 away from the possession of deponent, by trick and artifice the following property, viz:

Good and Lawful money of the United States of the value of One Hundred and Twenty Dollars, the property of Deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by James Roberts said Roberts made deponent acquainted in French's Hotel and told deponent that he said Roberts had some fare to ship on the European steamer that he did not have money enough but that he had some bonds that if deponent could keep him out he said Roberts would make it right when he got back to the hotel deponent thereupon gave said Roberts said money and then said Roberts to go to the hotel and see that his said Robert Cassage would

OF NEW YORK, } ss.

And ^{aforesaid} THE JURORS ~~OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,~~ ~~in and for the body of the City and County of New York,~~ upon their Oath, ~~aforesaid,~~ do further present.

That

James Roberts.

late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid on the seventeenth day of June, _____ in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ~~seventy~~ Eighty, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, on the day and year last aforesaid, with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud one

William H. Beebe

did then and there feloniously, unlawfully, knowingly, and designedly, falsely pretend and represent to

William H. Beebe

That he the said James Roberts was then and there about to ship a great quantity of furs on a Steamer to Europe _____ and that he the said James Roberts was then and there the owner of bonds of great value to wit of the value of Five hundred dollars - and was in great need of money to pay the shipping charges on the said furs. and that if he the said William H. Beebe would advance the money for the payment of said charges, that immediate payments should be made to him the said William H. Beebe for said money

And the said

William H. Beebe

then and there believing the said false pretences and representations so made as aforesaid by the said

and being deceived thereby, was induced, by reason of the false pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, to deliver, and did then and there deliver to the said

James Roberts a certain sum of money to wit the sum of one hundred and fourteen dollars in money and of the value of one hundred and fourteen dollars — of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property and effects of the said

and the said

did then and there designedly receive and obtain the said certain sum of money to wit the sum of one hundred and fourteen dollars in money and of the value of one hundred and fourteen dollars

of the said

of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property and effects of the said

by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, and with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud the said

of the same.

Whereas in truth and in fact he the said James Roberts was not then and there about to ship a great quantity of furs to Europe nor was he about to ship any furs of any kind or quantity whatsoever — and whereas in truth and in fact he the said James Roberts was not then and there the owner of bonds of great value, was not the owner of bonds of the value of five hundred dollars, nor was he the owner of any bond of any value whatsoever.

And whereas in truth and in fact he the said James Roberts was not in great need of money to pay any shipping charges upon said furs to Europe - and would not and could not pay to the said William H. Beebe any money that he the said William H. Beebe might advance him the said James Roberts to pay the charges upon said furs.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, by the said James Roberts to the said William H. Beebe was and were in all respects utterly false and untrue, to wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City, and County aforesaid.

And Whereas, in fact and in truth the said James Roberts well knew the said pretences and representations so by him made as aforesaid to the said William H. Beebe to be utterly false and untrue at the time of making the same.

And so the Jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do say, that the said James Roberts by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, feloniously, unlawfully, falsely, knowingly and designedly, did receive and obtain from the said William H. Beebe the said certain sum of money, to wit: the sum of one hundred and fourteen dollars in money and of the value of one hundred and fourteen dollars of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property, and effects of the said William H. Beebe with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud him of the same, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

J. E. A. & B.

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. And further because he has been a good man to me & has supported myself & the children, he was drunk at the time, I am 49 years of age and can not support the children without his aid. I ask that clemency be extended to
