Q You say you saw this man on the night of December last ?

A Yes

Q Where did you meet him ?

A In the post office room & on the first floor

Q Was he outside of the door or inside ?

A Inside (like this man writing here now)

Q What took place between you and him ?

A I went there and told him I had $105 dollars that I wanted to send to Europe to my brother in law. And told him I always sent it by draft through Contoni and asked him if it was more secure to send it by the post office

Q What is your business?

A 38 years of age.

Q Do you know the defendant?

A I do not.

Q How you ever had any conversation with him relative to the taking of the money described by the complainant?

A Yes sir.

Q When?

A Inside of two weeks ago "since then on the street 135 Madison Lane. Was in the post office.

Q What conversation did you have with the defendant?

A The only time I met him was in the Post office. He was talking to Mr Newcomb.
Mr Newcomb, accused him of taking the money and he denied it. And he said there must have been a mistake in sending it away. And if they would wait for a few days it would be boresome. Mr. Newcomb says you are lying. You must tell me the truth.

4

You know that you have stolen this man's money. You used it for your own use? Mr. Newcomb went out into the other office. Mr. Jones leaning against the cylinder desk. He came to me. He said to me are you this man's lawyer? Mr. Jones said I am here to represent him. He said to me I will tell you that I did take the money and used it for my own use;

Q Is that his exact language?

A No I think he said for his own means. He if he will let me off for a couple of days or so I will return this money to him. These are his words,

Q Is that the only conversation that you had with him?

Answer

Cross Examined.

5

Q In what office were you, in the past office?

A I turned in the night I went into Mr. Newcomb's office.

Q What did Mr. Newcomb say?

A Mr. Newcomb asked me if I could recognize the man if he saw him.

Q And you say you met the defendant first in Mr. Newcomb's private office Correct? And that was the time that you heard this man protesting his innocence?
And Mr. Newcomb said that he was lying.

Q I think you said that he entered the room to speak to you?

A He came over to me to speak to me while Mr. Newcomb took another man out another prisoner. He was standing or leaning against the desk.

Q In that room where was the desk standing?
A Describing the room.

Q How many desks in the room are there?
A Three.

Q Where are they located?

0657

Q What was being the position of the room? Was the lounge vacant?

Q Anybody in the lounge?

A I think not at that time

Q How many telephone desks were there?

Q I don't know

Q Now you say that the defendant came into the room at what desk were you at that time?

A I was at the first desk to my right in the office.

Q Were there anybody near you?

Answer

Q Who?

A Mr. Newcomb, he was sitting at his desk and the janitor was sitting on the lounge when he had this conversation with him that was the first conversation that was had with Mr. Newcomb and not with me

Q How long a time elapsed between the first conversation and the conversation had with you

A 15 minutes

Q What was done in the mean while?
A Mr Newcomb took out another man and reached him the same hour again.

Q And then you say he came to you and said what?

A He came over to me and asked me if I was his lawyer. We talked it over to represent him. We then he said that he had taken his money. We used it for his own means. And if we would give him a couple of days he would get his money back for him.

Q Was the defendant ever seen before that?

A Yes sir.

Q Did you ever speak to him before?
A Yes sir.

Q And were the complainant and defendant
walking together?

A Yes sir.

Q In their own language?

A Yes sir. And Mr Newcomb told them to stop that he didn't want any more of that.

8

Q. Were they ever spending freely together were they ever in Italian?

A. I don't mean that, if they were ever together freely, I don't mean ^{how} spending together.
I don't know that they were ever spending or instead of that they were having a very good time. I don't know of any together.

Q. Was this man who was a total stranger to you came over to your house to you in the way that he did?
Answer:

Q. Do you understand the Italian language
Answer:

Q. Did you have any conversation with Mr. Gervasio about this case?

A. That's all I ever tried to ask him if he had any further news.

Q. What did Mr. Gervasio tell you about
this case?

A. He told me the best thing I can do was to go to a warrant in the police court for this man's arrest.

Q. When was that?

A. Friday or Saturday I think it was.

9

the day that this conversation took place in Mr. McCormick's room?

Q Didn't you know that Mr. McCormick was making charges against Edison in the United States Court for forgery?

A I don't know what for but he told me that was a case against him
Q Did you attend to any of the examination
at all?

A No Sir I did not.

Q Were you in court at all?
Answer Sir

Q When you were in the office of Mr.
McCormick did he advised you to go and get this more arrested. what did you do?

A I went and swore to the complaint.

Q You mean you testified before the judge?

Answer

By the Court

Q You didn't sign any paper's
Answer Sir.

Q What you meant by testifying is

What you came to court and serve?
A I merely came here and serve that is all?

Q When was it?

A On the 30th I was told to come here today at 2 o'clock by the judge.
Q You was in court at the time the warrant was shown?

Ans. Sir.

Q Was you were told to be there on the same day at 2 o'clock?

A Yes sir to say it was postponed until today at 2 o'clock.

Recess Examination

Q How many times did you have a conversation with Mr. Newcomb about this case?

A I cannot say, three times.

Q And Mr. Newcomb. Tell you how he was getting along with the charges against this man?

Ans. Sir. He told me he was discharged on two cases.

Q He told you then that he was discharged

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, against

Mary Dennis

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this Indictment, accuse

Mary Dennis

(Section 323, Penal Code.) of the CRIME OF KEEPING AND MAINTAINING A COMMON BAWDY HOUSE AND
HOUSE OF ILL FAME, committed as follows:

The said Mary Dennis,

late of the 17th Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the seventh day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and on divers other days and times as well before as afterwards, to the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, a certain common bawdy house and house of ill fame, unlawfully and wickedly did keep and maintain; and in the said house divers evil-disposed persons, as well men as women, and common prostitutes, on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, there unlawfully and wickedly did receive and entertain; and in which said house the said evil-disposed persons and common prostitutes, by the consent and procurement of the said

Mary Dennis,
on the days and times aforesaid, there did commit whoredom and fornication; whereby divers unlawful assemblies, disturbances and lewd offences on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, were there committed and perpetrated; to the great damage and common nuisance of all the good people of the said State there inhabiting and residing, in manifest destruction and subversion of, and against good morals and good manners, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT.—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

Mary Dennis

(Section 885,
Penal Code.) of the CRIME OF MAINTAINING A PUBLIC NUISANCE, committed as follows:

The said Mary Dennis,

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the seventh day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-~~six~~, — and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, unlawfully did keep and maintain a certain common, ill governed house, and in ~~the~~ said house, for ~~her~~ own lucre and gain, certain persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, as well men as women, of evil name and fame and dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together then and on said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on said other days and times there to be and remain, tippling, drinking, gaming, cursing, swearing, quarreling, making great noises and otherwise misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully did permit and suffer, to the great annoyance, injury and danger of the comfort and repose of a great number of persons, good citizens of our said State there residing, and passing and repassing, to the common nuisance of the said citizens, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT.—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

~~many~~ ~~Denier~~

(Section 332,
Penal Code.) of the CRIME OF KEEPING A DISORDERLY HOUSE, committed as follows:

The said ~~many~~ ~~Denier~~, late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the ~~nineteenth~~ day of ~~February~~, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-~~six~~, and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did keep a certain ill-governed and disorderly house, the same being a place of public resort, and in the said house and place of public resort, for ~~her~~ — own lucre and gain, certain persons, as well men as women, of evil name and fame, and of dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together, then and on the said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women, in ~~her~~ — said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on the said other days and times, there to be and remain, drinking, tippling, gambling, rioting, disturbing the peace, whoring and misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully, did permit, and yet continues to permit, by reason whereof the peace, comfort and decency of the neighborhood around and about the said house were, and yet are, habitually disturbed, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

Dear Sir.

Prompted by motives of pure kindness and to save a worthy man from unmerited punishment, I invoke your aid and your influence in behalf of Martin Downey an hostler by occupation, single, of about 30 years of age and who was convicted in the Court of General Sessions before Judge Cowing of Assault in the 3rd degree and now awaiting sentence. He has been ~~imprisoned~~ ^{confined} in this place some time and being of a sensitive nature he has suffered mentally.

I have favorably known him for the past 10 years and more and in all that time can attest to his uniform ex-

plenty deportment for honesty, industry and peaceableness and wholly devoid of any viciousness.

He is thought well of, by his acquaintances and employers whose confidence he possessed.

He was never arrested to my knowledge nor have I ever heard of his being accused with any offense. I was much surprised at the charge now against him and cannot believe it without palliation.

Surely the law claims no victims and this man's case in justice is well worthy of a suspension of sentence and to that end
I pray your kind intercession for which I am sure you will suffer no regret. I make this request freely and unsolicited and am dear Sir, Very Respectfully Yours

was in her 15th year. On the 15th of February, she went to the stable where her step-father, Edward Riely, was employed, for the purpose of getting his week's pay from him, and taking it to her mother. She knocked at the window of the office of the stable, and her father told her that he had not been paid yet, and to go across the street and wait. It was raining, and she had on a rubber coat. Three men came up to her, and one of them said, "Good evening, Missis!" She moved away, and two of them ran after her, and got hold of the cloak, and pulled it off. The prisoner was one of the two men. She fell, and the other man with the prisoner kicked her. She held on to their legs, and screamed for help. She fell, because the other man with the prisoner tripped her. When she screamed, the two men ran away. They pulled off her cloak, and tore her dress at the bosom, and burst all the buttons off of her jersey. She had no property in the bosom of her dress, but she wore bangles on her arms and rings on her fingers. She also had a gold pin in the collar of her coat. She missed none of this property. It was about half past 6 o'clock in the evening.

Under cross examination, she testified that she did not make a charge of attempting rape, in the Police Court.

An officer of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, made that charge. Her impression was that the two men intended committing a rape. The prisoner had been drinking, because he staggered.

EDWARD BRILLY, being duly sworn, testified that he is the step-father of the complainant. After he got his money he went out of the stable to see his daughter, and met a Mr. Heyman. Mr. Heyman said, "There is something the matter with your daughter." He didn't see his daughter for several minutes, and then he saw her near Lexington Avenue. Her mother and a policeman were with her. He had known the defendant for five or six years, and had seen him around the neighborhood several times. He knew that he was a stableman.

Under cross examination, he testified that when he met his wife and step-daughter, she said something about assault, and he said, "No one would touch you, because you are ^{too} well known in the street." He had worked in 24th Street for 23 years.

HENRY HEYMAN, being duly sworn, testified that he was in the Horse business, at 159 East 24th, Street. On the 15th, of February, between 6 and 7 oclock, he saw the complainant in front of the stable at 159 East 24th, Street. She was standing there, and was kind of frightened, and he said "what is the matter?" she said, there is some fellow after me". He then went, and called complainant's step- father.

OFFICER THOMAS MULHEARN, being duly sworn, testified that he was attached to the 18th, Precinct. He arrested the prisoner, on the complaint of Julia Kenney. When the prisoner was arraigned in the station house, the complainant instantly identified him as one of the two men that had assaulted her. He arrested the prisoner at 147 East 24th, Street, in a stable. When he told the prisoner what the charge against him was, the prisoner said he was innocent, and knew nothing about it.

CATHERINE RILEY, being duly sworn, testified that she was the mother of the complainant. On the complainant's return to her home, about half-past six o'clock on the evening of February 15th, her clothing was all torn, and the bosom of her dress was also torn. In her presence, her daughter positively identified the prisoner as one of her assailants.

For the defense, MARTIN SADDLER, dealer in horses, of 139 and 145 East 24, Street, being duly sworn, testified that he was standing in front of the stable at 139 East 24th Street, on the evening in question, and saw a man, not the prisoner, walk over to where the girl was standing. He was under the influence of liquor. He was quarrelling with some imaginary man, and he, the witness, told him to go across the street, to get rid of him. He told the drunken man that the man that he was quarrelling with was across the street. The man went across the street, and came back, within a few minutes, and said there ~~was~~ no man, but a woman across the street. He, the witness, then went away. It was then about half past six o'clock in the evening. He had known the prisoner for six years, and knew that his character was good.

HENRY DALY, dealer in horses, corroborated Mr. Saddler. He saw the complainant go to her father's stable across the street, but saw no one assault her. He Didn't see the prisoner in that neighborhood. He had known the prisoner for seven or eight years, and his character was good.

MR. HEYMAN, being recalled for the defense, testified that, when the complainant came up to him, he didn't notice that her rubber coat was torn. He had known the prisoner four or five years, and knew that his character was good.

MARTIN DOWNEY, the defendant, being duly sworn, testified that he was a groom and stable man. He had just come out of the hospital on the day in question, having fallen down in a cellar of the stable where he worked, and sprained his knee. He came out of Bellevue Hospital on the day in question. He could hardly walk. He didn't see the complainant, and didn't assault her or assist any body else in doing so.

Under cross examination, he testified that he left the hospital about 10:00 clock on that day, and went to the Bullshead stable. He then went with a young man to the west side, to a depot, for a horse.

He rode in the wagon, and held the horse. When he got back to the stable, he met a man called "Little Billy," that works in the stable, and he went out and bought a glass of beer. They went to several liquor saloons, and had several glasses of ale and beer, and then he went back to the stable. Between 6 and 7 o'clock, he met a man named Brennan, on the corner of 24th, street, and stood talking with him, and then went up to Mc Dougal's saloon and had another glass of ale. It was then about 7 o'clock, or perhaps between seven and eight, and then he went back to the stable, when he first heard of the alleged assault. When he was arrested, the policeman told him of it, and it was the first he knew of it.
