No. of 186 Avenue B- Street, being duly sworn.

deposes and says, that the premises No. 186 Avenue B-

Street, 17th Ward. in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a Barshop and which was occupied by deponent as a Barshop was BURGLARIOUSLY

entered by means of breaking a wire screen over the front window and then breaking the window on the morning of the 11th day of January 1884 and the following property, feloniously taken, stolen and carried away, viz.

Two accordions and other property of the value of One hundred dollars the property of Isaac Kahn and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away by

Frank Rawley (now here) for the reasons following, to-wit: That deponent is informed and believes by Officer Flynn of the 17th Precinct Police that he arrested said Rawley with the above named accordions in his possession and upon showing them to said deponent he recognizes them as his property and as having been stolen from his premises

New York, Jan 31st 1881.

This certifies that James Ferry came into the New York Hospital under my care, on Dec. 24th 1880.
He was then suffering from incised wounds of face & forehead, evidently inflicted with some cutting instrument. The wounds extended through the skin & into the tissues beneath it, & required the application of a number of stitches. He was discharged on Jan 12th /81, the wounds were then healed, a good result having been obtained.
