of New York,of No. 11 Police Precinct William J. Mooney Street, aged                      years, occupation Police officer being duly sworn, deposes and says,that on the 12 day of August 1891, at the City of New York, in the County of New York, John Robinson (now here) did keep a room for the purpose of receiving bets on horse races in violation of Section 351 of the Penal Code of the State of New York.

For the reasons following to wit: on said date deponent went in a room on the 2nd floor of House No 137 Bowery and saw the Defendant behind a Partition in said room. Deponent handed Defendant a 2 dollar bill and said he wanted to bet 2 dollars on the horse "My fellow" which was to run in a race at Saratoga Defendant told deponent that he was not making bets, but ~~was~~ was doing a commission business and that if Deponent would give him 10 cents commission he Defendant would forward the bet to the race track. Deponent then gave defendant ten cents in addition to the two dollars heretofore mentioned and received the annexed ticket

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS OF THE PEACE OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,

against

John Robinson

THE GRAND JURY OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, by this indictment, accuse

of the crime of keeping a room for the purpose of recording and registering bets and wagers, and of selling pools, committed as follows:

The said

late of the 10th Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the eleventh day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety one, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, and not upon any grounds or race track, owned, leased, or conducted by any association incorporated under the laws of this State, for the purpose of improving the breed of horses, where racing was then lawfully had, with force and arms, did unlawfully and feloniously keep a certain room in a certain building there situate, for the purpose of therein recording and registering bets and wagers, and of selling pools, upon the result of trials and contests of speed and power of endurance of beasts, to wit, horses; against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

Second Count, And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

of the crime of knowingly permitting a room to be used and occupied for the purpose of recording and registering bets and wagers, and of selling pools, committed as follows:

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, and not upon any grounds or race track owned, leased, or conducted by any association incorporated under the laws of this State for the purpose of improving the breed of horses, where racing was then lawfully had, being then and there the ~~owner~~ of certain room in a certain building there situate, with force and arms, unlawfully and feloniously did knowingly permit the said room to be used and occupied for the purpose of therein recording and registering bets and wagers, and of selling pools, upon the result of trials and contests of speed, and power of endurance of beasts, to wit, horses; against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

Third Count, And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

of the crime of keeping, exhibiting and employing devices and apparatus for the purpose of recording and registering bets and wagers, and of selling pools, committed as follows:

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, and not upon any grounds or race track owned, leased or conducted by any association incorporated under the laws of this State, for the purpose of improving the breed of horses, where racing was then lawfully had, being the ~~owner~~ of a certain room in a certain building there situate, with force and arms, did unlawfully and feloniously therein keep, exhibit and employ, divers devices and apparatus (a more particular description whereof is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown) for the purpose of recording and registering bets and wagers, and of selling pools, upon the result of trials and contests of speed and power of endurance of beasts, to wit, horses; against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

Fourth Count, And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said deposes and says, that the premises No. 894 2<sup>d</sup> Avenue Street, 19 Ward in the City and County aforesaid the said being a 2<sup>d</sup> floor apartment and which was occupied by deponent as a dwellling and in which there was at the time a human being, by name were BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly breaking open a door leading from the hallway of said premises into deponents apartment.

on the 23 day of June 1892 in the day time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:

This pair of Pants Two Coats and Two Vests and Two Cigar holder together of the value of about seventy five dollar the property & in the care and custody of deponent and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away by

Edward Ryan and Thomas O'Neill

(both now here) and attorney present for the reasons following, to wit: That on said date at about the hour of 5 P.M. deponent left said premises securely locked and fastened and at about 6 P.M. deponent discovered that the door leading into said apartment had been entered in the manner described above. Deponent is informed by Officer Philip Miller of the 35th Precinct that he saw the said defendants in company each carrying a bundle. And saw then said defendant O'Neil enter a pawn shop on 3rd Avenue between 74th & 75th Streets and that he arrested said O'Neil and found in his possession a coat and vest. Depo-nent is further informed by said Miller the said defendant had left the bundle he was carrying in a pawn shop at 74th Street and a Queen Depo-

nent is further informed by said Miller that the said defendant admitted that he had stolen said property and informed said Miller that the rest of said property was in the apartment of one Roger Leonard at 129 East 59th Street where he (Miller) found five pairs of pants and two box cigar holders. Depo-nent has since seen said property found in said Leonard apartment and also the property found in the possession of said O'Neil and identifies it as the property taken stolen and carried away from defendant's possession.
Depo-
nent has since seen the property passed by said Ryan (a coat and vest) and identifies it as part of the property taken from defendant's possession.

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

against

Peter Ryan

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment accuse
Peter Ryan
of the CRIME OF SELLING INTOXICATING LIQUORS AND WINES AS A BEVERAGE, ON SUNDAY, committed as follows:

The said

Peter Ryan

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the 3rd day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety- two, at the City and County aforesaid, the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, with force and arms, certain intoxicating liquors and certain wines, to wit: One gill of wine, one gill of brandy, one gill of rum, one gill of gin, one gill of whiskey, one gill of cordial, one gill of bitters, one gill of ale, one gill of porter, one gill of beer, one gill of lager beer, and one gill of a certain intoxicating liquor to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, unlawfully did sell as a beverage to one Patrick Haughey and to certain other persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Peter Ryan
of the CRIME OF KEEPING OPEN ON SUNDAY a place licensed for the SALE OF STRONG AND SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS, WINES, ALE AND BEER, committed as follows:

The said

Peter Ryan

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, being then and there in charge of and having the control of a certain place there situate, which was then duly licensed as a place for the sale of strong and spirituous liquors, wines, ale and beer, with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, the said place so licensed as aforesaid unlawfully did not close and keep closed, and on the said day the said place so licensed as aforesaid unlawfully did then and there open and cause and procure and suffer and permit to be open, and to remain open, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.
