The People
vs.
Edward Lyons } Court of General Sessions. Part I Indictment for petty larceny from the person. } Before Judge Gildersleeve. Aug. 14. 1882 Benjamin W. Herzog, sworn and examined, testified, I live now 1278 Third Ave., between 83 and 84th Sts. Upon the night of the 11th of July I lost some property in West St. in this city. I could not tell you the time of night. I woke up at 1/4 past three o'clock on the 12th of July and I missed the property and I missed the man who was sleeping with me.
The property consisted of a double case silver watch, a gold plated locket, a gold chain, two pairs of earrings, a gold half-dollar, a pocket knife, a pocket book, and some 80 cents or a dollar in change. I had a step father at the time; since then he died. I could not get any work at my regular business, the butcher business, it being slack. My step father instigated my mother to put me out, so that I was obliged to sleep out of doors temporarily. The first night, Sunday night, I slept on the front stoop of my house and the next night in West St. Monday night I sat down in the City Hall Park.
The first night nothing happened because 0197

The man did not know I had any valuables about me. The night I lost my watch I was sleeping with him in a wagon. At a 1/4 past 3 o'clock I awoke and I found my bed fellow and my property gone. I saw my property next when he was showing it to a watchmaker on the Bowery near Prince St. he had only nine hours and a half the start of me; the wagon was corner of King and West Sts. I could not say if he was trying to sell it. I did not go in and demand my property of him, but I went to Houston St. two blocks away and got two officers and they arrested him. Cross Examined. My mother lives at 204 East 88th St. near Third Avenue. Monday night I slept in the wagon with the prisoner; the first night he did not take any property because he did not know I had any valuables, but the next morning in a mistake I pulled out my watch to see what time it was and he made an exclamation. "Oh, you are well fixed." I slept in the same wagon Tuesday night; it is a small wagon; no persons came into the wagon Monday night - O yes, I "seen" two others that were there; they got into our truck. I bought the gold earrings and silver watch honestly with my own money. I bought it from Richard Field & Co. Canal St. and from James Acre & Co in New Borey. I bought it about four weeks before that. Sunday night when I was thrown out of the house I took the jewelry with me. I was trying to sell the ear rings. I do not deal in jewelry, but I understand a little about it. The two pair of ear rings stood me about four dollars. I bought the silver watch about a month ago. at Field & Co and gave about $7.25 for it. Field's is a place where pawn brokers goods are sold by auction. I worked for Wm Bradley at butchering in Central Market. I was discharged because his customers went to the country and he had no work for me. I had not been drinking the day the jewelry was taken from me. I am not addicted to drinking. I have to look out for myself. Lopin B. McAdreth, sworn. I belong to the Sanitary squad and arrested Lyons in the Borey in a jeweler's store. No 230 I think it was on the 12th of July; he had a silver watch, two pairs of earrings and a gold chain; the property was identified by Mr. Herzog. When I first took hold of the prisoner he attempted to turn his coat on me but I secured him. He said, "here is the chain, he can have it if he wishes;" he had it in his hand showing it to the jeweler. I said, "Have you nothing else?" He says, "I have got something else." I examined him and found the other articles, the watch and ear rings. He said Mr. Herzog gave them to him to sell and that is what he was trying to do.

Edward Lyons, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I was sitting in the Park by the City Hall when this young fellow sat down and read the paper for hours. I told him I came from Chicago and that I had been sleeping two or three nights on the wagon; we slept in a wagon that night. He found 20 cents and gave me ten cents. Seven or eight men came looking over the wagon to get a place to sleep; he showed me the jewelry tied up in a handkerchief and asked me to keep it till morning. He asked me if I knew anything about jewelry and I told him not much; he said, "if you sell it, I will give half of the money to you; I promised to ship him in the Navy. I went into this store in the Bowery to see if the chain was gold, so that when I went into the pawn shop I would know what to ask for it.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny.
