PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT,
VERSUS

John J. Kearns

Grand Larceny & Petit Larceny.

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

My reasons for this recommendation are as follow:

I believe that the defendant did not intend to keep the money in question, but purposed to return it. He was working for me at a salary of twelve dollars a week, & had a family of wife & several children to support on that amount. I know he was laboring under the misfortune of sickness in his family, in the shape of sickness, the expense of attendant on which I believe led him to take the money in question.

The defendant worked for me for a year, was during that time intrusted with collections for me, with the payment of bills incident to my business — that of an undertaker. In the performance of those duties he was intrusted with considerable sum of money. I always found him honest in the performance of those duties except in the instance under consideration.

Dear Sir,

I am the Attorney
for Patrick Kelly, whose case
is on your calendar to day.
Although I am at my office
I am physically unable to leave the name, and if you

0506

will kindly allow this case
to stand for one week, I'll consider it a personal favor.

This case was tried only last Friday before Judge Cowing
and resulted in a disagreement
and its appearance on the calendar
today is a surprise to me.
It will take all this week
for me to gather sufficient strength to try this case, and also to subpoena witnesses
in behalf of the defendant.

Yours very Respectfully

vs.

John J. Kennedy and John T. Dunn.

Court of General Sessions, Part I.

Before Judge Gildersleeve.

Thursday June 4, 1885.

Jointly indicted with John P. McMahon for robbery
in the first degree.

Leonard P. Crosssworn and examined. I am a stranger in the city, I have not been here this winter, I have not had steady work, I have been jobbing around, I was here on the 17th of May. About three o'clock in the afternoon of Sunday you were in Lewis Street between 6th Street and the river? I was walking down Lewis Street and the stores were shut up, I wanted to urinate and I went down in there and as I turned round the first pile of Cedar logs I saw a coil of rope and these fellows standing there. The first thing I felt was something around my neck, I swirled about as quick as I could and I saw that man that was convicted in Part II.
about the same time these fellows came up and grabbed hold of me and while he was holding my head down they went through my pockets and tore my pockets all out. The clothes are up at the house of Detention and they can be seen at any time. My bills, two tens, two two's and a one were taken and I had small change done up in a piece of newspaper, I did not have it in a pocket-book. McMahon was the one that put the rope around me, he had my hand held so that I could not do anything; while he held me they robbed me, took my money and pocket handkerchief and pipe and comb. They did not say a word to me while they were robbing me; after they got the money I said, for God's sake let me go, you are welcome to the money. The prisoners stepped back and McMahon held on to me and did not want to let me go

0525

the rest said, "let the poor devil go"; the other one said "no, let us hang him up, dead men never tell no tales." I managed to get away from him and I went up about half way up the wharf. If I had gone back I would not be here to testify before you to-day. Have you the slightest doubt as regards the fact that they were the two men that robbed you while the other man held you down by the neck? I am positive they helped to rob me; the other man that pleaded guilty took the change and these fellows went for the bills. After I got away from them I started up the wharf pretty lively and one or two of them hollered, "Come back a minute or two" but I had no notion of that business, I was glad to get as far as I was, I got out on the street and looked around to see if I could see an officer; the first respectable looking citizen I saw I inquired of him where the police station was. I went right to the station house and told my story to the Sergeant, I went back into the back room and sat down till I was called out, the man that I was called out to speak with was Mr Brennan, I told my story and gave him a description of the men. He said he knew the parties and told me to go along with him; then they were arrested that same Sunday about half an hour afterwards, I saw one of them on the wharf and the other on 5th or 7th Street; that is near the place where I was robbed and it was not more than half an hour afterward, I identified him as quick as I looked at him; there were several men dressed in citizen's clothes and a lot down on the wharf lying around there drunk.

0526

Cross Examined. This was on Sunday, my day off from work, I did not have the same clothes on that I have now, I have not part of the clothing on that I wore then, it is up in the House of Detention, I had no orders to fetch it down, you can have it by sending for it, I should judge this happened about the middle of the afternoon, I could not tell you exactly because I did not have any time with me. The day before I stopped in 23rd Street and First Avenue, a lodging house, I put up wherever I work in the city, most of the time I staid with Mr Cooper, and in thw winter I have done work in Brooklyn, I left this lodging house about six or seven o'clock in the morning, I walked around on the street and had a smoke and got some breakfast in a saloon and then I walked down around the wharf towards Lewis Street, I was on several streets that morning, I drank one glass of ale in the afternoon, I did not eat any dinner I went up to this pile of lumber for a natural reason and had my face to the lumber; the man who put the rope around my neck came up behind me, I did not recognize anybody before I went up to the lumber; there were in the neighborhood about four people when I went up to the lumber, I saw them but of course did not think anything about them robbing me, I recognized the face of two of these men before I went to the pile of lumber, I did not speak to them, they were all standing in a crowd, it was between the street and the dock, they were not all standing together, they were about four or five feet apart; the man who plead guilty took the change out of my hip pocket. I will remember this as long as I live and it will be as fresh ten years from now as now. I told the 0527

Police Magistrate there were three parties and there was one I did not get, the detectives were hunting after him, they got him Thursday, I had to go to the Police Court afterwards, I identified the three positively. Mr. Brennan said, "I want you to be positive, I don't want any mistakes." I said they held my head down, I was trying to get away from them, they were all around me, I turned around three or four times. These men could not have been more than from three to five minutes robbing me.

Patrick Brennan sworn. I am a member of the 11th precinct police, I saw the complainant before to-day, I arrested Kennedy in 5th Street between Lewis Street and the river on the 17th of May in the neighborhood of a quarter past three. When I first saw him he was in Lewis Street and went down 5th, going towards 6th. I had the complainant with me and brought him down 5th street and he pointed Kennedy out, he said, that is one of them. I says, are you positive, this is a serious charge and I want you to be positive. He said, yes, I am positive. Kennedy says, what did you lose and the complainant said, twenty-five dollars. I took Kennedy to the Station House about a quarter past three. I saw the complainant in the Station House about ten minutes to three o'clock and then he and I went directly to this place and he pointed out Kennedy. I don't know anything more regarding this robbery. I arrested James McMahon on 6th Street and Avenue D and the complainant identified him after he was arrested. I searched Kennedy in the Station House, he was in my custody all the time, I found nothing of any account on him, only ten cents I believe, in small change.

John Sheridan sworn. I belong to the 11th precinct and arrested Dunn on the 17th of May, he was identified by Mr. Cross the complainant, for robbing him of twenty-five dollars, I arrested Dunn about five minutes after Officer Brennan arrested Kennedy about twenty minutes past three, I searched him and did not find anything on his person.

John Quinlan sworn. I was in the city of New York on the 17th of May and was in this lumber yard between two and three o'clock in the afternoon, I saw in the neighborhood of about ten men among whom were Dunn and Kennedy, they were on the sidewalk right along side the lumber yard.

John Sayer sworn. I was in the city of New York on the 17th of May, I am watchman of the lumber yard foot of 6th Street, I saw Kennedy and Dunn between the hours of two and three near the lumber yard, I saw other men around there also, maybe a dozen or so through the day, I saw the officer had Kennedy and after that I saw Sheridan have Dunn.

The case for the Defence.

John J. Kennedy sworn. I live 744 East 9th Street in this city, about twenty minutes past two on the Sunday referred to by the complainant I left the crowd I was sitting with on the dock and said to Dunn, take a walk down and we will see the mate on the Norwegian bark Gordadeer; we saw the mate about selling log ends to make fire wood the next day to see to make a couple of dollars. While down there this man Dunn went aboard the bark, he was told by the steward or one of the crew that the mate was not there. We staid there and while we were there McMahon and Keenan came from behind a pile of logs and they said, "we are after clouting a bum." Keenan came around with him and he was laughing, McMahon was the one who was convicted upstairs; he meant by that expression, beating a bum; there was nothing about robbery. I did not see McMahon or Keenan maltreating this complainant or have anything to do with him, I did not take any money from his person. I saw the complainant on the Sunday before, I was standing close to the gate on 6th Street when this man, the complainant, came up the dock where he was after coming out of a pile of logs, he had a coat on his arm and said, "do you know where I can find a barber for five cents?" I said, no, but I can send you to a barber where you can get shaved for ten cents. He seemed as if he came up from sleeping down there, I did not see him at any time that Sunday before I was arrested. Keenan gave me ten cents to go and get some beer, I called for the beer and while I was paying for it I saw the complainant and the officers coming down, I did not know what the man was coming down for, I had no occasion to run, I saw them a block away and staid there until they came and I was arrested, I work along shore off and on doing various jobs.

Cross Examined. This

Keenan told me after he, the complainant, was going into the pile of logs to sleep he turned around and they said something back to him and they got hold of him and beat him, McMahon and Keenan owned up that they put a rope around the man's neck and tried to choke him. Who were you in this Court placed at the bar for the commission of crime? Objected to. Objection sustained.

0530

Robert Dunn sworn and examined. I reside at 81 Lewis Street and on the day when this occurred was in the neighborhood of this lumber pile, I was on my way down to the dock at the time when I heard two men arguing with the complainant. Cross asked for a place to sleep and this McMahon jumped up and went to put a rope around his neck and as he did Keenan grabbed him by the throat and went to pull him down and the rope slipped off again and the man made some resistance and they went to put it on the second time. I saw Dunn and Kennedy at that time at the bulk head but they took no part in this whatever, I should judge they were two or three hundred feet away, they were sitting down.

Cross Examined. I am a brother of the prisoner Dunn. I saw no money taken but stood and looked on about fifteen feet away, I did not interfere because I did not want to get into trouble, I was convicted once for getting into a quarrel and sent three months to the Penitentiary.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

pectfully prays, that he may not as a felon, be sent to State Prison; but that Your Honor will send him to a Reformatory Institution, where he may have an opportunity to show his honest repentance, and desire to hereafter lead
a more circumspect and honest life.

ANSWER TO YOUR FAVOR OF

ADDITION TO OUR LETTER OF

Friend Stone

One of the best boys I ever had in my old store was a little fellow Pierce Kennedy, who now is in trouble, having been found guilty for burglary before Judge Cowing. The father who is the bearer says that the judge considered the conviction wrong etc. etc. & his lawyer directs him to get testimonies of character. I used to like the boy & thought that maybe you could do something for him through Judge Gildersleeve. If so I shall be much obliged if you will try it.

Truly yoursF. Alfred Reichardt

Michael Lyons being duly sworn deposes and says: On Sunday the 10th day of May, 1885, between the hours of eight and nine in the morning, in company of another man whose name is unknown to me, I entered the liquor store of Patrick Hickey which is on the corner of Canal and Christie Streets, in this City, and called for a drink of whiskey for myself and others who were in the place. In response to my order the bartender, whose name I do not know, gave me a glass of whiskey which I drank, and when we ^{had} finished drinking I paid for the whiskey then and there; and after being robbed in the place of seven dollars by one McQuade against whom I have already made a complaint, and who has already been arrested upon said complaint, I left the place.
