presented to the said Dry Dock Savings Institution as a good and valid order of the said Eni Steinhof, for the payment of the said sum of sixty dollars in money, and thereby obtain the said sum of money from the said Dry Dock Savings Institution, to the great injury and loss of the said Eni Steinhof.

A N D W H E R E A S, in truth and in fact, the pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, by the said Joseph J. Mulligan to the said Eni Steinhof was and were in all respects utterly false and untrue, to wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid.

A N D W H E R E A S, in fact and in truth the said Joseph J. Mulligan well knew the said pretences and representations so by him made as aforesaid to the said Eni Steinhof, to be utterly false and untrue at the time of making the same.

And so the Grand Jury aforesaid, do say, that the said Joseph J. Mulligan, by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, feloniously, unlawfully, falsely, knowingly and designedly, did receive and obtain from the said Eni Steinhof her signature of Officers Stapleton & Haggerty of the 7th District deponent being informed by said Officers that they arrested defendant on suspicion of having committed the within Burceny, as being the man whom he had sent to the bank and who had appropriated deponent's money in the manner aforesaid.

Deponent further says - defendant admitted in open court in the presence of said Officers, and after having been informed of his rights, that he did receive said money from the Cashier of said bank, and had appropriated the same to his own use.

Wherefore, deponent charges defendant with fraudulently obtaining possession of said money with the intent to cheat deponent and to deprive deponent its true owner, of the use and benefit thereof and prays defendant be held and dealt with as the law directs.
