After a careful examination of the evidence in this case I am satisfied that no crime was committed and that no conviction could be obtained.

The man Eichhorn whose property defendant is charged with taking is bondsmen for defendant and assures that no property was taken; and that defendant has the very best character.

In view of these circumstances I respectfully recommend a dismissal of this indictment.

Indictment filed

1893.

Indicted for grand larceny in the second degree.

New York, March 6, 1893.

A P P E A R A N C E S:

For the People, Asst. District Atty. Henry D. MacDona;
For the Defendant,

Jacob Berlinger, Esq.

ADOLPH KOEGEL, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a cloak maker carrying on my business at 31 Norfolk Street in this city. The defendant was in my employ for about two days and a half before the 17th. day of February, as a finisher. I locked up my place on the night of the 17th. of February, leaving the defendant in charge. He had a key to the premises. I got back to the premises about half past five in the afternoon. I found that ten ladies' jackets were missing from the place, of the value of about $65. I also found that the lock had been broken off the door. On that day I went around looking for the defendant and found him in a saloon on Hester Street. He did not go to work on that day at all. I had not discharged him the night before. I did give him a key in the place, so that he could lock himself in and go to sleep. When I saw him in the saloom I called him out and told him that ten jackets were missing. He told me that he did not know anything about the ten jackets. He had the key with him and he gave it to me. He told me that he had locked the door when he had left the place on Saturday morning. He told me that he had left the place at nine o'clock. I was there at half past eight and he was not there.

Cross-examination:

My place is not open on Saturday. It was on a Saturday that I went looking for the defendant. There was nothing remarkable about his not coming to work on Saturday.

SAMUEL DIMMEWITCH, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at 31 Norfolk Street, on the third floor. I know the complainant. His shop is in the same building. I also know the defendant. I saw him on Friday evening, ~~the door~~ at my window looking out and I saw him coming into the yard with a bundle under his arm. This was at about six o'clock in the evening. I could not tell what was in the bundle. I simply saw him walking in the yard.

Cross-examination:

I am an operator on a machine. I was not working on that day. I usually stopped work at half past four o'clock in the afternoon. I was standing by my window looking into the yard when I saw the defendant. I saw him go into the yard and then go back into the shop and remain there three-quarters of an hour and come out again with a bundle under his arm. I told the complainant what I had seen on the following day.

3.

DEFENSE.

JUDAH L. HORN, the defendant, sworn, testified:

I did not steal any clothes from the complainant. At six o'clock on Friday evening the complainant gave me the key and told me to lock the door. I did lock the door and kept the key. I went out to the Synagogue on Friday evening and came back to this place to sleep. The following morning I got up early and went out for my breakfast. When I came back to the shop at eight o'clock I found the door open. I had locked it when I went away. The lock was broken off and hanging down. I had nothing to do with the removal of any goods from those premises.

The jury returned a verdict of guilty of burglary in the third degree.
