The People

vs. Edward Offare

Indictment for petty larceny from the person.

Court of General Sessions, Part First.
Before Recorder Smythe. May 6. 1887.
Frank Gneupel sworn and examined testified.
Do you know the prisoner? Not before he stole the watch of me. Not before the 21st of April? No. Where did you see him on the 21st of April? I went down the New Bowery; there was a woman lying on the sidewalk and a crowd around her, I stopped and looked at it. Then I stood there the prisoner came up and put his arm across my breast, I was looking at him. I thought he was going to assist the woman, I stood back, I saw the chain hanging down, I heard something crack, and he went off with the watch. What time of day was this? It was in the afternoon between four and half past four o'clock. Then he went off with the watch what did you do? Then I got up on the corner of Rosevelt St. I could not see him any more; he ran off; there was no use to run after him because when I went to the corner I could not see any more of him. When was it you saw him after that? Next morning at the station house, I picked him out of two. He is the one that took your watch? Yes sir. What was your watch worth? Six dollars. Where did you have it when it was taken? I had it in my left breast pocket; there was a chain to it. There is the chain (a broken chain shown) and there is the ring the watch was on. This was snapped out of the stem of the watch, was it, and that was the chain and the ring of the watch? Yes sir, that is the way I found it. Cross examined. I was standing in the New Borey near Roosevelt St. I was going down to collect a bill. Where did this occur, on the sidewalk? Yes sir. What were you doing at the time the watch was taken from you? I was looking at the woman; she was sick; she was lying on the sidewalk; there was a crowd there. How near were you to the woman? I was about two or three feet off. How many people were around that woman? About fifteen to twenty. Were you on the inside or outside portion of the crowd? I was on the outside. There was the prisoner at the time? He was alongside of me. I was not facing the woman, I was looking away from her. When I felt the arm across my breast I looked at him and he looked at me. I saw his arm. I thought he wanted to go in and see what was the matter, I stepped back, and when I saw my chain hanging down I tried to hold the chain, I heard something snap, my watch was gone and he went off. I did not see the watch at all. I looked down and saw the chain was hanging loosely. At that time there were a number of people, men and women, around. I did not see the watch any time after that; it was the

0368

0369

Why do you think the prisoner took the watch when you did not see him take it? A little girl came up and asked me if I lost a watch? I says, "yes"; she says, "Eddy O'Hare took it, I seen him." Is that little girl here? No. Did you see the prisoner run? Yes sir. The only reason you have for thinking he took the watch was what this little girl told you? Yes sir. You did not suspect him of taking the watch? No, not till I stepped back. Where did you next see the prisoner? The next morning down in the station house. I went down about a quarter past seven; he was arrested there. Edward O'Hare, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified: Where do you live? No 14 Cherry St. Did you take this man's watch? No sir. Did you see the man on the day in question? No sir. Were you there in the crowd at the time he speaks of? No sir. Where were you that day? I was in a wake; my little cousin was dead at 14 Cherry St; my cousin's name is Clara Knevals, 14 years of age. You went there that afternoon? Yes sir, I was there that night, in fact, I was there all day. I went in at 12:1/2 after dinner. I don't believe any of the people who were at the wake are here. I stayed till 5 o'clock, I got my supper, left the house, and went down four doors from where I live when the officer came up and told me that he would arrest me; that is all I know about the case.

0370

Cross Examined. I work honestly for a living. I have never been arrested for anything. I have never served a term in the penitentiary of Kings Co. Did you when you were in the presence of the officer and of the complainant say to the complainant that if he would not identify you that you would get his watch back? No sir. I went down to the Station house with the officer and he sent the complainant ahead. I did not say anything to him at all. All I said to him was, "How can you charge me for any crime like that?" Frank Greenpel recalled. I had a conversation with the prisoner on the way from the station house to the Tombs. Officer Clarke was with us. The prisoner said, "I guess you are mistaken, I did not steal your watch." I says, "I will give you credit for stealing my watch; the only thing that makes me mad is stealing a watch off a poor fellow like me." He said, "If you dont make a charge against me, I will get you your watch back." John P. Clarke sworn. I arrested the prisoner, I know him this last four years. On the way to the Tombs he said if the complainant would not identify him before the Vice Court that he would get him the watch in the afternoon. He told me the watch was over in Mulberry st. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny from the person.
