Sylvester Day
 (nowhere) did feloniously and violently make an assault upon this deponent and did beat and ill treat deponent with intent and against the will of deponent to forcibly ravish and carnally know this deponent, under the following circumstances, to wit:

That about the hour of eight O'clock on the evening of the said 2^o day of March, 1880, deponent met said Day in 96th Street and First Avenue and stopped and talked with him and in a few minutes he asked deponent to come down the street a little further and deponent accompanied said Day to about the middle of the block in 96th Street between First Avenue and the East River and after standing talking with said Day about fifteen minutes deponent started to move away and said to said Day "I must go home" whereupon said Day took hold of the sleeve of deponent's dress and said "No" and then tripped and threw deponent on her back on the sidewalk and did give deponent on the nose causing her nose to bleed. He then knelt by the side of deponent holding deponent's left hand with his right hand and put his hand up deponent's clothing to her knee. Deponent further says that when she was assaulted by said Day as aforesaid she shouted in a loud

Esteemed Friend

The night I spoke to you regarding Mr. A. Worniser about the indictment that was found against him and having an interest in this matter as far as to see him relieved of this difficulty I therefore write you the case as far as it has come.

On the morning of the 13th of July he saw 4 times of land standing in front of his place of location the same day towards eve a man representing himself as a countryman came and offered the land for sale. Worniser having orders from his firm not to buy any land accordingly refused to buy it, this man by name Dowd then asked him to sell it for him on commission, he then told him that he would see what he could do for him, he left the land on the sidewalk until evening, then Worniser

Went to Mess Millerman & Co who are in the packing business in the same building with him. He asked this firm to sell it for him. they accordingly took it to the firm to whom they sell all their to Mess Wilson & Co who rejected it as poor quality. then Millerman & Co's carman took it to Lydell & Co the Soap Man to whom the carman sold the lard for  $3\frac{1}{2}$  cents per pound the amount coming to  $\$16.25$  which amount Wormser paid to this Dowd less commission then having  $6.62$  out of which Wormser paid the carman  $3.00$  for his work, after this trouble came. Wormser paid to Mr Lydell in coin  $\$16.25$  the full amount paid for lard. consequently Wormser finds himself out of pocket just $\$4.37$

I hope after you peruse this letter you will see into it and give it your consideration as I can recommend him as an honest and upright man which his former employers can also say of him he having been with Smartchild & Sulzberger for 5 years. Hoping this will meet with your views I am
Duly Yours

CITY AND COUNTY } ss.
OF NEW YORK,

THE JURORS OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, in and for the body of the City and County of New York, upon their Oath, present :

That

Thomas Dunning
late of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid, on the twelfth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty with force and arms at the City and County aforesaid, in and upon the body of Maggie Shandley in the peace of the said people then and there being, feloniously did make an assault and her the said Maggie Shandley with a certain knife
which the said

in his right hand then and there had and held, the same being a deadly and dangerous weapon, wilfully and feloniously did beat, strike, stab, cut, and wound with intent her the said Maggie Shandley then and there, feloniously and wilfully to kill, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT.

And the Jurors aforesaid, upon their Oath aforesaid, do further present : That afterwards, to wit, on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, the said Thomas Dunning with force and arms, in and upon the body of the said Maggie Shandley then and there being, wilfully and feloniously did make an assault and her the said Maggie Shandley with a certain knife which the said Thomas Dunning in his right hand, then and there had and held, the same being then and there a sharp, dangerous weapon, wilfully and feloniously, and without justifiable and excusable cause, did then and there beat, strike, stab, cut, and wound, with intent then and there wilfully and feloniously do bodily harm unto her the said Maggie Shandley against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT.

And the Jurors aforesaid, upon their Oath aforesaid, do further present : That afterwards, to wit, on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, the said Thomas Dunning with force and arms, in and upon the body of Maggie Shandley in the peace of the said people then and there being, feloniously, did make another

Thomas Dunning in his right hand then and there had and held, wilfully and feloniously did beat, strike, stab, cut, and wound, the same being such means and force as was likely to produce the death of her the said Maggie Shandley with intent her the
