

0122

BOX:

4

FOLDER:

51

DESCRIPTION:

Buckley, David

DATE:

01/20/80

51

0123

BOX:

4

FOLDER:

51

DESCRIPTION:

Hughes, John

DATE:

01/20/80

51

0124

2 Kenting
1 Co. B. P. A.
Filed 20 day of July 1876.
Plead, Not Guilty. 21

THE PEOPLE

vs.

1 John Hughes

2 David Buckley

ROBBERY - First Degree.

BENJ. K. PHELPS,

District Attorney.

A True Bill.

W. King

Foreman.

Went into March 14, 1856.
Not tried & acquitted.

0125

Hon Benjamin De Thelro

Wont you pleas forward my case
I have been detained in the House of Detention since the 14th day of January. I am a witness against David Buckley for Fel. assault
I have no friends & have no change of clothing and am very anxious to be discharged, Pleas do this for me and oblige me

Yours

Andrew F Dillon

0126

FOURTH DISTRICT POLICE COURT.

STATE OF NEW YORK,
CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK,)

of No. William Dean, an officer
Police attached to the 3^d Inspection District in the city of New York being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the eleventh day of January 1880 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, and at about the hour of 2 1/2 o'clock A. M. deponent was walking on the north side of 42^d Street between 3^d and Lexington Avenues, going east, when deponent heard the cry of "Murder, Police" coming from the corner of 42^d Street and 3^d Avenue. That deponent hurried to the north east corner of 42^d Street and 3^d Avenue and there saw a man down on the sidewalk with two men on top of him beating him. That deponent seized two of one of said men, viz:

John Hughes, here present, and pulled him off said prostrate man. That said Hughes then seized hold of deponent and struggled with deponent and tore deponent's clothing and while deponent was so struggling with said Hughes deponent was surrounded by a number of men among whom was David Buckley, here present, that said men pushed close to deponent and endeavored to intimidate deponent calling deponent vile names and using threats to deponent, to wit: "You son of a bitch show your authority." That deponent being an citizen drew back out his shield or badge and showed it to said men saying to said men "gentlemen I am a Police officer." That said men continued to press deponent whereupon deponent drew his pistol and said to said men, "Keep away this is my business, I am going to take him to the station house." That while deponent was so proceeding on to said Hughes
the said Buckley advanced toward deponent

0127

and said to deponent "You few of a bunch you are not going to take any one out of this street." That instantly deponent was struck upon the left temple and knocked down and pressed upon by said men, and deponent felt a hand inserted into the right pantaloons pocket of the pantaloons then worn upon the person of deponent. That deponent then became insensible and when deponent recovered consciousness deponent found himself lying in the gutter and said men gone away. That deponent then immediately hurried to the Station House and there discovered that a bunch of five Keys, to one dollar note or bill and a number of silver coins had been stolen and carried away from deponent's possession and from the said pocket of deponent's said pantaloons.

That deponent therefore charges and alleges that the said John Hughes and the said David Buckley did together, at said time and place, feloniously assault and beat deponent with the intent to do deponent great bodily harm and inflict any crime or justification on the part of said assailants, and did feloniously and by means of force and violence and gainst the will and consent of deponent, take, steal and carry away from the possession and person of deponent the property of deponent which was the property of deponent.

AFFIDAVIT

187

Magistrate.

Officer.

William Dean

John J. Lynn on this 14th of January 1871
J. M. Patterson
Wm. Dean

Police Court—Fourth District.

THE PEOPLE, &c.,

ON THE COMPLAINT OF

vs.

Dated

0128

Police Court, Fourth District.

CITY AND COUNTY } ss.
OF NEW YORK, }

John Hughes being duly examined before the undersigned, according to law, on the annexed charge; and being informed that he was at liberty to answer, or not, all or any questions put to him; states as follows, viz:

Question. What is your name?

Answer. John Hughes

Question. How old are you?

Answer. Twenty-four years of age

Question. Where were you born?

Answer. New York

Question. Where do you live?

Answer. 661 Third Avenue

Question. What is your occupation?

Answer. Seegar Maker

Question. Have you anything to say, and if so what,—relative to the charge here preferred against you?

Answer. I am not guilty of the charge.

John Hughes

Taken before me this 14 day of January 18*87*
J. M. Patterson
Police Justice.

0129

Police Court, Fourth District.

CITY AND COUNTY } ss.
OF NEW YORK, }

Walter Buckley being duly examined before the undersigned, according to law, on the annexed charge; and being informed that he was at liberty to answer, or not, all or any questions put to him, states as follows, viz:

Question. What is your name?

Answer. Walter Buckley

Question. How old are you?

Answer. Twenty-eight years of age

Question. Where were you born?

Answer. Ireland

Question. Where do you live?

Answer. No 778 - 2nd Avenue

Question. What is your occupation?

Answer. Legion Dealer

Question. Have you anything to say, and if so what,—relative to the charge here preferred against you?

Answer. *I am not guilty of the charge
Edward Buckley*

Taken before me this 14th day of June, 187*7*
J. M. P. Attorney
Police Justice.

0131

CITY AND COUNTY } ss.
OF NEW YORK, }

THE JURORS OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,
in and for the body of the City and County of New York,
upon their Oath, present :

That John Hughes and David Buckley
Each late of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid, on the Eleventh day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and Eighty - with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, in and upon the body of William Dean in the peace of the said people then and there being, feloniously did make an assault and him the said William Dean
with a certain instrument and weapon, a description of which is to the jurors aforesaid unknown and cannot now be given, which the said John Hughes
and David Buckley
in their right hands then and there had and held, the same being a deadly and dangerous weapon, wilfully and feloniously did beat, strike, stab, cut, and wound with intent him the said William Dean
then and there, feloniously and wilfully to kill, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT.

And the Jurors aforesaid, upon their Oath aforesaid, do further present : That afterwards, to wit on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, the said John Hughes and David Buckley each
with force and arms, in and upon the body of the said William Dean then and there being, wilfully and feloniously did make an assault and him the said William Dean
with a certain instrument and weapon, a description of which is to the jurors aforesaid unknown and cannot now be given, which the said John Hughes
and David Buckley
in their right hands then and there had and held, the same being then and there a sharp, dangerous weapon, wilfully and feloniously, and without justifiable and excusable cause, did then and there beat, strike, stab, cut, and wound, with intent to then and there wilfully and feloniously do bodily harm unto him the said William Dean against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT

And the Jurors aforesaid, upon their Oath aforesaid, do further present : That afterwards, to wit on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, the said John Hughes and David Buckley each
with force and arms, in and upon the body of William Dean in the peace of the said people then and there being, feloniously, did make another
assault and him the said William Dean
with a certain instrument and weapon, a description of which is to the jurors aforesaid unknown and cannot now be given, which the said John Hughes, and David Buckley in their right hands then and there had and held, wilfully and feloniously did beat, strike, stab, cut,

0132

and wound, the same being such means and force as was likely to produce the death of him the said William Seaver with intent him the said William Seaver then and there feloniously and wilfully to kill, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

FOURTH COUNT.

And the Jurors aforesaid, upon their Oath aforesaid, do further present: That afterwards, to wit, on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, the said John Hughes and David Buckley each William Seaver with force and arms, in and upon the body of the said William Seaver then and there being, wilfully and feloniously, did make another assault and him the said William Seaver with a certain instrument and weapon, a description of which is to the jurors unknown and cannot now be given, which the said John Hughes and David Buckley in their right hands then and there had and held, the same being then and there a deadly weapon, wilfully and feloniously did then and there beat, strike, stab, cut and wound, with intent to then and there wilfully and feloniously maim him the said William Seaver against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

BENJ. K. PHELPS, District Attorney.

Part in dau 26. 1850 for Pleads ass
1/9/50

A True Bill.
[Signature]
FORWARD.

BENJ. K. PHELPS,
District Attorney.

John Hughes
David Buckley
THE PEOPLE ON Felony Assault and Battery.

20/1
[Signature]
Filed 26 day of Aug 1850
Pleas set Entry 26.

0133

William Dean was admitted into St. Luke's Hospital on January 11th at 2.30 A.M. On examination a lacerated wound was found running across the left eyebrow in a direction upward and outward about $1\frac{1}{2}$ inch long. There was no fracture discovered and no bare bone could be felt at the bottom of the wound. While in the Hospital the patient showed no symptoms of injury of the brain. He left the Hospital on January 13th.

D. M. Cassmann M. D.
House Surgeon St. Luke's Hospital.

0134

CITY AND COUNTY }
OF NEW YORK, } ss.

THE JURORS OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,
in and for the body of the City and County of New York,
upon their Oath, present:

That John Hughes and David Buckley
Each

late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid, on the eleventh day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, at the Ward, City, and County aforesaid, with force and arms, in the night time of said day, in and upon one

William Dean

in the peace of the said People then and there being, feloniously did make an assault and

~~One Divers Promissory Notes for the payment of money, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied, and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes, of the denomination of one dollar and of the value of one dollar and denomination to the Jurors aforesaid unknown, and a more accurate description of which cannot now be given, of the value of~~

~~One Divers Promissory Notes for the payment of money, the same being then and there
due and unsatisfied, and of the kind known as Bank Notes, of the denomination of one dollar and of the value of one dollar and denomination to the Jurors aforesaid unknown, and a more accurate description of which cannot now be given, of the value of~~ ~~Divers Due Bills of the United States of America the same being then and there due and unsatisfied, and of the kind known as Fractional Currency, of a number and denomination to the Jurors aforesaid unknown, and a more accurate description of which cannot now be given, of the value of~~

Divers Coins, of a number, kind, and denomination to the Jurors aforesaid unknown, and a more accurate description of which cannot now be given, of the value of one dollar - Ten keys of the value of five cent each of the goods, chattels and personal property of the said William Dean from the person of said William Dean and against the will and by violence to the person of the said William Dean

then and there violently and feloniously did rob, steal, take and carry away, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

BENJ. K. PHELPS, District Attorney.

0135

BOX:

4

FOLDER:

51

DESCRIPTION:

Coakly, Abraham

DATE:

01/12/80

51

0136

BOX:

4

FOLDER:

51

DESCRIPTION:

Hope, James

DATE:

01/12/80

51

0137

BOX:

4

FOLDER:

51

DESCRIPTION:

Hope, John

DATE:

01/12/80

51

0138

BOX:

4

FOLDER:

51

DESCRIPTION:

Kelly, William

DATE:

01/12/80

51

0139

BOX:

4

FOLDER:

51

DESCRIPTION:

Luthy, Peter

DATE:

01/12/80

51

0140

BOX:

4

FOLDER:

51

DESCRIPTION:

Nugent, John

DATE:

01/12/80

51

0141

Day of Trial, Jan 12 = 1880

Counsel,

Filed 12 day of Jan 1880

No 6 Pleads Not Guilty, 12th & 9th Courts & deems, 1880

to other Courts to which the person stands sent, and in which a plea of Not Guilty is entered.

THE PEOPLE

vs.

1. James Hope
2. John Hope ^{committed}
3. William Kelly ^{committed}
4. Peter Lathy
5. Abraham Coakley
6. John August ^{acquitted}

see also June 1879

Benj. K. Phelps

BENJ. K. PHELPS,

District Attorney.

Discharged by Court - Oct 14 80

True Bill!

[Signature]

Part Two:

Foreman.

No 6. Tried Jan. 12th - Jan 16. 1880 and acquitted Jan 17. 1880.

I am convinced upon conference with Inspector Myne & others that neither Coakley nor Kelly were convicted by the Court & that the evidence presented to the Court was insufficient to sustain the charges against them.

0142

7/1/88

State of New York.

Executive Chamber,

Albany, N. Y. 1888

Sir: Application having been made to the Governor for the pardon of [redacted] who was sentenced on [redacted] 1877, in your County, for the crime of [redacted] for the term of [redacted] years and [redacted] to the State Prison you are respectfully requested (in pursuance of Chapter 310, Laws 1879) to furnish the Governor with a concise statement of the case as proven on the trial, together with any other facts or circumstances which may have a bearing on the question of granting or refusing a pardon. It is pleased, also, to state the previous character of the convict. [redacted]

Each letter of inquiry from this Department should be answered on a separate sheet.

Very respectfully yours,

[Signature]

To

District Attorney, &c.

0143

Answered
Dec. 31st 1844
F. B. D.

0144

At a Court of General Sessions of the Peace,

Holden in and for the City and County of New York, at the City Hall of the said City on Fri - day the 15th day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy eight - nine.

Present,

The Honorable Frederick Smyth,

Recorder of the City of New York,

} Justice
of the Sessions.

The People of the State of New York, against
James Hope

On reading and filing a notice of motion hereto annexed, and after hearing Charles W. Brooke, of counsel for the defendant in each of the indictments referred to in said notice of motion, in support of said motion, and John R. Fellows, Esquire, District Attorney, appearing and not objecting, and the court by inspection of the records of said indictments having ascertained that the defendant above named is now held in the custody of the Warden of the City Prison of the City of New York upon a commitment and a bench warrant issued by this court upon an indictment for Burglary in the first degree, filed on the 12th day of January, 1870, and upon an indictment for Burglary in the second degree, filed on the 27th day of June, 1879, and no trial having been had upon either of said indictments, and the trial thereof not having been postponed at his instance, it is Ordered that the said defendant, he, and he hereby is discharged upon his own recognizance from the custody of the said Warden so far as relates to the offenses charged in said indictments for which he was committed as aforesaid to the custody of said Warden, and it is further Ordered that in all other respects the said motion be and it is hereby denied.

Enter

F. S.

Recorder, &c.

0145

New York General Sessions of the Peace.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,

vs.

James Hope

Dated November 15, 1889.

filed Nov. 15, 1889.

0146

In the Court of General Sessions of the Peace.
Held in ~~the~~ for the City ~~and~~ County of New York.

The People of the State of New York }
vs.
James Hope }

The motion of the defendant
-agreeably -to the notice thereof served upon the District Attorney of the above named County - duly on November 1. 1889 for the discharge of the above named defendant from custody upon each and every of the several writs pending against him upon his own undertaking or recognizance in accordance with the provisions of sections 668-669
and 670 of the Code of Criminal Procedure or of such parts of said sections applicable to the case of said defendant and for any other and every relief to which the said defendant may be entitled having this day come on to be heard

Now therefore after hearing Charles W Brooke of Counsel for said defendant in support thereof and John R Fellows Esq District Attorney of the City and County of N.Y. in opposition thereto.

0147

It is hereby ordered:

That said defendant be and he is hereby discharged upon his own undertaking and recognizance from each and every of the said several indictments and that such discharge is directed to be hereby entered upon and made part of the minutes of the proceedings in this Court

0148

Court of General Sessions
of the Peace.
Held in and for City and County of N.Y.

The People of the State of N.Y.
vs.

James Hope.

Proposed

Order discharging defendant upon his own undertaking and recognizance

Brooke and Brooke
Attys for Def't

111 Broadway

Filed Nov 15 1849

0149

Court of General Sessions
^{of the Peace.}
held in and for the City and County of New York.

People of the State of New York
-vs-
James Hays

To Hon John R. Fecrows District Attorney County
of New York.

Dear Sir

You will please take notice that we shall move in Part I of above Court to be held at the Court House of the City of New York, on Monday November 4th 1884 at 11 o'clock. A.M. or as soon thereafter as Counsel can be heard why the above named defendant should not be discharged from custody upon each and every of the several indictments pending against him, upon his own undertaking or recognizance in accordance with the provisions of §§ 668, 669 and 670 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, or of such parts of said sections as may be applicable to the case of said defendant, any for any other and every relief to which in accordance with the provisions of the laws of this State and of the United States and more especially in the latter connection with the provisions of the Constitution of the United States, and of the State of New York, and of the acts of Congress and of the Legislature of said State in aid of such provisions relating to the subject of extradition of fugitives from justice, and of the right of said defendant to his discharge in accordance therewith.

0150

Dated New York November 1st 1889

Brook & Brooke
Attorneys for Defendant
No 111 Broadway
New York

0151

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

The People of the State of New York

- vs -

James Hope

Part I Notice
No 4 1889 The within motion was this day adjourned to Nov 11 1889 same place and time ^{NOV 11} H. P. Macdonald

Brook ^{NOV} Brook

attys ^{NOV} for Deft

No 11 Broadway
New York

To John R. Fellows Esq
District Attorney

State of New York.

CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE JURORS OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, in and for the body of the City and County of New York, upon their Oath, present:

1st Count That James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Coatsley, Peter Luthy and John August. Each

late of the Fifth Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid, on the twenty seventh day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight with force and arms, about the hour of two o'clock in the night time of the same day, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, the dwelling house of

Louis Muckle

there situate, feloniously and burglariously did break into and enter by means of picking the lock of an outer door of said dwelling house with a certain instrument the particular nature and description of which is hereinafter mentioned

whilst there was then and there some human being to wit, one Louis Muckle within the said dwelling house by the said James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Coatsley, Peter Luthy and John August

then and there intending to commit some crime therein, to wit: the goods, chattels, and personal property of Louis Muckle

in the said dwelling house then and there being, then and there feloniously and burglariously to steal, take and carry away, against the form and of three promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one thousand dollars, and of the value of one thousand dollars each: three promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of five hundred dollars, and of the value of five hundred dollars each: twenty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one hundred dollars, and of the value of one hundred dollars each: thirty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of fifty dollars, and of the value of fifty dollars each: fifty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of twenty dollars, and of the value of twenty dollars each: sixty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of ten dollars, and of the value of ten dollars each: eighty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of five dollars, and of the value of five dollars each: ninety promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of three dollars, and of the value of three dollars each: one hundred promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of two dollars, and of the value of two dollars each: one hundred and twenty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one dollar, and of the value of one dollar each: one promissory note for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of one hundred dollars: one promissory note for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of fifty dollars: two promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of twenty dollars each: three promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of ten dollars each: ten promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of five dollars each: ten promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of three dollars each: fifteen promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of two dollars each: thirty promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of one dollar each: bank bills of banks to the jurors aforesaid unknown, and of a number and denomination to the jurors aforesaid unknown, of the value of one thousand dollars. Two gold coins (of the kind usually known as double eagles), of the value of twenty dollars each: three gold coins (of the kind usually known as eagles), of the value of ten dollars each: six gold coins (of the kind usually known as half eagles), of the value of five dollars each: fifteen gold coins (of the kind usually known as quarter eagles), of the value of two dollars and fifty cents each: ten gold coins (of the kind usually known as three dollar pieces), of the value of three dollars each: thirty gold coins (of the kind usually known as dollar pieces), of the value of one dollar each: gold coin of the denomination to the jurors unknown, and a more particular description whereof cannot be given, of the value of one thousand dollars. Sixty silver coins (of the kind usually known as dollars), of the value of one dollar each: sixty silver coins (of the kind usually known as half dollars), of the value of fifty cents each: one hundred and fifty silver coins (of the kind usually known as quarter dollars), of the value of twenty-five cents each: three hundred silver coins (of the kind usually called dimes), of the value of ten cents each: six hundred silver coins (of the kind usually known as half dimes), of the value of five cents each: one thousand silver coins (of the kind known as three cent pieces), of the value of three cents each: silver coin of a denomination to the jurors unknown, and a more particular description whereof cannot be given, of the value of fifty dollars. Three thousand coins (of the kind known as cents), of the value of one cent each: five hundred coins (of the kind known as two cents), of the value of two cents each. One hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of fifty cents each, and of the marketable value of fifty cents each: two hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of twenty-five cents each, and of the marketable value of twenty-five cents each: five hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of ten cents each, and of the marketable value of ten cents each,

three keys of the value of fifty cents each of the goods, chattels, and personal property of Louis Muckle in the said dwelling house of one Louis Muckle

then and there being found in the dwelling-house aforesaid, then and there feloniously did steal, take, and carry away, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

2^d Count

and THE JURORS, OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,
~~in and for the City and County of New York,~~ upon their Oath, ~~do further present~~

That James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham
Coakley, Peter Luthy and John Nugent each late of the fifteenth Ward of the City of New York, in the County of
New York, aforesaid,

on the twenty seventh day of October in the year
of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight with force and arms, about the hour of two o'clock in the night time
of the same day, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, the dwelling house of

Louis Werckle
there situate, feloniously and burglariously did break into and enter by means of ~~un-~~ ~~locking the outer door of said dwelling house by means of~~ ~~a false key~~
whilst there was then and there some human being to wit, one

Louis Werckle within the said dwelling house the said
James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Coakley, Peter Luthy and John Nugent
then and there intending to commit some crime therein, to wit: the goods, chattels, and personal property of Louis Werckle

in the said dwelling house then and there being, then and there feloniously and burglariously to steal, take and carry away, ~~against the form of~~

~~three~~ three promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one thousand dollars, and of the value of one thousand dollars each: three promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied
(and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of five hundred dollars, and of the value of five hundred dollars each: twenty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one hundred dollars, and of the value of one hundred dollars each: thirty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of fifty dollars, and of the value of fifty dollars each: fifty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of twenty dollars, and of the value of twenty dollars each: sixty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of ten dollars, and of the value
of ten dollars each: eighty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of five dollars, and of the value of five dollars each: ninety promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of three dollars, and of the value of three dollars each:
one hundred promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of two dollars, and of the value of two dollars each:
one hundred and twenty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one dollar, and of the value of one dollar each: one promissory note for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due
and unsatisfied, of the value of one hundred dollars: one promissory note for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of fifty dollars: two promissory notes for
the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of twenty dollars each: three promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of ten dollars each: ten promissory notes for the payment of money
(and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of five dollars each: ten promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of three dollars each: fifteen promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of two dollars each: thirty promissory notes for
the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value
of one dollar each: bank bills of banks to the jurors aforesaid unknown, and of a number and denomination to the jurors aforesaid unknown, of the value of one thousand dollars. Two gold coins (of the kind usually known as double eagles), of the value of twenty dollars each: three gold coins (of the kind usually known as eagles), of the value of ten dollars each: six gold coins (of the kind usually known as quarter eagles), of the value of five dollars each:
fifteen gold coins (of the kind usually known as three dollar pieces), of the value of three dollars each: ten gold coins (of the kind usually known as dollar pieces), of the value of one dollar each: thirty gold coins (of the kind usually known as three cent pieces), of the value of three cents each: gold coin of the denomination to the jurors unknown, and a more particular description whereof cannot be given, of the value of one thousand dollars. Sixty silver coins (of the kind usually known as dollars), of the value of one dollar each: sixty silver coins (of the kind usually known as half dollars), of the value of fifty cents each: one hundred and fifty silver coins (of the kind usually known as quarter dollars), of the value of twenty-five cents each: three hundred silver coins (of the kind usually called dimes),
of the value of ten cents each: six hundred silver coins (of the kind usually known as half dimes), of the value of five cents each: one thousand silver coins (of the kind known as three cent pieces), of the value of three cents each: silver coin of a denomination to the jurors unknown, and a more particular description whereof cannot be given, of the value of fifty dollars. Three thousand coins (of the kind known as cents), of the value of one cent each: five hundred coins
(of the kind known as two cents), of the value of two cents each. One hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of fifty cents each, and of the marketable value of fifty cents each: two hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of twenty-five cents each, and of the marketable value of twenty-five cents each: five hundred due bills
of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of ten cents each, and of the marketable value of ten cents each,

Three keys of the value of fifty cents each

of the goods, chattels, and personal property of Louis Werckle
Louis Werckle in the said dwelling house of one
Louis Werckle, then and there being found in the dwelling-house aforesaid, then and there feloniously did steal, take, and carry away, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

And THE JURORS OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,
in and for the body of the City and County of New York, upon their Oath, ~~do~~ do further present.

That James Hope, John Hope William Kelly Abraham Coakley, Peter Lushy and John Nugent
Each

late of the fifteenth, Ward of the City of New York, in the County of
New York, aforesaid,

on the twenty seventh day of October in the year
of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight
with force and arms, about the hour of two o'clock in the night time
of the same day, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, the dwelling house of

Louis Mercelle

there situate, feloniously and burglariously did break into and enter ~~by means of~~ they the
said James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Coakley, Peter Lushy and John Nugent being men and there actually present confederating together acting and dealing each the other whilst there was then and there some human being to wit, one

Louis Mercelle within the said dwelling house ~~by~~ the said
James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Coakley, Peter Lushy and John Nugent

then and there intending to commit some crime therein, to wit: the goods, chattels, and personal property of Louis Mercelle

in the said dwelling house then and there being, then and

there feloniously and burglariously to steal, take and carry away, ~~against the form of~~

and ~~was~~, three promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one thousand dollars, and of the value of one thousand dollars each: three promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of five hundred dollars, and of the value of five hundred dollars each: twenty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one hundred dollars, and of the value of one hundred dollars each: thirty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of fifty dollars, and of the value of fifty dollars each: fifty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of twenty dollars, and of the value of twenty dollars each: sixty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of ten dollars, and of the value of ten dollars each: eighty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of five dollars, and of the value of five dollars each: ninety promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of three dollars, and of the value of three dollars each: one hundred promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of two dollars, and of the value of two dollars each: one hundred and twenty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one dollar, and of the value of one dollar each: one promissory note for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of one hundred dollars: one promissory note for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of fifty dollars: two promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of twenty dollars each: three promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes,) being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of ten dollars each: ten promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of five dollars each: ten promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of three dollars each: fifteen promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of two dollars each: thirty promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of one dollar each: bank bills of banks to the jurors aforesaid unknown, and of a number and denomination to the jurors aforesaid unknown, of the value of one thousand dollars. Two gold coins (of the kind usually known as double eagles), of the value of twenty dollars each: three gold coins (of the kind usually known as eagles), of the value of ten dollars each: six gold coins (of the kind usually known as half eagles), of the value of five dollars each: fifteen gold coins (of the kind usually known as quarter eagles), of the value of two dollars and fifty cents each: ten gold coins (of the kind usually known as three dollar pieces), of the value of three dollars each: thirty gold coins (of the kind usually known as dollar pieces), of the value of one dollar each: gold coin of the denomination to the jurors unknown, and a more particular description whereof cannot be given, of the value of one thousand dollars. Sixty silver coins (of the kind usually known as dollars), of the value of one dollar each: sixty silver coins (of the kind usually known as quarter dollars), of the value of fifty cents each: one hundred and fifty silver coins (of the kind usually known as quarter dollars), of the value of twenty-five cents each: three hundred silver coins (of the kind usually called dimes), of the value of ten cents each: six hundred silver coins (of the kind usually known as half dimes), of the value of five cents each: one thousand silver coins (of the kind known as three cent pieces), of the value of three cents each: silver coin of a denomination to the jurors unknown, and a more particular description whereof cannot be given, of the value of fifty dollars. Three thousand coins (of the kind known as cents), of the value of one cent each: five hundred coins (of the kind known as two cents), of the value of two cents each. One hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of fifty cents each, and of the marketable value of fifty cents each: two hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of twenty-five cents each, and of the marketable value of twenty-five cents each: five hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of ten cents each, and of the marketable value of ten cents each,

Three Keys of the value of fifty cents

of the goods, chattels, and personal property of Louis Mercelle

Louis Mercelle in the said dwelling house of one in the dwelling-house aforesaid, then and there feloniously did steal, take, and carry away, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

the law

4th Court

THE COMMONS OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK in and from the County of the City and County of New York upon their Oath, aforesaid as further present

That James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham
Cockley, Peter Luthy and John Nugent each
late of the fifteenth Ward of the City of New York, in the County of
New York, aforesaid,

on the twenty seventh day of October in the year
of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy- eight
with force and arms, about the hour of two o'clock in the night time
of the same day, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, the dwelling house of

Louis Werckle
there situate, feloniously and burglariously did break into and enter ~~by means~~ by means they the
said James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Cockley, Peter Luthy and John Nugent being then and there actually present confederating together, aiding and assisting each the other whilst there was then and there some human being to wit, one Louis Werckle

within the said dwelling house he, the said James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Cockley, Peter Luthy, and John Nugent
then and there intending to commit some crime therein, to wit: the goods, chattels, and personal property of The Manhattan Savings Institution

in the said dwelling house then and there being, then and there feloniously and burglariously to steal, take and carry away and against the form of three promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one thousand dollars, and of the value of one thousand dollars each: three promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied

(and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of five hundred dollars, and of the value
of five hundred dollars each: twenty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one hundred dollars,
and of the value of one hundred dollars each: thirty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and
there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of fifty dollars,
and of the value of fifty dollars each: fifty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of twenty dollars, and of the value of twenty dollars each: sixty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and
unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of ten dollars, and of the value
of ten dollars each: eighty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and
of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of five dollars, and of the value of five dollars
each: ninety promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of three dollars, and of the value of three dollars each:
one hundred promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of two dollars, and of the value of two dollars each:
one hundred and twenty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one dollar, and of the value of one dollar each: one promissory note for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due
and unsatisfied, of the value of one hundred dollars: one promissory note for the payment of money (and of the kind
known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of fifty dollars: two promissory notes for
the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied of the value
of twenty dollars each: three promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes,) being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of ten dollars each: ten promissory notes for the payment of money
(and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of five dollars each: ten
promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of three dollars each: fifteen promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of two dollars each: thirty promissory notes for
the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of one dollar each: bank bills of banks to the jurors aforesaid unknown, of the value of one thousand dollars, and of a number and denomination to the jurors aforesaid unknown, of the value of one thousand dollars. Two gold coins (of the kind usually known as double eagles), of the value of twenty dollars each: three gold coins (of the kind usually known as eagles), of the value of ten dollars each: six gold coins (of the kind usually known as half eagles), of the value of five dollars each:
fifteen gold coins (of the kind usually known as quarter eagles), of the value of two dollars and fifty cents each: ten gold coins (of the kind usually known as three dollar pieces), of the value of three dollars each: thirty gold coins (of the kind usually known as dollar pieces), of the value of one dollar each: gold coin of the denomination to the jurors unknown, and a more particular description whereof cannot be given, of the value of one thousand dollars. Sixty silver coins (of the kind usually known as dollars), of the value of one dollar each: sixty silver coins (of the kind usually
known as half dollars), of the value of fifty cents each: one hundred and fifty silver coins (of the kind usually known as
quarter dollars), of the value of twenty-five cents each: three hundred silver coins (of the kind usually called dimes),
of the value of ten cents each: six hundred silver coins (of the kind usually known as half dimes), of the value of five cents each: one thousand silver coins (of the kind known as three cent pieces), of the value of three cents each: silver
coin of a denomination to the jurors unknown, and a more particular description whereof cannot be given, of the value of fifty dollars. Three thousand coins (of the kind known as cents), of the value of one cent each: five hundred coins (of the kind known as two cents), of the value of two cents each. One hundred two bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of fifty cents each, and of the marketable value of fifty cents each: two hundred two bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of twenty-five cents each, and of the marketable value of twenty-five cents each: five hundred two bills
of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of ten cents each, and of the marketable value of ten cents each, and

three keys of the value of fifty cents each

of the goods, chattels, and personal property of The Manhattan
Savings Institution in the said dwelling house of one
Louis Werckle, then and there being found in the dwelling-house aforesaid, then and there feloniously did steal, take, and carry
away, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their heirs

~~in and for the body of the City and County of New York,~~
upon their Oath, ~~refused and do further present~~

5th Count That James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly Abraham Coakley, Peter Luthy and John August each

late of the Fifteenth Ward of the City of New York, in the County of
New York, aforesaid,

on the twenty seventh day of October in the year
of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight with force and arms, about the hour of two o'clock in the night, of the same day, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, the dwelling house of Louis Huckle

there situate, feloniously and burglariously did break into and enter by means of ~~the~~ ^{they the}
~~said James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Coakley~~ ^{said James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Coakley} ~~Peter Luthy and John August being then and there armed with a dangerous~~ ^{whilst there was then and there some human being to wit, one}
whilst there was then and there some human being to wit, one

Louis Huckle within the said dwelling house ~~by~~ ^{the} said
James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Coakley
Peter Luthy and John August

then and there intending to commit some crime therein, to wit: the goods, chattels, and
personal property of The Manhattan Savings Institution
in the said dwelling house then and there being, then and there feloniously and burglariously to steal, take and carry away, ~~against the form~~

and ~~of~~, three promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one thousand dollars, and of the value of one thousand dollars each: three promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied
(and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of five hundred dollars, and of the value
of five hundred dollars each: twenty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one hundred dollars,
and of the value of one hundred dollars each: thirty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and
there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of fifty dollars,
and of the value of fifty dollars each: fifty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of twenty dollars, and of the value of twenty dollars each: sixty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and
unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of ten dollars, and of the value
of ten dollars each: eighty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and
of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of five dollars, and of the value of five dollars
each: ninety promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of three dollars, and of the value of three dollars each:
one hundred promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of two dollars, and of the value of two dollars each:
one hundred and twenty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one dollar, and of the value of one dollar each: one promissory note for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due
and unsatisfied, of the value of one hundred dollars: one promissory note for the payment of money (and of the kind
known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of fifty dollars: two promissory notes for
the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied of the value
of twenty dollars each: three promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes,) being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of ten dollars each: ten promissory notes for the payment of money
(and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of five dollars each: ten
promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsat-
isfied, of the value of three dollars each: fifteen promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of two dollars each: thirty promissory notes for
the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value
of one dollar each: bank bills of banks to the jurors aforesaid unknown, and of a number and denomination to the jurors aforesaid unknown, of the value of one thousand dollars. Two gold coins (of the kind usually known as double eagles), of the value of twenty dollars each: three gold coins (of the kind usually known as eagles), of the value of ten dollars each: six gold coins (of the kind usually known as half eagles), of the value of five dollars each:
fifteen gold coins (of the kind usually known as quarter eagles), of the value of two dollars and fifty cents each: ten gold coins (of the kind usually known as three dollar pieces), of the value of three dollars and fifty cents each: ten gold
kind usually known as dollar pieces), of the value of one dollar each: gold coin of the denomination to the jurors unknown, and a more particular description whereof cannot be given, of the value of one thousand dollars. Sixty silver coins (of the kind usually known as dollars), of the value of one dollar each: sixty silver coins (of the kind usually
known as half dollars), of the value of fifty cents each: one hundred and fifty silver coins (of the kind usually quarter dollars), of the value of twenty-five cents each: three hundred silver coins (of the kind usually known as
of the value of ten cents each: six hundred silver coins (of the kind usually known as half dimes), of the value of five cents each: one thousand silver coins (of the kind known as three cent pieces), of the value of three cents each: silver
coin of a denomination to the jurors unknown, and a more particular description whereof cannot be given, of the value
of fifty dollars. Three thousand coins (of the kind known as cents), of the value of one cent each: five hundred coins
(of the kind known as two cents), of the value of two cents each. One hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomi-
nation of fifty cents each, and of the marketable value of fifty cents each: two hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of twenty-five cents each, and of the marketable value of twenty-five cents each: five hundred due bills
of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of ten cents each, and of the marketable value of ten cents each,

three keys of the value of fifty cents each

of the goods, chattels, and personal property of The Manhattan
Savings Institution in the said dwelling house of one Louis Huckle, then and there being found in the dwelling-house aforesaid, then and there feloniously ~~did~~ ^{take} take, and carry away, against the form of the Statute in such case made, against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and

6th Court

~~is and for the body of the City and County of New York~~
upon their Oath, ~~aforesaid~~ do further present

That James Hope, John Hope William Kelly, Abraham Coakley, Peter Luthy and John Nugent each late of the fifteenth Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid,

on the twenty seventh day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy- eight with force and arms, about the hour of two o'clock in the night time of the same day, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, the dwelling house of

Louis Werckle there situate, feloniously and burglariously did break into and enter ~~by means of~~ they ~~the said James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Coakley, Peter Luthy and John Nugent being then and there armed with a dangerous weapon of the kind commonly called a pistol~~ whilst there was then and there some human being to wit, one

Louis Werckle within the said dwelling house ~~the said~~ James Hope, John Hope William Kelly, Abraham Coakley, Peter Luthy, and John Nugent then and there intending to commit some crime therein, to wit: the goods, chattels, and personal property of Louis Werckle

in the said dwelling house then and there being, then and there feloniously and burglariously to steal, take and carry away, ~~against the form of~~

~~the said~~ three promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one thousand dollars, and of the value of one thousand dollars each: three promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of five hundred dollars, and of the value of five hundred dollars each: twenty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one hundred dollars, and of the value of one hundred dollars each: thirty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of fifty dollars, and of the value of fifty dollars each: fifty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of twenty dollars, and of the value of twenty dollars each: sixty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of ten dollars, and of the value of ten dollars each: eighty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of five dollars, and of the value of five dollars each: ninety promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of three dollars, and of the value of three dollars each: one hundred promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of two dollars, and of the value of two dollars each: one hundred and twenty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one dollar, and of the value of one dollar each: one promissory note for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of one hundred dollars: one promissory note for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of fifty dollars: two promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of ten dollars each: ten promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of five dollars each: ten promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of three dollars each: fifteen promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of two dollars each: thirty promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of one dollar each: bank bills of banks to the jurors aforesaid unknown, and of a number and denomination to the jurors aforesaid unknown, of the value of one thousand dollars. Two gold coins (of the kind usually known as double eagles), of the value of twenty dollars each: three gold coins (of the kind usually known as eagles), of the value of ten dollars each: six gold coins (of the kind usually known as half eagles), of the value of five dollars each: fifteen gold coins (of the kind usually known as quarter eagles), of the value of two dollars and fifty cents each: ten gold coins (of the kind usually known as three dollar pieces), of the value of three dollars each: thirty gold coins (of the kind usually known as dollar pieces), of the value of one dollar each: gold coin of the denomination to the jurors unknown, and a more particular description whereof cannot be given, of the value of one thousand dollars. Sixty silver coins (of the kind usually known as dollars), of the value of one dollar each: sixty silver coins (of the kind usually known as half dollars), of the value of fifty cents each: one hundred and fifty silver coins (of the kind usually known as quarter dollars), of the value of twenty-five cents each: three hundred silver coins (of the kind usually called dimes), of the value of ten cents each: six hundred silver coins (of the kind usually known as half dimes), of the value of five cents each: one thousand silver coins (of the kind known as three cent pieces), of the value of three cents each: silver coin of a denomination to the jurors unknown, and a more particular description whereof cannot be given, of the value of fifty dollars. Three thousand coins (of the kind known as cents), of the value of one cent each: five hundred coins (of the kind known as two cents), of the value of two cents each. One hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of fifty cents each, and of the marketable value of fifty cents each: two hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of twenty-five cents each, and of the marketable value of twenty-five cents each: five hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of ten cents each, and of the marketable value of ten cents each, and

these keys of the value of fifty cents each of the goods, chattels, and personal property of Louis Werckle in the said dwelling house of one Louis Werckle, then and there being found in the dwelling-house aforesaid, then and there feloniously did steal, take, and carry away, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

0158

~~in and to the body of the City and County of New York,~~ upon their Oath, ~~deponed~~, do further present

9th Count That James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Coakley, Peter Luthy and John August Each late of the Seventh Ward of the City of New York, in the County of
New York, aforesaid,
on the twenty seventh day of October in the year
of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy- Eight
with force and arms, about the hour of two o'clock in the night time
of the same day, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, the dwelling house of Louis Mercile

there situate, feloniously and burglariously did break into and enter by means of ~~they the~~
~~said James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Coakley, Peter~~ ~~Luthy and John August, being then and there armed with a dan-~~ ~~gers weapon of the kind commonly called a pistol~~
whilst there was then and there some human being to wit, one

Louis Mercile within the said dwelling house by the said
James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly
Abraham Coakley, Peter Luthy and John August then and there intending to commit some crime therein, to wit, with force and arms unlawfully to assault and beat one Louis Mercile against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity

to Court

9.

And the jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do further present: That afterwards, to wit, on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, about the hour of two o'clock in the night time of said day, the said James Hope John Hope William Kelly Abraham Crakley Peter Luty and John Nugent each the dwelling house of Louis Weckle

there situate, feloniously and burglariously did break into and enter ~~by means of~~ the said James Hope John Hope William Kelly Abraham Crakley Peter Luty and John Nugent being then and there actually present confederating together aiding and abetting each the other whilst there was then and there some human being to wit, one Louis Weckle within the said dwelling house by the said James Hope John Hope William Kelly Abraham Crakley Peter Luty and John Nugent then and there intending to commit some crime therein, to wit: ~~the same, to wit, and~~ ~~personal property of~~

~~in the said dwelling house then and there being then and~~

with force and arms unlawfully to assault and beat one Louis Weckle against the peace of the people of the State of New York and their dignity

known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of two dollars, and of the value of two dollars each: one hundred and twenty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one dollar, and of the value of one dollar each: one promissory note for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of one hundred dollars: one promissory note for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of fifty dollars: two promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied of the value of twenty dollars each: three promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of ten dollars each: ten promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of five dollars each: ten promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of three dollars each: fifteen promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of two dollars each: thirty promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of one dollar each: bank bills of banks to the jurors aforesaid unknown, and of a number and denomination to the jurors aforesaid unknown, of the value of one thousand dollars. Two gold coins (of the kind usually known as double eagles), of the value of twenty dollars each: three gold coins (of the kind usually known as eagles), of the value of ten dollars each: six gold coins (of the kind usually known as half eagles), of the value of five dollars each: fifteen gold coins (of the kind usually known as quarter eagles), of the value of two dollars and fifty cents each: ten gold coins (of the kind usually known as three dollar pieces), of the value of three dollars each: thirty gold coins (of the kind usually known as dollar pieces), of the value of one dollar each: gold coin of the denomination to the jurors unknown, and a more particular description whereof cannot be given, of the value of one thousand dollars. Sixty silver coins (of the kind usually known as dollars), of the value of one dollar each: sixty silver coins (of the kind usually known as half dollars), of the value of fifty cents each: one hundred and fifty silver coins (of the kind usually known as quarter dollars), of the value of twenty-five cents each: three hundred silver coins (of the kind usually known as dimes), of the value of ten cents each: six hundred silver coins (of the kind usually known as half dimes), of the value of five cents each: one thousand silver coins (of the kind known as three cent pieces), of the value of three cents each: silver coin of a denomination to the jurors unknown, and a more particular description whereof cannot be given, of the value of fifty dollars. Three thousand coins (of the kind known as cents), of the value of one cent each: five hundred coins (of the kind known as two cents), of the value of two cents each. One hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of fifty cents each, and of the marketable value of fifty cents each: two hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of twenty-five cents each, and of the marketable value of twenty-five cents each: five hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of ten cents each, and of the marketable value of ten cents each, of the goods, chattels, and personal property of the said The Manhattan Savings Institution

so kept as aforesaid in the said building then and there being, then and there feloniously did steal, take and carry away, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

BENJ. K. PHELPS, District Attorney.

Aforesaid
And THE JURORS OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,

in and for the County of the City and County of New York,
upon their Oath, aforesaid, do further present;

That James Hope, John Hope, William Kelley, Abraham Canby, Peter Luthy and John Stegent each

late of the Seventh Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid, on the twenty-seventh day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, Eight with force and arms, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, the building of The Manhattan Savings Institution there situate, feloniously and burglariously, did break into and enter, the same being a building in which divers goods, merchandise, and valuable things were then and there kept for use, sale and deposit, to wit: the goods, chattels, and personal property hereinafter described, with intent the said goods, chattels, and personal property of the said The Manhat- tan Savings Institution then and there therein being, then and there feloniously and burglariously to steal, take and carry away, and three keys
of the value of fifty cents each three promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one thousand dollars, and of the value of one thousand dollars each: three promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of five hundred dollars, and of the value of five hundred dollars each: twenty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one hundred dollars, and of the value of one hundred dollars each: thirty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of fifty dollars, and of the value of fifty dollars each: fifty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of twenty dollars, and of the value of twenty dollars each: sixty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of ten dollars, and of the value of ten dollars each: eighty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of five dollars, and of the value of five dollars each: ninety promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of three dollars, and of the value of three dollars each: one hundred promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of two dollars, and of the value of two dollars each: one hundred and twenty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one dollar, and of the value of one dollar each: one promissory note for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of one hundred dollars: one promissory note for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of fifty dollars: two promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of twenty dollars each: three promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of ten dollars each: ten promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of five dollars each: ten promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of three dollars each: fifteen promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of two dollars each: thirty promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of one dollar each: bank bills of banks to the jurors aforesaid unknown, and of a number and denomination to the jurors aforesaid unknown, of the value of one thousand dollars. Two gold coins (of the kind usually known as double eagles), of the value of twenty dollars each: three gold coins (of the kind usually known as eagles), of the value of ten dollars each: six gold coins (of the kind usually known as half eagles), of the value of five dollars each: fifteen gold coins (of the kind usually known as quarter eagles), of the value of two dollars and fifty cents each: ten gold coins (of the kind usually known as three dollar pieces), of the value of three dollars each: thirty gold coins (of the kind usually known as dollar pieces), of the value of one dollar each: gold coin of the denomination to the jurors unknown, and a more particular description whereof cannot be given, of the value of one thousand dollars. Sixty silver coins (of the kind usually known as dollars), of the value of one dollar each: sixty silver coins (of the kind usually known as half dollars), of the value of fifty cents each: one hundred and fifty silver coins (of the kind usually known as quarter dollars), of the value of twenty-five cents each: three hundred silver coins (of the kind usually called dimes), of the value of ten cents each: six hundred silver coins (of the kind usually known as half dimes), of the value of five cents each: one thousand silver coins (of the kind known as three cent pieces), of the value of three cents each: silver coin of a denomination to the jurors unknown, and a more particular description whereof cannot be given, of the value of fifty dollars. Three thousand coins (of the kind known as cents), of the value of one cent each: five hundred coins (of the kind known as two cents), of the value of two cents each. One hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of fifty cents each, and of the marketable value of fifty cents each: two hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of twenty-five cents each, and of the marketable value of twenty-five cents each: five hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of ten cents each, and of the marketable value of ten cents each, of the goods, chattels, and personal property, of the said The Manhattan Savings Institution

so kept as aforesaid in the said building then and there being, then and there feloniously did steal, take and carry away, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

BENJ. K. PHELPS, District Attorney.

0161

BOX:

4

FOLDER:

51

DESCRIPTION:

Hennessy, Thomas

DATE:

01/28/80

51

0 162

187

Day of Trial,
Counsel,
Filed 27 day of July 18*70*
Pleads

THE PEOPLE

vs.

Thomas McKeeney
Alias
Michael McKeeney

BURGLARY—THIRD DEGREE.
NOTHING STOLEN.

BENJ. K. PHELPS,

District Attorney.

A. True Bill.

W. H. King
J. J. King Foreman.
Edw. J. King
S.P. one year

0163

Police Office, Fourth District.

City and County } ss.
of New York, }

Jacob Voorhis

of No. 120 East 45th Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that the premises No. on North side of 42 Street 100 ft East of 1st Avenue 19 Ward, in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a Shop and which was occupied by deponent as a Shop of office, a place where valuable things were kept. BURGLARIOUSLY broke and entered by means of cutting away the outer shutter of a window, breaking a glass and removing a catch from the east of said window with intent to steal

on the night of the 24th day of January 1870
and the following property feloniously taken, stolen and carried away, viz.:

One Clock of the value of One dollar and a half. One Umbrella of the value of two dollars and a half. A quantity of pens pencils &c of the value of Fifty cents.
A quantity of cancelled checks of the value of two cents. in all of the value of One dollar and Fifty two cents $1.52

the property of Deponent
and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed, and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away by Thomas M. Hennessy alias Michael, M. Hennessy (now here) for the reasons following, to wit: That the aforesaid premises were securely locked and fastened on the evening of the said 6th day of January. That deponent found said premises on the following 0164 morning broken open in the manner hereinbefore described. That deponent is informed by Officer Barney of the 21st Precinct that he saw said Hennessy in company with Thomas Haulon on the said night ^{near said premises} and that said Hennessy ran away from said premises.

Mat Wroth

Sworn to before me this 25th

day of January 1880

~~John J. [unclear]~~
Police Justice

State of New York ss. Matthew Barney of City of New York the 21st Precinct Police being duly sworn deposes and says, that at about one quarter past One o'clock on the morning of the 4th day of January 1880 deponent saw Thomas McHennessy alias Michael McHennessy (now here) coming from the rear of the office of Jacob Wroth in 43rd Street near 1st Avenue in said City of New York, in company with one Thomas Haulon. That deponent went toward said Hennessy and Haulon and they ran away; deponent gave chase and arrested said Haulon, said Hennessy escaping at the time. That deponent found in the possession of said

0165

Stated a quantity of cancelled checks which have since been identified by Jacob Vorkes as being his property and a portion of the property that was stolen from the premises in 42 Street occupied by him. Matthew Carney

Sworn to before me this 25th
day of January 1880
J. E. Justice
Justice

0166

Police Court, Fourth District.

CITY AND COUNTY }
OF NEW YORK, } ss.

Thomas M. Hennessey alias Michael M. Hennessey being duly examined before the undersigned, according to law, on the annexed charge; and being informed that he was at liberty to answer, or not, all or any questions put to him, states as follows, viz:

Question. What is your name?

Answer. Thomas Hennessey

Question. How old are you?

Answer. 17 years

Question. Where were you born?

Answer. New York

Question. Where do you live?

Answer. 430. West Avenue

Question. What is your occupation?

Answer. Painter

Question. Have you anything to say, and if so what,—relative to the charge here preferred against you?

Answer. I am not guilty
Thomas Hennessey

Thomas M. Hennessey
Taken before me this 23 day of August 19*17*
at New York.
Justice.

0167

Police Court—Fourth District. 131

THE PEOPLE &c.
OR THE COMPLAINT OF

120 & 45 1/2

vs.

1 [Handwritten Name]
2
3
4
5
6

Offence,

BAILABLE:

No. 1, by

Residence, _____

No. 2, by

Residence, _____

No. 3, by

Residence, _____

No. 4, by

Residence, _____

No. 5, by

Residence, _____

No. 6, by

Residence, _____

Dated Jan 26 1880

Magistrate.

Officer.

Clerk.

Witnesses.

Received in District Atty's Office.

0168

CITY AND COUNTY }
OF NEW YORK, { No. :

THE JURORS OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,
in and for the body of the City and County of New York,
upon their Oath, present :

That

Thomas M Hennessy otherwise called Michael M Hennessy P.

late of the Nineteenth Ward of the City of New York, in the County of
New York, aforesaid,

on the Sixth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ~~seventy~~ Eighty with force and arms, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, the Store of

Jacob Voorhis
there situate, feloniously and burglariously did break into and enter, the said store being then and there a building in which divers goods, merchandise, and valuable things were then and there kept for use, sale and deposit; the same being the goods, chattels, and personal property of

Jacob Voorhis

goods, merchandise and valuable things in the said store with intent the said being then and there feloniously and burglariously to steal, take, and carry away against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

BENJ. K. PHELPS, District Attorney.

0169

BOX:

4

FOLDER:

51

DESCRIPTION:

Herman, Louis

DATE:

01/08/80

51

0170

54
Counsel,

Filed J. M. [unclear] day of June 18*80*

Pleads Not Guilty

THE PEOPLE

vs.

Louis Norman Death Charge sent by bill
of court by C. J.
June 7/80

Indictment of Larceny

BENJ. K. PHELPS,

District Attorney.

A True Bill.

[Signature]

[Signature] Foreman.

Recd: Six months.
Plead guilty

0171

Form 112.

STATE OF NEW YORK,
CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, } ss:

Police Court—First District.

of No. John Miller
9th Beade Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 23 day of December 18*79*
at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away from the possession of deponent,

the following property, viz: four boxes of chocolate

of the value of Eighteen Dollars, the property of Francis H Leggett and his partners and in care and charge of deponent

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Jonis Herman now present for the reason that deponent saw the prisoner take the aforesaid property and put it in a box preparatory to carrying it away from the abode named premises — John Miller

Sworn to, before me, this 23 day of December 18*79*
Micah C. St. Lewis
Police Justice.

0172

Police Court—First District.

CITY AND COUNTY }
OF NEW YORK. } ss.

.....being duly examined before the undersigned, according to law, on the annexed charge; and being informed that he was at liberty to refuse to answer any question that may be put to h....., states as follows, viz:

Question. What is your name?

Answer.

Question. How old are you?

Answer.

Question. Where were you born?

Answer.

Question. Where do you live?

Answer.

Question. What is your occupation?

Answer.

Question. Have you anything to say, and if so, what—relative to the charge here preferred against you?

Answer.

Taken before me, this day of

Police Justice.

0173

COUNSEL FOR COMPLAINANT.

Name,

Address,

Have this man tried at once. He has been suffering for some time from F. H. Leggett & Co. and Hutchinson at once - & of bail is forfeited, used Renech Hancock see enclosed Card of Counsel for F. H. Leggett
to -
May 3, 1886 -
Chas. C.

BAILED:

No. 1, by

Residence,

No. 2, by

Residence,

No. 3, by

Residence,

No. 4, by

Residence,

No. 5, by

Residence,

No. 6, by

Residence,

COUNSEL FOR DEFENDANT.

Name,

Address,

This party is held over after charge -
Clair

0174

COUNSEL FOR COMPLAINANT.

Name, _____
Address, _____

COUNSEL FOR DEFENDANT.

Name, _____
Address, _____

THE PEOPLE, &c.
ON THE COMPLAINT OF

John Miller
97 Beade St
Paris, Norman

Affidavit-Larceny

BAILED:
No. 1, by W. H. ...
Residence, 546 ...

No. 2, by _____
Residence, _____

No. 3, by _____
Residence, _____

No. 4, by _____
Residence, _____

No. 5, by _____
Residence, _____

No. 6, by _____ Residence, _____

1879

December 23 1879
Henry Magistrate
Combs Officer
3 Clerk

Witnesses:

How to answer
at General Sessions

Received at Dist. Atty's office

0175

JOHN B. LORD.

ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,

117 CHAMBERS STREET, N. Y.

COUNSEL FOR FRANCIS H. LEGGETT & CO.

0176

CITY AND COUNTY }
OF NEW YORK, } RR.

THE JURORS OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,
in and for the body of the City and County of New York,
upon their Oath, present:

That

Louis Herman

late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid, on the twenty-third day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms

four boxes of Chocolate of the value of four dollars and fifty cents each four pounds of chocolate of the value of four dollars and fifty cents each pound

of the goods, chattels and personal property of one

Francis H. Leggett.

then and there being found, feloniously did steal, take and carry away, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

BENJ. K. PHELPS, District Attorney.

0177

BOX:

4

FOLDER:

51

DESCRIPTION:

Hermann, Louis

DATE:

01/12/80

51

0178

Counsel,
Filed 12 day of Jan 1880
Pleads

THE PEOPLE

vs.

Indictment
D
Louis Hermann

Defendant sentenced on Indictment
Indictment
July 12 '80

Indictment - Larceny.

BENJ. K. PHELPS,

(District Attorney) District Attorney.

A True Bill.

W. King

Foreman.

In sentencing this prisoner
to six months in the peniten-
tary on a larceny charge,
the Judge expressly declared that he deems the sentence as practically imposed
"By this absence as well as that it ought to be discharged."

0179

First District Police Court—

CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, } ss.

Mandeville R Miller

of No. 74 Murray Street,

3

day of January 1880

being duly sworn, deposes and saith, that on the ^{attempted to be} at the ~~Word of the~~ City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent,

the following property viz.:

Two Boxes of Plug Chewing Tobacco of the value of eighteen dollars

Sworn before me this

day of the property of Charles K Wagner and Moses K Helland ^{captains} did in care and charge of this deponent

POLICE JUSTICE

187

has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously ^{stolen} taken, stolen and carried away by Louis Herman (now here) and that this deponent for the reason that said defendant came into premises No 74 Murray Street where deponent is employed and walk to the office in the rear part of said premises and asked to see the directors and after looking at the same he walked out of said premises, ^{and} in about one hour he returned to said premises with a large paper box in his possession and again asked to see the directors and went back to the office and in a few minutes

0180

after deponent heard a noise in the rear part of the store and immediately went to see what caused said noise and deponent found said defendant standing by a pile of boxes of Plug chewing tobacco and ~~saw~~ the paper box which said defendant brought into said premises on the pile of tobacco and in said ^{paper box} were two boxes of Plug Chewing tobacco which deponent identified as the property of his employers

wherefore deponent charges said defendant with attempting to take steal and carry away the aforesaid property

Sworn to before me this Maudville R. Miller 3 day of January 1880

J. Williams
Police Justice

transferred to Court of General Sessions Jan 7/80
C. B. Miller

1st DISTRICT POLICE COURT.
THE PEOPLE, &c., ON THE COMPLAINT
of Maudville R. Miller 74 Murray St.

vs.
Louis Herman
Dated 3 January 1880

Nilbert
MAGISTRATE

Witnesses
Hanson OFFICER
510cc
- May
J. J. [unclear]
RECORDED
DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE.
1880

LM

23

0181

DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE,

New York.

188

Index sent to Louis Herrmann
now in Court,
6 mar
2nd Chair
Wagner + Kellan
Mr Miller makes Chair
Ledger was sent

0182

G. W. Turney, Stationer and Law Blank Publisher, 77 Chatham St., N. Y.

The People of the State of New York, TO

*Charles Buckley Esq
District Special Session
City of New York (Tambo)*

GREETING :

CERTIORARI
TO CERTIFY CAUSE OF DETENTION.

We Command you, That you certify fully and at large to

The Supreme Court

at Chambers Street to be held in New York in the County Court of the City and County of New York on Wednesday January 7th 1880 at 10 1/2 o'clock

the day and cause of the imprisonment of

Levin Harrison

by you detained ; as is said, by whatsoever name the said Levin shall be called or charged ; and have you then this writ.

Witness, Hen Cook Hayes

the 6th day of Jan 1880

Jno Macconn Attorney.

By the Court William A. Butler CLERK.

16 Franklin St N Y City

0183

City Court of
New York

The return to this writ is shown by the answer of Complainant of Petit Larceny, vs.
Charles K. Morgan and another in said writ named.

The said Complainant was sent to the Clerk of the Special Sessions before for trial by the Court of Special Sessions and is upon the Calendar of said Court for trial on Wednesday January 14/80

July 9, 1880

Charles R. Foster,
Clerk.

0184

Not Allowed Jan 6th 1850

Wm D. Miller

Justice Supreme Court

0185

CITY AND COUNTY }
OF NEW YORK. } ss.

THE JURORS OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,
in and for the body of the City and County of New York,
upon their Oath, present:

That

Louis Herman

late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid, on the third day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ~~seventy~~ Eighty at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms

Two boxes of Tobacco of the value of two dollars each - box -

Eighteen pounds of Tobacco of the value of one dollar each pound.

of the goods, chattels and personal property of one Moses K Kellam

then and
there being found, feloniously did steal, take and carry away, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

BENJ. K. PHELPS, District Attorney.

0186

12 day of Jan 1880
Pleads

THE PEOPLE

vs.

Indictment
Louis Hermann

Defendant sentenced on Indictment
July 12 '80

Indictment - Larceny.

BENJ. K. PHELPS,

(Went to City) District Attorney.

A True Bill.

O. Quincy

Foreman.
In sentencing this prisoner
to six months in the penitential on a larceny charge
the Judge expressly declared that he designed the sentence as practically imposed upon this case as well as that it ought to be on charge of 0187

BOX:

4

FOLDER:

51

DESCRIPTION:

Hope, James

DATE:

01/08/80

51

0188

BOX:

4

FOLDER:

51

DESCRIPTION:

Hope, John

DATE:

01/08/80

51

0189

BOX:

4

FOLDER:

51

DESCRIPTION:

Kelly, William

DATE:

01/08/80

51

0190

BOX:

4

FOLDER:

51

DESCRIPTION:

Luthy, Peter

DATE:

01/08/80

51

0191

BOX:

4

FOLDER:

51

DESCRIPTION:

Coakly, Abraham

DATE:

01/08/80

51

0192

BOX:

4

FOLDER:

51

DESCRIPTION:

Nugent, John

DATE:

01/08/80

51

State of New York

CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK

THE JURORS OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, in and for the body of the City and County of New York, upon their Oath, present:

1st Count.

That James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Coakley, Peter Luthy, and John Sturgent late of the fifteenth Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid,

on the twenty seventh day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy eight with force and arms, about the hour of six o'clock in the day time of the same day, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, the dwelling house of

Louis Werckle

there situate, feloniously and burglariously did break into and enter by means of forcibly picking the lock of an outer door of said dwelling house with a certain instrument the particular nature and description of which is to be put on in known whilst there was then and there some human being to wit, one Louis Werckle within the said dwelling house the said James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Coakley, Peter Luthy and John Sturgent

then and there intending to commit some crime therein, to wit: the goods, chattels, and personal property of Louis Werckle

in the said dwelling house then and there being, then and there feloniously and burglariously to steal, take and carry away, against the form and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, three promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one thousand dollars, and of the value of one thousand dollars each: three promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of five hundred dollars, and of the value of five hundred dollars each: twenty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one hundred dollars, and of the value of one hundred dollars each: thirty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of fifty dollars, and of the value of fifty dollars each: fifty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of twenty dollars, and of the value of twenty dollars each: sixty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of ten dollars, and of the value of ten dollars each: eighty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of five dollars, and of the value of five dollars each: ninety promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of three dollars, and of the value of three dollars each: one hundred promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of two dollars, and of the value of two dollars each: one hundred and twenty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one dollar, and of the value of one dollar each: one promissory note for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of one hundred dollars: one promissory note for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of fifty dollars: two promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied of the value of twenty dollars each: three promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of ten dollars each: ten promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of five dollars each: ten promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of three dollars each: fifteen promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of two dollars each: thirty promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of one dollar each: bank bills of banks to the jurors aforesaid unknown, and of a number and denomination to the jurors aforesaid unknown, of the value of one thousand dollars. Two gold coins (of the kind usually known as double eagles), of the value of twenty dollars each: three gold coins (of the kind usually known as eagles), of the value of ten dollars each: six gold coins (of the kind usually known as half eagles), of the value of five dollars each: fifteen gold coins (of the kind usually known as quarter eagles), of the value of two dollars and fifty cents each: ten gold coins (of the kind usually known as three dollar pieces), of the value of three dollars each: thirty gold coins (of the kind usually known as dollar pieces), of the value of one dollar each: gold coin of the denomination to the jurors unknown, and a more particular description whereof cannot be given, of the value of one thousand dollars. Sixty silver coins (of the kind usually known as dollars), of the value of one dollar each: sixty silver coins (of the kind usually known as half dollars), of the value of fifty cents each: one hundred and fifty silver coins (of the kind usually known as quarter dollars), of the value of twenty-five cents each: three hundred silver coins (of the kind usually called dimes), of the value of ten cents each: six hundred silver coins (of the kind usually known as half dimes), of the value of five cents each: one thousand silver coins (of the kind known as three cent pieces), of the value of three cents each: silver coin of a denomination to the jurors unknown, and a more particular description whereof cannot be given, of the value of fifty dollars. Three thousand coins (of the kind known as cents), of the value of one cent each: five hundred coins (of the kind known as two cents), of the value of two cents each. One hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of fifty cents each, and of the marketable value of fifty cents each: two hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of twenty-five cents each, and of the marketable value of twenty-five cents each: five hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of ten cents each, and of the marketable value of ten cents each, and

three keys of the value of fifty cents each.

of the goods, chattels, and personal property of Louis Werckle

in the said dwelling house of one Louis Werckle, then and there being found in the dwelling-house aforesaid, then and there feloniously did steal, take, and carry away, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

State of New York

~~JURY AND COUNSEL~~
~~OF NEW YORK~~

And THE JURORS OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, aforsaid
in and for the City and County of New York, upon their Oath, aforsaid do further present

2^d Count

That James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Cookley, Peter Sutby and John Nugent

late of the fifteenth Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid,

on the Twenty seventh day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-Eight with force and arms, about the hour of six o'clock in the day time of the same day, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, the dwelling house of

Louis Werckle

there situate, feloniously and burglariously did break into and enter by means of unlocking the outer door of said dwelling house by means of a false key whilst there was then and there some human being to wit, one

Louis Werckle within the said dwelling house by the said James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Cookley, Peter Sutby and John Nugent

then and there intending to commit some crime therein, to wit: the goods, chattels, and personal property of Louis Werckle

in the said dwelling house then and there being, then and there feloniously and burglariously to steal, take and carry away, ~~and~~

~~Three~~ Three promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one thousand dollars, and of the value of one thousand dollars each: three promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of five hundred dollars, and of the value of five hundred dollars each: twenty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one hundred dollars, and of the value of one hundred dollars each: thirty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of fifty dollars, and of the value of fifty dollars each: fifty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of twenty dollars, and of the value of twenty dollars each: sixty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of ten dollars, and of the value of ten dollars each: eighty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of five dollars, and of the value of five dollars each: ninety promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of three dollars, and of the value of three dollars each: one hundred promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of two dollars, and of the value of two dollars each: one hundred and twenty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one dollar, and of the value of one dollar each: one promissory note for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of one hundred dollars: one promissory note for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of fifty dollars: two promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied of the value of twenty dollars each: three promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of ten dollars each: ten promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of five dollars each: ten promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of three dollars each: fifteen promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of two dollars each: thirty promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of one dollar each: bank bills of banks to the jurors aforesaid unknown, and of a number and denomination to the jurors aforesaid unknown, of the value of one thousand dollars. Two gold coins (of the kind usually known as double eagles), of the value of twenty dollars each: three gold coins (of the kind usually known as eagles), of the value of ten dollars each: six gold coins (of the kind usually known as half eagles), of the value of five dollars each: fifteen gold coins (of the kind usually known as quarter eagles), of the value of two dollars and fifty cents each: ten gold coins (of the kind usually known as three dollar pieces), of the value of three dollars each: thirty gold coins (of the kind usually known as dollar pieces), of the value of one dollar each: gold coin of the denomination to the jurors unknown, and a more particular description whereof cannot be given, of the value of one thousand dollars. Sixty silver coins (of the kind usually known as dollars), of the value of one dollar each: sixty silver coins (of the kind usually known as half dollars), of the value of fifty cents each: one hundred and fifty silver coins (of the kind usually known as quarter dollars), of the value of twenty-five cents each: three hundred silver coins (of the kind usually called dimes), of the value of ten cents each: six hundred silver coins (of the kind usually known as half dimes), of the value of five cents each: one thousand silver coins (of the kind known as three cent pieces), of the value of three cents each: silver coin of a denomination to the jurors unknown, and a more particular description whereof cannot be given, of the value of fifty dollars. Three thousand coins (of the kind known as cents), of the value of one cent each: five hundred coins (of the kind known as two cents), of the value of two cents each. One hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of fifty cents each, and of the marketable value of fifty cents each: two hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of twenty-five cents each, and of the marketable value of twenty-five cents each: five hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of ten cents each, and of the marketable value of ten cents each, and

Three keys of the value of fifty cents each,

of the goods, chattels, and personal property of Louis Werckle in the said dwelling house of one

Louis Werckle, then and there being found in the dwelling-house aforesaid, then and there feloniously did steal, take, and carry away, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

THE JURORS OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,
in and for the body of the City and County of New York,
upon their Oath, present:

3rd Count

That James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Coakley, Peter Luthy and John Nugent

late of the fifteenth Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid,

on the twenty seventh day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight

with force and arms, about the hour of six o'clock in the day time of the same day, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, the dwelling house of

Louis Werckle

there situate, feloniously and burglariously did break into and enter ~~by means of~~ by means of ~~they, the said~~ James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Coakley, Peter Luthy and John Nugent being then and there actually present, confederating together, aiding and assisting each the other whilst there was then and there some human being to wit, one

Louis Werckle

within the said dwelling house ~~by~~ by the said James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Coakley, Peter Luthy, and John Nugent

then and there intending to commit some crime therein, to wit: the goods, chattels, and personal property of Louis Werckle

in the said dwelling house then and there being, then and there feloniously and burglariously to steal, take and carry away, ~~against the form of~~ and

of five hundred dollars each: twenty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one hundred dollars, and of the value of one hundred dollars each: thirty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of fifty dollars, and of the value of fifty dollars each: fifty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of twenty dollars, and of the value of twenty dollars each: sixty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of ten dollars, and of the value of ten dollars each: eighty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of five dollars, and of the value of five dollars each: ninety promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of three dollars, and of the value of three dollars each: one hundred promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of two dollars, and of the value of two dollars each: one hundred and twenty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one dollar, and of the value of one dollar each: one promissory note for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of one hundred dollars: one promissory note for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of fifty dollars: two promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of twenty dollars each: three promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of ten dollars each: ten promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of five dollars each: ten promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of three dollars each: fifteen promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of two dollars each: thirty promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of one dollar each: bank bills of banks to the jurors aforesaid unknown, and of a number and denomination to the jurors aforesaid unknown, of the value of one thousand dollars. Two gold coins (of the kind usually known as double eagles), of the value of twenty dollars each: three gold coins (of the kind usually known as eagles), of the value of ten dollars each: six gold coins (of the kind usually known as quarter eagles), of the value of five dollars each: fifteen gold coins (of the kind usually known as three dollar pieces), of the value of three dollars each: thirty gold coins (of the kind usually known as dollar pieces), of the value of one dollar each: gold coin of the denomination to the jurors unknown, and a more particular description whereof cannot be given, of the value of one thousand dollars. Sixty silver coins (of the kind usually known as half dollars), of the value of fifty cents each: one hundred and fifty silver coins (of the kind usually known as quarter dollars), of the value of twenty-five cents each: three hundred silver coins (of the kind usually called dimes), of the value of ten cents each: six hundred silver coins (of the kind usually known as half dimes), of the value of five cents each: one thousand silver coins (of the kind known as three cent pieces), of the value of three cents each: silver coin of a denomination to the jurors unknown, and a more particular description whereof cannot be given, of the value of fifty dollars. Three thousand coins (of the kind known as cents), of the value of one cent each: five hundred coins (of the kind known as two cents), of the value of two cents each. One hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of fifty cents each, and of the marketable value of fifty cents each: two hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of twenty-five cents each, and of the marketable value of twenty-five cents each: five hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of ten cents each, and of the marketable value of ten cents each, and

three keys of the value of fifty cents each

of the goods, chattels, and personal property of Louis Werckle

Louis Werckle in the said dwelling house of one Louis Werckle, then and there being found in the dwelling-house aforesaid, then and there feloniously did steal, take, and carry away, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

4th Count

~~and THE JURORS OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,~~
~~in and for the body of the City and County of New York,~~
upon their Oath, ~~do~~ ^{aforsaid} ~~do~~ further present:

That James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Coakley, Peter Suthy and John Nugent late of the fifteenth Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid, on the Twenty Seventh day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-Eight with force and arms, about the hour of Six o'clock in the Day time of the same day, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, the dwelling house of

Louis Werckle there situate, feloniously and burglariously did break into and enter ~~by means of~~ ^{by means of} they the said ~~James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Coakley, Peter Suthy and John Nugent being then and there actually present, confederating together, aiding and assisting each the other, conspiring~~ whilst there was then and there some human being to wit, one Louis Werckle within the said dwelling house by the said ~~James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Coakley, Peter Suthy, and John Nugent,~~ then and there intending to commit some crime therein, to wit: the goods, chattels, and personal property of The Manhattan Savings Institution in the said dwelling house then and there being, then and there feloniously and burglariously to steal, take and carry away, ~~and~~ ^{and} ~~the sum of~~ ^{the sum of} three promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one thousand dollars, and of the value of one thousand dollars each: three promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of five hundred dollars, and of the value of five hundred dollars each: twenty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one hundred dollars, and of the value of one hundred dollars each: thirty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of fifty dollars, and of the value of fifty dollars each: fifty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of twenty dollars, and of the value of twenty dollars each: sixty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of ten dollars, and of the value of ten dollars each: eighty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of five dollars, and of the value of five dollars each: ninety promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of three dollars, and of the value of three dollars each: one hundred promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of two dollars, and of the value of two dollars each: the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one dollar, and of the value of one dollar each: one promissory note for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of one hundred dollars: one promissory note for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of fifty dollars: two promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of ten dollars each: ten promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of five dollars each: ten promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of three dollars each: fifteen promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of two dollars each: thirty promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of one dollar each: bank bills of banks to the jurors aforesaid unknown, and of a number and denomination to the jurors aforesaid unknown, of the value of one thousand dollars. Two gold coins (of the kind usually known as double eagles), of the value of twenty dollars each: three gold coins (of the kind usually known as eagles), of the value of ten dollars each: six gold coins (of the kind usually known as half eagles), of the value of five dollars each: fifteen gold coins (of the kind usually known as quarter eagles), of the value of two dollars and fifty cents each: ten gold coins (of the kind usually known as three dollar pieces), of the value of three dollars each: thirty gold coins (of the kind usually known as dollar pieces), of the value of one dollar each: gold coin of the denomination to the jurors unknown, and a more particular description whereof cannot be given, of the value of one thousand dollars. Sixty silver coins (of the kind usually known as half dollars), of the value of fifty cents each: one hundred and fifty silver coins (of the kind usually known as quarter dollars), of the value of twenty-five cents each: three hundred silver coins (of the kind usually known as dimes), of the value of ten cents each: six hundred silver coins (of the kind usually known as half dimes), of the value of five cents each: one thousand silver coins (of the kind known as three cent pieces), of the value of three cents each: silver coin of a denomination to the jurors unknown, and a more particular description whereof cannot be given, of the value of fifty dollars. Three thousand coins (of the kind known as cents), of the value of one cent each: five hundred coins (of the kind known as two cents), of the value of two cents each. One hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of fifty cents each, and of the marketable value of fifty cents each: two hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of twenty-five cents each, and of the marketable value of twenty-five cents each: five hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of ten cents each, and of the marketable value of ten cents each, ~~and~~ ^{and} ~~the sum of~~ ^{the sum of} three keys of the value of fifty cents each.

of the goods, chattels, and personal property of The Manhattan Savings Institution in the said dwelling house of one Louis Werckle, then and there being found in the dwelling-house aforesaid, then and there feloniously did steal, take, and carry away, against the form of the Statute made and provided, and against the laws of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

WITNESSES AND JURORS AND JURY

Aforesaid

And THE JURORS OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,
~~in and for the City and County of New York~~
upon their Oath, Aforesaid do further present:

of the Court

That James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Coakley, Peter Luthy and John Nugent

late of the fifteenth Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid,

on the twenty seventh day of October in the year

of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy- Eight

with force and arms, about the hour of six o'clock in the day time of the same day, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, the dwelling house of

Louis Werckle

there situate, feloniously and burglariously did break into and enter by ~~means~~ by means they the said James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Coakley, Peter Luthy and John Nugent being then and there armed with a dangerous weapon of the kind commonly called a pistol whilst there was then and there some human being to wit, one

Louis Werckle within the said dwelling house the said James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Coakley, Peter Luthy and John Nugent

then and there intending to commit some crime therein, to wit: the goods, chattels, and

personal property of The Manhattan Savings Institution

in the said dwelling house then and there being, then and there feloniously and burglariously to steal, take and carry away, ~~against the form of~~ and

and arms, three promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one thousand dollars, and of the value of one thousand dollars each: three promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of five hundred dollars, and of the value of five hundred dollars each: twenty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one hundred dollars, and of the value of one hundred dollars each: thirty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of fifty dollars, and of the value of fifty dollars each: fifty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of twenty dollars, and of the value of twenty dollars each: sixty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of ten dollars, and of the value of ten dollars each: eighty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of five dollars, and of the value of five dollars each: ninety promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of three dollars, and of the value of three dollars each: one hundred promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of two dollars, and of the value of two dollars each: one hundred and twenty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one dollar, and of the value of one dollar each: one promissory note for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of one hundred dollars: one promissory note for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of fifty dollars: two promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied of the value of twenty dollars each: three promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of ten dollars each: ten promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of five dollars each: ten promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of three dollars each: fifteen promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of two dollars each: thirty promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of one dollar each: bank bills of banks to the jurors aforesaid unknown, and of a number and denomination to the jurors aforesaid unknown, of the value of one thousand dollars. Two gold coins (of the kind usually known as double eagles), of the value of twenty dollars each: three gold coins (of the kind usually known as eagles), of the value of ten dollars each: six gold coins (of the kind usually known as half eagles), of the value of five dollars each: fifteen gold coins (of the kind usually known as quarter eagles), of the value of two dollars and fifty cents each: ten gold coins (of the kind usually known as three dollar pieces), of the value of three dollars each: thirty gold coins (of the kind usually known as dollar pieces), of the value of one dollar each: gold coin of the denomination to the jurors unknown, and a more particular description whereof cannot be given, of the value of one thousand dollars. Sixty silver coins (of the kind usually known as dollars), of the value of one dollar each: sixty silver coins (of the kind usually known as quarter dollars), of the value of twenty-five cents each: three hundred silver coins (of the kind usually called dimes), of the value of ten cents each: six hundred silver coins (of the kind usually known as half dimes), of the value of five cents each: one thousand silver coins (of the kind known as three cent pieces), of the value of three cents each: silver coin of a denomination to the jurors unknown, and a more particular description whereof cannot be given, of the value of fifty dollars. Three thousand coins (of the kind known as cents), of the value of one cent each: five hundred coins (of the kind known as two cents), of the value of two cents each. One hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of fifty cents each, and of the marketable value of fifty cents each: two hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of twenty-five cents each, and of the marketable value of twenty-five cents each: five hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of ten cents each, and of the marketable value of ten cents each, and

three keys of the value of fifty cents each

of the goods, chattels, and personal property of The Manhattan Savings Institution

Louis Werckle in the said dwelling house of one

in the dwelling-house aforesaid, then and there feloniously did steal, take, and carry

away, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK

Aforesaid

THE JURORS OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

upon their Oath, Aforesaid do further present:

6th Court

That James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Coakley, Peter Suthy and John Nugent

late of the fifteenth Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid,

on the twenty seventh day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight,

with force and arms, about the hour of six o'clock in the day time of the same day, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, the dwelling house of

Louis Werckle

there situate, feloniously and burglariously did break into and enter by means they the said James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Coakley, Peter Suthy and John Nugent being then and there armed with a dangerous weapon of the kind commonly called a pistol, whilst there was then and there some human being to wit, one

Louis Werckle within the said dwelling house they the said James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Coakley, Peter Suthy and John Nugent then and there intending to commit some crime therein, to wit: the goods, chattels, and personal property of Louis Werckle in the said dwelling house then and there being, then and

there feloniously and burglariously to steal, take and carry away, ~~against the form~~

three promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one thousand dollars, and of the value of one thousand dollars each: three promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of five hundred dollars, and of the value of five hundred dollars each: twenty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one hundred dollars, and of the value of one hundred dollars each: thirty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of fifty dollars, and of the value of fifty dollars each: fifty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of twenty dollars, and of the value of twenty dollars each: sixty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of ten dollars, and of the value of ten dollars each: eighty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of five dollars, and of the value of five dollars each: ninety promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of three dollars, and of the value of three dollars each: one hundred promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of two dollars, and of the value of two dollars each: one hundred and twenty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one dollar, and of the value of one dollar each: one promissory note for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of one hundred dollars: one promissory note for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of fifty dollars: two promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of twenty dollars each: three promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of ten dollars each: ten promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of five dollars each: ten promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of three dollars each: fifteen promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of two dollars each: thirty promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of one dollar each: bank bills of banks to the jurors aforesaid unknown, and of a number and denomination to the jurors aforesaid unknown, of the value of one thousand dollars. Two gold coins (of the kind usually known as double eagles), of the value of twenty dollars each: three gold coins (of the kind usually known as eagles), of the value of ten dollars each: six gold coins (of the kind usually known as half eagles), of the value of five dollars each: fifteen gold coins (of the kind usually known as quarter eagles), of the value of two dollars and fifty cents each: ten gold coins (of the kind usually known as three dollar pieces), of the value of three dollars each: thirty gold coins (of the kind usually known as dollar pieces), of the value of one dollar each: gold coin of the denomination to the jurors unknown, and a more particular description whereof cannot be given, of the value of one thousand dollars. Sixty silver coins (of the kind usually known as dollars), of the value of one dollar each: sixty silver coins (of the kind usually known as half dollars), of the value of fifty cents each: one hundred and fifty silver coins (of the kind usually known as quarter dollars), of the value of twenty-five cents each: three hundred silver coins (of the kind usually called dimes), of the value of ten cents each: six hundred silver coins (of the kind usually known as half dimes), of the value of five cents each: one thousand silver coins (of the kind known as three cent pieces), of the value of three cents each: silver coin of a denomination to the jurors unknown, and a more particular description whereof cannot be given, of the value of fifty dollars. Three thousand coins (of the kind known as cents), of the value of one cent each: five hundred coins (of the kind known as two cents), of the value of two cents each. One hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of fifty cents each, and of the marketable value of fifty cents each: two hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of twenty-five cents each, and of the marketable value of twenty-five cents each: five hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of ten cents each, and of the marketable value of ten cents each, and

Three keys of the value of fifty cents, each.

of the goods, chattels, and personal property of Louis Werckle

Louis Werckle in the said dwelling house of one in the dwelling-house aforesaid, then and there being found away, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

0200

~~CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK~~

aforesaid

and THE JURORS ~~OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK~~
~~in and for the body of the City and County of New York~~ upon their Oath, aforesaid, be further present:

Count

That James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham
Coakley, Peter Luthy and John Nugent
late of the fifteenth Ward of the City of New York, in the County of
New York, aforesaid,

on the twenty seventh day of October in the year
of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight with force and arms, about the hour of two o'clock in the day time
of the same day, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, the dwelling house of

Louis Werckle

there situate, feloniously and burglariously did break into and enter ~~by means of~~ they, the said James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Coakley, Peter Luthy, and John Nugent, being then and there armed with a danger and ~~weapon~~ of the kind commonly called a pistol whilst there was then and there some human being to wit, one Louis Werckle within the said dwelling house ~~the~~ the said

James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly
Abraham Coakley, Peter Luthy and John Nugent then and there intending to commit some crime there in, to wit, with force and arms, unlawfully to assault and beat one Louis Werckle against the peace of the people of the State of New York and their dignity.

0201

Cour
Filed Plac

8th Court

And the jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do further present: That afterwards, to wit, on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, about the hour of six o'clock in the day time of said day, the said James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Coakley, Peter Suthy and John Nugent, late of the Ward, City, and County aforesaid, the dwelling house of Louis Wercle

there situate, feloniously and burglariously did break into and enter ~~the premises~~ They the said James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Coakley, Peter Suthy and John Nugent, being then and there actually present confederating together, aiding and assisting each the other whilst there was then and there some human being to wit, one

Louis Wercle within the said dwelling house/the said James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Coakley, Peter Suthy and John Nugent

then and there intending to commit some crime therein, to wit: ~~the same crimes, and~~ with force and arms, unlawfully to assault and beat one Louis Wercle against the peace of the people of the State of New York and their dignity.

THE JURORS OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, in and for the body of the City and County of New York, upon their Oath, present:

That

9th Court.

and the Jurors aforesaid upon their Oath aforesaid, do further present:

That James Hope, John Hope, William Kelly, Abraham Coakley, Peter Luthy and John Nugent

late of the Fifteenth Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid, on the twenty seventh day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy eight with force and arms, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, the Building of The Manhattan Savings Institution there situate, feloniously and burglariously, did break into and enter, the same being a building in which divers goods, merchandise, and valuable things were then and there kept for use, sale and deposit, to wit: the goods, chattels, and personal property hereinafter described, with intent the said goods, chattels, and personal property of the said The Manhattan Savings Institution then and there therein being, then and there feloniously and burglariously to steal, take and carry away, and three keys of the value of fifty cents each of five hundred dollars each: twenty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one hundred dollars, and of the value of one hundred dollars each: thirty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of fifty dollars, and of the value of fifty dollars each: fifty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of twenty dollars, and of the value of twenty dollars each: sixty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of ten dollars, and of the value of ten dollars each: eighty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of five dollars, and of the value of five dollars each: ninety promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of three dollars, and of the value of three dollars each: one hundred promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of two dollars, and of the value of two dollars each: one hundred and twenty promissory notes for the payment of money, being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as United States Treasury Notes), of the denomination of one dollar, and of the value of one dollar each: one promissory note for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of one hundred dollars: one promissory note for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of fifty dollars: two promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of twenty dollars each: three promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of ten dollars each: ten promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of five dollars each: ten promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of three dollars each: fifteen promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of two dollars each: thirty promissory notes for the payment of money (and of the kind known as bank notes), being then and there due and unsatisfied, of the value of one dollar each: bank bills of banks to the jurors aforesaid unknown, and of a number and denomination to the jurors aforesaid unknown, of the value of one thousand dollars. Two gold coins (of the kind usually known as double eagles), of the value of twenty dollars each: three gold coins (of the kind usually known as eagles), of the value of ten dollars each: six gold coins (of the kind usually known as half eagles), of the value of five dollars each: fifteen gold coins (of the kind usually known as quarter eagles), of the value of two dollars and fifty cents each: ten gold coins (of the kind usually known as three dollar pieces), of the value of three dollars each: thirty gold coins (of the kind usually known as dollar pieces), of the value of one dollar each: gold coin of the denomination to the jurors unknown, and a more particular description whereof cannot be given, of the value of one thousand dollars. Sixty silver coins (of the kind usually known as dollars), of the value of one dollar each: sixty silver coins (of the kind usually known as half dollars), of the value of fifty cents each: one hundred and fifty silver coins (of the kind usually known as quarter dollars), of the value of twenty-five cents each: three hundred silver coins (of the kind usually known as dimes), of the value of ten cents each: six hundred silver coins (of the kind usually known as half dimes), of the value of five cents each: one thousand silver coins (of the kind known as three cent pieces), of the value of three cents each: silver coin of a denomination to the jurors unknown, and a more particular description whereof cannot be given, of the value of fifty dollars. Three thousand coins (of the kind known as cents), of the value of one cent each: five hundred coins (of the kind known as two cents), of the value of two cents each. One hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of fifty cents each, and of the marketable value of fifty cents each: two hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of twenty-five cents each, and of the marketable value of twenty-five cents each: five hundred due bills of the United States of America, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied (and of the kind known as fractional currency), of the denomination of ten cents each, and of the marketable value of ten cents each, of the goods, chattels, and personal property of the said Manhattan Savings Institution

so kept as aforesaid in the said building then and there being, then and there feloniously did steal, take and carry away, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

BENJ. K. PHELPS, District Attorney.

0203

BOX:

4

FOLDER:

51

DESCRIPTION:

Howard, Frank

DATE:

01/09/80

51

0204

Counsel,
Filed 9 day of Nov 1880
Pleads

THE PEOPLE

#

vs.

Frank Howard

BENJ. K. PHELPS,

District Attorney.

Larceny, and Receiving Stolen Goods.

A True Bill

W. H. King
Nov 12 1880 Ex. Min.

S. P. Two years & 6 mo
Prison

0205

FORM 89 1/2

STATE OF NEW YORK,
CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

POLICE COURT—SECOND DISTRICT.

of No. 90 Grand 31 Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 31 day of January 1880
at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away, from the possession of deponent,

John H Escher

the following property, to wit:

Forty five yards of Black Silk of the value of forty dollars — $40.00

of the value of

the property of Reece M Oberkuffer, Henry Abegg, Emile Walli, and Henry H Deniker—customers doing business at said St. and Street said property being in the care and charge of deponent as clerk

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Frank Howard (now here)

from the fact that deponent caught said Frank Howard at about the hour of 2 o'clock on said day in the act of taking stealing and carrying away the above described property from the premises aforesaid.
Deponent further says that at the time he caught said property Howard he had the above described property concealed under his coat, and was in the act of leaving said premises, and he therefore charges the said Howard with feloniously taking and stealing said property.

J.H. Escher

Sworn before me, this

31 of January

1880 day

McDonald
Police Justice

0206

Police Court—Second District.

CITY AND COUNTY }
OF NEW YORK, } RR.

Frank Howard being duly examined before the undersigned, according to law, on the annexed charge; and being informed that he is at liberty to refuse to answer any question that may be put to him, states as follows, viz.:

Question.—What is your name?

Answer.— Frank Howard

Question.—How old are you?

Answer.— 22 years

Question.—Where were you born?

Answer.— New York.

Question.—Where do you live?

Answer.— 18 East 3^d Street

Question.—What is your occupation?

Answer.— Clerk.

Question.—Have you anything to say, and if so, what—relative to the charge here preferred against you?

Answer.— I am not guilty.
Frank Howard

Taken before me, this
3^d
2
day of January 18*80*,
M. W. O'Sullivan
Police Justice.

0207

FORM 891.

POLICE COURT—SECOND DISTRICT.

THE PEOPLE, & C., ON THE COMPLAINT OF

John H. Escher
90 Grand St.
Frank Howard

Affidavit—Larceny.

DAILED January 3d 1880.

Metterburg MAGISTRATE.

Jas Moore OFFICER.
8th Precinct

WITNESS:

$1000 TO ANS. General Service

BAILED BY

NO. STREET.

0208

CITY AND COUNTY } ss.
OF NEW YORK, }

THE JURORS OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,
in and for the body of the City and County of New York,
upon their Oath, present:

That Frank Howard -

late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid, on the Third day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and Eighty at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms.

Forty five yards of silk of the value of one dollar each yard -

of the goods, chattels, and personal property of one Nesse M Oberlueffer,
then and there being found, feloniously did steal, take and carry away, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

0209

And the Jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do further present

That the said

Frank Howard

late of the Ward, City, and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, with force and arms, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid,

Forty five yards of silk of the value of one dollar each yard of the goods, chattels, and personal property of the said

Niece M Oberkuffer

by a certain person or persons to the Jurors aforesaid unknown, then lately before feloniously stolen of the said

Niece M Oberkuffer

unlawfully, unjustly, and for the sake of wicked gain, did feloniously receive and have (the said

Frank Howard

then and there well knowing the said goods, chattels, and personal property, to have been feloniously stolen,) against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

BENJAMIN K. PHELPS, District Attorney.

02 10

BOX:

4

FOLDER:

51

DESCRIPTION:

Hughes, William

DATE:

01/14/80

51

0211

4

Filed 11 day of Jan 18*80*

Pleads,

THE PEOPLE

vs.

William Hughes
1st

ROBBERY.—First Degree.

BENJ. K. PHELPS,

District Attorney.

A True Bill.

W. H. King

Foreman.

W. H. King

W. H. King
State Reformatory & Prison.

0212

Form 123.

STATE OF NEW YORK,
CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, } ss.:

Police Court - Second District.

Maria V. Ruschka

of No. 186 Orchard Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 2^d day of January 18*80*,

at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away from the person of deponent, by force and violence, and against the will of deponent, the following property, viz.:

and from the person of deponent, the following property, viz. - One silver double case watch of the value of thirteen dollars, and one plated case of Pen. of the value of two dollars, all being

of the value of thirteen dollars

dollars

the property of deponent

dollars,

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away, by force and violence, and against his will, by

William Hughes (nephew) and another man unknown to deponent for the following reasons - to wit:

That on the morning of said date and about the hour of 2.30 o'clock deponent was passing through Eldridge Street in said city, and when near Stanton Street, deponent saw said Hughes and said unknown man in company with each other and approaching deponent whom they attacked deponent by taking hold of him by the coat

deposited before me this

1887
Police Court

0213 collar - That said Hughes and said man - known man Thompson seized Depew and ^{deliberately} violently and forcibly and against the will of Depew took from the belt pocket, then and there were as a part of Depew's clothing, the said watch and from the watch, a key ring on the person of Depew, the said watch, and that Depew then grasped the said Hughes and they both fell to the ground, and at the same time said man known as man known as said Hughes that Depew and Depew were lying on the sidewalk together when Officer Charles Bennett of the 17th Precinct Police arrested said Depew therefore charges the said Hughes and the said man known person with acting together and in concert in committing said robbery.

Shown to before me this } 7th day of January 1880 }
 Charles Bennett

Police Justice.

City and County of }
 New York } ss.

Charles Bennett
 an officer attached to the 17th Precinct Police being duly sworn deposes and says that on the morning of the 2nd

0214

Police Court—Third District.

CITY AND COUNTY } ss.
OF NEW YORK, }

William Hughes being duly examined before the undersigned, according to law, on the annexed charge; and being informed that he was at liberty to answer, or not, all or any questions put to him, states as follows, viz.:

Question.—What is your name?

Answer.— William Hughes

Question.—How old are you?

Answer.— 22 years

Question.—Where were you born?

Answer.— N.Y. City

Question.—Where do you live?

Answer.— 188 Eldridge St.

Question.—What is your occupation?

Answer.— Licensed Vendor

Question.—Have you anything to say, and if so, what—relative to the charge here preferred against you?

Answer.— I am not guilty. I was coming from a call at Hudson St in a beer saloon in a basement opposite Suffolk St. & when coming along Hudson on my way home I saw two men fighting, one ran away & the complainant & I was arrested. I don't know the other man, the complainant & I were both somewhat intoxicated. I was arrested for disorderly conduct & for nothing else

William Hughes

Taken before me, this

Wm. A. Shaw

day of February 1888

Police Justice.

0215 day of January 1880, at about the hour of 2.30 or thereabouts he was on duty in Hannover Street near First Avenue when he heard the cries of Police. -

Deponent then ran to Colindale Street and there found the complainant
in the sitting room (Kaisa Muschka)
on the sidewalk and the defendant William Douglas on top of said complainant. Said complainant charged the said Douglas with robbing him - Deponent arrested said Douglas and thereafter found the mark of skin, described in the annexed affidavit,
on the sidewalk.

sworn to before me this 1st day of January 1880, at New York.

John C. F. ...
Notary Public

0216

Form 123

POLICE COURT—SECOND DISTRICT.

THE PEOPLE, & C.,

ON THE COMPLAINT OF

Alvis Newcomb
vs.
William Hughes

Affidavit—Robbery.

Dated January 20 18*80*

C. J. Manning Magistrate.
Detention Officer.

Witness, Charles Benson
17th

$ 2000 to ans. A. J.

Bailed by

No.

Street.

0217

CITY AND COUNTY }
OF NEW YORK, } MR.

THE JURORS OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,
in and for the body of the City and County of New York,
upon their Oath, present:

That William Hughes,

late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid, on the second day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ~~eighty~~ Eighty at the Ward, City, and County aforesaid, with force and arms, in the night time of said day, in and upon one Alois Groschka

in the peace of the said People then and there being, feloniously did make an assault and

the value of the value of fourteen dollars, the sum of the value of one dollar.

of the goods, chattels and personal property of the said Alois Groschka

from the person of said Alois Groschka and against the will and by violence to the person of the said Alois Groschka

then and there violently and feloniously did rob, steal, take and carry away, against
the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

BENJ. K. PHELPS, District Attorney.