it, and for the last year ~~and a half~~ have worked at Charles that on the 15th day of March 1888, at the City of New York, in the County of New York.

I and Charles Weegenroth and the above named James Bracken entered into an agreement whereby we each with the others agreed to carry on, as copartners, in the city of New York, for the period of three years then next ensuing, the business of pearl and ivory finishers. I contributed the sum of one hundred dollars in cash to the copartnership capital and the defendant and Weegenroth turned in certain tools which were then employed by them in the same business, they being copartners in the same business before I entered the firm. By the said agreement of March 15th we were to share equally in the gains and losses of the business. The goods and tools which I have charged said Bracken with stealing were the property of the said copartnership composed of myself, Bracken, and Weegenroth. Prior to said alleged theft Bracken was the treasurer of the copartnership and we had had a great deal of trouble and quarreling with him and before the said alleged theft we had refused to further allow him to retain the money of the copartnership.

I have been informed that this affidavit is to be used upon a motion in the above entitled action.
