COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS

-----X

The People

vs.

Henry S. Gates.

Exposing adulterated
Milk for sale.

-----X

Hon. Randolph B. Martine,

District Attorney,

Sir:

The defendant herein was indicted on August 20th, 1885, for exposing for sale impure milk, in violation of the provisions of the Sanitary Code, ^{of chapter 183 of the laws of 1885,} and subsequently pleaded not guilty. Affidavits are now submitted on his behalf, on an application to dismiss the indictment.

These affidavits - two in number, one made by defendant, and one by an employee of his - describe the circumstances of the receipt by him, the inspection and condemnation of the milk in question.

It appears therefrom that at the time of said inspection defendant had for ^{several} months been receiving, under contract made in April, 1885, the milk product of one of the dairy-farms of J.N. Pidcock, a dairy farmer residing at Whitehouse, N.J.; that the milk in question was from said Pidcock's farm, and was received by defendant's employee at the milk depot of the New Jersey Central Railroad Co., by which the milk was daily transported, in cans whose lids were wired down; that said milk was, in said condition, brought, about 2 A.M. on the morning of July 13, 1885, to the sidewalk in front of deponent's store and residence, without having been opened with the knowledge or connivance of deponent or said employee; that the inspection was then made, the milk condemned and poured out, and defendant called down to the sidewalk from bed; and that defendant did not know of, consent to or direct, the adulteration of said milk; that he had, at or before the time of said inspection and condemnation as aforesaid, no opportunity for the inspection of said milk; that he did not offer or expose the same for sale.

I have supplemented these affidavits submitted by affidavits of the complainant and of the present custodian of the records of the Health Department in that regard, which show that no other complaint against the defendant was ever made before or since the time of the offense herein charged, and that the Department had found frequent occasion for condemning the milk furnished to city retailers from the dairy-farms of said Pidcock.

These affidavits appear to me to justify a belief in defendant's statement concerning his receipt of the milk, and his ignorance of its adulteration.

His knowledge, however, is not essential to the offense charged. The law is one of those police statutes, for the violation of which intent is immaterial. The legislature warns the merchant to take his own risk in entering and carrying on the business in question; and will not acquit him because of his own ignorance, carelessness or mistake. And rightly; for the traffic it seeks to regulate and control is one which so universally affects the residents of great cities, and is so important to the sustenance of those of the tenderest years, that it is better to govern it by a rigid and strictly enforced ordinance, even though occasional injustice is done an innocent wrongdoer, than to permit the plea of ignorance to render the statute nugatory and its safeguards of no ^{avail} ~~account~~.

Accordingly, although the case is one which appeals to clemency, I should feel constrained to limit my recommendation to the discharge of the defendant on his own recognizance, and the release of his bail from further liability, were it not for one fact. The charge of the indictment is the exposing adulterated milk for sale. It is evident from the defendant's description of the circumstances above given, that in the case of the milk condemned, there had been no such exposure, either actual or implied, and the accuracy of the defendant's description has been confirmed to me in substance by the complainant. It seems to me, therefore, that upon all the evidence obtainable, the proof will fall fatally short of the indictment, and the case of the prosecution will, in all probability, fail of establishment.

I accordingly recommend, upon all the facts of the case, that the indictment be dismissed.

June 24, 1887.

Yours Respectfully,
A. W. Parker

That when this defendant engaged the milk product of said farm this defendant was to receive the said product agreed to furnish & deliver to defendant pure milk of the best quality for which defendant agreed to pay & has paid the full market price as established by the New York Milk Exchange. That the said product delivered said milk to the New Jersey Central Railroad Company to be delivered to defendant at their Milk Depot in Jersey City N.J. That the said cans so delivered have their lids or covers riveted on to be so delivered to defendant.

That defendant sends over to Jersey City aforesaid daily to receive the said milk so shipped to defendant as aforesaid; that on the morning of July 13th 1886 defendant driver named Frederick Wilhus brought over from Jersey City aforesaid the milk so shipped from said product on the night of July 12th.

to this defendant and delivered it at defendant's store aforesaid by placing same on side walk at about two O'clock am. July 13th 1885.

That at the time the cans were so placed on the sidewalk aforesaid defendant was in his residence & asleep over said store. That soon afterwards defendant was awakened and called down stairs and found a person claiming to be a milk inspector defendant was informed was a Mr. Munsell, having said cans containing the Milk & received from said Diderock aforesaid unwired & the lids or covers removed therefrom and was engaged in examining or testing the said milk in said cans, and the said inspector then there claimed that three of the said cans so received from the said Diderock as aforesaid were not of the standard or required quality and emptied the contents of said cans in the gutter in the street.

That defendant had not received said milk except as above stated and had not even or opened the said

City and County of New York, SS:

Charles E. Mansell, being duly sworn, deposes and says: I am the complainant in the above entitled action. I now reside at 25 Abingdon Square, in this City. At the time I made the complaint, I was an Inspector in the employ of the Health Department of this City, and at that time I had been in such employ for a period of between five and six years. At or about the time of making the complaint herein, I searched the record of the defendant herein, to ascertain whether or no he had ever before been charged with a violation of the Sanitary Code, and I was unable to find that he had ever been charged with such offense previously. I remember, however, that J. N. Pidcock, of New-Jersey, the dairyman from whom the defendant herein, obtained the milk he sold, including that which was inspected and condemned, had on several occasions sent adulterated milk to this city, to dealers who had obtained their supply from him. Dealers in this city, had, on several occasions changed the source of their supply from other dairymen to Pidcock, and ^{after} ~~upon~~ such changes to Pidcock, the Department frequently had occasion to condemn the milk

furnished by him.

have, since January 1, 1884, charge of the records of the Second Division of said department, said records containing, among other things, a statement of complaints made on behalf

I have this day made a search in 1884, the date when said record book was first instituted, down to the present day, for the purpose of ascertaining whether the said department, or its

against the defendant herein for violation of the said Sanitary Code, other than that upon which the above entitled action is predicated, & I could find none further.

Richard Weber ^{be} being duly sworn says, that between the 1st. day of March 1884 and the 2d. of March 1885 Thomas Christie and John Bradbrook were clerks and servants of the deponent in his business of wholesale and retail pork packing and selling in the city of New York. That as such clerks it was their duty to enter in the proper books of deponent the collections made from deponents customers. That from November 1st. ^{to November 29. 1884} 1884 the said Christie and Bradbrook did collect and receive from customers the sum of $1610. 90. That from January 5th. 1885 to January 31, 1885 said Christie and Bradbrook did ^{from said customers $1585.00} collect the sum of $15. 85. ⁰⁰ That during the month of February 1885 said Christie and Bradbrook did collect from said customers the sum of $572. 99. That as aid clerks it was their duty of said Bradbrook and said Christie to enter and cause to be entered in the books of deponent the above collections, but that said Bradbrook and said Christie, acting in concert together, did steal and take such moneys and did willfully omit to make a true entry of the receipt of such moneys in the book ^{of account} accounts of deponent. Wherefore deponent charges the said Bradbrook and the said Christie with forgery in the third degree and contrary to section 515 of the penal code, subdivision 3. would get the watch for me. Mr Curtis had no
talk with him at all.
I promised Bennet that I would not arrest him
if he got me the property.

Ques

Where did you
first see the letter?

Officer Figgan had the taker. I know this is the man that pawned
 the watch. At admission
 he was under the bed.
 And that he got up
 during the night and
 took the watch and
 chain, the first day he was in my custody.

Ques

Did you
 inform him of the promise you made to Benner?

Ans

No Sir. Colby
 told me he would give Benner away as he was
 as deeply in it as he was.

Ques

Will you swear that ~~he~~ he did not say that Benner took the property
 and he, Colby, pawned

of said city being duly sworn says,
I am the person upon whose Compl-aint the defendant was indicted for a felonious Assault.

The defendant
is my husband I reside at Number 1535 Second Avenue in said city
and at the time of the Assault we resided at No 326 East 56th Street with our four Children.

At the time of the Assault my husband came home from work early in the afternoon acting very excitable and appeared to be intoxicated, he and

I began to quarrel calling each other names when suddenly he threw a Hammer at me, and said Hammer struck me in my Face, and then he struck me a blow with his Fist. I have no marks of any kind from the result of said Assault this was the first time since our Marriage, this was the first time that my husband assaulted me, as he has always been heretofore an affectionate husband he is not a drinking Man, and works every day at his trade, and has not been absent from his work one week since our Marriage, we always lived in peace and harmony during our marriage Life, my husband has since told me, that he did not know what he was doing at the time of the Assault, and I fully believe that to be a fact. I don't think that he would have assaulted me, if he was not suffering from excitement or drink.

He was confined at the Prison at 57th Street Court for a period of two weeks.

We are both living together again in harmony and our relations are as pleasant as it was on the day of our Marriage. I know that this is the first time that my husband was arrested upon any charge.

I therefore pray to the Court that sentence be suspended, and I know that my husband will never Assault me again.

City and County of New York, SS.

Aaron Güler, being duly sworn, deposes and says:-

I reside at number 297 Tenth Avenue this City, where I keep a barbershop. On the 5th. day of August, 1885, the defendant James Curran, came into my place at the above number, and stole therefrom one clipping machine of the value of four dollars, which said machine was my property. The said larceny took place under the following circumstances:- On the 5th. day of August the defendant with three others came into my shop while I was in the back room and he went up to the glass and combed his hair. I came out from the back room and pushed him away from the glass, and then I discovered that my machine was gone. I am informed by my daughter Rebecca that she saw the said Curran while he was standing near the machine, make a motion as if putting something in his pocket. I know that the machine was lying on the shelf in front of the glass, immediately before the said Curran came into my shop, from the fact, that I am so informed by my journeyman, Frank.
