The People
 vs. Eugene Tiernan Indictment for petty larceny from the person.
 George Fender, sworn and examined.

Court of General Sessions. Before Judge Gildersleeve. January 9, 1880.

I go to a school in Fortieth St. between the Seventh and Eighth avenues, a grammar and primary school, I am in the primary school.
 You had an overcoat taken from you one day at school, didn't you? Yes sir. Do you remember what day that was? The day before Christmas; it was a nice gray coat nearly new. I went with my mother to Brokaw's to get it. Tell these gentlemen how that coat was taken from you? I was going down the stairs from the class room, I was going in the yard and Eugene was walking down the stairs, and as he got in the yard he gave a jump and caught hold of the coat and he pulled as hard as he could pull. I had the coat on my arm, he ran off with it and I could not find him. I had never seen the boy before that day; he was not in my class; he is the boy who took it. I went to the station house and saw him there I ran after him a little way; he ran out of the school yard; he did not take the coat when I was going to school; it was between 8 and 9 o'clock in the morning.

0311

It was before school assembled that I lost my coat. Cross Examined. It was about 9 or 10 o'clock in the morning that I lost my coat, I was down in the yard; the teacher sent the class down; there were other little boys there. What did he do when he grabbed it out of your hand? He gave a jump and then pulled on it; he pulled it away from me; he then went along by the water closets. I followed him but could not see him; he went away out of the school; he could get out of some of the gates. How long after you lost the coat did you see this boy? About three or four days. Where did you see him then? In the station house; the officer asked me if that was the boy; there was three other boys at the station house. I was there with my mother; there was another boy in the station house that seen him take the coat. I never saw the boy before the day he took my coat; he grabbed the coat and got away very quickly. I only had the chance to see him but for a minute; the whole class of boys was in the yard at the time the coat was taken; there are about 80 or 90 in the class; the rest of the boys did not jump after him. My father's name is John Bender. Emma Bender, sworn and examined, testified I am the mother of this little boy whose coat was taken. I remember sending my little boy to school on the morning before Christmas, he had his coat on him when he went to school; it was a gray Whitney beaver ulster, as near as I know the name and is made by Brokaw; there is a strip on the back of the coat. In the pocket of the coat was a pair of gloves which cost 95 cents, new also; the coat I bought on the 21st of November. I had it three days over a month. I did not see the prisoner till three days after; the coat was not reported to me as being lost till 12 1/2 through the negligence of the teacher not reporting it to the Principal. Did you go to the station house with your little boy at the time that this boy was identified? Yes sir. When the child was brought into Jefferson Market he was stood by the officer at the railing with another boy about his size. The officer asked him if he saw any boy who took the coat? The child's face was very dirty; he could not recognize him first; he looked at him a few minutes and said, "that is the boy -" pointing to the prisoner. What was that coat worth? The coat cost me twelve dollars.

Cross Examined. The first time that my son saw this defendant he was at the Police Court. John Bradley examined. I go to school. I am seven years old. I live with my father and

It was before school assembled that I lost my mother. My mother said I was seven years old. I do not remember my last birthday. I can read and write. It is wrong to tell lies; the Bible is a good book; if I did not tell the truth I would not go to heaven. I saw the boy Eugene snatch the coat off George Tender's arm. I asked a boy who knows Eugene what his name was. I go to school where George Tender goes, I am in the same class with him, I was at school the day before Christmas. I know George Tender; he lives in the same street with me and I see him often. The day before Christmas I saw Eugene Siernan snatch the coat off his shoulders; he jumped down stairs and ran through the grammar yard with it. I am sure he is the boy. I saw him afterwards at the Courthouse. Cross Examined. The policeman asked me if that was the boy who stole Tender's coat, and I said, 'yes.' Arthur Mulvey testified. I go to school. I know what will happen to little boys who do not tell the truth; they will be arrested - they will be burned up. I go to the same primary school in 40th St. with Tender. I know Siernan, I was there the day before Christmas. I saw him standing at the grammar yard door. I saw him with a bundle under his arm between 9 and 10 in the morning. I saw him running in the grammar yard.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.
He was sent to the House of Refuge.
