Indictment filed March 23, 1888.

New York, April 17, 1888.

Appearances :

For the People, Asst. Dist. Atty. Goff;

For the Defts. Wm. F. Howe, Esq.

EDWARD ENNIS, a witness for the People, testified:

I live at No. 516 Tenth Avenue. I was there on the 30th of March at 9 o'clock at night. I left $32 in the drawer behind the counter and also this knife which you show me. When I got there the following morning I found that this amount of money and this knife had been stolen by burglars the night before.

CROSS-EXAMINATION:

I had this knife for about 3 months and at times I used it in cutting lemons. I described the knife to the Sergeant as having a little off the top of the small blade. I positively identified the knife in the Station House.

JAS. MORGAN, a witness for the People, testified:

I am a bar-tender in the employ of Mr. Ennis; I locked up that store at 1 o'clock that night and I left about $32 in the drawer in bills and silver. I saw this knife which is shown me laying on the back bar before I left. I securely locked all the doors.

CROSS-EXAMINATION:

I was not on duty in the morning and therefore I cannot tell the condition of the doors in the morning.

PATRICK RABBIT, a witness for the People, testified:

I am a Police Officer attached to the 22nd. Precinct. On the night of the 13th. of March I was on duty on 49th. St. from 6th to 10th Avenue. I saw these three defts. at 4 o'clock coming through 49th. St.; I followed them and they went into a restaurant at No. 812 8th. Ave. When they came out I asked them where they had been and Partridge said they had been down to 35th. St. and 8th. Avenue playing pool. I asked them where they came from again and Nevin said "No, we came through 49th. St.". Lowrey said nothing. I arrested all three of them and took them to the Station House. When Nevin was searched $11.14 were found on him; on Lowrey was found $7.56 and a pocket knife. The pocket knife was afterwards identified by Ennis as his property.

WM. WAGNER, a witness for the People, testified:

I am a Police Officer attached to the 22nd. Precinct. On the night of the 13th. March I was on duty on 49th. Avenue. About three o'clock I saw these three defts. standing on the corner where Ennis' liquor store is located. When they saw me they went up 45th. St. towards 8th. Ave. I crossed over to Mr. Ennis' place found everything was all right. At half past four I came around again and saw that the glass in the front door of Mr. Ennis' place was broken in. I rapped for assistance and afterwards reported the matter at the Station House. I afterwards identified these three men as the men whom I saw on that corner.

CROSS-EXAMINATION:

The defts. in the Police Court stated that they were guilty of this charge.

D E F E N C E.

JOSEPH TIPKIN, a witness for the defts., testified:

I am a grocer and carry on business at No. 253 West 43rd. St. I have known the deft. Lowrey about 12 years. His character for honesty is good.

EDWARD LUEDER, also testified to the good character of the deft. Lowrey.

MARTIN SCHUSLER, testified to the same effect.

EDMUND C. PARTRIDGE, testified as to the good character of the deft. Partridge.

ENOS M. LATHROP, a truckman, testified to having seen the knife identified by Mr. Ennis as his, in the possession of the deft. Lowrey at different times while he was at work with him during a year past.

MAGGIE MAYBEE, a witness for the deft., testified:

I am a sister of the deft. Lowrey. I have seen the knife which is shown me in the possession of my brother for a long time back.

HENRY ACORN, also testified to having seen the said knife in the possession of the deft. Lowrey for at least two years previous to his arrest.

ROBERT LOWREY, the father of the deft., testified as to his son's ownership of the knife and to having seen it with him for at least two years.

ROBERT LOWREY, JR., one of the defts., testified:

I was shoveling snow on this day in question. After I got through myself and Nevin went around drinking together. We walked down-town as far as Blacker St. and then we came back to Partridge's house in 47th. St. but it was too late and he could not get in. We then went to a restaurant on 8th. Ave. and had something to eat and when we came out the officer arrested us. We did not break into this liquor store and did not steal anything on that night. The money which I had in my possession was my share of the money we received for shoveling snow. The knife which was found on me I have had for at least two years.

CROSS-EXAMINATION:

I left my home on the 13th. of March about half past 9 o'clock in the morning and went around shoveling snow with Nevin. We made considerable money shoveling snow as it was during the time of the blizzard.

The Jury found the prisoner guilty of burglary in the third degree with recommendation to mercy.

The People
vs
Domenico Pasch } Court of General Sessions. Part 2.
Indictment for assault in the first degree. Before Judge Cowing. April 3. 1888.
Adolph Ladner sworn. I live 107 Bayard St. and have a soda water stand corner of Bayard and Mulberry Sts. I was there on the 21st of February, I recognize the defendant and know him for three years. I went in by Mulberry St. to get a glass of beer; there was music in the place above, and I said to him there was a marriage above, and I said to him, "Joe, (I knew him) you will be married soon too;" then all at once he hit me a couple of times in the head. I said to him, "Why did you hit me so hard?" He said, because you are a Jew. Then he left and went away and I remained standing at my glass of beer. I said to the bar tender, "why is it that such a fine Italian should hit me for nothing?" Then he came back from the yard (the prison) into the bar room again, and the people in the place tried to prevent him from assaulting me again. The prisoner jumped over all the tables and he took the wooden mallet with which they open beer barrels and he tried to hit me on the head with it. I seized the mallet and he took the hammer out of my hand and hit me twice with the mallet in my ribs; he broke one of my ribs and I fell to the ground. Then some one ran out and went after my wife and my wife came and took me home. He was not arrested immediately; we could not find him. Cross Examined. I keep my soda water stand on the same corner where this saloon is. I have been in America six years, and I cannot talk English. I had only one glass of beer that day, I was not intoxicated. I was not assaulted by a number of Italians - only by the defendant. I never was in trouble in my life. The complainant says I called him a bad name, but I did not. I have spoken to the complainant a thousand times. I was not taken to the hospital, but I went to the dispensary and got a bandage; my wife helped me to the dispensary. I could only walk slowly. I cannot tell if the rib was broken or not, but I saw it was all black. I could not tell if the defendant was drunk or not. I know Cassiano the uncle of the defendant, he is my landlord; the uncle of the prisoner did not come to me to ask me to make the complaint. Then I came up the lawyer took me to the Tomb, I then told everything Frank Cassano the landlord told me that the man was at the Tomb. The Case for the Defence.

Domenico Pasch sworn. I live at 97
Bazard street and am a railroad fireman.
I have been working for some contractors; my wife died about two months ago. The last witness came up and commenced to halloo;
he was drunk, he came to me and he wanted to fool with me. I chased him back again and said, "let me alone"; he commenced to halloo in the saloon, and after that he said, "I dont care for you Ginean Italian," and he struck me in the chin and neck. That is the time I hit him once in his rib with my hands. Cross examined. I had no more conversation with him than what I have stated. I never knew him before. I had not been drinking anything that day. After the first interview I had with him I did not go out of the room.
He went out and he did not return.
I ~~did not~~ <sup>struck</sup> him with my hand but I did not hit him with the mallet. I only struck him once with my fist; he hit me in the ribs and I hit him. He did not fall; he drank a glass of beer and he went away. I was never arrested.

Antonio Rosso sworn. I live in 69 Mulberry St and am a married man. I have known the defendant eight years; he is a peaceable man; I know he is a foreman for contractors during the summer and he occupied a prominent position.

Thomas Palmiero sworn. I live in Elizabeth St. and am a tailor. I have known the defendant five years and know him to be a peaceable and industrious man. I am a journeyman tailor and work in different places.

John Ferris, sworn and examined, testified. I live at 307 Mott St. I have known the defendant four or five years. His reputation for peace and quietness is good; he is foreman of a railroad in the country. I never heard of his being arrested before this charge. In my presence the defendant has been a good man.

I am a special deputy sheriff on a railroad. (The witness produced his appointment as sheriff by Sheriff Grant.)

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of assault in the third degree with a recommendation to mercy.

The defendant was sentenced to the penitentiary for six months.
