Court of General Sessions. Part I
Before Recorder Smyth May 27. 1891
Indictment for carrying concealed weapons.
Michael Brady, sworn and examined, testified
I am a police officer attached to the thirty fourth precinct in this city. I recollect the 10th of May I was in the station house about 4.15 in the afternoon when a gentleman came there.
In consequence of information which I received. I went to Third avenue and 117th street and there found the prisoner in a Third avenue horse car. I arrested him and found in his possession that dagger which is now shown me. That is the knife that I found. Where did you find it? In his right pantalons pocket. What else did you find?
A six chambered revolver 32 calibre; that was in his coat and it was loaded. It was in the breast pocket of his coat, and a number of cartridges were in his ^{vest} pocket.
I think about a dozen of them were in an envelope. Those are the cartridges; they have been in my possession ever since. I arrested him and took him to the station house and made a charge against him for carrying concealed weapons. I took him to Court the following morning and he was held in five hundred dollars. What was he doing in this Railroad car when you arrested him? He was not doing anything at the time. I was informed by the conductor, Patrick Mulligan, who is here. He and a number of citizens made a statement to me; that is all I know.

Patrick Mulligan, sworn and examined, testified. I am conductor for the Harlem Bridge Morrisania, Tremont and Fordham Railroad Co., which is a continuation of the Third Avenue Railroad. I recollect the 10th of May last, this month, and on the afternoon of that day I was conductor on a railroad car on that road. I saw the defendant on the car and collected his fare. What did he do? He had an altercation with a passenger on the car. There is a single track there; we ran on a switch ball or the up going car to go by the defendant stood in the way of the driver, he did not get out of the way, and the passenger that had the altercation with him called him a dago, and the defendant got highly indignant over it and words passed between them. I do not know what they were, but they got off the car, and when they were about twenty feet away from the car the defendant pulled a gun, a revolver and similar to the one now shown me; it was pointed at a passenger named Mr Beaman. He ran around the car and I stood right in the way. Then what did you do after that? I walked over to him and asked him to put it in his pocket, which he did; he got aboard the car again and I brought him to 74th street and placed him in the hands of detective Brady and officer Smith and they brought him to the Sement station house, the 34th precinct. Do you know ^{Wm.} Schroeder and George Schroeder, the two witnesses? Not personally, I know who they are now. Were they there at the time? They were on the car, I know them by face, not by name. Do you know officer Brady? Yes sir I placed the defendant in his possession, he arrested him. You did not see anything further? No sir. I had to go right ahead with my car.

Cross Examined by Counsel
You did not see the beginning of the altercation? Yes sir, from start to finish. Was the person he was quarreling with an Italian? They had some words before. You have not answered my question, was the party the defendant was quarreling with an Italian? No sir. Do you know what nationality he was? I could not say. Do you know his name? Yes sir, William Bearman. Was Bearman sober or drunk? Bearman might be a little under the influence of liquor. Do you know who began the quarrel? That is more than I know. I thought you said you saw it from start to finish? I seen the man drawing the revolver. But there was an altercation preceding the drawing of the revolver the beginning of which you did not see? I did not see the first part of it, no. You do not know who was the aggressor? No sir, not positively. I do not. When you told the Italian, the defendant here to put the revolver up he did it quietly? Yes sir, he put it in his pocket. He showed no disposition to quarrel with anybody then? No sir, he did not.

By the Court. That was his pistol? Yes sir.

By Counsel. Did you hear him called "dago" by Beaman that is the word he used. Did you hear him called a covey? No sir. Did you hear profane language used? No sir. Is it not a fact that Beaman swore at the Italian, at this defendant, and used very profane language? No sir. Did you see him strike him? No sir. You did not see all that took place there? I did not see him strike the Italian; he had not been struck at all.

The Court. There is nothing in the indictment to cover the revolver. The only charge in this indictment is that this defendant carried concealed on his person that knife; that is all; that is what we are trying him for; that is what the indictment charges.

Counsel I am aware of that, but your Honor ~~collet~~ into the question of what he had the knife for.

The Court Yes, that probably goes to show what he carried the knife for.

Mr. Townsend That is all.

The Court The case is with you now.

Edison Lawrence, sworn and examined for the defence testified: Where do you live? No. 171 Palmetto street, Brooklyn. What is your business? Contractor. You have been engaged in that business how many years? About four years in Brooklyn. Do you know this defendant, Louis Terry? He has worked for me almost steadily for the last two years and a half until within the last month. What is his character for peace and quietness? He was always very quiet I considered; he never disturbed anybody.

By the Court What was his character for peace and quietness, is it good or bad? It is good.

By Counsel Have you seen him have this knife that has been exhibited here today? I do not know the knife. I did not notice it; it is similar to what all Italians have.

By the Court Have you seen him with that knife.

No, not that knife

By Counsel Have you seen him use a knife similar to that? Yes sir.

For what purpose did he use it when you saw him.

The Court That does not make any difference.

Counsel Does your Honor exclude that question? It would tend, it would go to show why he carried it?

The Court Why Certainly. [Counsel: Note an exception]

The Witness All Italians have that

By Counsel Have you seen him very frequently during the two years and a half he was in your employ? I see him every day. Is he a hard-working, peaceable and quiet man.

The Court He said all he can on that subject, that his character for peace and quietness was good.

Louis Jey, sworn and examined.

By the Court. What is your name? Louis Jey
How old are you? Witness: I want an Interpreter.

Tell me how old you are? I cannot talk English because I do not understand it much.

Are you fifty years old? I cannot talk English. I want an Interpreter.

By Counsel Where do you live? I live in Brooklyn.
What is your business? Laborer.
Is this your knife? (Knife shown) Yes sir.
What do you use that knife for? We are workmen, and we always need a knife to cut our bread and other things that we have to do.

Did you carry that knife on the Sunday you were arrested for the purpose of cutting or stabbing any person? I had it in my pocket but I had no intention to hurt anybody with it.

Have you ever arrested? This is the first time I ever was arrested.
How long have you been in the country?
Two years and a half.

By Mr. Townsend Do you know Officer Brady? Yes sir. I know him. I know him since he had me arrested. I did not know him before.
And he took the knife from him, did he?
Yes sir, he took it out of my pocket.
Is that yours, look at that (pistol shown)
Yes sir. [Counsel: I object.]

The Court It was identified as his and found on his person when he was arrested on this charge.

By Mr. Townsend: Is that his? A. He says, yes it is.
Did he have that in his possession on the 18th of May when Officer Brady arrested him? Yes sir, I had it in my pocket.

The Court You have proved that fact.

By Mr. Townsend: What did he have it for?

Objected to objection sustained. Question withdrawn.

By the Court Ask him if he had a permit from any police captain or from any of the police authorities to carry that weapon.

A No sir, I had no permission, but I carried this to defend myself against the loafers.

By the Court Ask him if those are his cartridges (cartridges shown to the witness)

A Yes sir, they belonged to this pistol.

Mr. Townsend: That is all; that is the case for the people.

Counsel That is the case for the defence.

Michael Brady recalled by the Court

Q What is that knife generally called?

A A dagger, a clasp knife.

Counsel for the defendant and for the people summed up the case.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty. The defendant was sentenced to the State prison for two years and six months.
