keeps a liquor store at the same the liquor store. The store was securely locked and fastened on the morning of the 16th day of December

I saw him lock the doors. I then went up stairs to my rooms. I called James Cannon (the prisoner

At about eleven o'clock in the morning, I went out and left the pair John Cannon in charge of ~~the premises~~ ^{the premises} telling him to remain until I returned. He was on the stoop at the time I left.
I was gone about five minutes and when I returned I found him standing by the door leading from the hallway to the store, and found the staple by which the hasp on the door was fastened had been pulled. I asked him what he had been doing and he said the dogs had been trying to break in the door. I then went up stairs and got the barkeeper. The barkeeper, myself and Cannon went into the store. The barkeeper's name is Terrence Flynn. I don't remember whether the barkeeper told me at the time that anything had been stolen. I only know from what my husband said afterwards that anything had been stolen. At the time I was in the store I asked Cannon if he had been in the store during my absence. He said no. Wm Ferguson

John Lauson, being duly sworn, says. ^{On the night of the} 8th day of December I was sitting in my cabin reading a newspaper when my dog which was on deck made a noise which attracted my attention; I went up on deck and saw on the dump, under which my boat was lying, three men and a woman. I heard a low voice crying out for God's sake save me. I said what is the matter, when the man whose name I have since learned is John Carberry said, "here is a woman who wanted to drown herself and we saved her" I then jumped up on the dump and asked her where she lived but she was unable to answer. I then said I would take her into the cabin and warm her up. Carberry said "all right we will give you a hand". We then took her down when I found that her clothing was almost torn from her body. Carberry then took hold of the woman and attempted to throw her down on the floor. I interfered and prevented him from injuring the woman at that time. Carberry then said he was bound to have connection with the woman and threatened me with violence if I ~~interfered~~^{he} went away saying he would be back again.

At that time I said the woman must be out of the boat before five o'clock as I did not want Dane to know that a woman was on the boat. I did not tell them to come back and take her away. About 12 o'clock Carberry came back alone and broke into the cabin after I refused to let him in and at that time he had a shawl ^{it belonged to the woman}. Then he called to me to open the cabin door he said that he had twenty men with him and if I did not open the door they would break it open and shoot hell out of me. When the door was opened I thought he had a crowd with him so I went through the other end of the cabin and made my way on deck and went to look for a policeman. I went out that way because I was afraid of violence from the gang that I supposed he had with him. I did not speak a word after the cabin door was broken open to Carberry but saw him as he jumped into the cabin. I looked for a policeman sometime but did not find one and went back to the boat. I went into the cabin and found the woman sitting on a bunk and Carberry lying on the floor pretending to be asleep. I did not speak but sat down and shortly after Carberry fell asleep I then told the woman she better get out of the boat that some more of the gang might come. She then left the cabin with me and I took her home. It was about ten o'clock when I took the woman in the cabin. My clothing over in the cabin and we heard the government there.

When I last lived with him it was in Jersey City. I have lived in New York City. I have been working in the Foundling Asylum ~~at~~ in Fifty Eighth Street. I was a domestic - Worked there for two years. I have a baby there. My husband is its father. I took it there on the 27th day of October 1878. My child's name is Phoebe - My husband is a laborer. I left the institution about 2 o'clock ^{yesterday}. I went out with Maggie - She is a married woman her husband is living, she has a child there. I had two drinks of Brandy from the time I left the institution up to the time I was arrested. This is all that I drank. We got the Brandy in the corner of 59th Street & 3^d Avenue. This was about 1/2 past 3 pm. About 4 o'clock pm I left the Candy Store and did not know anything until I found myself on the Boat at the foot of 71st St. The Captain says this was between 9 + 10 - I don't know how I got there -

I can not say whether the three men or either of them had intercourse with me before I went on the Boat.

answered John Barbary had intercourse with me when he came & broke into the Boat. This was the time referred to in the Captain's Affidavit. I objected to his having this intercourse. I was sitting down when he came in. He (Barbary) caught hold of me, threw me on the Bench & there had connection with me. I endeavored to push him away & resisted him as much as I could. He was one of the three who was outside. Alice Holm.

Answer. I went down 70th Street towards the River in company with another young man when I saw this woman who now gives her name as Alice Bolen in company with another woman. She was lying on the sidewalk with her head and face bleeding. The other woman asked me to go for a policeman. I then took her Alice down to the Dock and threw a stone at the cabin of a Boat. The Captain came up and enquired what was the matter and I replied that there was a woman up here drunk and nearly frozen and that she could not walk. The Captain asked her where she lived and she replied 36th Street and 8th Avenue. The Captain myself and the other young man carried her into the cabin of the Boat. The Captain said we must come back at 5 o'clock in the morning and take her away as he could not allow her to remain any longer for he did not want to let David see her. I left the Boat in company with the young man. I found a Shant in 70th Street

As soon as I went into the Cabin the Captain walked out without saying a word I commenced to talk with her and she went into the bed and there I had connection with her and I fell asleep alongside of her

I remember the occurrence between Clark & my self. It was on Nov 19 - I did not tell any one that Clark had cut me but I saw him do it - I made a statement at the Station House. I was in the ball room on the night of the 19 th of Nov. Walter Clark came up & we had a discussion & I said I did not want to disgrace my self there but told him to come down on the side walk. He came down on the walk & struck at me. There was a party of seven or eight came down on the walk. He struck at me with his fist but did not hit me. I caught him and told him & told some of them to take him away - I did not want to hurt him - I went up in the ball room. I danced again - Clark came up & struck at me again. I tied him again - I was holding him by the neck & while doing so he cut me in the right thigh - I cant tell how many were there in the ball room - I had him by the throat against the piano when he cut me both went down. He struck me several times & kicked me about the body. We were pulled & went up stairs again. Then we came to blows again. He asked me if I wanted any more of him and took me by the throat. Then we were pulled then I was arrested & that all I knew me. The officer found a razor but he did not get it from me & I don't
