Dear Sir,

Dec. 13th 1872.

Hon. Judge Canning

N.Y.C.

My dear Sir,

In regards to the case that was decided yesterday in Court No. 11, I wish to say. Myself and my witnesses were very much surprised of the verdict the worthy jury brought against Mr. Hall. After your Honor being the gentlemen of the jury, that it did not make any difference of the value -- if it was $20 or $20,000 Mr. Hall took from me -- the jury should consider the matter and report. The consideration the worthy jury took in this matter is to my knowledge very poor --. There are facts, that Mr. Hall stole the watch, he pawned it by the name of Borden. Officer Morris got it out, said Officer was told by a party who know all about it and did not have anything to do with stealing or pawning it, this party got the information from Hall and he told Officer Morris all about it, and asked said Officer, to get

U. Hall give. That is a thief and pick pocket, and that was proved by different Courts in this City before, he served one year in Alcatraz and two terms on the Island.
 The Capt. of 47th Police Station, knows it Hall and his Bro. Harry (English Harry) very well.
 The grand juror indictment was,
 grand larceny in the first degree, the jury of Dist. C. did not have one word to say of larceny in their verdict yesterday.
 Now I appeal to you Hon. Judge Cowing, and ask you respectfully to do what is in your power, and send said U. Hall to prison for the longest time you can give him, not only for my sake, but for the public at large, because a man that uses language like he did and willing to kill a wife or pistol at any time, is not worth to be among honest and peaceable people.
 Please except my kind thanks for dismissing J. Dehertys Case, I believe that he is innocent in this matter.
 We hope that your Honor will use your good judgement in this matter, I remain very respectfully Yours & oblige Louis Hofman.

Les Eisner

I keep the saloon: Flaherty and Hall came in about 5<sup>30</sup> p.m. and had two rounds of drink. They pretended to be drunk. The complainant Louis Hoffman came and stood near the corner of the bar next to Hall; saw Hall's hand reaching for Hoffman's watch. Hall had his beer in his right hand and was working with his left hand. I watched his hand, and then he said "What are you looking at" I said "I'm watching you" Hall said "I can fuck you. I have more money than would buy this joint". He made remarks of this kind many times. Hoffman said "If I were the proprietor I would put you out". He said "I can fuck you too". he waved his hand in Hoffman's face, and threw him on the floor. I saw him hit Hoffman. Hoffman hit Hall several times. Then Hall held his head down and Flaherty ran in between them. A James Howard got Flaherty and threw him on the floor. Hall ran out, and then Hoffman said "My Hall put his hand to his back pocket and said get your revolver I can do more with a knife than you can do with a revolver".

Louis Hoffman.

Had the quarrel in Saloon: just as Flaherty came between us I felt the tug at my chain. When Hall ran out I missed it, and followed Hall, but he got away.

John Scheurer.

Heard all the language and saw Hall hit Hoffman, and saw all the quarrel. Saw Flaherty come between Hoffman and Hall. Hoffman "my watch is gone". I ran out after Hoffman but Hall got away. Flaherty told Hall "to stop: not to raise a disturbance."

City and County } ss.
of New York,

of No. 210 77 6th Avenue Street, aged 28 years, occupation Legion. Wholesale & Retail being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 13 day of October 1892 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

Good and lawful money to the amount of about twenty dollars

the property of deponent

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Charles J. ... from the fact that on said date said defendant was in the company of deponent and said money was in a box in the above premises and said date said defendant left the said premises with said box containing said money. Deponent saw the said defendant with said box in his possession and saw him putting said money into his pockets. Deponent therefore charges said defendant with having taken stolen and carried away said money and asks that defendant may be dealt with as the law directs. Louis Wagner
