I live at No. 82 Cheerry street in this city . My business is a restaurant keeper . I have known the defendant ten months. He worked for me, washing dishes in the kitchen when he first came to this country . On Sunday morning the 9th of November the defendant cut me with a sheath knife . At six o'clock in the morning he came into my restaurant . At that time there were fifteen or twenty sailors in the place eating. He asked me for a match to light his cigareete. After I had thus obliged him he started in to insult the people in my place calling them foul names. I told him he had beetter kkeep quiet and get out. He would no do as I had requested him and I was compelled to eject him from my premises . I did so . In five minutes he returned; I was sitting in a chair; he came right up to me and stabbed me in the leg . I saw that he held in his hand a large sheath knife such as sailors use in cutting ropes . The wound was inflicted on the left leg, the outside ". I ran out of the door after him and caught him nad he began stabbing me; he cut me on the arm and in the back . I am still suffering from the effects of these wounds . I did not strike him at all during this altercat ion; my efforst were directed to hold- ing him off and preve ting him from doing me any fur- ther injury . The officer came to my assistance and he was placed under arrest . The officer picked up this knife in the gutter directly at the place we were standing at the time he stabbed me in the arm and in the back . I have had no conversation with the defendant since the time of the assault. I was taken in an ambulaneer to the hos- pital and attended by the physician whomis now present in Court .

Cross Examination:

This man was working for me ". I ~~discharged~~ him because he was no good . I am a Greek ; the defendant is the same nationality . I have no whiskey for sale in my premises . The defendant drank no liquor in my place the day of this occurrence . While I was holding this man in frontof my store he stabbed me in the back . . I was ta- ken to the Chambers Street hospital at six o'clock in the morning .

CONSTANTINE VLARCKO, a witness for the People, sworn, testified

I am a brother of the last witness, and live at his house . I have known the defendant ten months. I did no see the cuttingbtake place . I saw the defendant in my brother's restaurant lo days before the 9th of Novem- ber . He said, "You are a scoundrel , you are rogues, I will kill you ". At that time a policeman escorted him from the premises . He said to my brother "You are a son of a bitch and a bastard, I will kill you ". Two days after that I saw him come to the door of the place, look in and then go away . He also said "Let the policeman club me as much as he likes I will kill your brother when I see him".

Cross Examination:

We have no whiskey in our saloon . We have no license and we do not seel any ijntoxicants . Of course I like this man, when he wishes to hkill my brother ?

DENNIS GILONEY, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a Greek . I saw the defendant on the morning of the 9th of November last . When he left my place that morning he said he was going ot his countryman Vlarcko to have some fun with him.

JOHN VAN RENNSELAER, a witness for the People, sworn, testified :

I am a physician practicing in this city . On the 9th of November I received an ambulance call and went t o 4th precinct station house . I found the complainant; he was bleeding very freely from a wound in the leg; it was two inches in depth; he had a wound in the left arm about three inc es in depth; the wound in the back was a slight one . He was taken to the hospital and treated there .

ELMER F. BERKELEY, a witness for the People, sworn, testified :

I am a practicing physician in this city . I have treated the complainant since the 4th of November last . He has been suffering from a wound in the leg and one in the arm . They are pretty well healed now . The wound in the back was a superficial one .

MICHAEL HIGGINS, a witness for the People, sworn, testified-

I am a police officer attached to the 4th precinct. I took this defendant into custody on the morning of the 9th of November in front of the premises 82 Cherry st? . I heard shots of murder. Coming to the spot I found the defendant and complainant surrounded by a crowd . I discovered that a man whad been stabbed; found out that it was the defendant who had committed the assault and placed him under arrest . I asked for the knife but did not receive it . Subsequently I found the knife in the gutter right in front of these premises . When I asked the defendant why he had cut the other man he laughed at me . I was u able to hold any conversation with him .

Cross Examination:

The defendant was quite cool . He did not appear to be under the influence of drink. He had no marks of violence about him at the time of his arrest . There was considerable excitement around this place at the time I arrived there .

ARTANASIUS DEMETRI, the defendant, sworn, testified:

I am a Greek ; thirty ifive years of age, and arrived in this country last March . I came here on a ship from Marseilles in France . I was born in Salonica in Turkey. I know the witness who has sworn against me. I went to his place on my arrival here, and secured employment . He afterwards dishcraged me . On the morning of this assault I went into his place and secured a glass of whiskey . I left and returned again and secured another drink of the same beverage . The complainant tried to steal my pocket book from me as I was paying him for the whiskey . m I resisted and immediately there came to his assistance his brother and several others who were there. Four of them at once began to assault me . they pushed me out on the sidewalk and while there struggling the policeman came and arrested me . The knife which the officer found is not my property; I never owned such a knife I never made any threats against the life of the complainant to his brother or to any one else . I am not an offensive man . I am harmless . It is not necessary here in America to carry knives for self protection, as it is in Turkey . I have not carried any weapon since I arrived on these shores . The complainant was not required to put me out of his restaurant on that morning on account of any abusive language used by me . He did throw me out when I resisted the attempt to despoil me of my property .

Cross Examination:

I never had any difficulty of any character with the witnesses who swore against me here to-day . I have tried to make an honest living while on shore by seelbin_g beads and fancy articles . I had several times bought whiskey in this place . All of the sailors who were in there at the time were drinking intoxicating liquors . I saw the knife in the possession of the officer ; it is not mine I had never seen it before . I have been in prison eighteen days .

THOMAS DIAMOND, a witness for the defendant, sworn, testified :

I am a peddler . I know the defendant . He is in the same line of business with me . His character for peace and quietness is good .

Nicolius Canalacus, testified to the same effect .

The jury returned a verdict of Guilty of assault in the 2nd degree .

The complaint of the plaintiff respectfully shows:-

I. That at and during all the time hereinafter mentioned the defendants were and still are copartners in business doing business in the City of New York, by and under the name of Deutsch & Becker.

5 II. That heretofore and on or about the fourth day of June, 1890, the above named defendants, made and executed and delivered to this plaintiff for value their promissory note in writing for Five hundred dollars payable four months after the date thereof at number 85 Avenue A. in the City of New York.

6 III. That at maturity thereof the said note was duly presented for payment at the place where the same was made payable, and payment thereof demanded, but payment thereof was refused.

IV. That the whole of said sum is now due and owing from the defendants to the plaintiff with interest thereon from the seventh day of October, 1890, no part of which had been paid.

Therefore plaintiff demands judgment against the defendants for the sum of Five hundred dollars with interest thereon from the seventh day of October, 1890, together with the costs and disbursements of this action.

The plaintiff herein being duly sworn, says:

I.—That the plaintiff — above named Joseph Feiner is entitled to recover from the defendant above named Adolph Deutsch and Nathan Becker
the sum of Five hundred Dollars, with interest from the seventh day of October 1890, over and above all counter claims known to the plaintiff, upon one of the causes of action mentioned in Section 635 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and particularly set forth in sub-division II. of this affidavit.

9 II.—That heretofore and on or about the fourth day of June, 1890, the above named defendants made, executed and delivered to this deponent for value, their promissory note in writing for Five hundred dollars payable four months from the date thereof at No.

10 That at maturity thereof, said note was the sale to protect themselves from creditors who were pressing them, and that if was done without consideration, and said Wieler has shown deponent said Bill of Sale.

Deponent verily believes and charges that the disposition which the defendants have made of their property and which they are about to make, were and are about to be made with intent to cheat and defraud their creditors, among them this plaintiff.

IV.—That the plaintiff is about to commence an action against the defendant for the cause above stated, by issuing the summons and complaint hereto annexed, and no previous application for an attachment has been made herein.

Plaintiff's Attorney

City Council of New York

Manuel L. Manheim against Adolph Deutsch and Nathan Becker

The plaintiff complaining of the defendants respectfully shews to this court:-

I. That at and all the time herein after mentioned the defendants were and still are copartners in business under the name of Deutsch and Becker.

II. For a first cause of action: That heretofore and between the 31st day of August, 1890 and the 3<sup>d</sup> day of October, 1890, the plaintiff at the special instance and request of the defendants, sold and delivered to them, goods, wares and merchandise, consisting of clothing of the reasonable value, and for which the defendants agreed to pay the sum of Nine hundred and eighty two, <sup>50</sup>/<sub>100</sub> dollars. That the whole of said sum is now due and owing from the defendants to the plaintiff, and no part thereof has been paid, although 6 payment thereof has been demanded.

III. For a second cause of action: - That heretofore and on or about the 3rd day of August, 1890, the above named defendants made, executed and delivered to this plaintiff for value, their promissory note in writing for One thousand dollars

I.—That the plaintiff above named Mannuel L. Manheim is entitled to recover from the defendant above named Adolph Deutsch and Nathan Becker, copartners, the sum of Nineteen hundred and eighty two 541.00 Dollars, with interest from the 3rd day of October 1890, over and above all counter claims known to the plaintiff, upon one of the causes of action mentioned in Section 635 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and particularly set forth in sub-division II. of this affidavit.

II.—That heretofore and between the 31st day of August, 1890, and the 3rd day of October, 1890, the plaintiff at the request of the defendants, sold and delivered to them goods and merchandise at the reasonable value of $482.50 which defendants agreed to pay; that no part thereof has been paid.

IV.—That the defendants above named, have made a bill of sale of their place of business to one Joseph Weiler, and have disposed of and sequestered their property with intent to defraud their creditors; that deponent's source of information has been derived from the following circumstances. Deponent entered the store when said Bill of Sale herein before mentioned was made, and he asked defendant Deutsch what it meant. Said Deutsch answered, "I want to protect myself against my friendly creditors, don't say anything about this, and I will see that you are paid in full. First I want to get my goods out of the way, and so I make this sale to reach the creditors." Becker further said, "If the sheriff comes to my store, he can do nothing now, but I will see you are paid. Weiler is an honest man and he will give me every cent he will take in in the store for this stock."

IV.—That the plaintiff about to commence an action against the defendant for the cause above stated, by issuing the summons and complaint hereto annexed, and no previous application for an attachment has been made herein.
