The People
 vs.
 Joseph Welch

Court of General Sessions, Part First.
 Before Judge Gildersleeve. September 13, 1880.
 Indictment for felonious assault and battery.
 Henry McGirt, sworn and examined, testified: I live corner of Avenue C and Eleventh St. I am a helper in the Mutual Gas Co. I have been there about eight months. I never saw the prisoner until I saw him on the second of August. I was coming over from Tompkins Park going home when I met the prisoner between three and half past three in the morning; he called me a son of a b—h and I struck him on the corner of Tenth St. and Avenue B, and he pulled out a pistol and shot me. I got a bullet in the arm and I ran away.
 I went up to the Hospital and got the bullet taken out of my arm. I have not been drinking since the 26th of May. I had been over to Williamsburgh to see my sister, and I came across Grand St ferry. I identify the prisoner as the man who shot me. I could not tell how many shots were fired. I did not wait to hear how many. I heard two or three more shots fired. I hit the prisoner in the face with my fist, not very hard. Cross Examined. There was nobody with me; there were not four or five men with me; I was all alone.
 Is it not true that you had an old man, a cripple and you were pounding away at him when this man came up? No sir. Is it not true that this man (the prisoner) said to you, "you won't get any credit for licking an old man, if you are arrested?" No sir, it is not. Do you mean to say here under oath to this jury that you did not beat this man with a club? Yes sir, I mean to say so. I have been in the State prison once but have never been on the Island. I did not hit the prisoner with a club. I saw him where he was arrested. I saw the cut in his head and the bleeding; it was the officer did that, not me. Patrick Masterson, sworn. I am an officer of the 11th precinct and arrested the prisoner on the 2nd of August. I was on post about 3 o'clock in the morning on Avenue B and Eleventh St. I heard five shots in succession at 10th St. I ran towards it and when I did I "seen" the prisoner and two ~~the~~ others standing on the corner. I asked them who was doing the shooting there? The prisoner said, "the man that ran over the Park there. I saw he was excited and I says, 'I think it was you done it, or you done the shooting.'" "If it was, he said, it is none of your damned business." I said, "I think it is my business, I will search you." I took hold of him and searched him. ~~And~~ in the outside pocket I found a pistol on him. That is the pistol (pistol shown).

The barrel of it was warm when I took it out of his pocket; there are two cartridges in and fire out, it is a seven shooter. I smelled the burnt powder. I took the prisoner to the station house; he resisted and tore my blouse and attempted to bite my nose on the way to the station house and I hit him with a club on the head. Did he show any bruises, any signs of having been assaulted that you noticed when you first arrested him? No sir, he had a small spot of blood right there (on the forehead) it did not seem like a cut, the same as if a drop of blood came from some other person. Was the blood running? No sir, it stuck. His eyes were not black and he did not show any other symptoms of having been assaulted that you saw? No sir, not a bit. In taking him into the station house you say he resisted? He resisted; and he tore my blouse from here up to the collar, and he attempted to bite my nose. He put his arm around, I hit him with a club; he fell on the sidewalk; it took five of us afterwards to take him in. I saw the prisoner in the station house in the presence of the complainant, who identified him as the man that shot him. Cross Examined. I don't know anything about this club. The reason why I arrested him was not because I saw the blood on his face. I searched the three that were there. I asked the prisoner, "What is the matter with your face, what is that blood you have got on your face?

 Yes sir. There were two more people there; he was sober, I could not say he was drunk, he might have drink taken. Did he appear to you as though he had been drinking? No, he did not; he appeared excited. When I questioned him he was nervous and in answering he answered insultingly and said, it was none of my damned business. I would not know the men who were standing by him on the corner if I saw them now. I said to Judge Wardell that I did strike the man. I only hit him one blow.
 I did not break the club on this man. Before I got to the station house there was five other officers. I do not know whether they struck him with their clubs; they might have struck him unknown to me. There was a large crowd around there and he was resisting all the time. After the other officers came up he continued his resistance; he threw himself on the sidewalk and would not walk; we had to carry him more than halfway to the station house. I had no more charge of him than the rest of the officers after they came up. When I arrest a prisoner he is put down in the station house as my prisoner if I first arrest him. I don't know whether the other officers beat him or not.

John Dorsey, sworn and examined for the defence testified. I live 191 Avenue B. I recollect the morning when this row occurred. I was present and saw what occurred. The prisoner and myself were in Truitts square. I saw the complainant; the prisoner and myself were walking up the avenue to get a drink in the corner of Tenth St. and Avenue B. As we got there we saw five or six young men and the complainant was striking an old man; the prisoner walked over, and he says, "If you got arrested for that, you would not get any satisfaction." With that he pulled out a club and struck him on the head. Then the two of them clinched and they broke away again. He hit him on the head and the club broke in half, and one half went over his head. The prisoner pulled out his pistol; he fired one shot at the complainant, and as he ran down Avenue B he fired two shots more. The policeman passed me. He seen the blood on the prisoner's head. He asked, "What is the matter with you?" He said, "I got stuck with a club, and that the man had run down Avenue B." He said, "I think you have got a pistol." The other officer said in his hearing that the prisoner shot the complainant. Somebody else told the other officer who arrested the prisoner about it. There were two officers on the corner. The prisoner's hand was in his side pocket as the officer grabbed his hand at the same time he said, "Give me that pistol." He said, "No, I won't." He kept on trying to drag out his pistol and strike him with a club on his side; he wrenched the pistol out of his pocket; he dragged him between Ninth and Tenth Sts. in Avenue B, and the prisoner would not go; he pulled out his club and knocked him senseless on the sidewalk; he laid there like a dead man. Then my sister came down and grabbed me and I went home with her. I "seen" no more. I live in the neighborhood. Cross Examined. I am a bartender I was on the corner between 11th and 12th St. and Avenue B. I was present at the conversation between the officer who arrested the prisoner and the prisoner. The two officers ran together down Avenue B. I saw a young man with a light hat go over and talk to the police man. What were you doing at 3 o'clock in the morning on the street? I was with this young man to a surprise party in 21st St. What became of this old cripple that was assaulted with the club? He went down 10th St. as soon as the fight commenced. The complainant shoved the old man and this prisoner walked up and said, "You would not get satisfaction if you were arrested for hitting that man." I could not say that the crimple was hurt, he walked off. I never saw him since or before. The complainant pulled a club out of his pistol pocket and hit him; he hit him twice. The second time he hit him the club broke. As soon as he got struck the second time he fired at him. As soon as the complainant started to run the prisoner fired. The complainant was running when the first shot was fired; he just started to run. The complainant struck the prisoner two blows with this club; the second blow he broke it. He must have struck him very hard on the head and the prisoner immediately after fired; the second time he got struck he pulled his pistol and fired; he did not fall down. I have known the prisoner about three weeks before this occurred. I first saw him in my place about three weeks ago.

0953

 Joseph Welch sworn in his own behalf. I live in Thirteenth St. I recollect the night in question I fired a shot at the complainant. This friend and myself were together drinking in a saloon corner of Tenth St. I came out of this saloon and saw the complainant and another man.
 They were chasing an old man from one who arrested the prisoner about it. There were side to the other. I went up to Mr. McGort and told him he would not get any credit for doing that if he got arrested for it. As I did that, Mr. McGort struck me in the eye with his fist. As he struck me I struck him back with my hand; he pulled a club out of his pocket and hit me twice over the head. The other man was trying to get something out of his pocket. I pulled out and fired. The police man came up and asked me what was the matter with my head; it was bleeding. I told him I was after getting licked by two men and I fired at them. Cross Examined. I am an iron moulder. This other man was trying to get something out of his pocket when I fired.

0954

I did not find the club. A friend of mine the next morning found it in the street - a man by the name of Hagan; he showed it to me the next morning when I was going to the station house; the club was broken on my head. I did not fall down, but there was a scar left on my head. I fired four shots and one took effect in his arm. I fired the shots after he ran away. I fired two shots at the complainant and two at the other man who was trying to get something out of his pocket. I was afraid he had a knife, he was a couple of feet from me and he was running. I did not call him a son of a b - h. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of an assault with intent to injure.

This indictment was filed six years ago. The defendant was not arrested at the time, and, as I am credibly informed entered the U. S. Army, served his time, and was honorably discharged. I am informed that his conduct since his discharge from the Army has been excellent and that he is now an applicant for a position for which a competitive examination is necessary. The complainant, in accompanying affidavit, makes a strong plea for clemency. If I am correctly informed as to the facts, this is a meritorious case. I therefore respectfully recommend that the within indictment be discontinued.

Patrick McKenna, being duly sworn, says: I was the complainant in the above entitled action. The alleged crime was committed on the 10th day of August 1880.

Application having been made to the District Attorney for the dismissal of the indictment herein and the District Attorney having asked for my opinion as to the justice of such proceeding, I have to say that while I have no doubt of the guilt of said White, but that since now over six years have elapsed since the commission of the offence, during which time it ~~clear~~ that said White has been a peaceable and respectable member of the community, I cannot see any good reason why at this late period, this prosecution should be pressed, and with the hope that the young man will continue to behave himself, and not again be found violating the law, I am willing as far as I am

Concerned the District Attorney should take whatever action in BENJ. K. PHELPS, District Attorney.

This indictment was filed six years ago. The defendant was kept arrested at the time and as I am readily informed entered the St. J. Hall, and his time and was formally discharged. I am informed that his conduct since his discharge from the Hall has been excellent and that he is now an applicant for a position for school or something similar. It is necessary the complainant in accompanying affidavits makes a strong plea for leniency. I am readily informed as to the fact that it is a serious case. I also find especially commendable that the within indictment be dismissed.
