Sir:

I would respectfully report that I visited the following persons in relation to the character of the house
No. 348 - 4th Ave. kept by Mrs. Ekstrom and licensed as an Intelligence Office and report as follows
Mrs. Malmberg 352 - 4th Ave. states that Mr. Ekstrom called at her place a short time ago to make some inquiries about a servant girl who was in the employ of his wife whom is supposed to know something about the relations existing between Mrs. Ekstrom and a Mr. Sandberg who's place of business (or office) is on the first floor of the premises occupied by Mrs. Ekstrom the said girl is not in the city at present. A. Langhorst - 350 - 4th Ave heard rumors that improper relations did exist between said parties but does not know of his own knowledge anything wrong about the house it is quite peaceable at all times of the day and night (over)

REPORT.

Edward H. Healey.

Dear Sir, I see Mr. Walter Scott, the truckman, of 46th St. & 8th Ave, in regards to the contract made with Carrie Levy of 411st 57th St. I told him that he would have to deliver those goods according to contract, that was the martial's order. I told him I was from the martial's office, & was a policeman, I also showed him my shield. He positively refused to put the bed in the room. I then told him that the martial said if he didn't deliver those goods according to contract, showing him the contract & he acknowledged his signature, told him the martial said he would revoke his license. He said if the martial revoked his license or not, he would not put the bed in the room. I then told him to appear before the martial at 10 o'clock Monday the 18th, also the complainant.

ARTICLE V.

PEDDLERS, HAWKERS, VENDERS AND HUCKSTERS.

Sec. 54. The Mayor of the City of New York may, subject to the restrictions hereinafter mentioned, grant licenses to any peddler, hawker, vender, or huckster of any kind of merchandise; every such peddler, hawker, vender, or huckster using a horse and wagon, hand-cart, or other vehicle, shall, at the time such license is granted, pay to the said Mayor, for the use of the city, the sum of five dollars for every vehicle owned and used by him or her as such licensed vender, and every other description of peddler, hawker, vender, and huckster shall pay for such license the sum of one dollar, which shall not include the cost of the badge as hereafter provided for. Every applicant for such a license, before such license is granted, shall produce to the Mayor satisfactory evidence of his or her good moral character, and such applicant must be and have been an actual resident of the State of New York for at least six months previous to his or her application for said license; and such person shall, upon receiving a license as aforesaid, report his or her residence to the Mayor, and upon changing his or her residence, shall, in like manner, report his or her new residence, and the Mayor shall have full power and authority to revoke any of such licenses. The Mayor, or the person duly appointed by him for such purpose, must examine all persons applying for such license, under oath, in relation to the matters embraced in this section, and all licenses to persons other than those qualified as herein provided, shall be void. Such license shall be in force for one year from the time the same is granted, and shall be renewed at the expiration of each year, provided that the applicant therefor continues in all things qualified, as hereinbefore provided, to hold such license, and upon each renewal thereof such peddler, hawker, vender, or huckster, of the first class aforesaid, using any vehicle, shall pay the sum of fifty cents in manner and for the purpose aforesaid, and any such peddler, hawker, vender, or huckster of any other description, of the second class aforesaid, shall pay the sum of twenty-five cents in manner and for the purpose aforesaid. No peddler, hawker, vender, or huckster of any kind of merchandise, shall conduct or carry on in the City of New York, any business as such peddler, hawker, vender, or huckster until he or she shall have first obtained a license in compliance with the provisions of this section. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be punished, upon conviction, by a fine of not more than twenty-five dollars, or in default of payment of such fine, by imprisonment of not less than five or more than ten days.

Sec. 55. No person licensed as aforesaid shall be entitled to transfer any such license without consent of the Mayor, or shall violate any restrictions contained in his or her license; but each license shall authorize the person named therein to act in the capacity therein designated; no person shall violate the provisions of this section under a penalty of ten dollars for each offense.

Sec. 56. Every person who shall be licensed according to the provisions of this article, shall wear conspicuously on his or her left breast a badge of a size sufficient to admit the number of his or her license engraved thereon, together with the word merchandise; such badge shall be in a form which shall be approved by the Mayor, and every such peddler, hawker, vender, or huckster as shall be authorized by any such license to drive or use, or who shall drive or use, a cart, wagon, or any other vehicle in his or her business, shall, in addition to wearing such badge as aforesaid, have the number of its license, together with the word merchandise, painted upon each side of such vehicle in a conspicuous place, and the figures and letters composing such number and word shall not be less than two and one-half inches in length, and shall at all times be kept legible. Any violation of this section shall be punished, upon conviction, by a fine of not more than twenty-five dollars, or in default thereof, by imprisonment of not less than five or more than ten days.

Sec. 57. No peddler, vender, hawker, or huckster of any kind of merchandise shall permit any cart, wagon, or any other vehicle owned or controlled by him or her, to stop, rest, remain upon, or in anywise encumber any street, avenue, or highway, for a longer period than ten minutes at one time, and then only while engaged in selling or offering to sell goods, wares, or merchandise vendible or sold by him or her; or shall erect any booth or establishment, or fix any stand, on any crosswalk, sidewalk, intersection of streets or public grounds in the City of New York, for the purpose of exposing for sale or vending or selling, or offering to vend or sell any merchandise whatsoever, or shall blow upon or use, or suffer or permit to be blown upon or used, any horn or other instrument for the purpose of giving notice of the approach of any cart, wagon, or other vehicle, in order to sell thereout any article of merchandise. And no peddler, hawker, vender, or huckster shall cry his or her wares or merchandise after nine o'clock p. m. of any day, except Saturdays, when they shall be allowed to cry or sell their wares or merchandise until ten p. m. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not more than ten dollars, or in default thereof, by imprisonment for not more than five days. Nothing in this ordinance shall be construed so as to prevent any peddler, hawker, huckster, or vender owning or using a vehicle or vehicles from procuring a license for each vehicle owned by him or her, and employing a person to drive or propel each vehicle, subject, nevertheless, to the provisions herein contained. Provided, nevertheless, that no peddler, huckster, hawker, or vender of any kind of merchandise shall be allowed to cry his wares, or stop or remain in Nassau street, between Spruce and Wall streets, from 8 o'clock a. m. to 6 o'clock p. m., under the penalty of ten dollars for each offense, or five days' imprisonment, or both.

Sec. 58. All ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent or in any manner conflicting with the provisions of this article are hereby repealed; but nothing in this article contained shall affect the provisions of article V. of chapter 3, or of articles IX., XIV., XXX., or XXXIII., of chapter 8 of the said Revised Ordinances, or the provisions of the resolution relating to the Gansevoort Market, approved by the Mayor, Dec. 14, 1881; nor shall the provisions of this article apply to newsboys; neither shall anything in this article contained authorize the Mayor to grant licenses for the sale of any article by existing law or ordinance forbidden to be sold.

REVISED ORDINANCES OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK.
Approved by the Mayor December 31st, 1880, and amended February 7th, 1882, October 25th, 1884, and April 22d, 1885.

CHAPTER 8. ARTICLE IV.
CARTS AND CARTMEN.

Sec. 8. Every cart, truck, wagon, dray, or other vehicle, drawn by one or more horses or other animals, which shall be kept, used, driven or employed for the transportation or conveyance of goods, wares, merchandise or other articles, from place to place, within the city of New York for hire, wages, or pay for such transportation shall be deemed a "public cart," within the meaning of this article, and every person who shall set up, or so keep, use, or employ any such public cart, without first obtaining license therefor from the mayor of said city as is hereinafter provided, shall be deemed guilty of a violation of this article.

Sec. 9. The mayor shall, from time to time, license and appoint so many and such persons, companies, or corporations, as he may think proper to set up and keep public carts in said city, and he may revoke or suspend any or all such licenses at his pleasure. All persons licensed as aforesaid to keep public carts, shall be deemed to be public cartmen within the meaning of this chapter; but it shall not be lawful for any person to receive or hold a license to keep public carts or to be a public cartman, unless he be a citizen of the United States, and resident of the State of New York, and is the actual owner of the cart or carts, with good horses therefor, so licensed to be kept as public carts; and the mayor may examine, under oath, all persons applying for or holding any such license, or the renewal thereof, touching their qualifications as aforesaid; and all licenses other than to persons so qualified shall be void.

Sec. 10. The mayor shall require and receive for the use of the corporation from every person to whom he shall grant a license, for every truck, cart, wagon, or other vehicle mentioned in section 8 of this article, the sum of two dollars and fifty cents, and for every renewal of same, one dollar.

Sec. 11. All licenses to persons to keep public carts shall expire on the last day of November next after the date thereof, and it shall be lawful for the mayor to renew and continue any or all of such licenses from year to year, provided that the applicant therefor continues in all things qualified, as hereinafter provided, to hold such license, and the application may be made therefor prior to the expiration thereof. All licenses to keep public carts now in force shall remain in force for one year from November 30, 1880, unless sooner revoked as provided in these ordinances.

Sec. 12. No public cart shall be used within said city except it be duly licensed, and the person to whom license is granted to keep and use a public cart shall, for all the purposes of this article, be considered the owner thereof, and responsible for all articles entrusted to and for the conduct of the driver thereof, and liable to all forfeiture, penalties and punishments herein contained or provided.

Sec. 13. Every public cart shall have fairly painted on the outside of the square of the after-part of the shaft, or on some other conspicuous place, on each side, so as to be easily seen, the number of the license therefor, in plain figures, and the driving or using of a public cart, without its being so numbered, shall be deemed a violation of this article.

Sec. 14. Every person licensed as aforesaid, to keep a public cart, upon failing to renew the license for or disposing of or departing with the same, shall deface, remove, and obliterate the license number therefrom, and failing or neglecting to do so shall be deemed to be a violation of this article.

Sec. 15. Every person, upon receiving a license to keep a public cart, or to be a public cartman, shall report his residence to the mayor; and upon changing his residence, shall, in like manner, report his new residence, and the failing or neglecting to do so shall be deemed a violation of this article.

Sec. 16. It shall not be lawful for any person to keep, use, drive or employ any cart or other vehicle with numbers or figures thereon similar to or resembling the numbers on public carts, or for any person licensed to keep public carts to place or have any number for which he may have received license on more than one cart, or to use more carts as public carts than he may have license for.

Sec. 17. The mayor may assign to the owner of each duly licensed public cart a stand, where such cart may remain waiting to be employed, and also a stand where it may remain at other times, provided that no such shall be assigned for a cart to remain at such other times in front of the premises of any person other than the owner of such cart, against the wishes of the occupant thereof; and provided further, that carts shall not be permitted to stand two abreast in any of the streets; and every public cartman who shall permit his cart to stand loaded, or waiting for employment, or to remain at other times at any place other than the one so assigned for such carts, shall be deemed guilty of a violation of this article.

Sec. 18. The mayor and the several officers and members of the police department and magistrates, shall have power and authority to order the driver or other person having charge of any public cart or any other vehicle, to remove such cart or other vehicle away from any place in any of the streets, or on any of the wharves or docks of said city, which, in his or their opinion may be improperly encumbering such street or wharf, or obstructing or impeding the public travel, and any and every person neglecting or refusing to comply with, or obey any such order, shall be deemed guilty of a violation of this article.

Sec. 19. It shall be the duty of every person driving or having charge of a public cart to give to any person requesting it his name and place of residence, the number of the cart he is driving or in charge of, and the name and place of residence of the owner thereof; and the refusal to do so shall be deemed a violation of this article.

Sec. 20. If any accident or injury shall happen to any person or any carriage, vehicle, or other thing by reason of coming in contact with any public cart, or other cart or vehicle, or the horse or horses attached thereto, or anything loaded thereon while the same is moving, it shall be the duty of the person driving or having charge of the same to immediately stop, and if necessary render his assistance, and to give his name and residence, and to give the number of the cart or other vehicle he was driving, and the name and residence of the owner thereof under penalty of fifty dollars, to be recovered from the driver or owner of any such cart or other vehicle.

Sec. 21. It shall not be lawful for any public cartman, or for any person driving or having charge of any public cart, or any other cart, wagon or other vehicle, to drive or back any such public cart or other vehicle on to the sidewalk of any of the streets of said city or to stop any such cart or any other vehicle on any of the crosswalks or intersections of streets so as to obstruct or hinder the travel along such crosswalks or intersections of streets, or to place any such carts or other vehicles crosswise of any streets or wharf of said city except to load thereon or unload therefrom; but in no case shall it be lawful for any person to permit such cart or other vehicle to remain so crosswise of any streets for a longer period than may be actually necessary for such purpose, and not to exceed five minutes, but it shall be lawful for the owner or occupant of any store, warehouse or building in any street or avenue in which the rails of any railroad company are laid so close to the curbstones as to prevent the owner or occupant from keeping any such cart or other vehicle in the carriage-way in front of his place of business, without interference with the passing cars of any such railroad company, to occupy with such cart or other vehicle, during business hours, so much of sidewalk as may be necessary for such cart or other vehicle; provided that sufficient space be retained for the passage of pedestrians between the cart or other vehicle so permitted to occupy such portion of the sidewalk, and the stoop or front of every such store, warehouse or other building.

Sec. 22. It shall not be lawful for any cart, wagon, coach, public cart or any other vehicle to be driven through any of the streets of the city of New York at a greater speed than six miles an hour; nor shall it be lawful for any such vehicle to be driven around the corner of any of the streets of said city with the horse or horses thereto traveling at a faster gait than three miles per hour; and all and every such public carts, and all other vehicles, when passing through or along any of the streets of said city shall, when meeting any other vehicle, be driven to the right hand side of the way, so that such vehicles shall pass clear of each other; and it shall be unlawful for any such public cart, carriage, or any other vehicle, or the horse or horses attached thereto, to be driven foul of or against any person, vehicle or other thing whatever in any of the streets, or on any of the docks and wharves of said city.

Sec. 23. No cart, dray, truck or wagon shall be driven over any of the wharves or piers of the city of New York at a greater rate of speed than a walk, under a penalty of two dollars, to be sued for and recovered from the owner or owners, or drivers thereof, severally and respectively.

Sec. 24. Every driver of a public cart shall be at least twenty-one years of age, a citizen and resident of this State, and shall be licensed by the mayor, and pay for such license the sum of one dollar, which license shall be renewed on the 1st day of December, in each and every year after the first day of December, 1885, upon payment of fifty cents annually. He shall also, while at work, wear a badge with the number of his license engraved thereon, and of a size and style to be prescribed by the mayor or mayor's marshal, and who are also empowered to revoke all such licenses. A failure to comply with any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed a violation of this article. Any boy between eighteen and twenty-one years of age being the support of a widowed mother or having anybody depending upon him for support, shall upon satisfactory proofs, be granted a permit by his honor the mayor to drive a public cart.

Sec. 25. The prices or rates to be charged for loading, transportation and unloading of goods, wares, and other articles shall be as follows, to wit:

Oils, molasses, and all casks under 1,500 pounds weight.....	$ 75

Sec. 26. Every public cartman and public porter shall be entitled to be paid the legal rate of compensation allowed and provided in this chapter immediately upon the carting or transportation of any article or thing, and it may be lawful for any such public cartman or public porter to retain any article or thing so carted or transported by him for which he is not so paid his cartage, and to convey the same without delay to the office of the superintendent of police, and he shall be entitled to the lawful rate of pay or compensation for the so conveying. All disputes or disagreements as to distance or rates of compensation, between public cartman, or public porters and persons employing them or owing for cartage or transportation, shall be determined by the mayor.

Sec. 27. It shall not be lawful for any public cartman, or any other person, to cart or transport through any of the streets of said city, any planks, poles, spars, timbers or other thing exceeding thirty feet in length, except on a suitable truck or other vehicle, and such plank or other thing shall be placed lengthwise thereon, so as not to project at either end beyond the line of the side or width of such truck or other vehicle, all other persons so carting or transporting any such poles, planks, timbers, spars or other things in any manner shall be deemed guilty of a violation of this article.

Sec. 28. It shall not be lawful for the driver or other person having charge of any public cart, dirt cart, or any other vehicle, to be off or away from any such cart or any other such vehicle while the same is moving or passing along any of the streets or avenues of said city; nor shall it be lawful for any public cartman, while waiting for employment at any place assigned for his cart, to stand waiting for employment at any other place, or to snap or flourish his whip, or to be away from his cart, unless from necessity or on business, or to sit or stand about the doorsteps or platforms, or in front of any house, store, or other building to the annoyance of the occupants thereof.

Sec. 29. It shall not be lawful for any person who has been licensed to keep public carts, or to be a public cartman, and whose license has been suspended or revoked by the mayor, to keep, drive, or use any public cart in the city of New York, under the penalty of twenty-five dollars for every such offense.

Sec. 30. Every cartman who shall be duly licensed in the city of New York, shall be permitted to place and leave his cart, when unemployed, in front of the house or premises where he shall at the time reside, or in front of the stable where he shall at the time stable his horse, or in front of any other house or stable, providing he shall receive the permission of the owner or occupants thereof, provided that such cart shall be placed on the street upon the carriage-way thereof, in close proximity to the curbstone next to his said residence or stable, and shall not extend beyond said curbstone any greater distance than the width of such cart, nor beyond the line of the lot on which his said residence or stable is situated, and provided that such place of residence or stable shall be specified upon the license of such cart.

Sec. 31. It shall be the duty of the person or officer exercising the duties of superintendent of carts to visit daily the several stands and places in the city where cartmen are in the habit of waiting for employment, and to see that all the ordinances regulating carts and cartman, including dirt-carts, are in every respect complied with.

Sec. 32. It shall be the special duty of said person or officer to ascertain and to report all offenses or violations of this article to the mayor's marshal.

Sec. 33. It shall not be lawful for any person to keep, drive, use, or employ any cart, wagon, truck, dray or other vehicle other than such as are licensed, as herein provided, for the transportation or conveyance of any article or thing within the city of New York unless the name and residence or place of business where such owner can be found (of the owner thereof) be fairly and distinctly painted, in plain letters and figures at least two and a half inches long, in a conspicuous place on both sides of such cart or vehicle, so as at all times to be easily seen thereon.
