Testimony in the case of Patrick Foreman
filed Aug.
1884.

0270

The People Court of General Sessions, part I.

Patrick Corcoran, Before Judge Cowing.

jointly indicted with,

James Murphy,

John Meehan and John Sullivan.

August 19, 1884.

Indictment for burglary in the third degree and grand larceny in the second degree.

August Mohr, sworn and examined. I am a cigar manufacturer at 138, Spring Street, I occupy part of the first floor and whole of the second facing on the street, I occupy that as a store and salesroom, that is the part that was broken in to. My clerk closed up the store that night, his name is George Achenburgh, he is not here, I left about six or seven o'clock, I got there in the morning by half past nine or ten o'clock, my clerk got there by six o'clock and he found the hall door open, he told me that burglars were in the place. There was about twenty-five boxes of cigars and some cigarettes taken, the whole value of what we missed was about $80. The side door of the store was open and there is a little show window on the side which was forced in; there are hinges on it which we open in the daytime; in the evening we fasten it with screws and that was pushed in so they must have got in through the window. Did you identify any of your property afterward? yes sir, down at the Oak Street Station House on Saturday, the 9th about twelve o'clock, the same day that the property was taken, I identified eleven boxes of cigars and a cigar c tter, it wa shown me by the officer. Did you hear this boy Corcoran say anything about how he got these cigars? He told the officer- he did not say anything in the Station House that day. In the police Court the Clerk asked him what he knew about the case. He said they broke in the store through the show window and got in the store that way. Did he say he did? Yes, he was with them, that they broke in, the four boys.

Cross Examined. I say that the cigar cutter now shown me is mine, there is not mark about it, there may be others in other stores just like it, I left my store on this day about five or six o'clock, it is usually closed by half past eight or nine. You do not know whether your place was locked up or bolted that night do you? Of course I cannot swear to that.

John Hawkins sworn and examined. I am a police officer connected with the Fourth precinct and arrested the defendant on the 9th of August between twelve and one o'clock in the night time between William and Chatham Streets; the complainant's place of business is in 138 Spring Street, it must be a mile and a half or two miles from there. The defendant was in company with one at the time I arrested him, he had two boxes of cigars. James Murphy was with him and he had two boxes of cigars also, I took them to the Station House, I asked Corcoran where he got the cigars, he said he found them in Baxter Street, that a man had thrown them on the street and he picked them up, I asked Murphy where he got his and he said the same thing. About half an hour later, returning I was standing in Pearl Street with Officer Ryan and I saw John Sullivan and John Meehan coming from New Chambers Street in a suspicious kind of manner, John Meehan was smoking a cigar. I said to Officer Ryan, I think there is something wrong with those two fellows I will go and arrest them. They turned into Williams Street, I ran after them and stopped them and asked them where they were going. They said they were going down to the Sun office to get papers. Corcoran made a statement to the Clerk in the Police Court. He said that four of them broke into 138 Spring Street by breaking through the window and taking the stuff from the side door that they got on a sixth Avenue car and rode down to Park Place and the four of them separated, that Corcoran and Murphy came up together and went through Pearl Street. They were the first two that I arrested. Meehan and Sullivan I arrested about an hour afterwards and in Sullivan's possession I found the cigar cutter.

Patrick Corcoran sworn and examined. I live at 8 City Hall Place with my father and mother, I was arrested once on account of shoes and I got discharged the next day in court. I remember the night I was arrested on this charge, I told the officer that I found the boxes of cigars in Baxter Street, that is what they told me and the next morning at the Police Court I said that they got in through the window of 138 Spring Street and took the cigars from there. I got that information from Murphy, Meehan gave me the cigars, I got them in a hallway. After I was arrested I had a conversation with Murphy, he told me that Meehan got through the window and stole the cigars and brought them to this hall; so they brought me up about an hour after they done it, I took the stuff and they paid my fare in the Sixth Avenue car. As soon as I got down they said, let us meet at Chatham and Pearl Streets. So the four of us met there and we were going up to the lodging house when the officer arrested us. I thought I would get off by telling the officer I found the cigars in Baxter Street.

Ellen Corcoran sworn. The defendant is my son and he helps to support me and seven more children.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

The People
vs.
Lizzie Cunningham. { Court of General Sessions, Part I.
                                      { Before Judge Gildersleeve.

September 2, 1884.

Indictment for grand larceny.

Mary Esterle sworn. I live at 151 Third Avenue, I remember the 7th of August, I was on the corner of Fourth Ave. and 11th Street, I was going to the dentists to get my teeth fixed and I saw a woman come up behind this small child (Bertha Dillman) and take her shawl right off her arm, the prisoner, Mrs. Cunningham did that, she took the shawl and put it on her own shoulders; she ran around the block; the little girl screamed, give me my shawl, I must go home; I went to the little girl and said, is that your mamma? She said, no the woman has got my shawl and my mother will whip me, she is not my right mother. We kept along the block and we called the assistance of another little girl and that little girl stopped the officer. I told the officer what I had seen; he asked me would I go to the Station House, I told him yes. She, the defendant, would have taken the ear-rings only there was too many people looking at her; she had one torn in the ear. Did you see the arrest made? Yes sir, I did I went over to the officer. Did she have the shawl then? Yes, she did; when the officer came she gave the child the shawl. This was between three and four o'clock in the afternoon if I am not mistaken. I was on the corner of 11th Street and Fourth Avenue watching a crowd following a woman, I asked the little girl what were those people and she told me the woman had words with her husband.

Cross Examined. I was on one side of the street and Bertha was on the other, I never came to her rescue until I saw the act done, I did not hear the conversation between the prisoner and Bertha, I saw the prisoner standing there mumbling to herself. Was she going along rapidly? No, there was a crowd following her, she kept turning back. Where did she go after she took the shawl? She ran around the block from 11th to 10th Streets. Do you know whether she was running after anybody? No sir, I could not say that. Where was the shawl delivered, at the same point? NO, on 3rd Avenue; she came across the street and met the officer; when the officer came to rescue the girl, she handed the little girl the shawl and took it from her shoulders.

Bertha Dillman sworn. Where do you live? 106 Spring Street. Do you remember this occurrence of the 7th of August last? Yes, I was bringing my papa's dinner and then I came from Papa's shop and was walking along 11th Street; his shop is in Fourth Avenue between 12th and 13th Streets. I was walking towards home, I think it was about three o'clock. Did you see this woman Cunningham there? Yes, she took my shawl, it was on my shoulders, she came along and snatched it right off, she ran around 10th Street all around the block and I ran after her and screamed; then a lady came along and spoke to her, the lady asked her if I was her daughter; she said I was an acquaintance of hers; that was not the last witness but a strange lady. I saw a little girl and I sent her for an officer, the officer came along and then the defendant gave me my shawl. Did the officer arrest her then? Yes; the point of my ear-ring was sticking out, but all the people were looking at her and she would not take them, she had to catch open; the shawl was worth one dollar and fifty cents.

Cross Examined. I had the shawl on my shoulders; she touched my ear-rings with her fingers, I do not think it was the shawl caught in the ear-ring and unfastened it.

Do you know this lady's husband? No.

William Reynolds sworn and examined. I am an officer of municipal police of the seventeenth precinct, I remember this occurrence of the 7th of August last, I was on post on Third Avenue from 7th to 14th Street, I saw the prisoner on the opposite side of the street between 11th and 10th Streets; two children ran up to me and said, there is a woman stealing that little girl's shawl, I looked across and I saw the little child running after this woman, I turned to go across the Avenue and as soon as I did the defendant took the shawl off her shoulders and threw it to the little girl, I arrested the defendant, she said the little girl gave her the shawl. Cross Examined. She said she did not take it, only got the loan of it, that the little girl gave it to her, she said it was raining but it was not raining at the time, I am sure she saw me coming across, she looked right at me and gave the shawl back to the little girl.

The Case for the Defense.

Phillip Cunningham sworn. I am the husband of the prisoner, I am a carpenter, I have been married twenty years the 13th of last August, I worked for Mr John Taylor of the St. Denis hotel for nine years, I remember the evening of the 6th of August, I received my pay on that evening at the hotel, I remember the following Thursday evening, I was home part of the day, I had been drinking, I remember my wife asking me for money, I left the house and she followed me to get money off me, she had the same shawl and hat on, I took the shawl and bonnet off her to prevent her from following me, I took them home and went back into the public house to drink. I did not see my wife take the shawl from the little girl.

0289

Lizzie Cunningham sworn. I remember the day I was arrested, I remember my husband being under the influence of liquor that morning and I asking him for money and following him into the street, I had this shawl and hat on and he took it from me, he disappeared and I couldn't find him. I happened to see this little girl standing, she had a basket of cold vituals by her side, I asked her if she would loan me the shawl and she said, yes but not to stay long. I followed my husband around a couple of blocks and as I could not find him, I returned her the shawl and the officer arrested me.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.
