degree,

City and County of New York S.S.

Simon Kinnear
being duly sworn, saith:
1. I am 23 years of age was born and have lived all my life in the City of New York, and work at Electro type finishing business.
I have for a long time worked for Michael Crane ~~at~~ corner College & Park Place, He does all the work for Frank Zelig Co.
I was never arrested or charged with any offence, except upon one occasion some five years ago when I laid a complaint of assault against me P. W. Ellicot, and when he was taken for

the Station house, he laid a counter charge against me, upon which I was discharged the following morning in the Police Court.

2. On the 24th July 1887, Sunday two of the above named defendants John McCabe & Frank Gorey, entered the rear room of William Fuller's saloon, corner 2nd Avenue & 114th Street New York City - about nine o'clock and remained until about two or half past two a.m. of the following morning. I can make no mistake about the date, or the time. There were also present David Kenny, Michael Keeler & William Fuller, ~~and~~ ^{four} ~~the~~ were in said rear room when Thomas Sharkey and the said Gorey and McCabe came in, as I said about nine o'clock.

We all remained until about two or half past two.

I was at Court several times to give testimony in this case, and would have been present yesterday at the trial, but was ill from chills and a bad cold, and unable to leave ~~the~~ my room.

 every respect, so far as our presence, and the presence of the defendants John McCabe & Frank Forey ^{in William Fuller's room} at the time and on the date mentioned in cerned. - There is no question whatever that about nine o'clock in the evening until about have been implicated in

Law

The People } Court of General Sessions. Part I John McCabe } Before Judge Gildersleeve. Aug. 15, Indictment for grand larceny in first ¹⁸⁸⁷
 degree.

Patrick Birmingham, sworn. I am a steverdne and reside at 1135 Second Ave. on the 26th of June I had a gold watch of the value of $135. I fell asleep in a truck in East Sixtieth St. at half past twelve at night.
 I slept about half an hour and when I woke up the watch was gone. I had it in the left vest pocket fastened with a chain. I next saw it in Bruckheimers pawn shop Forty Third St. and Second Ave. I went there alone and Officer Cuff gave me the ticket to go to look at it. I found it there, No 2780; the chain was gone.

John J. Cuff, sworn. I am a police officer; and ~~arrested~~ ^{was arrested} the defendant on the night of the 24th of July; he was brought to the station house by officers Helms and Moran. he was searched in the station house before I got there. I think it was Officer Helms who took the pawn ticket from the defendant. I had a conversation with the defendant after his arrest. The next morning when I came to the station house I saw that ticket and I went up to Court with him; on the way to Court I asked him where he got that ticket? He said he picked it up on a Second Ave. car one night going down town, and that a driver saw him pick it up. I asked him for the name and the description of the driver and he could not give it. I brought him to Court and had him remanded till next day; the loss of the watch was reported to me by Mr. Birmingham and he handed me a card with the number of the watch. I looked and found it was the number on the pawn ticket. I went up to Mr. Birmingham's, he was at his business, I saw his mother and left word for Mr. Birmingham to come and see me, which he did. I got the watch at the pawn shop.

Peter Helms sworn. I arrested the prisoner on the 25th of July at 961 Third Ave. I chased him up to Forty Fourth St. into an alley and into another yard. This was three o'clock in the morning; there was a man sitting on a stoop asleep. I saw the two of them having their hand on the man asleep and they both ran. I searched the prisoner and found on him a pawn ticket, a watch and chain, ~~a~~ ring and a cuff button. The pawn ticket now shown me is the one. I suppose the watch and chain was his own.

Michael Derr sworn. I am clerk for L. Bruckheimer, pawn broker, 796 Second Ave.; the ticket now shown me is one of Bruckheimer's tickets and it was issued for a watch upon which was loaned thirty dollars. I loaned it to a man who gave his name as Carroll; it is so long ago I could not identify the man.

The watch and pawn ticket were put in evidence.

The Case for the Defence.

Henry Fox sworn. I have lived in this city fifteen or sixteen years. I am in the employ of the Second Ave. Railroad as car driver and have been for three years. I have never been arrested charged with crime. I was driving a car on the morning of the 25th of July. I recognize this defendant McCabe; he was traveling on the car that night. I saw him between 30 and 35 minutes after two o'clock in the morning. On the south side of the depot, it might be Seventy Fourth St. This young man and put his hand under the seat and I saw him pick up something and he sat back in the seat again and it might be half a minute elapsed when he touched me on the shoulder and asked me if I had lost anything. I put my hand where I carry my watch and said, no. He says, I picked up a pawn ticket. I asked him to let me look at it, and he held it up between his two fingers and he let me look at it, and I saw 30 on the ticket. I do not know as I could identify the ticket on account of it being dark. I had my business to attend to and I could not pay attention to the ticket. The 30 was in big letters. I saw 30 in the centre of the ticket if I am not mistaken. I said to him, If I were in your place I would leave that ticket at the Company's office and see if you can get an owner for it and you may get five or ten dollars reward for it. He says, I will when I come up this way tomorrow. On cross examination the District Attorney got the witness to write on a piece of paper the figures 30 which he saw on the pawn ticket. He put a mark before the 30, which was not on the pawn ticket.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny.
