H. Schroeder being duly sworn says I reside at 73 Amsterdam Av. and transact business as a retail Grocer at No 97 Amsterdam Av. New York City.

That on the evening of March 28, 1892 L. H. Warren who resides at 304 Columbus Av. New York came to my store and requested me to cash a check drawn to his order upon the National Broadway Bank by Mahler Bros & Kline for $170.75 stating should I do so he would pay me a small bill of $4.23 he owed me for groceries.

I cashed said check, deducting the amount of my bill giving said Warren $166.52.

That said check is worthless, said Mahler Bros & Kline having no account whatever with said National Broadway Bank.

When deponent cashed said check said S. H. Warren stated said Mahler Bros & Kline were an importing firm doing business at 96 Grand Street City and handed deponent what purported to be the business card of said firm.

That deponent is informed and believes there never was such a firm as Mahler Bros & Kline.
That one August Mahler who made said check, prior to February 1st, 1892 done business under the said firm name at 96 Grand St having an office with the firm of E. Mommer Company.

That on said February 1st said E. Mommer Company removed to No 137 Queen St and said August Mahler removed with them and has since remained there until March 26, 1892,

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, against

Genoa Willier

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment accuse Genoa Willier
 of the CRIME OF SELLING INTOXICATING LIQUORS AND WINES AS A BEVERAGE, ON SUNDAY, committed as follows:

The said

Genoa Willier

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the fourth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, at the City and County aforesaid, the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, with force and arms, certain intoxicating liquors and certain wines, to wit: One gill of wine, one gill of brandy, one gill of rum, one gill of gin, one gill of whiskey, one gill of cordial, one gill of bitters, one gill of ale, one gill of porter, one gill of beer, one gill of lager beer, and one gill of a certain intoxicating liquor to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, unlawfully did sell as a beverage to one

Richard A. Finner

and to certain other persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

of the CRIME OF KEEPING OPEN ON SUNDAY a place licensed for the SALE OF STRONG AND SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS, WINES, ALE AND BEER, committed as follows:

The said

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, being then and there in charge of and having the control of a certain place there situate, which was then duly licensed as a place for the sale of strong and spirituous liquors, wines, ale and beer, with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, the said place so licensed as aforesaid unlawfully did not close and keep closed, and on the said day the said place so licensed as aforesaid unlawfully did then and there open and cause and procure and suffer and permit to be open, and to remain open, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.
