Thomas Fitzpatrick

Court of General Sessions Part First.
Before Recorder Smythe Nov. 30. 1881

Indictment for assault and battery.

Andrew Byrne, sworn. I live 256 Avenue B in this city, I was living there last April. I know Thomas and Michael Fitzpatrick, John Murphy and Charles Jones, on the night of the 11th of April I saw Thomas Fitzpatrick with nine or ten more on the corner of Ninth Avenue and Thirteenth St. standing under an awning. I have known Thomas Fitzpatrick perhaps seven or eight years. I was a policeman and became acquainted with him while I was on the force. I have known the others about the same length of time and have had an opportunity to become well acquainted with them. On the night of the 11th of April about eight o'clock in the evening I had been to visit a friend at 23rd Street and Ninth Avenue and he and I walked out of his house together. We had got a few yards from the door when I noticed this crowd standing on the corner and they made a rush for me. My friend's name is Henry Schreiber. Thomas Fitzpatrick struck me a heavy blow under the right eye with something hard, some hard substance which he had in his hand. Before the prisoner struck me he said something about son of a b—h and killing my brother. I suppose he referred to two of his brothers who were sent to the penitentiary for assaulting me. I was surrounded by the crowd, beaten, knocked down and kicked. Both of my eyes were black, my head and face were cut, and my body was all over bruises. I was unable to work for two weeks. I positively recognize four in the crowd—Michael and Thomas Fitzpatrick, John Murphy and Charles Jones. I did not speak a word to any of them before I was struck. Michael Fitzpatrick caught hold of Mr. Schreiber. The assault did not take three minutes. After they knocked me down and kicked me Thomas Fitzpatrick held me by the throat and dug his knuckles into my neck and twisted my necktie until it broke. Mr. Fox came out of the house and I believe they ran away when they saw him. I was pretty well used up at that time. I was lying on the ground. Mr. Fox lifted me up. Cross Examined I was dismissed from the Police force some time in 1876 on the complaint of Capt. Kennedy, but it was not for perjury.

0684

I was tried on two charges. I do not remember of a witness named Rush that was sworn. On the night I was beaten I had no weapon in my hand such as I am shown [a stone tied up in a blue handkerchief]. I have not been on the police force since. I swear that the two Fitzpatricks and Murphy and Jones took part in the assault. Henry C. Schreiber sworn. I live at 23 Ninth Avenue. I am acquainted with Byrne and was with him on the evening of the 11th of April. About 7 o'clock he and I left the house. As we came outside we saw a crowd on the corner and anticipated trouble. As we approached the corner they approached us. I distinctly recognized Thomas and Michael Fitzpatrick. Then Thomas got hold of Byrne. I told him to let that man alone, but he paid no attention. I tried to get Byrne away. I said, "Tom, let that man alone, you will only get in trouble". His brother Mike (Michael) came and got hold of me and threatened me. Thomas used threatening words to Byrne but I could not distinctly understand the words. They both were assaulting him and knocked him down. I turned round and went into the house then. I thought I would get the same thing. I wanted to get a stick to put in a rap, but being excited I could not find it, to get an officer. My brother-in-law came out. When I started to go in they were dragging him around barrels and were kicking him. Neither Byrne or myself said a word to any of them before they struck him, nor did Byrne make any threatening motion. The last I saw of him was when he was on the ground. My brother-in-law saw the balance Cross Examined. I remember the trial of Byrne before Commissioner Smith; it was sometime ago. You remember you were his main witness then? Yes, I believe I was a witness. William Fox sworn. I live at 23 Ninth Avenue, on the evening of the 11th of April about 8 o'clock I saw Andrew Byrne in the house having tea with us and afterwards I found him lying in front of the house on the sidewalk. I saw three or four men, but it was so dark that I could not see their faces; as soon as I approached them they turned away. I lifted Byrne up; it was pretty hard to tell the appearance of his face and head until he was washed. Both his eyes were black and shirt and vest covered with blood.

0685

0686

John Flanagan sworn. I am a member of the police force of this city. I did not arrest Thomas Fitzpatrick for seven or eight days after the assault; he came and gave himself up. We had a warrant; he came to the station house and gave himself up. I was present when he was arraigned at the Police Court. Andrew Byrne recalled. I was tried upon a charge of failing to make a proper complaint against a prisoner I arrested for violating the Excise law. I think there was a witness examined in that case named Joroslowski. I was dismissed for drinking a glass of lager beer while on duty. I tested it in the Courts. Thomas Fitzpatrick, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I knew Byrne. On the evening of the 11th of April I was standing on the corner of Thirteenth St. and Ninth Ave; and Byrne walked past me two or three times before he went in the store. I asked him what he was looking at? He came out again with his friend Schriber and came up to me and wanted to know what I said to him going in? The first thing I knew he he lifted his hand and with that weapon there struck me on the top of the head. (Witness pointed to a stone in a handkerchief)

0687

Then my brother came up and seen it and took it out of his hand. I hit him back; the scuffle lasted about 15 minutes, then a crowd gathered, about seven, I should think. I went away and afterwards I tendered myself about six days afterwards. My brother Michael was arrested the next day. He flew which the complainant gave me knocked me off my feet. The mark is on me now. I did not have hold of him when he struck me, but afterwards I did when we were getting up together. I hit him after I got up from the ground. Cross Examined. I knew there was a warrant out against me when I gave myself up. There was nobody standing with me when Byrne came out of the store; my brother was standing about fifteen feet away. I did not see him and did not know he was there. There was no one with me when I struck Byrne, but Mr. Schreiber was with him. I have known Byrne a good many years, I knew him when he was on the police force. I did not make threats against him because of his having my brother sent to the penitentiary. I have not served a term in the penitentiary nor in the State prison for an assault or for anything else. I have been arrested by officer

0688

Byrne for assault and after that I made an assault upon him which has not yet been brought to trial. My brother was running over towards me when Byrne hit me with the stone. Byrne was knocked down the second time I hit him, the first time I did not. I did not kick him. I don't know what my brother did. I gave him two blows. I did not see Byrne lying on the ground with his face all covered over with dirt and mud. I know Mr. Fox. I did not see him coming out of the house. When Byrne first went into Schreiber's house he stayed I guess it was three quarters of an hour or half an hour. I stayed on the corner all that time. Michael Fitzpatrick sworn. I live 430 West Thirtieth St. I used to drive for my brother up to last week. I am driving now for Mr. Welsh the stevedore. I was not present this night of the assault at the moment. I went down Little Twelfth St. and Ninth Avenue. I seen the scuffle and ran up. I seen Schreiber holding my brother Tom. I says, "go away." I saw blood coming out of his head like anything. I shoved Schreiber away and then Tom hit Byrne. Then I got hold of that machine there (the stone in the handkerchief) when I seen Byrne trying to get another shot at my brother. I solemnly swear I took it out of his hand.

0689

I saw him hit with a stone while I was running up. It was not dark, I think it was about 20 minutes to eight o'clock. I saw that Byrnes' face was cut and bloody. Then I seen what he done to my brother I was one of the parties that helped to kick him. I dont know how many other parties he has arrested for this. There might have been eight or nine standing around the scuffle might have lasted about 12 minutes. I said to Schreiber, "Do you want to kill another brother of mine?" I did not see Mr. Fox come out of the house, but I saw Byrne walk into Fox's lapa beer saloon. I walked towards Twelfth St. Where did your friends go? They all went away; they thought the police were coming to arrest them. Edward Murphy sworn. I am a junior of a college, I turned the corner of Thirteenth St. I saw the men wrangling and saw Byrnes with a heavy black thing over his head (resembling the stone in the handkerchief). I saw him strike the prisoner with it on the top of his head; his brother ran over and grabbed him. I am a brother of John Murphy, one of the parties charged here. John Murphy sworn. I dont know anything about the grand and have four men here to prove where I was that night. Charles Jones testified to the same state of facts. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty with a recommendation to mercy.
