BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by

for the reasons following, to wit: that deponent is informed by Jacob Fink of No 513 W 38th St that

The People
vs.
Edward Johnson.

Court of General Sessions Part I.
Before Judge Cowing.

January 17 1887.

Indictment for burglary in the first degree.

Thomas Leonard sworn and examined. I live in Jersey City and am second engineer on the tug boat John Fuller. You were on her on the 9th of December, were you not? Yes sir. She was lying at that time at West 13th Street tied to the dock? Yes sir. What occurred on the tug boat that night if anything on the 9th of December as far as you know? I don't know anything about it only this When I got up in the morning my clothes and stuff were all gone. What time did you go to bed on the night of the 9th of December? About ten o'clock. Where did you sleep on the tug that night? In the cabin. Where were the clothes that you missed the next day? Hung up in the closet in the cabin. When you retired for the night did you or anybody lock the door? I locked the door of the closet that my clothes were locked up in but not the cabin door. What was the condition of the door? I got up, we were going to wash the boiler, I leave my working clothes all in a little pile by my head, I went and sat in the engine room, I closed the furnace doors, I called the other boy and he came out and said, I think we are robbed, I went in and found the closet door open. In that closet I had an overcoat, a suit of clothes, a gold watch and nine dollars, the aggregate value of which was about $130 belonging to me, I am positive that property was in the closet when I fastened it the night before.

Cross Examined. I did not lock the cabin door,

POOR QUALITY ORIGINAL

0205

it is an ordinary lock that is on the closet door, the clothes that were stolen I wore the day previously, I had worn them about a month and they cost me thirty dollars, I had the watch about eight or nine months and it cost me eighty dollars.

John Lynch sworn. I am a cook on board the tug boat Howard which was moored off Morton Street, I know nothing about the burglary on board the Fuller, all I know about it, this man Johnson came aboard our boat that night between two and three o'clock in the morning, I suppose he went through the fire room, broke in the cabin and got all the clothes, they were together in a pile. We got the tickets that called for the complainant's coat out of his pocket when we caught him on our boat, John Gibbons, our cook found the pawn tickets on him, I was present at the time. I believe the complainant in this case went and got the coat out. I do not know whether the pawn tickets represented the watch or pantaloons or vest that was stolen but Mr Burleigh knows I believe.

Cross Examined. There were seven or eight pawn tickets taken from the prisoner, the prisoner did not tell me that those tickets represented his own property, he did not tell me anything about it, he was searched on board our boat by John Gibbons, Gibbons hit him once or twice and he told him he would have him arrested, I do not know that the defendant slept on a tug boat several times before that. Do you know of your own knowledge that he was on the tug boat several times before? No sir.

groceries and other articles stored in the tug boat Howard's tug boat in the morning of the 1st of May, 1934, at the tug boat Howard's tug boat

Thomas Burleigh sworn and examined.

I belong to the 9th precinct and arrested the prisoner in a lodging house, Mr Howard of the tug boat Howard gave me some pawn tickets and I notified Mr Leonard to come and see me, Mr Leonard and I went to the pawn shop and he identified a coat that was taken from the tug boat Fuller on the night that he was robbed. The pawn tickets were given to me by Mr Howard and Mr Gibbons gave them to Mr Howard.

John Lynch recalled . I saw Gibbons search the prisoner and he found pawn tickets on him, we went right in the cabin, we looked at the whole of them, he gave them to Officer Burleigh, I was present when he gave them, I saw him give the identical tickets which he took out of his pocket to the witness that left the witness-stand, there was seven or eight or nine, I did not bother to count them, I think there was two overcoats and a watch, I know there was seven but I would not say there was nine, there was four or five of us looked at them to see what they called for, there was one for a coat and a vest, there was two overcoats and a watch and a suit of clothes there was a couple of others I think, he had every key of our boat in his pocket at the same time. I told Gibbons turn those tickets over to? He gave them to Officer Burleigh up in Mr Howard's dining room one evening, perhaps a couple of weeks after they were taken from the prisoner. I know they are the identical tickets because they call for the same things, the watch and everything, I know that John Gibbons had them in his pocket every day.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the second degree.
