Dear Sir:-

I am without any copies whatever of minutes of the Committee on Invitations. Will you be good enough to supply me with a copy of the minutes at your earliest convenience, and oblige

Dear Sir:-

I have just had an interview with General Horace Porter and reminded him of his promise, that the members of the American Numismatic & Archaeological Society should be recognized by receiving a number of seats for the Grant Monument Ceremonies. He says the distribution rests with you and I would therefore, ask that if the assignment has not yet been made to the Society, that one hundred seats be apportioned to them.

On Friday Evening April 23rd, when the gold medal will be presented to General Horace Porter, at the Academy of Medicine Building, 17 West 43rd Street, Bishop Potter, Hon. Seth Low and others, have already promised to make some remarks and your presence and a few words on your part are greatly desired. A member of the reception committee of our Society, with a carriage, will be at your house at 8.45 o'clock, on the evening in question to escort you to the building. The official invitation to the ceremony will of course be sent to you, as soon as received from the engravers hands.

When Mr P. B. Strong was at the office my men roughly figured out the seating capacity at something over twenty thousand, and I so marked it on the plan which he took down to his Honor the Mayor.

This I find is incorrect, just how it got so I do not know, but the correct amount as I make it now is 17.530 including 900 seats for the press. Will you kindly correct that figure on the plan that was sent down, and oblige.

Upon this assumption I venture to bring to your notice the name of Gen. Thomas L. Watson for membership in the General Committee. Gen. Watson is Vice-President of the Consolidated Exchange, of which Chas. L. Wilson is President. He is also Vice-President of the N. Y. CONSULATE OF PARAGUAY.

New York, April 10th, 1897.

Hon. William L. Strong,
Mayor of the City of New York.

Dear Sir:--

About a week ago, noticing in the papers that the consuls of the various foreign countries were to be favored with seats in the grand stands, at the time of the dedication of the Grant Mausoleum, and as my appointment as Consul of Paraguay at New York is of comparatively recent date, so that my name does not appear in the city directory as consul, I wrote to the Committee on Invitations, Grant Memorial Association, directing my letter to No. 1 Broadway, (where I was informed the Committee had its offices), asking that seats be assigned me.

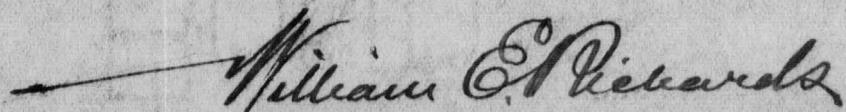

Not having received a reply to that letter, I fear that I must have misdirected same, and that it did not reach the proper parties.

Noticing in to-day's papers that you are, ex officio, a member of the principal committees, I venture to write you, and to respectfully repeat my request that a seat, or seats, may be assigned me, with the representatives of the other foreign nations.

I do not know whether the invitations to consuls are purely personal ones, or whether seats are provided for members of the consuls' families. In the latter case I will be glad to have three seats assigned me, so that I may take my wife and daughter with me to attend the ceremonies.

Trusting that I may have the favor of an early reply, I am,

Very respectfully,

Consul of Paraguay at New York.

Hon. Wm. L. Strong

Dear Sir:

I regret to learn this evening, from my old friend, Genl. Cyrus B. Comstock of this club. now like myself - on the Retired List of the Army, that he has not been invited to the Reviewing stand at the approaching Grant Commemoration.

Next to General

Grant's family and Horace Porter. I know no one better entitled to an invitation than Comstock. He served long in the U.S. Corps of Engineers and was,
with Porter, an Aide de Camp to Grant in the Campaigns before Richmond.

Badeau, Parker,
Ingalls and many others of Genl. Grant's Associates have passed beyond the River, and I hope this Omission as to Comstock will be promptly rectified

With the omission of his name I can view with Equanimity the omission of my own. When I was a ^{1st} Lieut. 1st U.S. Arty., Grant treated me as a sort of Protege and in due season promoted me, without solicitation, to be a Judge Advocate U.S.A., an advance of 35 years, and later sent me to West Point
as Prof. of Law. (Lt. Col.)

Later, I could return his kindness to me, by being his sole Counsel for a year, until conclusion of the case in the Genl. Governm^{ent} K. Warren Court of Inquiry where Grant and Sheridan were the Respondents.

When Grant died, Maj^{or} Genl. Hancock telegraphed me to act as his Adj^{utant}.
Genl. for the obsequies as Genl. Whipple had gone west on leave and Colonel Ben.
Jamin, his other Asst. Adj^{utant}.
Genl. was very ill.

In that capacity I acted at Mount MacGregor and in the great funeral parade which deposited the remains where they now are in Riverside Park.

Please do not neglect Comstock.

Very Truly Yours

Asa Bird Gardiner

Grant.

All hail to Ohio—to her illustrious men,
And all hail to Point Pleasant again and again;
Break forth with loud anthems shout 'em to the sea,
For Ulysses was given, brave Ulysses, to thee.

How small the beginning, unpretentious the place,
That gave birth to this hero, the great boon of our race;
Undistinguished his kinship, yea plebeian his blood,
Yet the valorous chieftain, the viceregent of God!

What gives the great name to Grant o'er the land?
The obedient servant, yet born to command,
Why is he so dear to us all who are free,
And to the nations that dwell beyond the wide sea?

Was he not a great captain? Could it otherwise be?
For he conquered rebellion, planned the march to the sea;
Caused Vicksburg, the stronghold to tremble and fall,
Which made Mississippi so free to us all.

Quick the footfall of horse, the clanging of steel,
And the thunder of cannon for the country's best weal, Before his battalions victorious was he,
From Colin's right on to the surrender of Lee.

I have read of the warriors of the ancient of days,
Of Alexander the Great and of Caesar's proud ways;
Of Lucullus and Hannibal who fought for renown,
On whose dark deeds of bloodshed we only can prou.

And in more modern times of Napoleon's great power,
The pages I studied and read by the hour;
Of Lodi and Wagram and Austria's hate,
And of Waterloo's carnage that sealed Bonaparte's fate.

They all are forgotten - yes, except in the name,
As blood thirsty chieftains they sought earthly fame.
What good there was in them is as though it was not,
In fulfillment of Scripture their memory shall not.

Not so with our hero, Ulysses the bold,
Who commanded a million men, for thus we're told;
Since he fought for the right and the slave to set free,
And united this nation, as it well ought to be.

What makes the great difference and what the great name,
And why do all peoples his praises proclaim?
Why should Becker and Johnson whom he fought without fear
Sadly weep at his funeral and help carry the bier?

Why should Longstreet regret and Wade Hampton lament,
And thousands once hostile in sorrow repent?
Why Ulysses, the silent, in his last dying hour, Effect such a change and exhibit such power?!

I will tell you dear heaven, it was kindness of heart
I was unselfish devotion, the divine given art,
Amid carnage so dreadful he sacrificed ease,
For a Union unbroken, for rebellion to cease.

Tell me, ye learned, ye wise, if you can,
Where in the past, and when such a man,
Permeated by love, unaffected by cant,
Was so brave, true and generous, as Ulysses S. Grant?!

Frank D. Maine, M.D.,
Springfield, Mass.,
April, 1897.

To His Honor

Mayor Strong, New York City.

Dear Sir:-

I expect to be in New York on the great day of dedication of the Grant Memorial. I shall be in the procession arrayed in the same costume as I wore at the inauguration of President McKinley, March 4th in Washington.

I trust that all patriots will turn out to make the day one of the greatest in our history. I appeal especially to all Irish-Americans who are lovers of Liberty to show their colors on that day.

General Grant's memory is worthy of the highest tribute of his countrymen, and will always be esteemed and cherished among treasures of the Republic.

I had the pleasure, personally, of knowing General Grant. I was present at the convention which nominated him, and at his inauguration as President. I also met him during his term of office.

I pray that Providence will bless us with a fair day, and that everything may be done to make the occasion a perfect success.

Gen. Grenville M. Dodge:

Dear Sir:

It is the desire of the House Committee of the University Club to extend the hospitalities of the Club to the prominent officials who are expected from out of town to participate in the ceremonies of the Dedication of the Grant Memorial.

May I ask, in behalf of the Committee, if you will kindly cause a list of such high officials, not residents of the City, with their rank, to be sent to us, so that we may issue invitations to them, and gratefully oblige

Yours very truly,

Dear Sir:-

I heard to-day that the Military Secretary of the Governor. Col. George Curtice Treadwell, had not received an invitation at the time they were extended to the Governor and his Private Secretary, Col. Griffith. This should be attended to, and I presume you will be glad to receive the suggestion from me, and add Col. Treadwell's name to the list I gave you, making the number 225, or else provide for him in some other way. He will of course accompany the Governor and therefore perhaps should receive an invitation of a character similar to the one extended to the Governor's other secretary, Col. Griffith.

I beg to remain,

Yours sincerely,

Dear Sir:

It will be important in order to know what seats are available for use to meet unforeseen contingencies on the 27th that I should have at hand at the tomb on the morning of that day a detailed statement of the persons to whom seats have been distributed in stand Lower A. I observed that such statement was being taken down as the tickets were issued. Will you be good enough to have that statement delivered to Mr. Walter C. Gilson at some time on Monday or at the tomb early on the morning of Tuesday. I think it is desirable not to assign any further seats in stands A, B, C and G so that the seats which remain unassigned in those sections may be used for unforeseen contingencies. Will you be good enough to have the tickets representing those seats delivered to Mr. Gilson either Monday or at the Monument early in the morning of Tuesday.

Yours very truly,

Elihu Root.

CONSULATE OF PARAGUAY.

Hon. William L. Strong,
Mayor of City of New York.

Sir:-

I find on my desk this morning in an envelope bearing your corner card, but without a word of advice or explanation, ticket No. G. 11547, to attend the Ceremonies regarding the Grant Monument. I return this ticket herewith, and refer you to your letter of 10th inst. and mine of 5th inst. In yours of 10th you promised that I should have two tickets, and having made my arrangements accordingly, a single ticket is of no use to me whatever.

It has been really galling to me to write you as I have with regard to tickets, I am not a begger, nor do I usually solicit favors. I have been animated however with a great desire to attend these ceremonies, and I understood that all the foreign Consuls of this city was denied, I wrote you because my appointment was so recent that my name is not yet in all the directories, and I thought that possibly the list of Consuls in your possession might not contain my name,

Yours respectfully,
W. O. Piccard
Consul of Paraguay.

CITY OF NEW YORK.
OFFICE OF THE MAYOR.

S i r :-

Your letter of this date returning ticket for the dedication ceremonies is received. At the time you were first written to on this subject, it was then supposed that two tickets could be allotted to each of the Consuls residing in this city including yourself, but subsequently it was found that this was not possible owing to the very great number of officials and others whom it was necessary to make provision for. No discrimination was exercised in the matter against you, as all the Consuls have been treated alike, each receiving, as you did, one ticket.

Your action therefore is to be regretted, and under the circumstances I do not see that anything more can be done in regard to the matter.

I am,

Very respectfully yours,

Dear Sir:

We should feel under obligations in this office if four tickets could be sent for our use on one of the stands tomorrow. Tickets were sent to the Asst. U.S. District Attorneys, but every one in this office was overlooked except the Clerk himself. Among those given the "go by" were Hon. Thos. Alexander, U.S.
Commissioner & our deputy Clerk. We have endeavored for over ~~the~~ years past to obey the Mayor's office, & others in respect to the naturalization of many persons sent here, and for that reason at least we feel authorized to ask this country ^{in return} little but make.

Very truly yours

Mr. Hedges has told me to write by you. Please reply by return. One of the gentlemen from this office has been appointed in and to the Manual and it was supposed he would have tickets but he got none

My dear sir;

During the lifetime of Mr. James C. Reed there was sent to the office of the Grant Monument Association, in the Mills Building, a large number of envelopes and invitations to the dedication of the Grant Monument. I assume that they were sent there so that Mr. Reed might have them directed to the subscribers to the Grant Monument Fund.

The invitations were sent to the subscribers from the Mayor's office, and the invitations and envelopes above referred to still remain at the office of the Association. I should think there were from twenty to thirty boxes of envelopes and a corresponding number of invitations.

We are putting things to rights preparatory to closing the office of the Association in the Mills Building; and as these invitations are the property of the city, will you kindly ascertain and advise me what disposition we shall make of them.

Yours truly,

Secretary Grant Monument Ass'n.

Dear Sir,

We ask is it possible that the present generation are becoming oblivious of the fact that within the great State of New York there are living to-day a respectable remnant of the hosts, who marshalled by that hero, whose mansoluem is to be dedicated April 27th, succeeded in the preservation of the Nation?

Are these old comrades in arms, with their deeds of valor, their herios endurance of privations, sufferings and wounds, even into death, to be forgotten?

It appears that a great railroad Corporation through grinding greed, who might at any time precipitate a strike and possibly a riot, which would necessitate the calling out of the National Guard of the State of New York for protection, proposes to trundle these Band Box organizations to New York and return on the occasion mentioned, free of cost, while the few of the men who followed General Grant in his campaign before nine tenths of the National Guard were born, are respectfully invited to participate in the aforesaid ceremonies if the poor cripples can manage to get there "by hook or by crook".

The "Old Soldier" has been turned down by the Lesislature of the State of New York, in this matter, and as it has not been the first time it has occurred, we keenly feel the injustice and call attention to the fact through the columns of your valuable paper.

Respectfully,

"Old Soldiers"
