John Oig being duly examined before the undersigned according to law, on the annexed charge, and being informed that it is his right to make a statement in relation to the charge against him; that the statement is designed to enable him if he see fit to answer the charge and explain the facts alleged against him that he is at liberty to waive making a statement, and that his waiver cannot be used against him on the trial.

Question. What is your name?

Answer. John Oig

Question. How old are you?

Answer. 42. Irish

Question. Where were you born?

Answer. Germany

Question. Where do you live and how long have you resided there?

Answer. 32 Bowery

Question. What is your business or profession?

Answer. Cupbearer

Question. Give any explanation you may think proper of the circumstances appearing in the testimony against you, and state any facts which you think will tend to your exculpation?

Answer. I am not guilty, I do not own the Silver - I got it from a boy, I saw the boy coming out of the basement of the Complainant's house - I followed the boy to the corner - he went down into the area of the Flat corner of 7th av and the street in which the Silver was stolen from the Complainant's house - the boy came up on the other side - he had the Spoon in his hand, but had put the Cup away he said in the ashes in the basement area of the corner House. I ret'd with him & got the Cup for the purpose of returning the Silver to the owner in the house of the Complainant from which I had seen the boy come out, when I met the witness Margaret O'Connell who took me by the arm, called me a thief and charged me with stealing the Silver - I gave her the Cup and she then demanded the Spoon - The Spoon was in my inside Coat Pocket.

This defendant was seen going toward 7th St - he was about 200 feet east of the complainant's premises - by the servant, Margaret O'Connor - She had wiped the silver from the Buffet in the front basement dining room, and went out into the street and suspected the defendant had it - She pursued him and compelled him to return - he gave the silver ^{spoons} back to her in the street - and when back in the house he gave up the silver spoons - Then the Officer McDonald came in and the defendant claimed the silk handkerchief in which

The Goblets were wrapped when the servant overtook him in the street.

The defendant denies that the Silver is his property & it has been ret'd to the owner.
W. Smith

The officer saw the defendant leaving the basement of this house, and saw the servant pursue him, and overtake him - and saw the def't return with the servant -

Officer deposes he was a collector who had business there and was called back by the servant - Officer says he was on the corner of 7th av & 122nd street and was in full view of this defendant when he left the basement and walked toward him at 7th av. - and was just afterward pursued by the servant.

~~At the~~ ^{Sawyer} Office has then with Officer McDonald at 7 AM. McDonald went down past the house of the complainant and hearing the voices in a high key within and the door open entered the place - the defendant has then given up the silver spoon to the servant Connor - and claimed the silk handkerchief in which the ~~handkerchief~~ silver goblet has been wrapped as his property.

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, against

Thomas W. Oliver
and John Barker

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse Thomas W. Oliver and John Barker of the CRIME OF ROBBERY in the first degree, committed as follows:

The said Thomas W. Oliver and John Barker, both — late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the twenty-eighth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, in the month of the said day, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, in and upon one George Barker, in the peace of the said People, then and there being, feloniously did make an assault, and one watch of the value of three hundred dollars, one chain of the value of fifty dollars, and one seal of the value of fifty dollars, —

of the goods, chattels and personal property of the said George Barker, from the person of the said George Barker, against the will, and by violence to the person of the said George Barker, — then and there violently and feloniously did rob, steal, take and carry away, the said Thomas W. Oliver and John Barker, and each of them, being then and there aided by an accomplice actually present, to wit: each by the other: —

against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.
