Affidavit—Larceny.

CITY AND COUNTY
OF NEW YORK, } ss

of No.

83-6 Street Brooklyn, Alexander Williams, aged 59 years, occupation Captain of a steamship being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 10

day of

November 1882

at the

City of New York,

in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, and from deponent's person, in the night time the following property, viz:

one Hunting Case gold watch of the value of two hundred dollars the property of

Deponent

and that this deponent

has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Thomas Teeran (now here) and another person whose name is not known and not arrested from the fact that while deponent was passing along the Bowery about the hour of 10 o'clock in the evening of said day said defendants came up to deponent and placed their hands around deponent's body; immediately thereafter deponent missed the aforesaid property from the pocket of the vest then and there worn by deponent.

Wherefore deponent charges said Thomas Teeran with taking stealing and carry away the aforesaid property from deponent's person as aforesaid.

 The People
 vs. Thomas Teerman
 Court of General Sessions. Part 2
 Before Judge Cowing. Jan. 16, 1883 Indictment for grand larceny from the person in the night time.

Alexander Williams, sworn and examined testified. I live 83 Sixth St. Williamsburgh.
 I have charge of a steam yacht; on the 16th of November last I was in the Bowery at ten o'clock at night, between nine and ten. I had a hunting case watch on my person. I valued it at two hundred dollars because of what was inside of it. I was going up the Bowery with my engineer side by side; it stormed that day, so I had my rubber coat on my arm and my hands in my pocket; both of us in the same way. These two crowded between us, the other one I have not got; the prisoner is one of them; they hugged me right around my arms and took my watch. I was trying to get away from him.
 The Engineer saw my watch was gone; so I grabbed this one and tried to grab the other one, but he rolled over to the gutter and got away from me. I ran around the billboard and tried to catch him and left the Engineer to take hold of him, but he did not. I grabbed the prisoner 0986

I cannot say which one of the boys took the watch, but one of them did take it. The prisoner had me around the arm and the other was working underneath. I am certain this prisoner is one of the boys. Cross Examined. It was above Canal St. on the Bowery. I cannot say if it was in front of the theatre that this took place. I am not much acquainted with the Bowery and I have not been there since to see. I do not know that it was in front of the National theatre. There was a good many people walking down and quite a number of boys. I grabbed the prisoner first and he got away from me, or at least I let go of him and tried to catch the other, thinking that the Engineer would catch him. I went around the billboard after the other fellow and when I came back I took hold of the prisoner. I could not say how large the billboard is. I only lost sight of the prisoner while it took me to go round the billboard. I don't know what became of the other boy; this thing was done very quickly. I could not say whether he had a hat or cap. I don't know that it was so very light. It made me feel very bad to lose my watch. It was a present to me from a gentleman.

with a good recommendation I would not have lost it for a great deal. It was a valuable watch to me. It made me feel very bad, I felt very sorry over it. This whole occurrence did not take more than 30 seconds.
 The engineer's name is Pugsley; he is not here. I testified substantially the same at the other trial that I have here today. I have not a bit of doubt that the prisoner is one of the boys. I would not come here and say so if I did not believe it. I do not want to wrong any one, I have children of my own. How many boys were there? A good many. Did you find the watch in possession of the prisoner? No sir.
 From whom did you get your watch back?
 The next night after 9 o'clock after I had gone to bed - Was any property found in possession of this boy at the time he was arrested? No sir. Thomas Bowes sworn I am an officer of the fourteenth precinct I don't know anything about the matter any more than I arrested the boy. There was another officer had hold of him and handed him over to me. Was the man present there to make the complaint, Mr.
 Williams? Yes sir, he was there. He was arrested about the time of the commission of the offence.

Thomas Teague sworn and examined in his own behalf testified: I have heard Mr. Williams the complainant testify. I did not take hold of his person or his clothing that night; he did not pursue me round a bill board. I did not take any property from him. I did not know of the intention of any one to rob him. This happened by the National theatre there were fifteen or twenty boys there and plenty of people. I was waiting for the purpose of getting a check to go in. This was at the intermission between the acts. Cross Examined: I serve a paper route in the morning and have been doing that about three years. About three or four months ago I was arrested going down for papers in the morning for beating a man; he said it was robbery though. That was the only time I was arrested. I did not see any boy take Mr. Williams' watch. I was trying to get into the theatre. I am 14 years old. By counsel.

Q The District Attorney has asked you about being arrested, you were discharged at that time? Yes sir. You testified that before the last jury did not you - you were questioned by Col. Fellows? A. Yes sir.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty. The Court sent the prisoner to the House of Refuge.
