The People
vs.
Henry M. Reade

Court of General Sessions. Part 7.
Before Recorder Smyth. June 14, 1883.
Indictment for assault in the first degree

Patrick B. Lafan, sworn and examined, testified

I live 42 Clinton Place in this city, I was assaulted upon the 30th of May of this year at my place of business by the prisoner with this knife shown, I took it from him myself. I was cut under the arm, once on the top of the arm, and on the middle finger of the left hand, on the forefinger of the right hand and a very slight scratch over the heart; it cut through the clothing.
It occurred about 11 o'clock at night. I was doing nothing to the defendant. He had a quarrel with another party. I told him he could not quarrel with any one there, we were not accustomed to anything of the kind, if he wanted to quarrel he should go some other place and I sent him out; he went away. I advised him to go home; he was accustomed to work for me nights formerly. He used very hard words and rough expressions. I told him that it came against me on account of him working there. I am a liquor dealer at 42 Clinton Place; the defendant came back again

0676

I think after an interval of fifteen minutes and before I knew it I received those wounds. Cross Examined. I have known the defendant for some time and we both are friends; prior to this we had no quarrel and he had no revengeful feeling towards me. The scratch that I spoke of was like the scratch of a pin, I did not notice it till next day. I have been round every day, but I have not been working since I was not in the hospital, but I had medical care. I partly know the man the defendant had a quarrel with. I think he is in Newport. I do not think there was any blows exchanged between them. I used a club on the prisoner, I had him arrested. I held him and would not let him stir until the policeman came. I thought I would frighten the defendant out and so I advanced from behind the bar with my club in my hand. It was after I put him out that he came back and stabbed me. I did not club him until I received four wounds. I said to him, "Go home like a good fellow, you are under the influence of liquor and sleep it off. I had come outside of the bar before he touched me with the knife."

0677

Timothy Hanlan sworn. I am an officer of the 15th precinct and arrested the prisoner at 42 Clinton Place. I don't know anything of the stabbing. He was lying, partly sitting; there was blood in front of him, but I could not tell whether the blood came from him or not; he was cut. Patrick Egan recalled. There were three other persons in the bar room at the time of the affray. One of them is an engineer on a tunnel; he lives in Jersey; the other is in Newport, and the other is a commercial traveler, and on the last day this case was called up and postponed he was here; he has gone away. Henry M. Reade, sworn and examined in her own behalf testified. I have lived 25 or 26 years in this city and have never been convicted any offence. I know Mr. Egan and worked for him the day before this occurrence, I intended going to work the next day. I had a quarrel with a man in Mr. Egan's place, I don't know his name, he was an Englishman. I was in the place all the afternoon drinking. I got into a quarrel with this Englishman and Mr. Egan came and pushed me out of the door, I came right back to find out what it was about, to know what he threw me out for and to know what this Englishman was quarreling with me for. Eagan came out from behind the bar with a club and struck me on the head. The knife I had was not mine; it was given me three or four days before by an Englishman whose name is Richard, and who frequents this place. I pulled that knife out he made another strike at me and knocked me down and while I was on the floor I struck at him with the knife. He hit me three times; there is one that is not healed yet; there are other marks, they are just getting well. They sent to the New York hospital for the ambulance surgeon. I think Mr. Eagan struck me first with the club before I used the knife. When Mr. Eagan advanced upon me with the club I was in fear of receiving serious bodily harm. I merely used the knife to protect myself. I had not much recollection till I was brought to the Jefferson Market Police Court. I fled a great deal and am kind of dizzy now. I had not and have not now any ill feeling toward Mr. Eagan. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of assault in the third degree.

He never did an immoral act or said a bad word to either me or my children. I would trust him with my daughters now the same as before.

I never saw a person that I had more absolute trust in. I do not believe one word of the accusation against him. And I do not know of a person that does believe it.

It is the talk of everyone of his acquaintances that the charge is utterly unfounded. He is about 45 years old and I never heard word against his character before in all my life.

evidence, that a rape has been committed upon the poor defenseless child.

For the following reasons:

1. The mucous membrane of the Vulva and the visible portion of the vagina is inflamed.
2. The Hymen has comple-

3. Instead there is a large opening allowing the little finger to enter me beyond doubt, that this opening is the result of a criminal assault.

I am keeper of 2^d District Prison, known as Jefferson Market Prison. Have been there five years. I brought prisoner Jas. Rielly to St Vincent's Hospital on May 8th/83 to be identified by deceased ~~on~~ Mr I asked Vincent if Rielly was the man who stabbed him and he said he was, Rielly said he did not know why he should hurt that poor fellow as he was one of the nicest men in the prison. Vincent gave no explanation of the reason.

James O'Brien being sworn says,

I reside at 200 W. 40th St am keeper in Jefferson Market Prison, have been there one year and a half and previously was keeper in Tombs for 9 years. I received Rielly between 2 & 3 P.M. on April 27/83 on commitment from Judge Gardner. I took his pedigree and turned him over to Dugan who searched him in my presence. It was not my duty to search him. Dugan found nothing on him that I could see and reported so to me. James O'Brien

Ignatius Dugan being sworn says,

I am living at 489 Greenwich St, am keeper in Jefferson Market Prison, and received a man named Joseph Brock who was afterwards found to be Louis D. Vincent on April 28th/83. On April 27th/83 between 2 & 3 P.M. received Jas. Rielly from keeper O'Brien. He was committed by Judge Gardner for 5 days. I searched him as I thought thoroughly and found nothing on him. I then took him to the Ten Day House and he seemed quiet for two or three days. He seemed quiet at 5 P.M. April 30/83 when I left the prison. came while I was on duty. While I was at dinner parties might come to see him but I heard of no one coming for that purpose. If people come to see prisoners they are always searched to see if there is any thing about them which prisoners are not allowed to have. Rielly appeared to me as if he had been drinking and seemed very quiet almost too quiet under the circumstances when I received him. I was not present when the affray took place and do not know where the knife came from. There were other prisoners in the Ten Day House who were received by other keepers. We often find weapons that is, knives & razors on prisoners after being searched for they make a practice of concealing them in the most cunning way especially Delinquent ^{new} prisoners.

the other prisoners who said Rielly was suffering from jaw-jaws, I looked at him and thought he was suffering that way. I unlocked the gate and Rielly made a rush for the door as if to get out. I think he had a clay pipe in his hand. He got his shoulder against the door, shoving against me. With the assistance of Scully the other keeper we got him with great difficulty back into the Prison. I suggested to Mr. Scully who had charge of the Ten Day House to send for Ambulance for the purpose of removing Rielly to the Hospital. I then went to 4th tier where I had charge of Court Prisoners. In about an hour after I was notified of the arrival of Ambulance I went down stairs, Scully, the Ambulance doctor and I went into the Ten Day House and saw Rielly who was then lying on his side on a bunk with his right hand under his head. He appeared at that time very quiet. Before that when I went up stairs Scully and I had given him a dose of Bromide of Potassium to quiet him. When we entered the Prison with the doctor, he was smoking a pipe. Doctor felt his pulse and said it was normal. I said he was very violent and it was curious he got quiet so soon. He only has a day to live. He is a fine day man and his time is up to-morrow. Doctor said in that case, we might as well leave him where he is. Give a few more doses of Bromide ^{during the night.} Doctor asked if any one else wanted to be attended to. We told him No. The other prisoners wanted him taken out, as they were alarmed at the way Rielly had acted and said that man has got the jim-jams. I did not see him again until I was called down by Scully about 5:30 A.M. May 1st/83 who said a man has been stabbed in Ten Day House. Scully had the knife in his hand and on looking through the grating saw deceased lying on the bunk bleeding profusely from a wound in the thigh. Scully had sent to Bellevue for Ambulance but I thought St Vincent was nearer so I went there and had their Ambulance at the Prison in 7 minutes. Doctor of Ambulance attended patient and conveyed him to St Vincent's Hospital. Rielly was standing over against the wall and was extremely violent, saying they, the prisoners in the Ten Day House had killed his sisters, especially pointing out an old man nearly 70 years of age whom he designated as an old devil and charged with being the leader of the assassins. He said he saw them drag his sisters out and murder them and pointing to the blood on the floor said see there is a tub full of blood. He said I will have revenge on the murderers of my sisters. He was evidently insane as I thought from before delirium tremens. I spoke to Rieley tried to pacify him and asked him if he wanted a drink. He said very much. I coaxed him to the end of the Ten Day House where there was a small cell, promising him the drink when he got there. He went quietly enough and I locked him up after giving him the whiskey. I am familiar with people who have delirium tremens and they generally have the hallucination that some one intends ^{to do} or has done some injury to themselves or relatives.

Eugene F. Kiernan

John J. Scully being sworn says,

I live at 10th Ave. and am night keeper in 2^d District Prison. I corroborate previous witnesses testimony in regard to Rieley's condition on April 30/83 and testimony in general so far as it refers to the Ten Day House. About 5³⁰ A.M. I was called by one of the prisoners

I ^{sent messenger to telegraph} telegraphed to Bellman for Ambulance. When Kiernan came down he went for St Vincent Ambulance the doctor of which attended to patient and removed him to Hospital. When I looked in and saw Vincent, Rielly was standing against the wall saying let me alone, let me alone. I saw no knife in his hand. One of the Prisoners brought me a knife saying Rielly had dropped it ^{after} cutting the man. Rielly was alone, no one near him and all the other prisoners seemed afraid of him. He was evidently not in his right mind. After Vincent was taken away Kiernan and I went to Rielly and got him to cell and locked him up as Kiernan has testified. Rielly the night before the occurrence had been smoking all night and never slept. I saw him six or seven times as is my custom. ~~and~~ The other prisoners were sleeping during the night. During the night I had given Rielly a dose of Bromide and I noticed his hand shaky. Deceased said Rielly had stabbed him but did not say what Rielly or see Gas, Rielly at the time.

The keeper went with me and I saw Rielly lying on a bench or bunk and I felt his pulse. I found his pulse in poor condition as full and strong as I ever saw a man suffering from Alcoholism. I asked him to hold out his hand and I noticed but very little tremor, if any. He said he was feeling very well and I think he said he did not vomit. As he was going out next day I concluded that he was not a sick enough man to warrant removal to the Hospital. The keeper said he is a good deal better than he was. I said with others, "yake that man out and he is dangerous." The doctor said there's nothing much the matter with him. He's going out to morrow. Doctor went out. Rielly and Vincent were walking up and down all night apparently on very friendly terms. Vincent was trying to keep Rielly amused. Between 5 & 6 A.M. being sworn to say:
I am House Physician and Surgeon to St. Vincent's Hospital and that on the morning of May 1st 1883
I admitted to St. Vincent's Hospital a man giving his name as D. D. Vincent suffering from a stab wound of the left thigh. He was in a very weak condition when admitted and in spite of treatment died on the evening of May 7th 1883 at 9.30 pm. His wound was said to have been inflicted by a pocket knife in the hands of a certain "Reilly" with whom Vincent is said to have been confined in a cell in Jefferson Market Prison.

TESTIMONY.

W^m A. Conway M.D. being sworn says,

From an Autopsy made on the body of L. D. Vincent on May 8th/83; said Vincent having died at St Vincent's Hospital on May 7th/83 at 9³⁰ A.M., the following facts were discovered. The liver and heart were a trifle fatty and others organs negative. A lacerated wound was found to exist on front surface of left thigh inflicted apparently by some sharp instrument. The vastus externus muscle was almost completely severed and an immense amount of pus was found infiltrated around the muscular tissue and fascia of the thigh extending almost to the knee joint. There was extensive sloughing of tissue around the wound itself and in my opinion, on view of the body and from autopsy made thereon and testimony taken, the cause of death in the case of L. D. Vincent was Septicæmia from Lacerated Wound of Left thigh.

The People } Court of General Sessions. Part First.
vs James Reilly } Before Recorder Smyth. Aug. 8 1883
Asst. Dist. Atty. Fellows for the People.
Mr. James McCalland for the Defendant Indictment for Murder in the First Degree.
Defence, insanity.

x x x x x

Thomas C. Fin^{ne}ll, sworn and examined by Counsel for the defendant, testified:

Q What is your calling.

A Physician and surgeon.

Q And practicing in the city of New York.

A Yes, sir.

Q For how long a period. A. Over thirty years.

Q Are you familiar, sir, with the indications and characteristics of what is known as delirium tremens.

A I am, sir.

Q Has your attention been frequently called to the treatment and observation of that malady. A. Very often, sir.

Q You have been in Court during the examination of the witnesses here both for the prosecution and the defence.

A Yes sir.

Q You have heard their testimony, sir.

A I did.

0727

Q Now, doctor, take the case of a man who for nine months had been sober, then abandoned his habits of sobriety, and excessively indulged in the use of liquor for the period of a month or six weeks, is then committed to a prison, deprived of the use of liquor, exhibits the indications of violence which witnesses have testified this defendant did on the first occasion referred to in their evidence, and also inflicting the injuries upon the person of a man with whom he apparently had no trouble or difficulty, believing that his sister had been killed or murdered by this man, presenting the appearance that this prisoner is represented to have presented - tremor, copious and immense perspirations, in an excitable manner, tell us, doctor, whether under those circumstances this defendant having inflicted the injuries upon the person of Vincent, the deceased, in your opinion was he sane or insane at the time of the infliction of those injuries.

A I should say he was insane, sir.

Q Now, doctor, is it not a fact that the malady known as delirium tremens will not break out until after abstinence and confinement for three or four days. A. While that is very common, it is not the rule.

0728

Q It is not the rule. A. No.

Q Will you state to the jury, if you please, at what particular point the condition of this malady develops itself.

A Well, sir, it will develop itself in the midst of the debauch, and very often and commonly does, but it will develop itself much more rapidly and more violently if deprived of it, or three or four days after its being suspended.

Q Now, doctor, how long does this delirium last, that is, if the patient passes through with his life - about how long, doctor, does the aggravated malady known as the delirium last.

A It will last - it depends upon the amount that the party had taken; usually it will disappear in three or four days after, but it will last sometimes two or three weeks.

By the Court. Q Will that depend upon the constitution of the person. A. Entirely so.

By Counsel. Q The tremor, as I understand it, that accompanies the delirium is a symptom, one of the marked characteristics and symptoms. A. One of the symptoms.

Q Judging from the testimony here would you say that this defendant was a victim of what is known as delirium tremens. A. I should say so.

By Mr. Fellows. Q I presume that the duration of this delirium would largely depend, too, upon the remedies employed, would it not.

A Entirely so.

Q And if sedatives were given, this bromide of potassium, which has been spoken of, which is a powerful opiate I believe or sedative — A. Sedative.

Q If that was frequently administered, its tendency would be to calm down and quiet the patient comparatively speedily. A. It is a powerful remedy for controlling that condition; we all use that.

By the Court. Q If this man when taken to this prison was asked his name, his age, his place of birth and his occupation and answers correctly what would you say his condition was.

A At that particular moment I should say his mind had recovered itself.

0730

but in five minutes afterwards he would call off any stray place.

Q If men are suffering from delirium tremens have they any sane moments.

A They do, sir.

Q Frequent or unfrequently. A. Unfrequently. They will come into the hospital and give the proper address and think they may be left safe, but in an hour or two the development comes on and help and assistance called for.

Q So that they have periods of sanity.

A Yes sir, periods of sanity.

By counsel Q Doctor, there is nothing inconsistent with the theory of insanity in this case where the defendant some two or three days prior to this alleged catastrophe would readily and lucidly answer any question as to his age, nativity and occupation.

A I think that is stated the same way by the Judge.

The jury rendered a verdict of not guilty on the ground of insanity.

1. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the car was a strong, warm breeze. It felt like a giant hand reaching out to greet me. The sun was shining brightly, and the air was filled with the scent of fresh grass and flowers. I took a deep breath and felt a sense of peace wash over me.
2. As I walked along the path, I noticed a small stream flowing gently. The water was clear and cool, and it made a soft, soothing sound. I stopped for a moment to look at the reflection of the trees and the sky in the water. It was like a perfect mirror, and I felt a sense of wonder and awe.
3. The path led me through a dense forest of tall, slender trees. The leaves were a vibrant green, and the sunlight filtered through the canopy, creating a dappled pattern on the ground. I heard the soft rustle of leaves and the gentle chirping of birds. It was a peaceful and serene environment, and I felt a sense of connection to nature.
4. As I continued my walk, I noticed a small clearing in the forest. In the center of the clearing was a large, ancient tree with thick, gnarled branches. The tree was covered in moss and lichen, and it had a sense of age and wisdom. I stood in front of the tree and felt a sense of awe and respect. It was like a giant guardian watching over the forest.
5. The path led me out of the forest and into a small village. The houses were made of stone and wood, and they had a rustic, charming appearance. The people were friendly and welcoming, and they invited me to sit at a table under a large, leafy tree. I took a moment to rest and enjoy the view of the village and the surrounding landscape. It was a beautiful and peaceful scene, and I felt a sense of contentment and happiness.

The People of the State of New-York :

The GRAND JURY of the City and County of New-York, by this indictment, accuse Patrick Ryan of the Crime of OBTAINING PROPERTY for Charitable and Benevolent Purposes by means of false pretences and representations, committed as follows:

Before the time hereinafter mentioned there had been in divers States of the United States of America, and especially in the States of Ohio and Indiana, certain devastating floods and freshets, whereby great numbers of human beings had been made houseless and homeless and subjected to great suffering and deprivation; and at the time hereinafter mentioned certain people in the City and County aforesaid, and among others the proprietor of a certain newspaper commonly called the New-York Herald, published in the City and County aforesaid, were engaged in the charitable and benevolent work of raising subscriptions of money for a fund to be devoted to the relief of the said sufferers; and on the twentieth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty three, one Patrick Ryan, late of the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, feloniously did falsely pretend and represent to Frederick C. Harriott and Clara Morris Harriott that the name of him, the said Patrick Ryan, was C. B. King, and that he was an employe of the said newspaper commonly called the New-York Herald, and that he had been directed by the proprietor of the said newspaper to call upon the said Clara Morris Harriott and to request her, the said Clara Morris Harriott, to subscribe to the fund so being raised by the said newspaper for the relief of the said sufferers, and that he was authorized by the said proprietor of the said newspaper to request such subscriptions and to receive money from the said Clara Morris Harriott for the benevolent and charitable purpose aforesaid; and the said Frederick C. Harriott and Clara Morris Harriott, then and there believing the false pretences and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Patrick Ryan, and being deceived thereby, were induced by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid to deliver and did then and there deliver to the said Patrick Ryan, for the benevolent and charitable purpose aforesaid, a sum of money, to wit: the sum of forty dollars in money of the lawful money of the United States of America, and of the value of forty dollars, of the goods, chattels and personal property of the said Frederick C. Harriott and Clara Morris Harriott; and the said Patrick Ryan did then and there wilfully, feloniously and designedly, by color and aid of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, obtain from the said Frederick C. Harriott and Clara Morris Harriott the said sum of money for the alleged charitable and benevolent purpose aforesaid.

WHEREAS, in truth and in fact, the name of him, the said Patrick Ryan, was not C. B. King, but was Patrick Ryan.

AND WHEREAS, in truth and in fact, the said Patrick Ryan was not then an employe of the said newspaper commonly called the New-York Herald, and had not been directed by the proprietor thereof to request any subscriptions for the said charitable and benevolent purpose from the said Clara Morris Harriott, and was not authorized by the said newspaper to obtain subscriptions and receive money for the fund so being raised by the said newspaper for the relief of the said sufferers.

AND SO the GRAND JURY aforesaid do say, that the said Patrick Ryan, in manner and form aforesaid, on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, feloniously did wilfully obtain the said sum of forty dollars in money, of the goods chattels and personal property of the said Frederick C. Harriott, by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, for the said alleged charitable and benevolent purpose, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New-York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT:

AND the GRAND JURY aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said Patrick Ryan of the Crime of GRAND LARCENY in the Second Degree, committed as follows:

The said Patrick Ryan, late of the City and County of New-York, on the twentieth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty three, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, three promissory notes for the payment of money of the kind commonly called United States Treasury Notes, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied, and for the payment and of the value of ten dollars each, two promissory notes for the payment of money of the kind commonly called United States Treasury Notes, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied and for the payment and of the value of five dollars each, three other promissory notes for the payment of money of the kind commonly called Bank Notes, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied and for the payment of and of the value of ten dollars each, and two promissory notes for the payment of money of the kind commonly called Bank Notes, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied and for the payment of and of the value of five dollars each, of the goods, chattels and personal property of Frederick C. At about 9 o'clock on said evening said Ryan came to said theatre to a room where defendant and his said wife were, and then and there asked for a subscription for the relief of said sufferers. Defendant and his said wife then and there gave to said Ryan the said money, defendant taking from his pocket thirty dollars thereof and said wife ten dollars from her pocket. At the suggestion of said Ryan, defendant and his said wife directed that of said money thirty dollars should be applied to the relief of the sufferers in Ohio and ten dollars to the relief of the sufferers in Indiana and ^{defendant said wife} wrote her name on the paper here shown, marked Ex B. Defendant further says that said Ryan was not, as defendant is informed and believes, on said day, or at any time during the month of April 1883, employed by the New York Herald to collect subscriptions or to receive money under the name of C. B. King, or any other name and defendant is confirmed by ^{Stephen Herbert} that said Ryan was not a reporter upon the office list of said paper during said month.
