Affidavit—Larceny.

City and County } ss.:
of New York,

of No. 10 West House of Detention Street, aged 34 years, occupation Rubber being duly sworn deposes and says, that on the 23rd day of June 1889 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession and person of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

A silver watch of the value of about Twenty dollars

the property of deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Hugh Daly (now here) and two men not arrested, for the following Reasons, to wit:

Deponent says, — he was walking along West Street when he was accosted by defendant and two men not arrested, who engaged deponent in conversation.

Deponent says further, — that he felt defendant's hand about the lower left pocket of the vest then worn on person of deponent and in which pocket deponent had said watch.

Deponent further says, — he missed his watch from said pocket and caused the arrest of defendant by Officer Thomas Slattery, of the Second Precinct.

Deponent further says - he has been informed by said Officer that he arrested defendant in the water closet of the Saloon at 56 West Street, and in said water closet found concealed the said watch.

Deponent further says - he identifies said watch as the watch he had worn on his person, and stolen from his person, in the manner aforesaid.

Wherefore, deponent charges defendant, with acting in concert with said two men not arrested, and taking, stealing, and carrying away, the said watch from the person and possession of deponent.

City and County of New York ss:-

James W. McLaughlin being duly sworn deposes and says that he is counsel for the above named defendants that they were arrested on or about the 5th day of June 1890 and held in the sum of One thousand dollars bail. That a motion was made on the 8th day of July 1890 for a reduction of the bail to the sum of Five hundred dollars, in Part One of the Court of General Sessions of the Peace, before the Hon. Randolph B. Martine one of the Judges thereof, which motion was granted and the above named defendants were subsequently released on the 10th day of July 1890 having deposited the sum of Five hundred dollars in the hands of the City Chamberlain on said date. That the case was placed on the calendar in Part ~~xxxxxx~~ two of the Court of General Sessions of the Peace for trial on Wednesday the 10th day of Sept. 1890, but was postponed and Terence McGovern one of the co-defendants was dismissed on his own recognizance on said date, by Hon. Randolph B. Martine Judge of the Court of General Sessions of the Peace. That deponent is informed and believes that the witness who appeared before the Grand Jury is now confined in one of the Penal Institutions of New Jersey, having committed some criminal offense and therefore Hannah Donohue being duly sworn deposes and says, that she forty-years of age & upwards, & the wife of the above named defendant to whom she has been married for twenty-three years last past, & during all of such time has resided with her said husband in the city of New York. Deponent further says that during all said time her said husband has been a kind & indulgent husband & a good father. That deponent knows that the defendant has never been arrested before or charged with any crime. That the defendant has always been a sober hardworking & industrious man.

who, has provided for his family & should his children, that the defendant & deponent have six living children, one boy & five girls, one of said girls eighteen years of age is an invalid.

Deponent further says that if the defendant should be imprisoned deponent's children & deponent would be utterly destitute, as said family are wholly dependent upon the defendant for support. Deponent's health is poor & she is able to do but very little labor. Deponent further says, that she is assured by former employers of the defendant, "that, notwithstanding the charge in the above case, if sentence should be suspended, they would employ said defendant the same as before".

Hon. Sir,

On Wednesday last
You sentenced my husband Dennis Donahue to the Island
For one year, can nothing be done
For him? My children & myself Are to be put out of the house For we cannot pay the rent and I am sure Dennis did not mean To argue with your Honor
It is a way of his to never Reply Directly to a question & I am Sure the Police man was mistaken For Dennis has been at work Steadily & could not have been Hanging around in the Park
I am sick & my daughter is sick
