The People
vs.
William W. Winslow } Court of General Sessions Part I
Before Recorder Smythe.
Monday, June 4, 1883. Indictment for grand larceny in the second degree.

Leopold Danheiser, sworn and examined.
I live 536 East Eighty Second St., am a salesman for Sidore Grunwald of 83 Bleeker St. I was in his employ on the 24th of April; he got some samples of ostrich feathers to sell on commission; Winslow came to our place and got a dozen of ostrich feathers valued at $7.50, one dozen of feathers valued at $4.50, half dozen feathers, $6.00, one long plume $2.50, one pen pen, 88 cents, one bunch of tips, $1.50, and one bunch of tips $2.50, in all valued at $28.28. On the 24th Winslow came to our place and asked for some samples of goods to sell; he said he could sell some goods in Brooklyn and to the uptown trade. I gave him some samples to that amount and he promised to return in the evening. He failed to show up. About a week after I met him in Broadway about 11 o'clock. I said to Winslow, "Where is my samples?" He said, he had been sick, he was just going over to Brooklyn and he would be back at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

0749

That was 11 o'clock. He failed to come by that time. I never saw anything of him till two weeks since I saw him in the Bowery and I asked him again for my samples and he said he was going over to Brooklyn to get them. I caused his arrest; he was taken before Justice Gardner, who gave him from the morning till the afternoon to produce the samples. Cross examined the samples were returned "to us" after the arrest, just the same as when I let him have them. I gave Winslow a memorandum bill of the goods but no name on it. I do not know what arrangement Mr. Grunwald made with him. Mr. Grunwald is not here; he was not subpoenaed. Francis Hughes sworn. I am an officer of the tenth precinct and arrested the prisoner. I know nothing more about the case.

Willard H. Winslow: sworn and examined in his own behalf testified: I will be 43 years old next August. I have been engaged as salesman for O. W. Bernard & Co in ladies straw hats up to a year ago last January. I started in the commission business for myself and was not successful. I left Boston in February and came to New York. I have been soliciting accounts for twenty or twenty five concerns on commission. On ~~this~~ day I received a letter from St. Louis they wanted some feathers and I went to Mr.

Grunwald and gave him reference of Hatcher and Clark; the goods that they telegraphed for were sent. I was selling hats on commission to the large retailers, Ridley's, Morey's and in Brooklyn. I can not tell whether Mr. Grunwald asked me or whether I asked him about selling goods.
He told me a month before this I could have samples before I took them. On this day I was going up to Mr. Walton's in 57th and I took the samples, but as I could not sell any I took the samples back. I got them from Mr. Danheiser; he gave me a bill of them. I came back. Mr.
Grunwald was there. I told him I did not sell any of his goods. I told him I would take them out again that afternoon, although I was not feeling very well and it was raining pretty hard. I took them again from Mr. Grunwald, not from Mr.
Danheiser. I made all the arrangements with Mr. Grunwald. I did not go to Brooklyn, I was too sick and weak. I left the samples in a liquor saloon a couple of days. I don't know the saloon and do not know the man's name. I did not get drinks on them. I just asked him to keep them for me, it was raining very hard and then I went back and got them. Then I was sick, I was out of money, I considered the goods mine, I pawned them and got five dollars on them. I told Danheiser I would bring them back that afternoon as I could have done if he had given me a chance. I do not think that it was as long as two weeks before he saw me again. ~~He~~ Danheiser gave me an itemized bill, I would call it a regular bill for goods. I thought I was responsible for the goods. I had either to return the goods in thirty days or give the money for them; the bill was made out on a regular billhead. I did not intend to convert the property to my own use. My intention was to get them out of pawn as soon as I got able to go to work. I did not at any time intend to deprive the owner permanently of his property. I have never been charged before with any offense and never have been arrested. I got 5 per cent commission from H. O. Bernard & Co for goods I sold on

0751

0752

Commission ..

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny. He was sent to the Penitentiary for two months.
