BRIEF FOR THE PEOPLE.

JOHN ANDERSON.

STATEMENT OF CASE.

The Defendant, John Anderson, is indicted for the crime of Rape on the person of one Jane Boitano, aged 14 years, on January the 23rd, 1893, at premises 330 Broome Street, in the city of New York, the said Jane Boitano not being his wife.

WITNESSES:

Jane Boitano,
Catherine Boitano,
Minna Koeberle,
Mrs. Christina Floehr,
Mrs. Annie Hahn,
James Pallas,
Hugo Schultes,
W. Travis Gibb, M. D.

JANE BOITANO, 14 years of age, will testify:

That about the second week in January, 1893, in the company of her sisters, she visited the Gaiety Museum on the Bowery, where she saw the defendant, who did "the strong man act". That again on January the 15th, 1893, at the same Museum, she saw the defendant and was accosted by him, he making an appointment to meet her the same evening at about 7-00 o'clock at the corner of Baxter and Canal Streets. That Witness met the Defendant, taking quite a long walk with him, but that at this time he took no improper liberties with her, he, however, making an appointment with her for the following Sunday same hour and place. That on January 22, 1893, Witness met the defendant and accompanied him to his room at 330 Broome Street, where noticing the bad condition of her shoes he gave her Two Dollars wherewith to purchase a new pair and rubbers. That he took no undue liberties with her at that time. That on the following day, the Witness left her home at 7-00 A. M., looking for work, but failing in this she visited the Gaiety Museum, remaining until 6-00 P. M., when she left going direct to 330 Broome Street and ringing the bell, the door was opened by the landlady, Mrs. Koeberle, and at the same time the Defendant came along, introducing the girl to the landlady as "his wife" and took her upstairs to his room. The Witness told the Defendant that she was afraid to return home, and he then went out and brought in some steak etc. for supper, which they ate, and then the Witness told the Defendant that she had come there to stay with him to which he made no objections, only telling her that he would marry her at an early date. That they then went to bed, and the defendant had sexual intercourse with her three times during the night, leaving the next morning for the Museum, the Witness remaining in the room, having received from the Defendant thirty cents wherewith to obtain dinner. That in this room, the Witness remained until the following Monday afternoon (January 30), in the meanwhile the Defendant having sexual intercourse with her several times each night. That on Monday afternoon, January 30, while the Witness was walking on the Bowery, prior to going to the Harlem Museum, where the Defendant was doing his "act", she was met by one Charles Zerberini of 56 Centre Street, who knowing of her having run away from home caused her arrest by Officer Callahan of the 10th Precinct.

WITNESS ADMITS that about a year ago her sister's company, one Louis Barbieri, took her out for a walk and in one of the alleyways in lower Church Street kissed and hugged her and after some little resistance on her part succeeded in gaining her consent and had sexual intercourse with her and a number of times later in the same locality and in the same manner, although she after the first time lifted up her own dresses.

CATHERINE BOITANO, of 60 Centre Street, will testify that her daughter, Maria Anna Boitano, known as "Jane" Boitano was born Sept. 20, 1878, and is therefore 14 years of age. (Certificate of Baptism with papers).

MINNA KOEBERLE, landlady of premises 330 Broome Street, will testify that on January 21, 1893, the Defendant hired a furnished room for himself alone, but remarked at the time that his wife might come occasionally to see him but not to stay there.

Will further testify that on the following Monday, January 23, 1893, she stopped Jane Boitano as she was going upstairs asking who she was, the girl answering that she was the Defendant's wife. Will identify keys found on the girl, Jane Boitano, as those she had given to the Defendant when he hired the room. (keys on file).

MRS. CHRISTINA FLOEHR, of 330 Broome Street, (servant) will corroborate the foregoing witness and knows of her own knowledge that the Defendant and the girl Boitano occupied the same room together from Monday, January 23 till the following Monday, January the 30th, and also that the Defendant introduced the girl as his wife.

MRS. ANNIE HAHN, of 330 Broome Street, will testify to having seen the Defendant and the complaining witness in the furnished room together, she occupying the next room to them during the time of their stay.

JAMES PALLAS, Officer of THE N. Y. S. P. C. C., has had charge of case and will testify to the arrest of the Defendant, and to the Defendant's admission of having the girl in his room, and to having had sexual intercourse with her.

0247

HUGO SCHULTES, Officer of THE N. Y. S. P. C. C., will corroborate Officer Pallas' testimony in every particular.

W. TRAVIS GIBB, M. D., 365 Lexington Avenue, will testify:
That he examined the girl Jane Boitano and found complete penetration of her genital organs by some blunt object.
(Copy of certificate on file.)
