Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK against

John Kelly and Mary Kelly

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

John Kelly and Mary Kelly of the CRIME OF Exposing a child with intent wholly to abandon it committed as follows:

The said

late of the City and County of New York, on the nineteenth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, at the City and County aforesaid, ~~with force and arms~~ being then and there the father and mother respectively of a certain female child under the age of six years, to wit: of the age of five days, whose name is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, feloniously did expose the said female child then and there to a certain street, to wit: East Seventieth Street in the said City and County, with intent then and there wholly to abandon the said female child, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

And the Grand Jury aforesaid by this indictment further accuse the said John Kelly and Mary Kelly of the crime of Exposing a child, with intent wholly to abandon it, committed as follows:

The said John Kelly and Mary Kelly afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, being persons to whom a certain female child under the age of six years, to wit: of the age of five days whose name is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown had been confided, with force and arms the said female child, feloniously did expose to a certain street called East Seventieth Street in said City and County, with intent, then and there wholly to abandon the said female child, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS*O. W. Kennedy*

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself, but do so for the following reasons: That I am informed and believe that this is the defendants first offence never before having been arrested, charged with the commission of any crime, that his parents are respectable people, and that whatever losses I have sustained has been repaid to me, and for these reasons desire permission of the Court to withdraw my complaint against said defendant.

He is of highly respectable parentage, and, until his recent unfortunate yield-

INDICTMENT.

Charles Hunt 15.
Frank Woods 15.

The People { Court of General Sessions. Part I George Ketter { Before Judge Geldersheere. Oct. 11, 1882 Indictment for grand larceny from the person in the night time.

Charles Grant, sworn and examined, testified I follow clamming in the summer time for a living and I do nothing in the winter. I have lost my sight. I was in New York on the 27th of last month, September. I think it was in Henry St. I think it was about one o'clock in the night time when I lost my money. I had twenty five dollars in a purse consisting of a ten dollar and three five dollar bills. I carried it in the left breast coat pocket. A friend by the name of Frank Woods came with me from Jersey and was with me the time of the robbery. I have known him ever since he was small. I came to the city to buy provisions for the winter with what money I had saved through the summer and Woods accompanied me for that purpose. I felt some person taking it from my person. The prisoner was with us. I recognize him I think by his voice Half an hour after I got off the boat I met the prisoner in West St. He asked me where I was going? I had no previous acquaintance with him. Woods did not know him. The prisoner offered to come with us and show us the way. I heard his voice after the purse was gone. As soon as he took the purse he ran and we both ran. Mr. Woods caught him on the corner. We halloed for the police; he tried to get away and he could not. He was held and arrested right there.

Cross Examined. I came here on the Seabird steamer foot of Franklin St. I know West st. is the first street we cross after we get off the boat. I think we had been off the boat half an hour before we met the defendant. I was going up West St. toward the Institution. I used to live in, Thirty fourth st. and Ninth avenue. I did not have a bottle with me that day and did not offer the defendant anything to drink. My friend had no bottle and I drank nothing. My purse was worth thirty cents. When did you know the money was in the pocket book before the pocket book was taken? It was not three minutes before I knew I had it. I knew what I had when I left home. Mr. Woods knew what I had

Frank Woods sworn. I was with the last witness on the night of the 27th of Sept.; we came from Jersey in the steamer Seabird, landed at pier 35 and walked along West St. The prisoner was walking along side of me about a quarter of an hour before he spoke at all. I was leading my friend Mr. Grant. The prisoner asked us where we were going? I told him I was a stranger and that we were going up to such a place as the complainant named; he volunteered to show us the way. He took the purse from Grant; it was in his breast coat pocket. I saw the prisoner put his hand up that way (showing); he ran; we overhauled him at the corner of Henry and Catherine Sts. and had him arrested right away. What did he do with the purse? He walked up alongside of another man and the other man went down the street. I suppose he gave the purse to him. I saw the purse before it was taken from Grant, three or four minutes before it was taken. I saw the money, one ten and three five dollar bills. I suppose the purse was worth half a dollar or seventy five cents. The prisoner did not get out of my sight all the while. Cross examined, I live by the days work. I saw the prisoner put his hand in like that (showing) and he got up and ran. I did not see the purse, but it was missing two minutes after he was gone. I did not put my hand in Grant's pocket and take out a bottle of whiskey and give it to the prisoner.

James M. Mahon, an officer testified that on the night of the 27th of Sept. he was a block away on Catherine St. near East Broadway. I heard some tusseling and halloing. I ran down to the corner of Henry St. and the blind man and the other young man who was with him had hold of the prisoner's hand. I asked him what was the trouble? He said he had been robbed by the prisoner. I searched him but could not find anything on him.

George Ketter sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I am 22 years old and came from Richmond Va. I have been employed at painting and worked as a waiter in the hotel Brighton, Coney Island. I met these two men on the night of the 27th of Sept. and went round with them drinking out of a flask which they had and which was filled several times

I only saw $1.45 with him. I did not steal his money. I was never arrested before.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of grand larceny from the person in the night time.

The Court sentenced the defendant to the State prison for six years.

Charles Grant of No. House of Detention Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says that on the 27th day of September 1882 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away from the possession of deponent. and from his person in the night time

the following property viz: One purse containing good and lawful money, Consisting of three bank bills of the denomination and value of five dollars each and one bank bill of the denomination and value of two dollars and in all of the value of Twenty five Dollars the property of Deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by George Ketner (now here) for the following reasons to wit: Deponent (who is blind) was walking along Henry Street (at about 130 A.M.) with one Frank Woods (a friend of deponent's) and said Ketner, when deponent felt said Ketner, place his hand upon deponent's coat where his pocket containing said purse was several times. After walking a short distance said Ketner left deponent when he missed said purse which had been in a pocket of deponent's.

coat said coat being at the time upon deponent's body and person. Deponent felt said Ketner place his hand in the inside pocket of deponent's coat. Said Ketner then left and deponent missed said said purse. Said Woods deponent friend then ran after said Ketner who was a short distance away talking with a party unknown to deponent. Said Woods then caused the arrest of said Ketner. Whereupon deponent charges said Ketner with feloniously taking stealing and carrying away from his body and person said purse for the reason that deponent felt said purse in his pocket about two minutes before said Ketner came up to deponent and for the reason that said Ketner was the only person on the side of deponent where said purse was, and that said Ketner was the only person near deponent except said Woods when deponent felt said Ketner hand in his pocket. Deponent is informed by said Woods that said Ketner is the person who was walking with him and deponent, and that said Ketner is the only person who was near enough to deponent to take said purse. Deponent's coat was also cut over the pocket which contains said purse, but said purse was taken from the pocket of said coat from the inside.

CITY AND COUNTY
OF NEW YORK, } ssof No. 168 Bleeker Street, Hugh Gallagher, aged 15 years, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 16 day of August 188 2at the _____ City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time the following property, viz:

I "our packages of Merchandise of the value in all of thirty dollars, the property of divers persons and in care and charge of deponent as driver of an express wagon of the Metropolitan Express and Ware Company of which John Winterbottom and Abraham Wirtus, Co-partners, are the proprietors and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by William R. Kimmell, now here, for the reasons following: to wit: That deponent had then said packages in charge in transit to deliver to various places in the City of New York. That said deponent and then and there came to deponent with a demijon in his hand and asked deponent to permit him to ride in the wagon to the H2 Street Depot. That deponent 0943

Knowing said defendant permitted ^{him} to get into the wagons and pick up with defendant to the depot. That defendant had a trunk to deliver at the depot and the said defendant said to defendant that he would remain in the wagons and watch the goods therein while defendant went into the depot and deliver said trunk.
 That defendant left said defendant in the wagons in charge of said property while defendant delivered said trunk and upon defendant's return to the wagons in about ten minutes defendant found that said defendant had left said wagons and gone away and that said property had been stolen and carried away therefrom.
