City and County of New York, ss:

James H. Driscoll being duly sworn, deposes and says: I reside at No. 29 City Hall Place Street, in the City of New York. I am a Subpoena server in the office of the District Attorney of the City and County of New York. On the 11th day of July 1888, I called at 138 Bleeker Street the alleged residences of Francisca Ree and Lena Ree a witness the complainant herein, to serve them with the annexed subpoenas and was informed by Mr. Kelly one of the owners of the building who is acquainted with every tenant in the building. He informed me that there were no such persons living there at present and had not been for the past two years during which period to my own knowledge said Kelly has been in charge of the building.

I then went next door and inquired of an Italian and his wife who keep a restaurant there and I was informed by them that they knew of no such persons there or in the neighborhood. I have been several times to this locality seeking to serve subpoenas upon said Francisca Ree and Lena Ree and have always after diligent search been unable to find them.

The Grand Jury calls witnesses in whatever order its Foreman pleases. The Foreman knows best for the public good. If you wait patiently on the day of attendance until your turn comes, it may save you waiting hereafter.

If it is very inconvenient for you to attend on the day designated, let the District Attorney's Officer or Clerk in the witness room know this at an early moment.

If you do not obey this Subpoena, or do not explain your absence, the Court will enforce your attendance by attachment, and fine you.

If you are ill when served, send timely notice of that fact to the District Attorney.

If other witnesses in this case are called, and another case taken up, you may know—unless otherwise advised—that the Grand Jury do not care to examine you; and you may then retire, mentioning your withdrawal to the officer or clerk.

If the Grand Jury adjourn, and you have not been called without explanation, inquire of the Chief Clerk in the District Attorney's office, if you are wanted again and when.
