Jas. W. Osborne, Esq
Asst. District Attorney,
Dear Sir:

This case will be on Monday's calendar of Part II, it having been adjourned from last Monday on the agreement of defendants counsel to interpose a plea of guilty.

The minimum fine for the offense charged, violation of the Dental Act, Chap 528, Laws of 1892, is $50, and I have told defendants counsel that, so far as the Society was at liberty to make any suggestion, it wd deem such fine sufficient in this case. It has been the custom to impose the minimum fine on conviction of a first offence where there were no aggravating circumstances as there are not in this case.

Very truly Yours
W. A. Burrington.

Samuel Cohen

Court of General Sessions. Part II Before Judge Fitzgerald. June 29th 1892 jointly indicted with Morris Cohen for larceny in the second degree and receiving stolen goods.

Daniel Healey sworn and examined testified: I live at 218 First Avenue in this city, am in the liquor business, and lived there on the 30th of June. I occupied the ground floor as a store and lived overhead and have the whole floor. Did you on the 30th of June lose any property from the premises, 218 First Avenue? Yes, there was two overcoats, a watch and chain and eight dollars in money, a ladies jacket and a boy's suit of clothes. I have been in the liquor business since last March a year ago, and before that I worked hard for nine or ten years at building. I was never in the clothing business. I paid for these clothes that were stolen. I had the chain about a year and the watch nine years; it is a double case watch and a plated chain. I paid twenty dollars for the watch and five dollars for the chain. One of the overcoats cost eighteen dollars and the other twelve. I had the eighteen dollar one two years and the twelve dollar one one year. I paid eight dollars four weeks ago for the boy's suit and my wife paid six dollars for.

the jacket; she had it a couple of years. I discovered I had lost these things about five minutes past two o'clock in the afternoon. The coats were in a closet and the boys suit of clothes and the watch and chain and eight dollars in money were in the trunk; it was locked and the lock was drawn. I next saw the articles at half past two o'clock that same afternoon in the Harlem Court. I also saw the prisoner and Officer McCabe there. I saw there one overcoat, the wife's jacket and the boys suit of clothes. My place 2988 First Avenue is between 112th and 113th Sts. and the Harlem Police Court is in 125th street, near Ninth Avenue. I had scarcely missed the goods when an officer came down and informed me that there was a letter found in the pocket of the coat addressed to me from the Board of Excess. Officer McCabe came into my place on the following day with the prisoner. I saw the watch and chain; he asked me if they were mine and I said, yes; he went away and took the prisoner with him.

Cross Examined. I saw the prisoner at the Court room in the afternoon; he saluted me. I asked him if he stole them; he said, 'no.'

the other fellow gave them to him. Was the other fellow there? Not at that time. I bought the overcoat of a man that goes around selling them; he is an agent for some company down town. I don't know who he is. I gave him twelve dollars for it. I wore it all the winter as fast as I could. The boys suit was bought at the Westchester Clothing Co. 125th street and Third Avenue.

John McCabe, sworn and examined. I am a police officer attached to the 29th precinct. I remember seeing the defendant on the 30th of June last at 2218 Second Avenue this city? Yes. As near as I remember it was half past two or twenty minutes of three. No 2218 Second Avenue is a pawn shop and is kept by Simons. I went in there to look for some stolen property, and while talking there Harris Cohen came in with an overcoat; he wanted a loan of three dollars on it; the pawn broker looked at it and gave him one dollar. About that time Sam Cohen came in; he laid an overcoat down, a ladies jersey jacket, and a boys' suit of clothes. I went up and asked him where he got them. He came in a few minutes after Harris. I asked him what he was doing.

with those clothes? He said he was selling them? I asked him why he did not sell them somewhere else? He said he was selling them for another party. He said a man gave them to him to sell. I said, Have you got a license to sell? He said, No. I looked for a badge. He said they came round buying old clothes and selling them, <sup>and he said</sup> that he was a Hebrew and that he had two holidays and he came up to Harlem with this party, he was not working, he came up with this party that gave him those clothes to sell and got a loan on them; he went in there, he was tired carrying them. The defendant did not tell me where the party gave him the clothes. I told him if he knew any body in Harlem who would vouch for his honesty I would take him there. He said he knew somebody in 117th street and Second avenue. I said, you can leave the clothes and we will go up there. I went up to 117th street; he did not meet any body; we went back to First avenue and 112th street; he failed to find any body to identify him. I went back to the pawn broker's place and took him and the clothes to the station house and took him around to the Court, and the man on house duty was sent down to notify Mr. Healey, as there was a letter in the pocket from the Excise Board notifying Mr. Healey to come for his license at 2888 First Avenue. I judged from that that there must have been a larceny committed in the house. An officer investigated the place and we discovered the robbery. Mr. Healey came up to the Court and identified his clothes. When I was taking the defendant to the station house he referred me to whom he worked and showed his hands that he worked for a living, that he was no thief and was never arrested - if I would only go down to Bayard Street I could see the people who would verify for his character and all such as that. After Healey got up there, did you have any conversation with the defendant Samuel Cohen about the watch and chain? Yes. That night I went back and saw him in the prison and told him there was a watch and chain and eight dollars gone. I told him I knew the other party that got the loan of a dollar on the overcoat, and that if he would tell me where I could arrest these parties that I would mention the fact here if you could do anything for him. On that statement he said if he got out now he would go and show me the house where this party was. He was bailed out the next day and I followed him and a friend down First Avenue to 113th Street and from there to 445 and came back and went down First Ave. to 107th Street and at Second Avenue where Harris Cohen's sister keeps a store he went in. I waited in the doorway outside about five minutes. Harris Cohen put his hand in his pocket and was passing him (Samuel Cohen) this watch and chain. I was right behind him and Harris Cohen dropped the watch and chain in my hand. I took Harris Cohen up to Court Saturday morning and he was put under a thousand dollars bail to go before the grand jury. Healey went up to the pawn shop and paid a dollar deposit on the coat which Harris Cohen had pawned and took it home. I showed the watch and chain to Healey afterwards and he identified it as his.

Cross Examined. I followed the defendant to the various places. That was by an understanding between us that he should show me the man that gave him the goods, and in pursuance of that I went after the man who gave him the goods. He did all that he could to give me the information necessary to ascertain where those things were. He told me the girl this party went with and where I would find him. The clothing that they brought into the pawn shop looked as if they were half worn to me. There was no offer made by the pawnbroker for the clothes. I made the arrest before there was a chance. I enquired of Central Office men as to the defendant's character, and they told me they knew nothing bad of him. The other party, (Harris Cohen) has come down from State prison; he pleaded guilty before Judge Martine and was sent to the State prison for four years.

 This defendant put in a plea of not guilty and desired to be tried separately.
 It is a clothing store where I found Harris Cohen - where they sell cheap goods.
 Harris Cohen's father is sexton of a synagogue in 114th street and I understand the sister keeps the store; it is 2070 Second Avenue between 106 and 107th sts.

Did he (the defendant) tell you where this man gave him the clothes? No sir. Just recollect the time, officer, is it not true that he stated to you that he came up to go to a pic nic? He made that statement in the afternoon that he was going to a pic nic with a young lady, he made a statement in Court to that effect. Did he say that he was going up there to go to a pic nic with a girl and that he met there Harris Cohen, that he then gave him the clothes to pawn? He made that statement in Court also; there was a young lady, he made a statement that she was with him. That was in the examination afterwards. Did he make that statement to you at the time of the arrest? No. I do not recollect that at the time of the arrest. I was asking him about his acquaintances in Harlem.

By counsel: On that day there was a pic nic at Sulzger's Park? This time of year there is hardly a vacant day. There is a pic nic six days in the week. He stated to the Court that he was going to the pic nic with a lady; that was on the examination before Judge Voorhis.

Ever since he was able to go along with my wagon, to follow and watch the wagon it good many years? Yes. Where does he live? In his mother's house No 62 Bayard street. I pay him regular wages, and every cent I pay him he gives it all to his mother. What kind of a boy is he? He is a hard-working, good boy.
 Has he ever been in any trouble?
 No sir, not ever before in his life; it puzzled me to see the way he was speaking here; he is out of his mind, he is out of his senses. You bailed your brother out didn't you? Yes sir.
 You are the owner of real estate?
 Yes, I am. How long have you lived in the neighborhood down there where you do your business? Twenty five years ever since I am in this country; he was born in this neighborhood. Do you know this Morris Cohen? Yes, I do.
 What do you know of him? I heard he is a bad character; his father has been in the clothing business ever since I have been in this country; he used to keep a second hand clothing store at 104 Bayard in the basement, then in No 83 and No. 46 Bayard St.
 Were you present at the time or did you see these things that were found in possession of your brother in the pawnshop? No. I did not. I seen them in Court. The next day was it? Yes sir, Saturday morning I believe it was. The case was set down for the next morning was it? Yes. Has your brother bailed out the same day? I do not know. The next morning I gave bail.

Joseph Weinstein, sworn and examined testified. What is your business? Dry goods. Whereabouts? No. 12 Elizabeth Street. How long have you been in business there? Twenty years. You do a fair dry goods business don't you? Certainly. You are a man of property arnt you? Yes sir. You own considerable property don't you? Not much. Do you own property on the corner of Delancey and Essex Streets? Yes. You recently bought it, didn't you and paid ninety six thousand dollars for it didn't you? Yes. You know Max Price here? Yes. How long have you known him? About fifteen or eighteen years. What is his character, is it good or bad? He has a good character. I never heard anything bad against him. You know him for fifteen years? Yes.

Is he a hard working man? Yes, he works.
Do you know him to be in the Express business? Yes, he carries freight for me. You know his character to be good? I never heard anything bad against him. You know him for the last fifteen years? Yes. Gabriel Cohen, sworn and examined.

What is your business? Tin business. How long have you been in that business? Fifteen years. Where do you live? No-10. Elizabeth street. Do you know Max Rice? Yes. How long have you known him? Ever since he was a little fellow about eight years old I think he was. I know him for the last fifteen years. His character was good, he worked for me.

Harris Caplan sworn and examined. What is your business? Clothing. Whereabouts? In 69 Bayard street. How long have you been engaged in that business? There about twelve years. Do you know Max Rice? Yes sir I do. What is his character, good or bad? First rate as far as I know. Do you know him to be a hard working man in the express business? O Yes.

Patrick Dolan, sworn and examined. Sergeant you are at Headquarters are you not on the detective force for a good many years have you not? Yes sir.

 Do you know Max Price? I do, yes sir.
 How long have you known him, officer? I know the whole family for the last twenty five years round the Sixth ward. What do you know of him, public officer as you are, detective? I see him every once in a while down town. Do you know his general character for honesty? Yes; all right as far as I know.

Moses Price, sworn and examined, testified: What is your business? Real estate.

This is your brother, is it not, the defendant?
 Yes, I am the oldest brother. Your brother works for Joseph Price does he not as an Expressman? Yes. From what you know, is his character good or bad? Very good, he never was in trouble as I know. I am 27 years in this country.
 He was born in this country. I have been in this country 29 years. I sent for mother and father, my mother is in Court, my father is dead. He (the defendant) helps to support his mother and is a hard working man.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny. The Court sentenced him to the penitentiary for six months.

the pawnbroker's is at 2246 Second Avenue, it is the only one I was in. I did not know where Harris Cohen lived. I was with a couple of boys, and one of the boys showed me where he lived. I went in the store and called him out. I did not want to go in the store. Then you met him in 125th street did you know where he lived? No. You had not seen him for ten years is that right? That is right. I had not seen him. Were you in-timiate with his family? No sir. How did you know his father was in the clothing business if you had not seen him for ten years? Because he had a business ~~up~~ ~~down~~ <sup>up</sup> town. That is the only reason you know?
 Yes, they have got a business up town yet; That is the only reason I know. Then I was arrested Harris Cohen suggested to me to give a wrong name. He told me to give a wrong name in the pawn shop before I saw McCabe. That did not make you suspect that these goods were stolen, did it?
 No sir. Where did you start from to go to this excursion? From Canal street and the Battery. I took the Elevated Railroad; the pic nic was to be at 126th street. Three of us went to the pic nic. The girl's name is Lizzie Cohen; she lives at 126

Harrison Avenue. Brooklyn. I met her in New York at 74 Bayard street; she came to our house to go with me to the pic nic. Then there was a fellow named A. Bergman with us; he lives at 38 Forsythe street; we three got off the train at 125th street and were going to the Park when we met Harris Cohen between Second and Third Avenues. I had not seen him in ten years. I gave him a halloo. I knew he was from down town; he called me, I left the other fellow standing with the girl, and he says to me, Do you want to take any clothing in the pawnbrokers? ~~He~~ says, 'yes!' He handed me a bundle of clothing, and I put them on my arm and walked down with him as far as the pawnbrokers. What was he to give you? He says, he will make it all right with me. What became of Bergman? I left him to go with the girl to the pic nic and I told him I would be up there. I went off with Harris Cohen to pawn these things. Did you not ask him why he could not pawn them himself? I do not know. I did not ask him that at all. I did not know at that time that he had been in the State prison. When did you learn it? I do not know. When did you learn for the first time that this man who asked you to do that was in the State prison? I heard of it two or three months ago. How long was that before the day that you met him, June 3? That was the first time I met him that day. You had known it there for about two months? No sir, I did not meet him; the same fellow told me that this party was out. You know on the day that you took the package from him that he had been in State prison? Yes. Did you say anything to him about that? No sir. Did not say anything at all about that? No sir. He told you to give the name of Cohen to pawn those things? Yes sir. That was his name? Yes sir. The District Attorney asked you whether he was sent to the State prison for robbing your brother is that true, did Cohen rob your brother? No sir. You did not understand the District Attorney when he asked you that question did you? No sir. You have never been in the Court room before, have you? No sir. When you were arrested you were bailed the same day were you not? Yes sir.

The officer is the one that told you that the watch and eight dollars in money had been stolen, is not that so? Yes, the officer told me that. You did not know anything about that did you? No. I did not. When the officer told you that you told him you would show him the man that gave you the goods is not that so? Yes, the officer <sup>even</sup> searched me twice to see whether I had the stuff or not, the watch and chain. When you went into this place where this man was you wanted to get this man outside, didn't you? Yes. It was in there <sup>that</sup> you said it was to warn for you to stay is not that so? Yes. You told him so didn't you in order to get him out? Yes.

You went there with a preconcerted understanding on the part of yourself and the officer that you were to show him where this man was that gave you the goods? Yes. You did that? Yes.

Joseph Rice, sworn and examined What is your business? I am boss truckman. How long have you been engaged in that business? Seventeen years.
Max Rice here is your brother? Yes.
How long has he been at work for you?

The Case for the Defence

Max Price, sworn and examined, testified.
 My business is truck driving. I live at 62 Bayard street and have lived there about six or seven years. I am 23 years old and live with my mother; she is in Court.
 I support her. I work for my brother; he is a boss carman and his place of business is at 74 Bayard street. I have worked for my brother at trucking going on sixteen or seventeen years ever since I was a small boy. I remember on the 3rd of June being in Harlem. I was going up to a pic nic at Tully's me and my girl and two more fellows.
 I was walking down on 125th street between Second and Third avenues. I met a fellow, whose father keeps a second hand clothing store down town. He had a bundle in his arm. He asked me did I <sup>want to</sup> take anything in the pawnbroker's.
 I told him, yes. He went to work and gave me a bundle of clothing to take into the pawnbroker's and ask three dollars on it. Just the minute I fetched them in the pawnbroker's and asked three dollars, the man says, "They are not worth three dollars, that they are only worth one dollar." I told him I will take the stuff out and ask the man whether I should take one dollar. I asked Harris Cohen, and the minute I went to 90 out the officer arrested me. It was Officer McCabe. I told the officer I got the stuff off Harris Cohen, that his father kept a business up town, and that he got the stuff off his father to sell it. That is what Harris Cohen told me, and that he asked me to go and take them to the pawn broker's shop and pawn them for three dollars. I met the officer in the pawn broker's shop and told him I got the stuff off Harris Cohen and that was all I knew about it. I did not know where Harris Cohen lived but the fellow who went with me to the pic nic knew; he lived on 107th street, and I walked down with the fellow and Officer McCabe walked behind and I went to work and told the officer that I would see the other fellow if I could. I walked down the centre of the street with one of the boys. I could not find him, he walked in another place and I saw him in his house, in his sister's store; he sat inside and after a little while I told him it was too warm and we came outside, and the officer asked him what had he got? He said he had a watch and chain; he took it out of his pocket; he wanted to hand it to me and Officer McCabe took it right out of his hand. I did not know those things had been stolen; he told me he got this stuff off his father, and that is all I know about it. I was never arrested before for any offence. I told the officer when he arrested me what I worked at and I showed him my hands, that they were hard-working hands.

Cross-Examined: I stayed in Cohen's place two or three minutes. During the time I was in there I never spoke a word to the man about the watch or the eight dollars. I had no conversation with Officer McCabe about the watch and the eight dollars before he took me down. I heard some of the testimony of the officer where he was on the stand. I did not have the conversation with the officer relative to the watch and the eight dollars that he testified to. Harris Cohen and I "hung out together" when we were boys about twelve years ago; we lived in the same neighborhood. I knew him very well down town; but it was up town that I met him. I could not tell you how long it is since I saw him down town. I don't know whether it was five years or two months. It was the first time in ten years that I had seen him when I met him up town. I did not know anything about his character. I knew that he worked for his father. Did you ever know that he robbed your brother and went away to Sing Sing for it and did time, answer that question yes or no?

 I think he did. Don't you know he did? Yes. I don't know whether it was him or not. You knew that he did time for it at all events? Not as I know of.
 I don't know. I do not think it was him at all. Did you know when Harris Cohen came out of Sing Sing? That was the first time I met him when he came out of Sing Sing I came up town on the third of June. As I understand I think he was out about four months.
 I knew his father was a dealer in second hand clothes. When I saw him with a lot of stuff it did not excite any suspicion that they might have been stolen; it never occurred to me.
 I walked all the way down from 125th St.
