STATEMENT.

FREDERICK BAUMILLER, 50 Bond Street, Born December 5th, 1880/ son of George Baumiller. Arranged in Jefferson Market November 27th, 1892 held in $500. bail for General Sessions. He has a certificate from L.L. Demerest a ~~xxx~~ teacher of P.D.S.S.35. of which S. C. Clark is principal/ as to the defendant's uniformly good conduct. also has a slip for the past two weeks ending November 23rd. 1892 covering the period of the occurance in question showing excellent conduct and an absence of two half days being those in which he was in Court in connection with the case.

The parents of the lad are most excellent German people and his father is well known on the East side of the City among German people through his membership in German societies and lodges. He has nine children of whom the eldest is twenty years of age and he has never had any trouble of any nature or kind with his children.

The names of the lads concerned are Hugh Gallagher and Dennis Gallagher his brother Hugh G. Is 15 years of age and Dennis is 14 years old. They live in Avenue V. now. I knew them for about two years I became acquainted with them by playing with them on the Street. Until within six months ago these lads had lived in the house adjoining 35 Bond Street in which the father of the defendant had his business. It was about seven o'clock in the evening when this occurred: I was standing on the Street in front of my house, and the other lads were there also. Hugh G. he works in the express business. I do not know if any of them were ever arrested before. A boy named Kiel was playing in front of the door with me and he said to me come in the yard and wait for me until I get my supper. I went into the yard with him, and was waiting for a little while when I heard a window break I ran out into the Street and then came Dimmis G. and had four boxes he said to me if you don't carry two of these boxes I will punch you in the eye. I carried two of the boxes to Bond Street and the Bowery and then he took them away from me, and he and I went down to the Bowery between Bond and Great Jones Street that was a dry goods store and he went in and received thirty cents for the boxes and I went back to Bond St., with him and he went into a Grocery Store and bought a pin and gave me a piece of it. That is all I received from him I was never arrested before in my life. I was told by one of the boys in the Station House that Jacob Kiel had taken the boys in his father's saloon and treated them to soda-water. I did not see any of the boys the next day. I do not know who broke the pane of glass. I did not see the glass either. I was in Kiel's yard when the glass was broken. When the crash of glass was heard by the defendant he was in the ~~XXXX~~ yard of No. 18 Bond St., he did not see the pane of glass broken, he did not know where it was broken and does not know to-day where the broken pane of glass is or was. The G. boys did not tell me where they broke the glass. The other boys were arrested the next night, and I was arrested three <sup>hours</sup> after the other boys were. Two detectives came to our house and got me out of bed and I said to them that it was not me that had took anything and told them what I knew. This is all I know about the matter.

It all happened on the 26th day of November and I was arrested on the evening of the 27th.

George Baumiller, the father. The boxes that were stolen belonged to a Mr. Riley. The boxes contained silk spools
. I know the Gallagher they are wild boys, but I never knew them to steal I never paid any particular attention to them.

Police Court— 2 District.

City and County } ss.:
of New York,

Thomas Reilly

of No. 18 Bond

Street, aged 39 years, occupation Importer and Manufacturer of feathers being duly sworn deposes and says, that the premises No. 18 Bond Street, in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a five story brick and stone building

and which was occupied by deponent as a store and dwelling or first and second floor

~~and in which there was at the time a human being, by name~~ were BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly breaking a window pane of the rear room on the first floor of said premises

on the 25 day of November 1892 in the night time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:

four dozen
spools of floss silk of the value of nine dollars and sixty cents, $ 9.60

the property of Deponent and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid

BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by

Ind. Heph Gallagher, Dennis Gallagher, Joseph Kieker and Oasemuller all now here for the reasons following, to wit:

Deponent left the said premises securely locked and closed on the night of Nov 25 1892 and the said property was then on a shelf in deponent store on the first floor, and deponent found the said premises broken open on the following day, and the said property was missing. Deponent suspected the defendants Gallagher and 0540

Kiehl, and watched them, and on the night following said burglary deponent saw the defendants acting suspiciously in the yard of said premises and caused their arrest. And deponent charged them with said burglary, and from them deponent learned that the defendant Baumüller participated in the said burglary, and defendants informed deponent that they had disposed of said goods to Henry Robinson at 34 E Broadway. And deponent went to the store of the said Robinson and there found the whole of the said stolen property in the possession of the said Robinson.

G A E T A N O P O G G I called by the People being duly sworn testified that he kept a restaurant at 36 1/2 Baxter street, New York; and that he had on the night of November 14th, 1892, $35 worth of eatables there.
Complainant locked the basement at 8 o'clock P. M. himself and then went away. On the following morning at half past one o'clock complainant returned to the restaurant, and when he put the key in the door to enter he heard footsteps inside, and then heard a window pane shaking, and then upon opening the door he saw defendant coming out through the window--jumping out into the street. The window was open when complainant returned to the restaurant. The defendant had no right in the restaurant and was a stranger to complainant. Complainant identified defendant as the criminal. Complainant's restaurant is in a basement and beneath that there is a subcellar.

J O H N J. C U R R E N being duly sworn testified that he was an officer attached to the 6th precinct, and was on duty on the occasion in question, and arrested defendant in the yard of 37 Baxter street, which is adjoining 36 1/2, back of the restaurant. Defendant was alone at the time and didnot speak English. This was about two o'clock A. M. and complainant was outside of the door, and when defendant was confronted by complainant complainant said that that was the man. There were two entrances to the yard, and defendant could not get out by the rear, he would have to go through either one of the hallways. Defendant could not get out next door by going over the fence as there was no fence there.

A N T O N I O G A M B O R A. the defendant, being called by the defence and duly sworn testified that he was never in complainant's restaurant, and that he went to the back yard to look for a place to sleep. Defendant had slept in that cellar for over a fortnight, and was sleeping there at the time in question; but hearing some noise that awakened him defendant went up from the cellar to see what it was about. The noise was somebody asking for a lamp. At the time defendant heard the words he was asleep and got up to see what was going on and approached the officer who arrested him. Defendant knows what perjury is, but he was telling the truth.
