The Wm. H. Frank

Brewing Company a corporation duly incorporated under the Laws of the State of New York is and claims to be and will be and will claim to be entitled to receive from the City of Brooklyn the sum of $96.85 with interest from the 1st of July 1896 and the facts which said corporation claims constitute or will constitute a cause of action against the City of Brooklyn and a statement of which is hereby furnished as required by law are as follows:

The Board of Excise of the City of Brooklyn did on the 2d day of December 1895 duly grant to Wm. H. Frank a license for the sale of liquors which license was paid on the 23rd of March 1896 when the act known as the Liquor Tax Law took effect. The sum of Two Hundred Dollars was the amount of the license fee paid by said licensee to said Board of Excise of the City of Brooklyn when said license was granted or when the same was issued. The said license would have run until the 23rd day of December 1896 having been granted for the period commencing the 23rd day of December 1895 and ending on the 23rd day of December 1896 and the said license being entitled pursuant to section 4. of Chapter 112 of the laws of 1896 as such holder of such license to receive and recover from the City of Brooklyn such proportion of the whole license fee paid as aforesaid as the remainder of the time for which such license would otherwise have run bears to the whole period for which it was granted being 175 365ths of the said sum so paid or the amount of $96.85. which was paid on the 9th day of July 1896. For a valuable consideration and by an assignment under his hand and seal duly assign transfer and set over unto the Wm. H Frank Brewing Company the said license and all his right claim and demand for refund pursuant to said Chapter 112 of the Laws of 1896 and the said Wm. H. Frank Brewing Company which is now the holder of said license and of said claim and demand and the said Wm. H. Frank Brewing Company does hereby demand payment of the said sum by and from the City of Brooklyn

In Witness whereof it has hereunto caused its Corporate seal to be affixed and these presents signed by one of its officers thereto duly authorized.
